THE union that was formed by the state conventions of the democratic, people's and silver republican parties at Portland was in every respect harmonious. The platform adopted is concise and broad enough for all who are united in the common cause—the advancement of human rights and honest government—to stand upon. It is a platform which democrats, populists and silver republicans can endorse, for it embodies all the cardinal principles enunciated by those parties, and contains nothing objectionable to any of them. Neither of them have been required to surrender any of their principles, yet the demand for flexible currency, sufficient to meet the demands of trade and direct legislation, which are endorsed by all three parties; hence the union on platform is honorable in every detail and is acceptable to all except the ultra middle-of-the-roads.—Dallas Times, Mountain eer.

REPUBLICANS are very solicitous about the political welfare of the silver people. They meet a populist and dilate upon the horrors of being swallowed by a democrat; then, meeting a democrat, enlarge upon his being masticated by a populist. Like the Frenchman's trap, they try to catch them coming and going. It won't work, friends. Union hurts you all, we know. Of course it does. But don't think a man with sense enough to fight a British-Portuguese-Spanish money system can't see through your little pitiful ruse and then, even then, have generosity enough to pity you and your transparent wheedling.

If the Michellites carry the Astoria convention as now seems probable, then the republican party of Oregon becomes the organ of one man; that is an institution having but one object in view—the election of John H. Mitchell United States senator. After that shall have been accomplished, which is not likely, for a majority of hold-over senators are opposed to him, there will be little left for the anti-Mitchell republicans to comfort themselves with but a wrecked party.

If a government contracted a debt with a certain amount of money in circulation, and then contracted the money volume before the debt was paid, it is the most heinous crime that a government could commit against the people.

PRESIDENT McKinley on Monday sent his message on the Cuban-Spanish question. After waiting until then he shifts the responsibility on congress.

The gold or national democrats have made a call for a state convention. W. E. Carll of this city is chairman.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The house of representatives today, after one of the most exciting and memorable days in its history, by a vote of 322 to 19, adopted a resolution which nine-tenths of its members believe makes war inevitable. The resolution adopted directs the president to intervene at once in Cuba, to restore peace and secure to the people of the island "a stable, independent government of their own," and authorizes him to use the army and navy to execute the purpose of the resolution.

The need of a good Spring Medicine is almost universal and Hood's Sarsaparilla exactly meets this need. Be sure and get Hood's.

POLITICAL NOTES.

J. G. Bradley as chairman and J. U. Campbell (Brownell's partner) as secretary of republican county central committee expect to make a hot campaign when they receive the Simon and Mitchell sacks.

The Enterprise calls the union ticket the ticket of the three-ply party. The republican ticket is evidently a one-ply one and thin enough to be swallowed by the Brownell-Oregon City ring and the Ryan push, but the country is yet to be heard from.

J. H. Woller in objecting to putting a candidate on the republican ticket said he "would rather vote for a yaller dog, if a republican, and have a clean ticket."

The Courier does not wish to misquote anyone. We stated last week that T. F. Ryan, candidate for judge, was a money loaner, but we learn since that he is merely a loan agent.

The Enterprise and Press failed last week to give the republican ticket favorable mention. Probably the King or the Push will visit them soon and all will be serene.

THE republican congressional convention at Eugene on Monday re-nominated Thos. H. Tongue for congress. M. A. Moody was nominated on Wednesday by the republicans of the first district for congressman. This lets Ellis out.

Breaks Down the Health of an Oregon Man

What a Few Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Did for Him.

"Our home is in Clark county, Washington. My little boy was taken with asthma when only two years old, and grew worse until he was five, when the physician advised us to take him to a dry climate. I resolved to go to the great wheat fields of Eastern Oregon and work in harvest, but I soon found my own health was failing. I could neither eat nor drink without getting sick. I was blind and dizzy. I procured a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and began taking it, and in a few weeks I was well and able to work every day. My little boy is now taking Hood's Sarsaparilla with good results." D. PATTEE, Wasco, Oregon.
