

Ladies, Our Shirt Waists Have Arrived...

They are better than ever before. They are all in NEW STYLES and just as neat as anything you ever saw. They will please you.

We can show them to you as low as 50c. They are good values for the price. A Better Quality at from 75c to 85c. Something Dainty, Fresh, and in the Latest Novelties, for 95c to $1.

JUST OPENED—New Mull and Silk Ties, Roman Stripes and Plaid Ribbons.

McALLEN & McDONNELL,  Cor. 3d & Morrison, PORTLAND, OR.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

The pioneer meat market of C. Albright continues to serve its customers well and always keeps a large amount of fresh meats on hand.

Last year's patterns of wall paper at reduced prices. Five and 10c notion counters. At Bellomy & Busch.

F. I. Andrews, the market gardener, has always on hand a large amount of first-class apples, vegetables, pure cider and cider vinegar. Give him a trial.

Kenworthy's restaurant and confectionery is now opened and ready to serve first-class meals on short notice. Oysters a specialty. Wheeler & Cram's old stand.

The most reliable goods at lowest living cash prices are kept by the grocery store of Marr & Muir.

For best groceries at cheapest price go to Marr & Muir.

Albright is never "just out" of the kind of meat you want as he knows what his customers desire and keeps a full stock on hand and you don't need to take "what's left."

For the best shave or hair cut to be had go to P.G. Shark's shop. Shaving 10 cents.

A high grade warranted sewing machine sells for $25 on easy payments at Bellomy & Busch.

L. L. Pickens, dentist, does all kinds of dental work. Gold crowns, porcelain crowns and bridge work a specialty. Office in Barclay building, corner Main and Seventh streets.

D. E. Kenworthy at the East Side Ry office serves meals or oysters at all times. He also keeps a line of confectionery, fruits and cigars.

Dan Williams has added to his stock of groceries and provisions a full line of feed and hay. Goods delivered to all parts of the city free. Corner Seventh and Center streets.

Remember the Racket Store opposite Charman's Drug Store.

G. H. Young's second-hand store can furnish you with furniture, stoves, hardware, etc., at less than one-fourth what same would cost new and they are just as good and will last as long. Give him a trial.

Justice court blanks 15 cents per dozen at COURIER office.

CANEMAH.

There has been a great amount of sickness during the past two weeks.

W. L. Miller, of this place, will leave for Klondike this week.

C. O. Rose and family, formerly of this place but lately of Salem, have returned to Canemah. It looks more natural to have him as a resident of this community.

The people of Canemah prefer to settle their disputes without the intervention of a justice. One of the inhabitants of this vicinity has been charged with stealing some hogs on Thursday, February 24th. The case will be tried at the literary hall on Friday of this week. All the people should turn out and see that the thief is given ample justice if found guilty. J. E. Hedges will be on the bench.

There will be a school meeting held at the schoolhouse on Monday, March 7th. The meeting is called for the purpose of electing a clerk to serve one year and a director to serve three years. All taxpayers and persons interested in school matters should be present. There should be a greater interest manifested in school matters of this district than there is at present.

PROGRESS.

Meade Post Ready for War.

At the regular meeting of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R., held at Willamette hall in Oregon City March 2d, 1898, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the commander of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R., Dept. of Oregon, be and is hereby instructed to tender to the secretary of war of the United States the services of Meade Post in case of war with Spain, and respectfully ask for service at the front with Fitz Lee's veterans.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Cherry and peach trees are in bloom.

Fritz Heiser was in from Damascus Friday.

Look out for the Uncle Tom's band parade Saturday next.

C. M. Mason is now head clerk in Barlow's grocery store.

Farm Journal of Philadelphia and COURIER for $1.00 per year.

Miss Nellie Harding has been very ill with an attack of scarlatina.

Mrs. P. C. Humphrey, of Clackamas, was in Oregon City Monday.

T. R. A. Sellwood, the Milwaukie school clerk, was in town Monday.

W. D. Hankins closed a successful term of school at Barlow last Friday.

F. L. Poindexter took charge of the Enterprise as editor and manager on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. F. Hodgkin, of Salem, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Berryman Jennings.

Henry A. Snyder is the new postmaster at Aurora, in place of Gottlieb M. Frich.

Eple Ramsby has recovered from his recent illness, and is now able to move around.

Mrs. G. W. Swope, who has been very ill for several weeks, is on the road to recovery.

J. R. Beegle, late editor of the Enterprise, left Wednesday for St. Helens, Columbia county.

John Ferguson, living about four miles up the Abernethy, has a very sick boy with ulcerated tonsillitis.

Miss Lucy Freeman and William Vine were married in this city last Friday, Justice Schuebel officiating.

George H. Himes, of Portland, was in Oregon City Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. White.

Postmaster O. Wissinger, and Miss Hattie Bennett, of Milwaukie, were visiting friends in the city Sunday.

Frank Trembath and Harry Clark caught a fine specimen of Chinook salmon Monday weighing 43 pounds.

Theo. Miller, who left for California a few days ago, returned Tuesday morning, and intends to go to Tacoma.

Henry Miley, the merchant at Wilsonville, has been appointed postmaster in place of Herman Pepper, removed.

John Kruse and John Adem have been appointed members of a local relief committee for Stafford, by Governor Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Driggs will dispose of their real and personal property in Oregon City and move to Portland to live.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Morey are both ill since their return from their Eastern visit.

Fred Wiggins was down from Salem Sunday to meet his brother, Ernest Wiggins, who has just arrived from the East.

Bishop H. L. Barkley, of Woodburn, held services at the U. B. church last Sunday. He will be here again on the 19th and 20th.

Miss Mhoon, of Oakland, Calif., who has been the guest of Mrs. Norman R. Lang for several weeks, left Tuesday for her California home.

Mrs. B. F. Swope and two children and father-in-law left Monday morning for Toledo to join her husband, who has permanently located there.

George McBride, son of Judge T. A. McBride, who is now an attache of the Astoria custom house, was calling on old friends for a few hours Sunday.

Mrs. Frank White, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Boylan, left for her home on the Columbia last Friday.

F. L. Mintie and family, of Oswego, who have been in California for several months, returned this week. They were accompanied by Mr. Russell. sr.

O. D. Robbins left two curiosities at the COURIER office this week in the shape of two hen's eggs, one measuring 1 1/4 inches in circumference and the other 9/16 inches.

I. D. Taylor, of West Oregon City, is secretary-treasurer of the Pacific Egg Co., a new corporation with headquarters at 262 Third street, Portland. They are wholesale buyers and shippers of eggs.

Ernest Wiggins arrived from Kansas Saturday, and is spending a week with his brother, W. B. Wiggins, before going to Salem to accept a position with his brother, Fred Wiggins.

Uncle Tom's Cabin, that grand old play, will be presented by a company of competent actors Saturday next at Shively's opera house. Seats on sale at postoffice store. Price 25, 35, 50 cents.

A. S. Dresser returned Saturday from Vermont, to which place he had accompanied F. E. Donaldson to settle up an estate. Mr. Donaldson will not return for several weeks yet.

H. Wallers, Wm. Miller and W. J. Moldenhauer, directors, and F. M. Manning, clerk, of Clarkes school district No. 101, were in Oregon City Friday on school business.

Lenton services are being held in St. Paul's Episcopal church every Wednesday and Friday evening at 7:30. Rev. Dr. Williams will conduct service and preach in the chapel at Canemah next Sunday at 2 p. m.

John Irvin, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Sheriff Grace and Deputy Grout began receiving taxes Wednesday.

The Labor Exchange Accountant of this city has suspended publication.

W. E. Howell and Walter Courtright, of Redland, left Monday for Eastern Oregon.

Seats on sale at postoffice store for Uncle Tom's Cabin. Price 25, 35 and 50 cents.

County Clerk Dixon issued a marriage license on February 1st to Miss Annie Parrish and Louis Roth.

C. M. Crittenden is in the city, having completed a term of school in the Monte Cristo district last Friday.

Max Kesslering returned Wednesday to this city, after a residence of three years in Southern California.

E. E. Wilson, a Corvallis attorney, was in Oregon City Tuesday, visiting the Misses Spangler and Lawrence.

Leighton Kelly came down from Albany Tuesday to attend the funeral services of Miss Hattie Church.

The family of Wheeler Church desires the COURIER to thank the many friends who assisted them during their bereavement.

Either the Portland Pacific Farmer, Oregon Agriculturist or the Oregon Poultry Journal will be sent with COURIER for $1.00 per year.

The Willamette Rebekah Lodge No. 2 will give an entertainment at Willamette hall on Tuesday evening, March 15. See program later.

Don't fail to see the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin Saturday next. The company consists of 20 persons, and a full brass band.

The members of the Eastern Star will give a theatrical entertainment at Masonic hall on Tuesday, March 8th. The public is invited. Admission 15c.

Herman Bros., the Molalla sawmill proprietors, were in town yesterday. They are putting in new machinery, and otherwise improving their mill property.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Ganong, who has been very ill with throat troubles, is now on the road to recovery.

Special church services are being held every evening this week at the Congregational church at Ely by Dr. T. W. Butler and Rev. R. A. Rowley.

See Uncle Tom's Cabin Saturday next, or if you can't see the performance, watch for the grand street parade and drill for the music is excellent.

Mrs. L. Finin, of Albany, was the guest of Mrs. R. D. Wilson Monday and Tuesday. She came down to attend the funeral of her niece, Miss Hattie Church.

The board of directors of the West Oregon City school are having the grounds around the school building seeded to grass, and set out in shade trees.

Miss Olive Luelling, one of the teachers in the West Oregon City school, has been confined to her home with illness this week, and her place is being filled by Mrs. J. F. Clark.

George Reddaway, who went to Alaska several weeks ago on the steamer Elder, is home again. He is not very highly pleased with matters as they exist at Juneau and Skagway.

D. J. Collins left on the Elder Wednesday night, on his return trip to the Yukon. He is accompanied by John B. Fairclough, who will join his brother, P. A. Fairclough, at Dyea, before going into the interior.

During the week the county clerk drew a warrant on next year's fund for $3724.33, in favor of Smith & Howard, the Hardscrabble road contractors. This was done upon the order of the county court at the last regular term, to take effect whenever the road engineer filed his report.

Mrs. Enos Cahill, of New Era precinct, died Monday morning at 4 p. m., of heart failure. She had been ill for several weeks, but her condition had not been regarded as serious. The deceased was about 54 years of age, and leaves three children and a husband.

During the past week the county clerk in pursuance to an order of the county court at its last regular session, drew a warrant on next year's road fund for $3724, in favor of Smyth & Howard, the contractors on the Willamette Falls road. The engineer reported that this amount was the balance due them on the contract.

Next Sunday will be the beginning of the fourth year of the ministry of Rev. M. L. Rugg in the Baptist church of this city. In the morning there will be an anniversary sermon followed by a public welcome of new members and the observance of the Lord's supper. In the evening the pastor will preach on "Heaven and Hell, Prepared Places for Prepared People." A general invitation is extended.

Walter Wyland, Gilbert Wyland and August Wilbrod were arraigned before Justice Schuebel Monday on charges of assault and larceny. Walter Wyland was held to appear before the grand jury under $250 bonds, Gilbert Wyland was discharged and August Wilbrod was turned over to County Judge Hayes, who sentenced him to the reform school. He was taken to that institution by Constable McCown Monday evening. The parties concerned are all from the vicinity of Macksburg.

KLONDIKE SUPPLIES

If you are going to Klondike or only thinking about it. We invite you to call and inspect our

IMMENSE STOCK

We have an entire floor 100 feet by 75 devoted exclusively to Klondike supplies, including

Blankets, Rubber Goods, Mackinaw Clothing, Shoes, Tents, Fur Caps, Groceries & Provisions, of all kinds at LOWEST PRICES. We pack and deliver everything free of charge at the wharves either at Portland, Tacoma or Seattle.

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

Third and Oak Streets.

BEN SELLING, Manager

Send for Klondike Catalogue—Free

A pop-corn social will be given at the Y. M. O. A. rooms Saturday night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary. The program will be given by the employees of the paper mills. Admission, 10 cents.

One-hundred-sixty acres for rent on the Kalama river, Washington. Good house, barn and orchard. Forty acres cleared. Good place for stock. Will rent the same cheap. Apply to K. Tscharnig, Oregon City.

Deputy County Treasurer D. F. May was taken very ill in the early part of the week, and has been confined to his home all week. The attending physician says that a blood vessel was bursted on the inside of his head, which came near resulting fatally. His condition is somewhat improved.

A rumor was circulated during the first of the week, that when Mr. Horton assumed charge of the postoffice, that it would be removed to the quarters now occupied by the Beehive. Mr. Horton, however, states that there is nothing in the report.

In the suit of Duffy Bros., respondents, vs. George L. Tout and Ellen Tout, appellants, appealed from Clackamas county to the supreme court, the same was dismissed and judgment affirmed, appellants not appearing and trial fee not being paid.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Morey returned Saturday from an extended visit to the East. They were accompanied home by Miss Florence Morey, who has been attending a musical conservatory in New York City. Mr. Morey's mother joined the party at San Francisco, and will make an extended visit here.

Prof. and Mrs. S. O. Hunter entertained a number of friends at their home in Milwaukie Friday evening. Prizes were awarded for skillful playing in a number of games, and refreshments were served. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Shank, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, Misses Rosa Bonnett, Rosalie Scott, Ida Birkemeir, Pearl Parker, Anna Wilson; Messrs. A. J. Walker, John Rogers, Oscar Wissinger, George Wissinger and Samuel Wilson.

There will be reception of members and communion services at the Congregational church next Sabbath morning. In the evening Pastor Butler will give the first of the following series of Sunday evening addresses on "Secularism, and Religious Liberty": First—"Secularism, Free Thought and Religious Liberty." Second—"The Duty of Free Inquiry and the Results of Being Afraid." Third—"Fast Customs and Theories, or Present Demands and Needs, Which?" Fourth—"Religious Intolerance Versus American Freedom." Fifth—"The Man Without a Faith." Sixth—"The Coming Ideal Church."

Go to Wilson & Cooke's for tinware, hardware and cutlery.

KLONDIKE

...OUTFITTING...

Are you going to Klondike? If you are, we want to see you. LARGEST STOCK of—

FUR GOODS, MACKINAW, RUBBER GOODS, BOOTS and SHOES, CORDUROY and LEATHER COATS.

We deliver free. We name the lowest prices.

We pack your goods. We carry the BEST GOODS

"FAMOUS," Corner Morrison and Second Streets, Portland, Ore.