

1884—GREAT SALE—1898

OUR 13th ANNUAL SALE

SALE OPENS FRIDAY AT 9 A. M.

And continue for 30 working days. Every piece, every yard of fine dress goods in stock will be sacrificed. Special attention is called to our Great Black Goods Stock, which has no superior in this city, either in quantity or quality, elegance or beauty. The stock will be at your mercy for the next 30 days. Ladies, now is your time to buy gilded black goods.

...BLACK and COLORED SILKS...

Novelty Silks and Swiss Taffetas, Fine Velvets in Black and Colors, Evening Shades in delicate tints, every yard of which we will include in our Great Sale at ruinous prices.

...EVERY CAPE AND JACKET...

In stock at Half Price. No doubt you have been waiting for this opportunity. We are the losers.

...Blankets, Comforters and Table Linens...

Thousands of pieces of Cotton and Linen Crashes, Fine Irish Linens in bleached and half bleached which will last a life time, all standard brands of bleached Muslins, New York Mills, Waumussuta Mills, Fruit of the Loom, Pride of the Loom, Pride of the West and Lonsdale.

Ladies, now is your time so lay in your supplies. Nothing but first-class goods will be sold or offered for sale.

McALLEN & McDONNELL,  Cop. 31 & Morrison, PORTLAND, OR.

Miss Jennie Gray spent New Year's with her sister in Portland.

Little Martina Parker, who has been seriously ill, is much improved.

Harry Muir has been very sick with typhoid pneumonia during the week.

Mrs. Hatch and daughter, Miss Freda, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kelly.

Misses Elma and Ethel Albright entertained a number of their friends Tuesday evening.

Misses Katherine and Annie Dolan, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday in Oregon City.

Miss Alice Glasspool spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. J. N. Graham, of Portland.

County Clerk Dixon issued a marriage license Jan. 4th to Mary Kallfleisch and E. W. Jones.

William Hankins, the teacher of the Barlow school, spent a portion of his holiday vacation in Washington county.

Register C. B. Moores returned from from Salem yesterday, accompanied by S. M. Ormsby, inspector of forest reserves.

James Shaw, manager of the Dallas woolen mills, was in the city yesterday. He reports the mills doing a rushing business.

Mrs. Labor, accompanied by her daughter, of Riverside, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Porter of Canemah.

The family of J. M. Lawrence left for Portland Saturday, where they will hereafter reside. Mr. H. H. Chase's family has moved into the residence vacated by Mr. Lawrence.

The U. S. fish commission has accepted the offer of George Broughton and Tom Brown to build a hatchery on the Sandy river for taking steelhead salmon, the consideration being $300.

W. G. Hayes, chief clerk of the Electric hotel, received the sad news Sunday that his 5-year old sister had died at Woodburn. Only a few days previous, his 18-year old brother died at the same place of heart failure.

Angly Kallman, a German residing in Borings precinct, was examined before County Judge Hayes Wednesday on a charge of insanity, and was ordered sent to the asylum. He is 41 years old and a bachelor. He imagines that someone is trying to take his property away from him.

The following new actions have been filed with the clerk of the circuit court during the past week; Alfred Sears, jr., vs Richard Glasspool, et al; Dan Lyons vs M. H. Flanagan, et al; Merchants National Bank vs Honorah and J. J. Davoren; Frank S. Grant vs Dell Stuart; William McMaster vs Jesse P. B. Ball; Frank T. Barlow, et al, vs Carrie E. Huerth.

Annual Clearance SHOES Sale! SHOES

Everything in the house reduced. A positive saving of from 10 to 20 per cent. on your footwear. Every article warranted at represented.

COME TO US FOR YOUR SHOES...
...ROSENTHAL'S...
 49 3d St., between Alder and Morrison, PORTLAND, ORE.
KLONDIKE OUTFITTERS

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

G. Taylor and family spent the holidays with relatives at Mount Angel.

Miss Nannie Cochran is now officiating as one of the delivery clerks at the post-office.

Barton Cummins, of Mink, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Luciene Stout, last Sunday.

Mrs. W. D. Edshaw, the Redland postmistress, is expected home from the East soon.

Register C. B. Moores and Receiver William Galloway spent New Year's day in Portland.

Miss Mannie Young, of Corvallis, who was visiting Mrs. H. Oberg, returned home Tuesday.

A. E. Spout, of Yaquina, spent the holidays with his brother, Assessor Luciene Stout.

Mrs. C. W. Armstrong, of Canby, is visiting Mrs. W. A. Starkweather at Concord this week.

Dr. A. L. Boatie, a leading dentist of Pendleton, was visiting relatives in this city during the week.

Will R. King, of Baker City, state senator from Baker county, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holman, of Meadowbrook, visited relatives in Portland during the holidays.

Norman Lilly, a prominent capitalist of Corvallis, was visiting friends in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. T. J. Cleeton, wife of District Attorney Cleeton, left for Southern California this week, where she will spend the winter.

A new postoffice has been established near Mink, with G. A. Schuebel as postmaster. The new office will be ready for business in a few days.

Mrs. C. H. Canfield, Mrs. H. O. Stevens and daughter, Miss Mertie, spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. O. Cheney and Mrs. J. W. Meltrum, near Medrum station.

Ed. Fields, general operator at the S. P. depot is confined to his home with an attack of malaria. In the meantime, S. M. Wiley, of Portland, is officiating in his place, while Mrs. Wiley is visiting her sister.

William Abernethy aged 22 years and 9 months, died Saturday of consumption at the residence of Mrs. Laws, in Falls View addition. The funeral occurred Sunday and the services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery.

Wayne Howard, who now lives in Portland, will leave soon for Skayway, where he in company with other parties will engage in business. Mr. Howard says the great difficulty just now is to get goods transported to Alaska from Portland.

A petition was filed in Superintendent Starkweather's office Monday for a change in the boundary lines of school districts Nos. 98 and 84. The petition asks that 150 acres be taken from No. 98 or Mulvany district, and that the same territory be annexed to No. 84 or Mulino district.

T. M. Campbell, who has been at Juneau for some time past, and is now visiting his family in this city, will leave for Dyea in a few days. He intends to engage in business at Sheep Camp near the summit of Chiloote Pass, and anticipates a big rush to that section in the early spring and summer.

A very good audience greeted the Schmebert Symphony Quartette and Club, Monday night. In fact, there was the largest number of people that have gathered in Shively's hall for many a day. The artists, under whose auspices the troupe appeared, are to be complimented on the success of the performance.

Charles J. Buchanan and Thomas F. Ryan were among the candidates initiated into the Mystic Shriners at Portland last Thursday evening. Each candidate, who becomes a Mystic Shriners must be a 32-degree Mason or Knight Templar. After the initiatory ceremonies a banquet was served, and Chief Rabbi W. E. Carl was one of the speakers.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. met on Tuesday afternoon, and decided to give a basket social on Saturday evening Jan. 13th. There will be a musical program from eight to nine o'clock, to which everybody is invited, free. The baskets will be sold for 20 cents each, and the money will be used to buy new games for the amusement room.

Walt Wyland was the royal Bengal tiger, at Canby, a few nights ago; he cleaned up two marshals, and started in on a big muscular citizen from Marquam precinct, who completely paralyzed him on short order. It is said that if there had been an American flag convenient, the citizens of Canby would have expressed their gratitude by entwining it around the form of the gentleman from Marquam.

The January term of the county court convened Wednesday, and will probably not adjourn until Monday or Tuesday. There is an immense amount of business to transact, besides the regular routine, new road supervisors to appoint, judges and clerks of election to be selected, jury list to be drawn for 1898, etc. The court house was fairly swarmed with road supervisors and candidates for like positions Wednesday. It was a self-evident fact that there are not enough road districts to go around.

E. C. Maddock spent New Year's in New Era precinct.

Born, in this city Jan. 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roake, a son.

William Borings, of Borings, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

William Doores and B. Jones were in from Marquam precinct Tuesday.

Ex-County Commissioner C. Bair, of Needy, is visiting Oregon City this week.

Miss Bertha Butler, of Portland, has been visiting Miss Vesta Broughton.

Rev. Gilman Parker is conducting a revival service at La Grande, Union county.

Coroner Godfrey is confined at his home with an attack of catarrh of the stomach.

Mrs. Priscilla Sparks, of Vancouver, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. C. Bacon.

C. D. Latourette and H. E. Cross went to Salem Tuesday, where they argued cases in the supreme court.

William Buckner, a prominent citizen of Highland precinct, was in Oregon City Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Fleming, deputy state organizer of the Artisans, has been visiting friends in this city for several days past.

Miss Anna Phillips, of this city, is very ill with typhoid fever at the residence of her parents at Clackamas.

Ed. Mack, formerly foreman in the Enterprise office, is now foreman in the Morning Tribune office at Portland.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moody, of Molalla, was visiting her son, M. N. Moody, and Mrs. W. W. H. Samsom, during the week.

C. P. Thore arrived from his Josephine county mines Wednesday morning. He reports the outlook very promising.

W. P. Brooks, who has just completed a term of school in the Holcomb district, will leave for his home near Eugene in a few days.

G. W. Dunlap has closed up his Del Monte restaurant on Main street, for the reason that there are too many restaurants in the city.

Capt. J. T. Apperson, president of the board of regents of the state agricultural college, is attending a meeting of the board at Corvallis.

W. F. Collard, of McMinnville, came down to spend his birthday, which occurred on January 1st, with his sister, Mrs. C. N. Greenman.

Albin Meinig, who was down from Sandy on Monday, reports that the New Year's ball at that place was a grand success, 110 tickets having been sold.

Willie Marshall, of Canemah, until recently, head clerk in Patterson's bazaar, has given up his place, and is now attending the Oregon City high school.

Mrs. H. Oberg and children came down from Salem Tuesday, where they had been visiting for the past ten days. Rev. Oberg returned home from Salem last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller have returned from their wedding trip to the Sound, and have taken up their residence at the home of Henry J. Harding for the present.

J. R. Tremblath, one of the pioneers of Oregon City, who has been in the saloon business on Main street for 24 years, closed up his place of business last Saturday, and retired.

Clan Brown and Leroy Bills, two Parkplace boys, were arraigned before Justice Schuebel Monday on a charge of defacing the public school building at that place. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and they were fined $25 each.

McLaughlin Chautauqua circle held its regular weekly meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Canfield Monday evening. Miss Addie Clark of Clatsop was the featured speaker. The meeting next Monday night will be held at the same place.

Miss Mabel Ragland, who has resided with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Williams, for the past 18 months, left Tuesday for her old home at Dennison, Texas. She was accompanied by her nephew, Ray Williams, who will visit his grandparents for awhile.

Daniel D. Tompkins, who is taking a scientific course in the Portland Academy, was visiting his parents near this city during the holidays. He recently located a homestead on the Scappoose, in Columbia county, where he now makes his headquarters when not attending school.

J. W. Gray, secretary of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly, returned Friday from San Francisco, where he attended a meeting of Chautauqua Association secretaries of the Pacific coast. They combined mutually, to secure some of the best available talent for the coast assemblies during the coming season. Among the celebrities secured are Revs. De Witt Talmage and Sam Jones.

Assessor Luciene Stout and County Judge Hayes went to Salem last Friday, and appeared before the state board of equalization, and asked for a reduction of the assessment on cultivated land in Clackamas county. It was ascertained, however, that the assessment on cultivated in Clackamas county, was lower than that in adjoining counties, consequently their labor was lost. It is hardly probable, however, that the state board will raise the rate on cultivated property in this county.

KLONDIKE SUPPLIES

If you are going to Klondike or only thinking about it. We invite you to call and inspect our

IMMENSE STOCK

We have an entire floor 100 feet by 75 devoted exclusively to Klondike supplies, including

Blankets, Rubber Goods, Mackinaw Clothing, Shoes, Tents, Fur Caps, Groceries & Provisions, of all kinds at LOWEST PRICES. We pack and deliver everything free of charge at the wharves either at Portland, Tacoma or Seattle.

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

Third and Oak Streets.

BEN SELLING, Manager

H. L. Vaughan of Molalla was in Oregon City Thursday.

The family of James McIntyre, formerly of Champeog, have moved to their farm on the Abernethy.

Invitations are out for a party to be given next Tuesday evening in honor of Clara Campbell by the patronesses of the Junior Dancing Club. Mr. Campbell will leave for Alaska in a few days.

Catholic Knights of America, St. John's Branch No. 647, have elected the following new officers: President, Nick Michaels; vice-president, Matt Michaels; financial secretary, Stanislaus Tanzer; treasurer, Rev. A. Hillebrand.

Charles V. Galloway, who is spending a portion of his holiday vacation at home this week, reports that the Oregon University club more than made expenses on their tour over the state. They had the largest house at Portland Saturday night, and Oregon City ranks second in point of a good house.

Church Notes.

The Salvation Army will have a week set apart for self-denial for the support and extension of home and foreign missionary work, January 9th to 15th.

Rev. H. Oberg will preach in the M. E. church both morning and evening Sunday, Jan. 9. All who attend will find a hearty welcome.

Rev. T. W. Butler will preach in the chapel at Parkplace next Sabbath a 3 p. m.

The following will be the subject of sermons at the Congregational church next Sabbath; at 10:30 a. m., "The Way of Success;" at 7:30, "The Philosophy of Life, or Cutting Down Fruit Trees," especially to young people. Y. P. S. 40. E. meeting at 6:30 p. m.

In observance of the week of prayer, meetings are being held each evening this week in the Congregational church with good attendance. The annual roll call meeting was held Wednesday evening at which there was a large gathering of members of the church.

The evangelistic meetings in the Baptist church will begin on Sunday and be conducted by Messrs. Gallaborn and Ledford. The singing by Mr. Ledford will be a special feature of the meetings. The public is cordially invited.

Eight new members joined the Woodmen Circle on Tuesday evening.

POMONA GRANGE.—The regular quarterly meeting of Clackamas District Pomona Grange will be held with Harding Grange at their hall at Logan on January 12th. Opening session at 10 o'clock a. m. Officers for the year will be installed, an interesting program rendered in the evening and other business of interest transacted. A cordial invitation is extended to all in good standing. Mary S. Howard, Secretary.

ROAD SUPERVISORS.—Yesterday afternoon the county court appointed the following-named road supervisors:

Number.	Name.	Location.
1	W. H. Counsel	Milwaukie
2	J. R. Cramer	Clackamas
3	A. W. Cooke	Damascus
4	Hugh Curran	Eagle Creek
5	John M. Riche	Bany
6	John Reveaux	Sandy
7	Joseph Aschoff	Seviers
8	F. J. Walker	Cherryville
9	Harmon Lins	George
10	J. J. Davis	Garfield
11	Charles Holstrom	Abernethy
12	James M. Tracy	Logan
13	Wm. Mattoon	Viola
14	J. L. Swafford	Maple Lane
15	J. H. Taber	Canomah
17	A. R. Dimick	Canby
18	Ed. Hornbush	Beaver Creek
19	John Dennison	Milk Creek
20	William Buckner	Highland
21	C. O. Hubbard	Canyon Creek
22	Raymond Dickey	Up Molalla
23	Wm. Miller	Barlow
24	Geo. Kinzer	Needy
25	John Daly	L. Molalla
26	John Shaver	U. Molalla
27	Ed. Young	Marquam
28	John Nightengale	Wilhoit
29	C. D. Wilson	Union
30	Riley Hayes	Oswego
31	P. A. Baker	Wilsonville
32	E. I. Baker	Pleasant Hill
33	John Lowelling	Springwater
34	A. Andreas	Bull Run
35	Levy Erb	Elliott Prairie
37	G. G. Kruse	Oswego

LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE TABLETS
 Move the bowels gently, relieves the cough, cures the feverish condition and headache, making it the best and quickest remedy for Coughs, Colic, and La Grippe. Cures in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25c.

MARK'S SHOE CO.

253 Morrison St., near Third St.

PORTLAN, : : OREGON

Special Bargains!

Special Bargains!

Children's School Shoes from 50 cents upwards	Ladies' Solid Dural 1/2 Shoes from $1.50 upwards
Misses' " " " " $1.00	Ladies' Dressy Stylish " " 1.75
Boys' " " " " 1.50	Men's Solid Working " " 1.50
Youths' " " " " 1.25	Men's Dressy Stylish " " 1.75

Clearance Sale

Look at the Reductions!

$22.50 Suits and Overcoats down to $17.00
18.00 " " " " 13.50
15.00 " " " " 11.50
10.00 " " " " 8.00
8.50 " " " " 6.00

7.50 Men's Suits for $5.00

Boys' Clothing Reduced
 Buy Your Alaska Outfits Here

"FAMOUS," Corner, Morrison and Second Streets, Portland, Ore.