Died, April 18, 1898, of consumption, at Gladstone, Winifred, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dauchey, aged 23 years, 3 months and 23 days. The funeral was held at the family residence, Rev. M. L. Rugg officiating, and the remains laid to rest in the Clackamas cemetery. The funeral was largely attended. The floral tributes were beautiful and numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Dauchey have the heartfelt sympathy of many friends in this hour of trial, this being the fourth child lost through this fatal ailment.

Friday, C. G. Miller, the electrician employed by the Portland General Electric Co., was severely burned, while working at the station. He had a dead wire in his hand, when a live wire dropped and struck his arm near the elbow. A circuit was thus formed through the arm, burning a large hole in his hand and his arm badly cooked. Miller was thrown off of an iron crane by the shock, and would have fallen into a network of running belts and machinery, but a workman standing below caught him as he was falling.

Paid at Once.

To the United Artisans, City: Gentlemen—It has come to my knowledge that some parties belonging to other orders are insinuating that I received the money covering my late husband's insurance in your society, only after a struggle, and then had to relinquish a certain amount in order to collect it. In justice to your order I wish to publicly and emphatically state that my claim was paid promptly and in full and I hereby tender you my sincere thanks for your kindness in my misfortune.

MARY FREEMAN.
