

1884—GREAT SALE—1898
OUR 13th ANNUAL SALE

SALE OPENS FRIDAY AT 9 A. M.

And continue for 30 working days. Every piece, every yard of fine dress goods in stock will be sacrificed. Special attention is called to our Great Black Goods Stock, which has no superior in this city, either in quantity or quality, elegance or beauty. The stock will be at your mercy for the next 30 days. Ladies, now is your time to buy gilded black goods.

...BLACK and COLORED SILKS...

Novelty Silks and Swiss Taffatas, Fine Velvets in Black and Colors, Evening Shades in delicate tints, every yard of which we will include in our Great Sale at ruinous prices.

...EVERY CAPE AND JACKET...

In stock at Half Price. No doubt you have been waiting for this opportunity. We are the losers.

...Blankets, Comforters and Table Linens...

Thousands of pieces of Cotton and Linen Crashes, Fine Irish Linens in bleached and half bleached which will last a life-time, all standard brands of bleached Muslins, New York Mills, Waumansutta Mills, Fruit of the Loom, Pride of the Loom, Pride of the West and Lonsdale.

Ladies, now is your time to lay in your supplies. Nothing but first-class goods will be sold or offered for sale.

McAlLEN & McDONNELL, Cor. 3d & Morrison, PORTLAND, OR.

Y. P. C. A. Affairs.

The annual election of officers will be held Monday night, January 31st. All active members are requested to be present.

The ladies' auxiliary will entertain the employees of the woolen mills and members of the association on Saturday night, February 12th. In addition to the excellent musical and literary program that is being prepared, a splendid lunch will be served, and an admission fee of 10 cents will be charged to defray expenses.

Rev. Harold Oberg will address the men's meeting at 4 p. m., Sunday. All are kindly invited.

Letter List.

Following is the list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the Oregon City post-office, January 25, 1898:

- LADIES' LIST. Hart, Hattie; Oglesby, Mrs C; Hamilton, Myrtle; Wheeler, Mrs S; Williams, Stella

- GENTS' LIST. Beery, Aaror; Meller, W J; Bush, J; Noris, J J; Evans, H T; Patterson, H L; Fisher, Fred; Stingley, Milton; Gunnison, F; Stone, R D; Gummiller, J; Szymanski, Marein; Hatch, Capt; Wegmann, Emil; Lee, R J; White, J W

In calling for the above letters say "advertised." J. J. COOKE, Acting P. M.

Bishop Barker, of Tacoma, will preach in St. Paul's church, this city, next Sunday evening.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to most sincerely thank the many friends who so kindly assisted us in our great trouble. Mrs. W. N. GODFREY, Mrs. J. A. CONFER, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. GODFREY, D. G. GODFREY, SCOTT GODFREY, MATHIE GODFREY.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

Notice is hereby given that the regular quarterly examination for teachers will be held at the court house in Oregon City, beginning at one o'clock p. m. Wednesday, February 9th, 1898. State examination begins Thursday, February 10th, at 9 a. m. H. G. STARKWEATHER, County School Supt. Dated Jan. 24, 1898.

Educate Your Bowls With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

Don't Run Any Risks about health. Avoid coughs, colds, fever, pneumonia, and all other similar ailments by keeping your blood rich and pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or gripe. All druggists.

Annual Clearance Sale! SHOES
Everything in the house reduced. A positive saving of from 10 to 20 per cent. on your footwear. Every article warranted as represented.
COME TO US FOR YOUR SHOES
...ROSENTHAL'S...
149 3d St. between Alder and Morrison, PORTLAND, ORE.
KLONDIKE OUTFITTERS

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Robert L. Ringo, of Highland, was in the city Saturday.

Justice Charles Spence was in town from Carus Tuesday.

Charles Greip, of The Dalles, is visiting relatives at Gladstone.

You can get the Weekly Oregonian and COURIER for $2 per year.

Mrs. Alex Thomson, of Clackamas, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Dr. Butler will preach in the chapel at Ely next Sabbath at 2:30 p. m.

John Vaughan, of Molalla, spent Friday and Saturday in Oregon City.

Miss Carrie Bair returned Wednesday from a visit to her parents at Needy.

A. B. Herrman closed a successful term of school in district No 21 last Friday.

G. J. Howell, of COURIER force, has just recovered from a severe attack of la grippe.

Miss Jennie Rowen began a term of school in the Holcomb district last Monday.

Miss Myrtle Buchanan has been very ill with an attack of la grippe for the past two weeks.

Mrs. F. L. Cochran is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Robinson, at Sacramento, Calif.

Rev. Harold Oberg has been confined to his room the greater part of the week with a bilious attack.

The Misses Myer, of Portland, were guests of Mrs. E. T. Fields, during the early part of the week.

William Wood is very ill with rheumatism and pneumonia at his residence in Green Point addition.

H. L. Kelly, jr., left Sunday for Albany, where he has accepted a position in the Portland flouring mills.

John Rice, of Hillsboro, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye. They were old acquaintances in the East.

A few more country correspondents wanted for the COURIER. Send us the items from your neighborhood.

Last Saturday Frank P. Welch, son of Dr. John Welch, formerly of this city, died in Arizona of consumption.

E. J. Swafford, of Salem, came down this week to attend the Warner-Flickman wedding and to visit relatives.

Miss Ada Randall, of New Era precinct, will begin her second term of school near the Clackamas hatchery next Monday.

President W. C. Hawley, of the Willamette university, will address the people of Milwaukie on Woodmanship this evening.

H. A. Kaylor, of the Molalla packing house, and O. D. Ely, a well known Molalla school teacher, was in town Tuesday.

Norman Marrs, of the firm of Marrs & Seaborg, Ilwaco, Wash., spent a few days this week with his parents in Oregon City.

Frank C. Morris, who recently returned from an extended stay in Eastern Oregon, left Tuesday for a short visit in San Francisco.

V. Harris returned Monday morning from a visit to San Francisco and California points. He reports fine weather, but the air cold.

Mrs. Kinsey of Eugene, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Krause of Salem, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Wright this week.

The Young Men's Republican Club, of Oregon City, have called a meeting for Saturday evening to elect delegates to the state league meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller have returned from an extended stay in California. Mr. Miller, however, expects soon to leave for Alaska.

Tom P. Randall was officiating as night policeman for several days, while Officer Shaw was confined to his room with an attack of la grippe.

I. L. Huffman has resigned his place in the postoffice store, and intends to leave in a few days for Alaska. He is succeeded by A. R. Doolittle.

It is reported that George McBride, son of Judge T. A. McBride, was married in Astoria last Sunday. He holds a government position at Flavel.

Mrs. G. S. Lewis, of Seattle, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Doolittle, returned Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. Doolittle and son.

Miss Gertrude Finley, one of the teachers in the Barclay school has been ill for several days, and Miss Ednetta Chase is looking after the pupils in her room.

Elizabeth Sarah Crowley, guardian of the person and estate of Levi Chandler Eaton, a minor, has been granted an order to sell the real property of the estate.

The claim of Jacob Rauch against the estate of N. O. Walden, deceased, for $450, was contested, but on the Wednesday the county judge made an order allowing the claim in full.

Paul Sholtz has disposed of his meat market to Fred Osterholz. Mr. Osterholz has been in the employ of Mr. Sholtz for the past two months, and will remove the shop next door.

County Clerk Dixon has T. S. Baker, Miss Ina Chase, Miss Luin Hankins and Mrs. Charles Ely employed in extending the tax roll. The roll will be completed several weeks earlier than last year.

George J. Currin, of Currinsville, spent Wednesday night in Oregon City.

R. Scott, of Milwaukie, ex-county commissioner, was in the city Thursday.

Charles Goldsmith, of Eugene, is visiting his sisters, the Misses Goldsmith and Mrs. M. Bollock.

Messrs. Batke and Karl, the proprietors of Petzold's markets, are occupying the old Wishart residence on Seventh street, having moved their household goods from Oswego on Thursday.

John Moehnke, Fred Bluhm, Fred Heft and H. H. Henri, of Mink, were in Oregon City Wednesday. Mr. Henri has contracted his entire crop of potatoes to a buyer in Portland for 55 cents per sack.

R. V. Short, of Portland, was in Oregon City Thursday. Mr. Short was a former resident of Clackamas county, and was at one time county surveyor, and also represented this county in the house of representatives at another time.

J. G. Tate, supreme grand master of the A. O. U. W., will deliver a lecture at Weinhard's hall Monday night on the principles of the order. All are invited. An immense audience heard his lecture in Portland Monday night.

The undertaking business conducted by W. N. Godfrey, now deceased, will be continued under the name of Mrs. W. N. Godfrey at the old stand, corner of 9th and Main streets, Oregon City, Ore. E. E. Martin will act in the capacity of salesman.

There was baptismal services at St. Paul's Episcopal church last Sunday morning. At the prayer meeting to-night an address will be delivered on "Reasoning Out of the Scriptures, the Basis of Church Ways."

Oregon Oak Lumber Co., of Oregon City, was incorporated last week to engage in the manufacture and sale of hardwood and other lumber and products thereof; capital $5000 in shares of $25 each. George Broughton, C. P. Merrell and R. S. Wood, incorporators.

The Portland General Electric Company has completed its contract with the Portland Flouring Mills to furnish them power from Willamette Falls to run the mills. It laid six lines of wire. The current will be brought down on the east side of the river from the generators at Oregon City.—Portland Chronicle.

L. Buck, M. D., who was house surgeon in St. Vincent hospital for a year, and a post graduate of the polyclinic in the medical department of the university of California, has located in Oregon City. He stands high in his profession, and is now associated with Dr. M. C. Strickland in the practice of medicine.

Miss Olive C. Hickman and Arthur C. Warner were married at the residence of the bride's parents in this city Tuesday, January 25th. Rev. D. W. Williams solemnized the ceremony, in the presence of a few relatives and invited friends. Both are popular young people, and will occupy Mr. Warner's elegant new residence near Mount Pleasant.

Next Sabbath evening at the Congregational church the pastor will preach the first of a series of three Sabbath evening sermons on the "Second Coming of Christ," which is creating so much interest now in the religious world. Morning services as usual. A good musical program will be rendered at each service.

The next meeting of McLaughlin Chautauque Circle will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Charman, and the first chapters in the book on "Rome during Pliny's Time" will be discussed. Miss Laura Beatie will be the leader. At the meeting held Monday night the remaining chapters in "American Social Life," were completed.

There was a large attendance at the funeral services of the late county coroner, W. N. Godfrey, which were held at the Baptist church last Friday, and conducted by Rev. M. L. Rugg. The pallbearers were F. A. Taelleman, G. R. H. Miller, Isaac Farr, J. W. McNulty, Deputy County Treasurer D. F. May and Deputy Sheriff J. W. Groat.

Tuesday was the fifth or wooden anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ed T. Fields, of Canemah, and their many friends gave them a surprise party in honor of the event. After calling on Mr. and Mrs. Fields at their home, the entire party adjourned to Stokes' hall, where refreshments were served, and dancing, etc., was the order until a late hour.

E. E. Williams, who has done an extensive grocery business in Oregon City for several years past, made an assignment last Friday for the benefit of all his creditors. His liabilities are $10,589, and the principal creditor is Allen & Lewis, of Portland, whose claim is $6,080. His assets are stock and fixtures, $4,000; accounts, $2,000; Batdorf Bros., wood contract, $3,400; city lots, $350; Total, $9,750. Thomas F. Ryan is the assignee.

D. J. Collins is having a novel sleeping bag made for his return trip to the Yukon. The space between the inner and outer duck lining of the bag will be filled with eider down, and an outside cover made of silkine will be waxed making the portable bed air tight and water proof. Blankets will not be needed with this bag, and it has the advantage of being very light, as it only weights eight or nine pounds. These bags cost from $30 to $40.

KLONDIKE SUPPLIES
If you are going to Klondike or only thinking about it. We invite you to call and inspect our
IMMENSE STOCK
We have an entire floor 100 feet by 75 devoted exclusively to Klondike supplies, including
Blankets, Rubber Goods,
Mackinaw Clothing,
Shoes, Tents, Fur Caps,
Groceries & Provisions,
of all kinds at LOWEST PRICES. We pack and deliver everything free of charge at the wharves either at Portland, Tacoma or Seattle.
MOYER CLOTHING CO.
Third and Oak Streets.
BEN SELLING, Manager Send for Klondike Catalogue—Free

County Clerk Dixon has issued marriage licenses as follows: On January 29th, Mrs. Hannah Collatt and Fred Tessman; on the 22nd to Etta McMurray and J. Otto Smith.

The city council held a special meeting Wednesday evening and made a tax levy of seven mills. It is stated that the Oregon City school board will call a meeting for one week from next Monday to vote a tax for school purposes. The statutes say something about the levy being in the hands of the county clerk on February 1st, but as no notices had been posted, the meeting cannot be held within the specified time.

Lou H. Doolittle, who has been employed for some time past in the grocery house of V. Harris, will leave next Tuesday for Dyea, and intends to engage in the hotel business in that vicinity. He will build a comfortable structure out of canvas, and will take along a lot of knock-down bedsteads and cots, which will enable him to entertain the Yukon traveler in luxurious style. Mrs. Doolittle will visit her parents at Seattle, and expects to join her husband later.

A Portland paper has the following: "Evangelist, is likely to become pastor of the First Baptist church to which he has received a call. The brethren of that church seem not to dwell together in unity since Rev. Roland Grant folded his wings and went elsewhere. There seem to be two factions—the rich and the poor. The Rev. Grant ranged himself on the side of the latter. His term of service ended pretty soon." Rev. Gallahorn is now conducting revival services at the First Baptist church in this city.

Following are the newly installed officers of Willamette Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F: Mrs. Sylvia Midlam, noble grand; Mrs. M. A. Stuart, vice-grand; Matie Godfrey, recording secretary; Mrs. Augusta Lutz, financial secretary; Mrs. Nevada Munsey, treasurer; Musa Barclay, conductress; Anna Wilhart, warden; Mrs. Rena Strange, inside guard; Hester Robb, outside guard; Mrs. Mary L. Bradley, chaplain; W. H. Howell, R. S. N. G.; Ada Bedwell, L. S. N. G.; Lizzie C. Howell, R. S. V. G.; Mrs. W. L. Midlam, L. S. V. G.

W. S. U'Ren has tendered his resignation as chairman of the populist county central committee. The letter of resignation is dated at Milwaukie January 24th, and is a voluminous document. He gives as one of his reasons, that he is opposed to fusion with the democrats and silver republicans. His resignation will be acted upon at the regular meeting of the peoples party county central committee, which will be held at Pope's hall on February 5th. It is very probable that his resignation will be accepted.

A report is current on the streets, that John A. Confer has written to his wife, telling of the rich strike he has made in his claim on a tributary of the Yukon. He is credited with saying that if he had two more men, they could easily get out $400 per day. The parties who grubstaked Mr. Confer to go to the Klondike, are feeling pretty good over the report, and trust that it may prove to be a matter of fact. One man makes the statement that he saw the letter.

KLONDIKE OUTFITTING...
Are you going to Klondike? If you are, we want to see you. LARGEST STOCK of—
FUR GOODS,
MACKINAWS,
RUBBER GOODS,
BOOTS and SHOES,
CORDUROY and LEATHER COATS.
We deliver free. We name the lowest prices. We pack your goods. We carry the BEST GOODS
"FAMOUS," Corner Morrison and Second Streets, Portland, Ore.