

WASH-DRESS MATERIALS

We are showing the handsomest range of Wash Fabrics suitable for street and house wear, waists, tea gowns, bicycle suits and traveling, in lawns, organdies, madras, batiste, linen, court cloth, etc.

Prices.....5c, 8c, 10c, 12c and 15c

Pure White Organdies, 20c, 25c and 25c

McALLEN & McDONNELL

Popular Dry Goods House

COR. THIRD AND MORRISON STS., PORTLAND, ORE.

BAZAR PATTERNS REDUCED TO 10 AND 15 CENTS.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

L. E. Wise, of Sunnyside, Clackamas county, was in town Friday.

Mrs. Judge Hayes and daughter are visiting relatives at Independence.

Born, in this city Tuesday, April 26th, a girl, to Mr. and Mrs. Forest Andrews.

Mrs. H. C. Stevens left Wednesday for a few weeks' visit with relatives in New York.

Street Commissioner Snidow is doing a good job on the sidewalk approach to the Fifth street stairway.

Pay your water rent before the 10th of the month and save the expense and annoyance of water being shut off.

Born, in this city on April 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Park, twins, a son and daughter, weighing respectively 9 1/4 and 8 3/4 pounds.

F. I. Dunbar, of Astoria, republican candidate for secretary of state, was in Oregon City yesterday, (Thursday.)

Chas. S. Moore, of Klamath county, republican candidate for state treasurer, was the guest of Mrs. S. M. McCown last Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Moore.

There will be a great patriotic demonstration at the Methodist church on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Excellent speakers will address the meeting. The local post of G. A. R., Womans Relief Corps and the Militia Co. have been invited to attend. A cordial invitation to this meeting is extended to all.

The Baptist church will have a special service of a patriotic character on Sunday evening. The choir will furnish special music for the occasion. The male quartette will also render some selection. The pastor will preach on the necessity of war and what will be some of its probable results. All are made welcome.

J. F. Nelson, of this city, received a letter Wednesday from his son, Fred, who is an apprentice on the battleship Oregon. The letter is written from Caloa, Peru, under date April 14th, four days before the Oregon left for New York. In the letter he stated that a Spanish torpedo boat was watching for them, and the officers and crew expressed confidence that they could worst any Spanish torpedo boat on short notice. Besides Fred Nelson, there are several Oregon City boys, who are apprentices on the battleship Oregon. They are Roy Sprague, Arthur Quinn, Harry Fleming, Chas. W. Boylan, George Austin, Jacob Schullhommer and Herman Smith, of New Era.

The board of trade held a special meeting Monday night to consider the matter of raising funds to defray the expenses of an exhibit for the trans-Mississippi international exposition to be held at Omaha, from June 1st to November 1st, 1898. The meeting was addressed by W. C. Calder, of Portland, and Mr. Hurd, of Baker City, members of the Omaha exposition commission, appointed by Governor Lord. President Cross appointed the following board of trade committee to solicit funds and secure an exhibit from this section: E. E. Charman, O. O. T. Williams, John F. Clark, J. A. Thayer and F. T. Griffith. The plan is to make individual loans to the commission to be repaid out of the left over world's fair fund when the legislature convenes.

C. C. Hall, of Meadowbrook, is in the city to-day. He reports splendid crop prospects in his vicinity.

Ernest Rands has secured a contract for surveying four townships in the Seven Devils district, Idaho.

On Tuesday Louis Le Grand, a native of France, declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States.

In the probate court Tuesday William Stone, of Viola, was appointed guardian of the person and estate of Vevia Brown, a minor.

Miss Kittie Paine went to Woodburn Wednesday night, where she will visit her uncle, John Watson, and family for a few weeks.

G. W. Swope left last Friday evening for the East, to meet Mrs. Swope, who is on her way home from a visit to her old home in Ohio.

Dr. W. H. Ross, formerly of this city, is very ill at his home in East Portland, and has been in a helpless condition for several weeks past.

Richard Walsh, of Milwaukie, was a trapeze performer in Leondor Bros. show, which gave exhibitions here Monday and Tuesday nights.

Mrs. Sophia Seely, of Wilsonville, who recently underwent an operation at the Gladstone hospital, has returned home much improved in health.

S. S. Jennings has given up his place at the paper mills and this week removed his family to Portland, where he has accepted a clerkship in a store.

H. J. Bailey, who owns a large plumbing and steam fitting business in Fairbault, Minn., is visiting his parents at Maple Lane, and his brothers and sister in Portland.

Judge Harlan, of Mosier, made several rousing speeches in this county this week for the Union state ticket. The judge met with large and enthusiastic audiences everywhere he spoke.

Miss Vera Pillsbury gave a very pleasant German to a number of her friends Friday evening, and on Saturday evening gave a delightful closing party to her juvenile dancing class at Willamette hall.

Mrs. Mary J. Hutton and H. G. Hamilton were married at the court house Wednesday afternoon, County Judge Hayes, officiating. Mr. Hamilton will accompany Company F to the seat of war Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Barlow came down from Seattle Wednesday, and will leave for Alaska about the 10th of May, going by way of St. Michaels and up the Yukon. Mr. Barlow reports having done a good business at Dyea.

Rev. William Horn, D. D., bishop of the German Evangelical Association of America, was the guest of Rev. J. Evich Monday, and filled the latter's pulpit in the evening. On Tuesday evening he preached at Canby.

It is expected that H. S. Lyman, the union candidate for superintendent of public instruction, will be at the meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association at Canby next Saturday. A splendid program has been prepared.

Alexander M. Gifford, of Union Mills, was examined before County Judge Hayes Wednesday, and pronounced insane. He is a former bachelor aged 65, and imagines that some one is trying to do him bodily harm. He was sent to the insane asylum about two years ago.

F. C. Mack, of Canby, was in Oregon City Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Laura Schlappi, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. Adolph Willey.

Henry Furst, of Michigan, spent Sunday with his old friend, Chas. Horn.

W. R. Garrett and L. N. Jones, of Marquam, were visitors in the city Monday.

M. G. Wilkins, of Portland, was in the city Saturday looking for a lost boy.

Mrs. E. H. Cooper and children are spending the week with relatives at Canby.

Mrs. W. P. Burns, of Portland, has been visiting her son, Chief of Police Burns.

J. A. Jennings closed a very satisfactory term of school at Glad Tidings last Friday.

Rev. Dr. Butler will conduct services in the chapel at Parkplace next Sabbath at 3:30 p. m.

Melancia S. Lawton, of Oregon City, has been granted a widow's pension of $8 per month.

Miss Millie Molzan, of Portland, was visiting her mother at Union Hall, during the week.

Dr. J. P. Leavitt, accompanied by Mrs. Leavitt, were visiting friends in Oregon City Monday.

The U. S. land office is being removed from its present quarters to the new location in the Weinhard building.

T. W. Clark, manager of the Bandon woolen mills, is spending the week at home with his family in this city.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Dayton, of Lima, Indiana, will spend the summer with their daughter, Mrs. C. G. Huntley.

O. L. Selz, of Canby, had his injured eye amputated during the week by army surgeons, and an artificial one put in its place.

H. M. Dexter, of Nebraska, a friend of James McNulty, of Clarks, returned here Tuesday, and thinks of locating in Clackamas county.

Miss Ora E. Barngrover and John Nyberg were married at the court house last Saturday, April 23, County Judge Hayes, officiating.

N. G. Roen is a new arrival from Lake county, Minnesota, and may conclude to locate here after investigating conditions in the country.

M. F. Boyles left Monday with James Brown, the horse man, for the Antelope country in Eastern Oregon, where he will spend the summer.

T. F. Ryan, T. P. Randall, W. H. Howell and Frank Habelt made the Odd Fellows lodge at Oswego a fraternal visit Monday evening.

W. H. Bair, of Canby, and N. P. Kaylor, of Molalla, have formed a co-partnership, and gone into the butchering business at Woodburn.

William Wright, R. D. Wilson, G. H. Young and L. E. Lawrence went up the Clackamas on a fishing trip last Sunday, and report good success.

Register C. B. Moores, who has been ill for several weeks past, has gone to Southern Oregon for the benefit of his health. He will return shortly.

J. H. Strickler and E. T. White, the accountants, appointed by the late grand jury to expert the county records, have begun where the experts last year left off.

Mrs. J. J. McGrath and family have returned from San Francisco, after a two week's absence from Oregon City. Mr. McGrath returned about three weeks' ago.

M. P. Chapman, of Salem, was visiting relatives in Oregon City Tuesday. His home is at Clackamas, but he now officiates as an attache of the insane asylum.

John Nissen, who was formerly in the agricultural implement business in this city, was in town Saturday. He now travels for the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver company.

G. O. Rinearson started on his return trip to Fort Wrangel Saturday. He states that Clarence Porter is doing well blacksmithing, and Fred Williams has steady employment.

Miss Tina Clayton, of Concord, near Milwaukie, left yesterday for Pleasanton, Texas, where she will be married upon her arrival to George Allen, formerly of Portland.

Mrs. Laura Fuller, of Portland, was the guest of her brother, Chief of Police Burns, and family Sunday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lillian and W. Barnes.

President P. L. Campbell, of the State Normal school at Monmouth, delivered a very interesting lecture before the Barclay school last Friday afternoon on "Vocation in Life."

The Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and Artisans had a grand anniversary celebration at Oswego Tuesday evening. The Artisans celebrate the same anniversary as the Odd Fellows, the 26th of April.

Miss Juliette Fullerton, of Alsea, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. H. Glass, left for her home Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Glass's little child, who will visit his grand parents.

Eight new members were confirmed at the German Evangelical Lutheran church last Sunday, and a new communion set purchased from Burneister & Andresen was used for the first time.

Meade Post is requested by order of the post commander to meet Sunday at 7 a. m. sharp, to attend patriotic services at the M. E. church in a body. The order is signed by O. A. Williams, adjutant.

Vincent, the 11-year old son of Frank Foster, at Clackamas, met with a serious accident while playfully moving some freight cars in company with some other boys. A car ran over one leg cutting a severe gash in the calf of the limb.

John C. Bradley and Stonewall J. Vaughan have secured a railroad surveying contract in Idaho, and both are on their way to the scene of operations. Vaughan left on last Thursday, and Mr. Bradley started to join him Sunday.

Frank Winslow, a brother-in-law of G. H. Young, who has been in the latter's store for several months past, has gone to La Grande to accept a position with the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver company. I. E. Lawrence succeeds to the position as salesman in Young's store.

D. H. Glass is up the valley on business.

C. K. Cooper, of Canby, was in town Friday.

A. M. Shibley was down from Springwater Saturday.

John A. Carson, a well known attorney, was in Oregon City Friday.

W. L. Starkweather, of Concord, spent Sunday with relatives at Canby.

J. L. Ball visited friends at Woodburn over Sunday.

Capt. Z. C. Wood, of the steamer Vulcan at Portland, spent Sunday with his family in this city.

Miss Nellie Ash, of Albany, who was visiting Miss Sadie Foley, returned home Sunday.

Charles Wilson and wife, of Aurora, were visiting friends in Oregon City Saturday and Sunday.

R. Petzold, wife and three children left Monday night for a three months visit to Germany.

B. S. Bellomy returned Sunday afternoon from a business trip to Albany and Salem.

George Fuchs, of Portland, visited his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuchs, last Sunday.

County Superintendent Starkweather visited the schools in the vicinity of Garfield during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Schwartz, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Schwartz Sunday.

H. A. Waldron, of New Era precinct, was in Oregon City Saturday, and is very proud of the fact that a daughter arrived at his home on April 15th.

Postmaster O. Wissinger and Miss Hattie Bonnett, of Milwaukie, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Charman Sunday.

P. Irish, wife and seven children arrived from northern Nebraska Friday, and will make Clackamas county their home. Mr. Irish has a brother residing a few miles from town and a son at Forest Grove.

A very creditable entertainment was given by the Milwaukie school last Friday evening for the benefit of the library fund. A fan drill, sword drill and burlesque opera were prominent features of the entertainment.

At the First Congregational church next Sabbath morning there will be communion service and reception of members. The subject of the evening sermon will be "A Great Question." The public is always welcomed.

Mrs. Ida Barclay, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Musa, and son Verne, left last Thursday evening for California, where they will spend the summer with the former's daughter. Miss Musa, however, will return in a couple of months.

G. W. Mallatt, of Molino, was in the city Saturday, and stated that the new creamery at that place would start up about the 15th of May. Although the capacity of the plant will be much larger, it will commence on a run of 150 gallons of milk daily.

A cut of 20 per cent has been made in the wages of the employees in the pulling department of the woolen mills, and the force has been reduced. A prominent employee of the company is authority for the statement that wages will probably be reduced in other departments.

Adam Lamour, well known in this city, died at his home at Macksburg last Thursday of cancer. The deceased was a highly respected citizen and a member of the I. O. O. F., G. A. R., A. O. U. W. and Grange. He leaves a wife and eight children in good circumstances.

I. J. Bigelow, one of the prominent farmers of Molalla, was in Oregon City Tuesday, and states that a large acreage of wheat will be sown in Clackamas county this spring than ever before known. Fall grain looks splendid, and the farmers are busy sowing their spring crop.

Rev. W. H. Latourette, of Oakland, California, was the guest of his brother, D. O. Latourette, over Sunday. Rev. Latourette was on his way to Alaska in the interest of the Baptist Home Missionary Society, and will spend the summer there looking up suitable points to establish missions.

John Gower, a native of Shoreham, Kent, England, died near Oswego Saturday evening, aged 78. He was buried in the Oregon City cemetery Monday, and the funeral services were conducted by an Episcopal minister from Portland. Mr. Gower lived with his son, John Gower, superintendent of the Morey ranch, and died of old age.

George Noland, of Astoria, the union candidate for prosecuting attorney of this district, was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Noland will return to Clackamas county, and address the people on the same dates and places with Hon. Robert Veatch, the union candidate for congress. Mr. Noland is a native son of Oregon, having been born and raised in Lane county.

C. G. Holt, of Elkhorn, was in Oregon City Monday. He is interested with Dr. Goncher, of Molino, in a very promising quartz ledge on a tributary of the Santiam in one corner of Marion county. They are already in 60 feet with a prospecting tunnel, and are working in paying ore. A Portland company has been interested in the venture, and the development will be pushed.

Several boys have been in the habit of late of climbing on the south bound overland, and jumping off again when the train was fairly under way. Last Saturday evening Officer Shaw arrested a boy about 15 years old for jumping the train, but afterward let him go upon his solemn promise not to repeat the performance. It has been only about a year since an Oregon City boy was killed by climbing about on a moving train.

Picking pockets is becoming alarmingly frequent in Oregon City of late. The latest victim was ex-Judge Harlan, of Hood River, who was relieved of his pocket book last Saturday evening. He was entering a passenger car of the overland train on his way to Canby, where he was billed for a speech before the Union club. His pocket book was in his hip pocket and felt a light touch on his person, and suddenly discovered that his purse was gone. On looking around he discovered two men hurrying along the car on the bluff side of the train. It was evident that the pickpockets re-entered another car, as there whereabouts could not be discovered.

KLONDIKE SUPPLIES

If you are going to Klondike or only thinking about it. We invite you to call and inspect our

IMMENSE STOCK

We have an entire floor 100 feet by 75 devoted exclusively to Klondike supplies, including

Blankets, Rubber Goods, Mackinaw Clothing, Shoes, Tents, Fur Caps, Groceries & Provisions,

of all kinds at LOWEST PRICES. We pack and deliver everything free of charge at the wharves either at Portland, Tacoma or Seattle.

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

Third and Oak Streets.

BEN SELLING, Manager

Send for Klondike Catalogue—Free

Longstreet Vaughan, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

George Doll returned Wednesday from a visit to Minneapolis' Minn.

Mrs. Gus. Seol has opened up a restaurant, next door to the armory hall.

F. F. White left yesterday for Alaska, where he expects to spend the summer.

Miss Anna Samuels, of Portland, was visiting Miss Erma Lawrence Wednesday.

County Clerk Dixon issued a marriage license on April 23d to Rose Snyder and Henry L. Rogers.

Receiver William Galloway delivered his lecture on "Lands" at McMinnville last Saturday night.

Leighton Kelly came down from Albany Wednesday morning with the expectation of joining his company in the war with Spain.

F. T. Barlow has moved into the store room underneath the Enterprise office. He has been carrying on a grocery business at the old corner for 14 years.

F. A. Seight, who is now looking after his strawberry farm near Canby, was in town Tuesday. He states that there is a splendid prospect for a good yield of strawberries.

Father Hillebrand went to Portland Tuesday to attend the silver jubilee services, now being celebrated on account of the 25th anniversary of Archbishop's Grosse's episcopacy.

J. M. Spert and Wm. Yohann, of Macksburg, returned this week from Eastern Washington, where they had been working at the carpenters trade. Mr. Spert has about recovered from the effects of a broken limb which was noted in our columns at the time of its occurrence.

Master Frankie Richter, the blind boy pianist, will appear at Willamette hall on Friday evening under the auspices of the studio of fine arts of Portland. Miss Griswold, a singer who has entertained audiences in all the principal cities of Europe and America, will assist.

Mort Whitcomb, of Minneapolis, Minn., was visiting his brother-in-law, F. L. Parker, several days during the week. Mrs. Whitcomb has been here for the past month. Both left on the steamer for San Francisco last night, and will return home after making a brief tour of California.

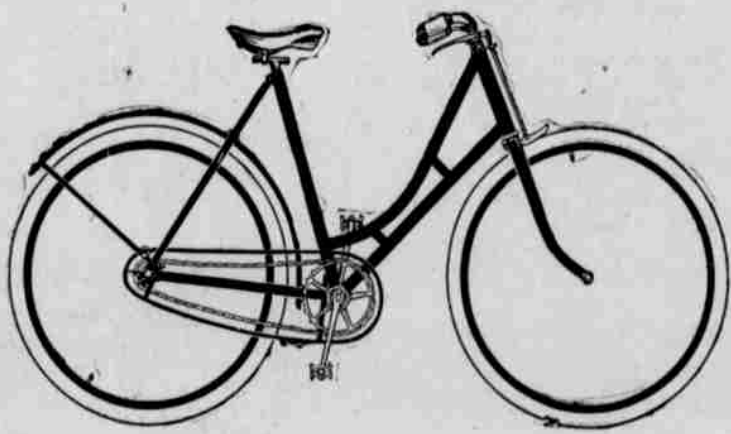

Frank Walsh, of Pendleton, was visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Knowles, in this city Tuesday and Wednesday. His father, M. Walsh, is a resident of Milwaukie. Mr. Walsh has been employed in the Pendleton woolen mills for some time past, and was on his way to Albany to join his company, which will probably be ordered to the front.

Mrs. Turney Dead.

Mrs. Catherine Turney died last Friday, April 22, at the home of her son, David Turney in Canemah, aged 86 years. The funeral services were conducted by Mrs. Wilkerson, of Canemah, on Sunday, April 24, and the remains were interred in the Canemah cemetery. The deceased was born in Balfour county, West Virginia, in 1808. The following lines are dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Turney, by Rebecca Turney:

But will never be forgotten,
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which can never be filled,
God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon he gave us given,
And through her body moldering
There her soul is safe in Heaven.

Victor Bicycles

'98 Model 32, Cut Price - - - $60.00
'98 Model 35, Cut Price - - - $40.00

'98 Victors have the straight line sprocket.

Burmeister & Andresen, Local Agents