Go to Wilson & Cooke's for tinware, hardware and cutlery.

For School Director.

I have been handed a petition signed by over one hundred taxpayers, asking me to accept the nomination for director of school district No. 62 of Oregon City. I therefore accept the nomination and place myself at their mercy in the interest of lower taxes and good schools.

E. E. CHARMAN.

OREGON CITY, Or., March 14, 1898.

To Franklin T. Griffith.

Reposing special faith and confidence in your ability and integrity, we, the undersigned, qualified voters of school district No. 72, hereby request you to stand as a candidate for school director of said district, to be voted for at the election to be held on the 14th inst. R. D. Wilson, C. N. Greenman, H. L. Kelly, E. G. Canfield, Wm. Andersen, Chas. Albright, Jr., Clarence Farr, H. E. Straight, Rudolph Koerner, W. B. Wiggins, A. W. Milln, E. C. Maddock, Simon L. Selling, Sol. Garde, Thos. F. Ryan, George Broughton, W. A. Huntley, C. G. Huntley, W. A. Huntley, W. W. Jackson, D. W. Kinnard, H. H. Johnson, E. A. Sommer, J. Roake, C. R. Noblitt, Dan Lyons, E. D. Kelly, F. Busch and one hundred others.

OREGON CITY, March 9, 1898.

To R. D. Wilson and others.

I hereby accept your nomination for school director of District No. 62, and if elected, I shall, to the utmost of my ability endeavor to perform my whole duty to the schools, the children and the tax payers of this district.

FRANKLIN T. GRIFFITH.

The Dallas Observer tells a good joke on Rev. Ledford, who some weeks ago conducted revival services at the Baptist church in this city. Rev. Ledford is now conducting revival services at Dallas. Chas. Bricker the giant boy of Dallas is 18 years old, 6½ feet tall, and weighs 240 pounds, and when standing by the side of a number of other boys his head and shoulders towered far above his companions. The minister spoke to young Bricker to not stand on the seat.

Dr. Walter, formerly Chaplain of the penitentiary, one of the greatest penal institutions in America, will deliver his famous lecture in the Methodist church, on Friday evening this week. Subject: "The Walled City, or Four Years Among Criminals." The lecture is full of wit, humor, pathos, information and instruction. Crowded houses greet this lecture everywhere. Dr. Walter will be one of the lecturers at the Chautauqua this season. An admission fee of 10 cent will be charged at the door.

A few days ago Superintendent Starkweather decided a case brought before him that under the present law a district school clerk could not collect and retain 5 per cent of district school taxes collected by the sheriff for the district. The matter was appealed to State Superintendent Irwin, and he affirmed the decision of Superintendent Starkweather. The state superintendent says that under the law requiring the sheriff to collect school taxes, the district clerk is not entitled to five per cent of the amount collected, as was the rule under the old law.
