A Good School.—Attention is called to an advertisement, in another column, of the Holmes English and Business College, of Portland, Oregon. This institution has probably educated more young men and women for business, and found them employment, than all the schools of that kind in the Northwest. Miss Holmes, in addition to being assisted by an able corps of six teachers, gives her entire time to the up building of the school and everything that can add to the students advancement and comfort is provided. The school maintains six departments, namely: Three years course in English branches, a course in book-keeping, penmanship, shorthand, typewriting and telegraphy. The Holmes college is a Christian institution and has at heart not only the mental but the moral and the physical welfare of the students intrusted to its care. The principal has given much thought to the home life of students and is able to provide safe and comfortable rooms at a low cost. The past years of business depression has impressed upon the minds of all the necessity for practical education and never in the history of the country has the work of the thorough business college been so much appreciated as to-day.

Church Notes.

The following themes will be presented from the pulpit of the Congregational church next Sabbath at 10:30 a. m. "Christian Liberty;" at 7:30, "Young People and Amusements," being the sixth in the series to young people. Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Hall's Lecture.

"America in the 20th Century is one of the most interesting lectures by one of the most eloquent orators of the day. It will be presented in the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, Dec. 1st, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents.

Miss Rose Scheeland, of the LaMode Parlors, 349 1/2 Morrison streets, Portland, between Seventh and Park, has the finest line of millinery goods kept in the city. Don't fail to see her elegant stock when in Portland. It is a veritable bazaar within itself.

WANTED.—$300 or $350 for two or three years, good security. Address "Security," this office.

If you want a nice steak, roast or boil call at Albrig's shop and get some of his cold-storage meat which is acknowledged by all to be superior to the meats commonly sold at butchers' shops. He also keeps on hand a full stock of lard, hams, bacon, etc., made by himself and warranted purest and wholesome. Remember the old established shop on M. Street.

Christmas is coming and every one of us likes to get a little present whether of value to us or not, but if we are the giver it lays decidedly in our hands to stretch our little expenditure for some dear one as far as possible in the region of usefulness. Take for instance toys—they are for a day—and your gift is forgotten. But if you buy a rocking chair of Bellomy & Bosch it is a present for all time; by a little extra care it may be serviceable for their children's children.

A Companion For All Ages.

A gentleman who used to read THE YOUTH'S COMPANION when a boy, and reads it with the same interest now that he is a middle-aged man, was asked the other day if he had not outgrown THE COMPANION. "I don't believe," said he, "that I can ever outgrow it. I find in it not only the cheery, hopeful spirit of youth, but the wisdom and experience of age. I like it just as much as when I was a boy, though perhaps in a different way. But I know that it is the same YOUTH'S COMPANION with which I grew up, for my boys and girls like it as well as ever I did. It is a good paper to grow up with."

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION will contain the best thought of the best thinkers of America and Europe during 1898. It will print serial and short stories of absorbing interest, and true tales of adventure. The various departments of the paper will be a current record of the best work that is being done in the world. Present readers of THE COMPANION who renew their subscriptions, and all new subscribers, will receive free a beautiful illustrated calendar, printed in twelve colors, and embossed in gold. It is the richest and costliest calendar ever sent to COMPANION subscribers. New subscribers will receive THE COMPANION every week from the time the subscription is received until January, 1898, and then for a full year to January, 1899.

An illustrated prospectus of THE COMPANION for 1898 may be had by addressing:

WHY IS IT...

That every day our store is filled with buyers from every part of the city, regardless of distance? There must be some reason. People—especially ladies—don't go out of their way to buy unless there is a reason.

IT IS BECAUSE we have established a reputation for absolutely fresh goods—especially in the line of table delicacies, and our customers are sure of a superior article—and then the prices are right.
