

NEW THIS WEEK

HANDSOME PARASOLS and SUN UMBRELLAS, all samples, no two alike; also children's parasols.

LATEST SCOTCH TARTAN PLAID LINEN HOSIERY for ladies and children; high novelties, 50c pair; Roman stripes, 25c and 35c.

LADIES SILK MITTS in lace and taffeta, 15c, 20c and 25c.

New things in belts, fringed sashes and scarfs, etc.

Ladies' summer vests, 5c, 10c, 20c and 25c.

Spring shoulder capes and separate skirts; best values ever shown here in under-skirts.

National tri-color and flag ribbons; flags and bunting. Home prices.

McAllen & McDonnell

The Exclusive Dry Goods House of the Northwest.
COR. THIRD AND MORRISON STS., PORTLAND, ORE.

TRADING STAMPS? YES!

LOCAL SUMMARY.

Pure fruit flavored ice cream soda at Prier's.

The pioneer meat market of C. Albright continues to serve its customers well and always keeps a large amount of fresh meats on hand.

Last year's patterns of wall paper at reduced prices. Five and 10c notation counters. At Bellomy & Busch.

F. I. Andrews, the market gardener, has always on hand a large amount of first-class apples, vegetables, pure cider and cider vinegar. Give him a trial.

Kenworthy's restaurant and confectionery is now opened and ready to serve first-class meals on short notice. Oysters a specialty. Wheeler & Cram's old stand.

The most reliable goods at lowest living cash prices are kept by the grocery store of Marr & Muir.

Justice court blanks 15 cents per dozen at Courrier office.

We are the leaders over all others in stylish millinery and popular prices. Oelia Goldsmith.

Nottingham lace curtains, balance of lot just received. Will close out at the same old price. Oregon City Auction House.

Try Kenworthy's ice cream. Ice cream and cake 15 cents a dish or two for 25c. Ice cream or ice cream soda 10c.

Just received, 100 rolls of fine matting. Call at once and get choice of patterns. Oregon City Auction House.

All our bicycles have the new departure brakes, just the thing for riding in this country. Charman & Co., agents for Columbia bicycles.

We are leaders for stylish millinery at popular prices. Oelia Goldsmith.

F. I. Andrews, the gardener, as usual has the first young radishes and onions of the season, besides other early vegetable.

Albright is never "just out" of the kind of meat you want as he knows what his customers desire and keeps a full stock on hand and you don't need to take "what's left."

A high grade warranted sewing machine sells for $25 on easy payments at Bellomy & Busch.

D. E. Kenworthy at the East Side Ry office serves meals or oysters at all times. He also keeps a line of confectionery fruits and cigars.

Hail the wagon of Mr. Andrews if you want anything in the fresh vegetable line.

Our $30 wheels have the automatic brake; you can go down any hill. Charman & Co., agents for Columbia Bicycles.

Try Prier's ice cream and ice cream soda. Pure fruit flavors. Fruits, nuts and confectionery of all kinds.

Dan Williams has added to his stock of groceries and provisions a full line of feed and hay. Goods delivered to all parts of the city free. Corner Seventh and Center streets.

G. H. Yonng's second hand store can furnish you with furniture, stoves, hardware, etc., at less than one-fourth what same would cost new and they are just as good and will last as long. Give him a trial.

When in Portland be sure and call at the Royal restaurant where you can get the best 15c meal in the city. 253 First street, corner of Madison. Wm. Bohlander, proprietor.

The Club tonorial parlors. P. G. Shark, proprietor. shaves for 10 cents. A full line of cigars and tobacco is kept.

45 cents round trip from Oregon City to Portland and return via Southern Pacific trains. One way rate 25 cents. Tickets now on sale at railroad depot. Trains leave Oregon City at 8:40 a. m., and 3:35 p. m., and arrives from Portland at 9:23 a. m. and 6:52 p. m. Save time by using the quicker route.

Hon. Will R. King, candidate for governor, and Hon. J. R. Sovereign, of Arkansas, will address the citizens of Oregon City, May 20th at Shively's hall.

The W. P. & Co. last week purchased the steamer Salem. The boat will be used to carry wood, pulp, paper, etc., also a towboat.

Miss Grace Marshall, of Portland, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. F. Ryan, has returned home.

A new time card has been issued by the S. P. R. R. Co., but time of trains on east side road has not been changed. The overland train from Portland now arrives at San Francisco one-half hour later. An extra train has been put on between Oswego and Portland.

Leather belts, all colors, also a nice variety, of belt fasteners, at the Racket Store.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Mrs. Gilman Parker has recovered from a week's illness.

Mrs. T. A. McBride, of Astoria, was in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Sadie Raybor, of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Parker.

John Zobrist, a well known citizen of Orrinsville, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. J. O. Read and daughter are occupying part of Henry Harding's house.

The Eastern Star will give a sociable in the Masonic hall on the 24th of May.

Judge Crowell, of Jacksonville, will speak in Shively's Hall, on May 25, at 7:30 p. m.

L. O. Hornschuch, of Beaver Creek, has accepted a position in Mr. Schwartz's Clothing Store.

Mrs. Christina Gilmore, of Portland, spent the week with her grand daughter, Mrs. J. W. Kelly.

P. F. Morey and family on Saturday moved to their palatial summer residence near Oswego.

Henry J. Scott has sold his store at Mulino to F. M. Manning and has moved back to Oregon City.

Mrs. Ellen Walsh, of Milwaukie, was in this city Wednesday visiting friends and paying her taxes.

E. N. Well, the one-armed photographer, leaves Oregon City this week for Southern Oregon.

A. E. Tamisee, of Huntley's drug store, returned Sunday from a visit to relatives at Hillsboro.

Grant Olds has moved from Falls View to Gladstone, where he is occupying John Gibson's cottage.

B. S. Bellomy has just purchased a fine two-seated carriage and now has one of the finest turnouts in the city.

Miss Allie Gale, of Baker City, who has been visiting friends in this city, returned to her home Wednesday.

J. C. Bradley returned Sunday from a trip to Idaho, where he went to look after a railroad surveying contract.

Miss Amy Gray, of Portland, was the guest of her sister, Miss Jennie Gray, of the Oregon City postoffice, Tuesday.

George Heath, of La Camas, is visiting with his friends in this city. He will remain here for about two weeks.

W. G. Beattie, who has been a student at the State University at Eugene for the past year, returned home Tuesday.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church will give a special in Willamette Hall, Wednesday evening, May 25. All are invited.

Merrill Phillips, of Albany, first lieutenant to Co. I, Oregon Volunteers, was visiting his sister, Mrs. O. H. Caufield Friday and Saturday.

James Shaw has disposed of his interest in the Dallas woolen mills and his family has returned to Oregon City and are living at Green Point.

Dr. J. H. Miller, Dentist, has no gone East as was reported. He is still in his office on 7th street and uses cataphoresis for painless filling.

Mrs. D. R. Hughes, of East Portland, spent the early part of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes, at Mount Pleasant.

Rev. T. F. Royall and wife, of Salem, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. Oberg, the past few days, returned to their home Tuesday.

General Secretary Levi Johnson, of the Y. M. C. A., is taking a month's rest, and H. L. Muir fills the position of secretary during his absence.

Ex Judge John W. Meldrum, has been appointed examiner of public surveys; he and his son Charles, left on Monday for Nevada on an official trip.

Mrs. H. W. Duff has returned from an extended stay on her farm near Highland, and will spend a part of the summer with her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Montgomery.

W. B. Poyser lost two valuable horses Monday evening near Parkplace, which was run over by the overland passenger train, and instantly killed. They were valued at $100 each.

Mrs. J. H. Strickler has postponed her May concert from the 20th to the 21st on account of Hon. J. R. Sovereign and Hon. W. R. King, who speak at Shively's on Friday, the 20th.

Receiver William Galloway went to Eugene Saturday, and delivered his lecture on "Public Lands" before the faculty and students of the State University. Mrs. Galloway accompanied him to Eugene and went on to Roseburg to attend the convention of Rebekahs.

Latest Russian blouse front shirt waists, different styles, at the Racket Store.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery returned Monday from Roseburg, where he made an address before the State Christian Endeavor Convention. He was elected vice-president for the ensuing year.

Don't miss the meeting at the Salvation Army Saturday evening, May 21st. Officers from Portland will take charge. Ice cream and cake will be served after the meeting. An invitation is extended to all.

Dr. George Hoeye, a dentist of Portland, has located in this city and established an office in the Kelly building, over Schwartz's clothing house. He does all kinds of work and guarantees satisfaction.

Hon. Robt. Bridges, commissioner of public lands for State of Washington, and Hon. Chas. G. Heifner, insurance commissioner of State of Washington, will speak at Oregon City on May 30, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Lillis, of Spokane, Wash., is the guest of the Misses France. She formerly resided in Mansfield, Ohio, where her husband is interested in the large farming implement establishment of Lillis Bros.

The U. S. grand jury at Portland returned two indictments against Ex-Postmaster Green, Monday. He pleaded not guilty to the charge of issuing fraudulent money orders, and will plead to the other charge next Monday.

K. McFarland, of Clackamas, is traveling over the county in the interest of George B. Rate & Co., of Portland, who are agents for the Vigorit powder. The county court has given this powder a test on the roads, and it does double the execution of some other brands.

Mrs. Mary R. Frey, who has been visiting her daughter, Mesdames Gilman Parker and J. R. Seaver, left last week for Olympia, Washington, where she will visit her grand-daughter, Mrs. Vandervoer. Mrs. Frey is over 88 years of age and travels alone.

Mrs. H. Morris, of Macksburg, mother of J. K. Morris, of this city, left Friday for Dufur, Wasco county, to visit her oldest brother, L. J. Klinger. She was accompanied by her son, O. G., who goes to Prineville. Mrs. Morris is a pioneer, having crossed the plains in 1847.

W. A. White was called by a telegram from his mother at Tracyville, Iowa, Monday, to come at once and look after matters pertaining to the White estate. He left Monday night for his Eastern trip, and will return as soon as he can properly adjust the matter demanding his attention.

There will be a very exciting game of basket ball at the Armory Friday evening between the Springwater team and the Y. M. C. A. team of this city. The admission to see the game will be 10 cents, and the last half will be completed in time for the spectators to witness the exercises at Shively's Opera House.

T. F. Ryan, J. C. Bradley and Harry Trembath went to Roseburg Monday night, to represent Oregon lodge at the I. O. O. F. grand lodge in session at that place this week. Mrs. W. H. Howell and Mrs. J. C. Bradley are representing Willamette Rebekah Degree lodge, and Mrs. William Galloway and Mrs. C. O. T. Williams are the delegates to the state convention of Rebekahs in session at the same place.

The regular weekly meeting of the McLaughlin Chautauqua circle was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caufield Monday evening. The meeting to be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Charman next Monday night will complete the reading course for this year. All members of the circle are requested to be present. Prof. Zinser has done excellent service as leader for the past three months.

Henry Meldrum returned home Sunday after three months spent in the cold regions of Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin, where he has been in the service of the government as special examiner of surveys. He examined the boundaries of an Indian reservation, besides inspecting some recent surveys. Mr. Meldrum will remain at home until after the June election. His name has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for the appointment of surveyor general for Oregon.

The following delegation from Meade Post, G. A. R., and the Relief Corps, left on a special electric car at 5:45 Tuesday morning to take a boat at Portland for The Dalles, to the state G. A. R. encampment and Relief Corps convention: A. Mautz, J. Martin, Miss Martin, Miss Blanchard, Ohas. Horn, Miss Horn, M. L. Moore, E. T. Grider, E. W. Midlam, Miss Jennie Rowen, Mrs. Jennie B. Harding, Mrs. Belle Harding, Mrs. Sarah McCown, Julius Priester.

The city council held a special meeting Saturday night, and passed an ordinance to build an elevated sidewalk, eight feet wide, from Eighth street to the top of the bluff on Seventh street. This walk will pass over the Southern Pacific railroad track, but out of the way of passing trains; and three-fifths of the expense of building the same will be borne by adjacent property owners. The committee on streets and public property were authorized to receive bids and award contract for constructing the sidewalk.

The Oregon City public school will close on the 27th and the graduating exercises will be held in the evening at Shively's hall. Beside the regular exercises Tennyson's "Hiawatha" will be presented. The following 18 graduate this year: Octavia Hermann, Maria Pratt, Eva Moehne, Bessie Wood, Ivy Roake, Maud Noble, Myrtle Buchanan, Emma Allison, Bursa Reddick, Iva Harrington, Bertha Scott, Clara Holmstrom, Lorena Lazelle, Tom Myers, Charles Blum, Willie Shively, John Knapp, and Harry Shaner.

Theresa Ordway has filed a suit for a divorce in the circuit court against Charles Ordway. The Ordways were married in Portland on the 5th day of June, 1890, and in October 1896, the plaintiff alleges that the defendant wilfully deserted and abandoned her. She asks for a decree of divorce, and the right to resume her maiden name, Theresa Arrigoni. S. Klinger has begun an injunction suit against George Saum to restrain him from maintaining a dam on the former's premises, or at least to lower the dam so that the overflow of water will not damage Klinger's premises.

M. V. Hill has returned from Forest Grove, and is visiting relatives here.

Born, in this city Wednesday, May 18th, to Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Gray, a daughter.

Miss Hattie Engle, of New Era was visiting relatives in Oregon City this week.

Miss Nellie Latourette, of McMinnville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Latourette.

Mrs. Alex Schram is very ill with spinal meningitis, and her recovery is considered doubtful.

Henry Smathers, one of the prominent farmers of Highland, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Miss Martha Tucker and E. M. Mortimore, both of this city, were married in East Portland last Saturday.

George Heath, of La Camas, is visiting friends in the city. He has been setting type and rustling news for the La Camas Courier.

Mrs. Martha Blakeslee, of Chehalis, Wash., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkinson, and sister, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins.

Miss Grace E. Jordan and Leslie E. Look, both of Clackamas county, were married at the Electric hotel Wednesday. Rev. H. Oberg officiated.

W. I. Phillips, a prominent business man of Chicago, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. C. H. Canfield. He made his first trip to this coast four years ago.

Revs. Gilman Parker and A. J. Montgomery were the only two Oregon City representatives at the state Christian Endeavor convention, held in Roseburg last week.

Miss Alta Dodge, daughter of E. Dodge, residing near Ely, and Dan Graves were married at the court house Saturday, May 14th, County Judge Hayes officiating.

Mrs. M. A. Gilmer and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Burroughs, Fresno county, Calif., arrived Saturday and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye for a few days. Mrs. Gilmer is Mr. Dye's only sister.

A. D. Johnson, who has been filling the position as manager of the Crown Payer Mills since February, was joined by his family last Friday. They came direct from Appleton, Wisconsin, and will make their future home here.

The subjects of sermons at the First Congregational church next Sunday will be at 11:30 a. m. "Life and Abundance." At 8 p. m. "The Spiritual World, Where is It?" Dr. Putler will preach at Ely at 2 p. m. Sunday.

R. W. Zimmerman, the Needy tanner, was a caller at this office Tuesday morning. Mr. Zimmerman, who has successfully conducted a tannery at that place for several years will close down the same about June 1st, as he desires to take a rest.

Miss Annie Engle and W. H. Everhart, both of Molalla, were married at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Everhart, at Ely, Sunday, May 15th, Justice Schuebel officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Everhart will reside on the Everhart farm at Molalla.

Hon. W. R. King and Hon. J. R. Sovereign at Shively's Friday Evening May 20th.

Oregon City will have a rousing, big Fourth of July celebration this year. The business men are all in favor of it, and the council committee appointed to organize the matter are C. D. Latourette, R. Koerner and H. E. Harris. Another meeting of the citizens will be called soon.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Lease delivered a very interesting lecture on the "Signs of the Times," under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at Shively's opera house Tuesday evening. The audience appreciated the efforts of the national lady orator, and greeted her eloquence with frequent applause.

Word was received in the city Wednesday afternoon that Alex. Thomson, of Clackamas, one of the candidates on the republican legislative ticket, was paralyzed. Dr. Strickland was summoned, and brought back the news that his condition was not as serious as had been reported, and stated that he would be all right in two or three days.

Pursuant to instructions from Adjutant G. T. Willets, of the O. N. G., acting captain, Fred Metzner, of separate Company F, called a meeting Wednesday night to take steps toward reorganizing the militia company. Thirty names were enlisted and another meeting will be held Monday night to complete the organization and elect officers.

The Clackamas County Teachers' Association will hold its next regular monthly meeting at Harmony, Saturday, May 28th. It is expected that J. H. Ackerman, the republican candidate for superintendent of public instruction, will be in attendance. An interesting program to be participated in by local teachers, will be presented. The S. P. trains will stop at the crossing near the Harmony school house for the convenience of those attending the gathering.

Chief of Police Burns and Officer Shaw deserve special commendation for their effective work in capturing the thieves that stole 1000 pounds of bacon from Dan Fellows at Highland last week. Constable McCown, too, aided in their capture. As a result, Tom Scott, Fred Johnson and Will May are all lying in the county jail. Scott pleaded guilty, and by request of the prosecuting attorney his bail was placed at $200. Scott appeared as a witness against Johnson, and Justice Schuebel placed his bonds at $1000. On Wednesday May waived examination, and his bonds were placed at $500. Among the stolen goods found in Scott's cabin, and in the hands of the officers are carpenter's tools, jewelry, pants with the cost mark on the cost tag, etc.

KLONDIKE SUPPLIES

If you are going to Klondike or only thinking about it. We invite you to call and inspect our

IMMENSE STOCK

We have an entire floor 100 feet by 75 devoted exclusively to Klondike supplies, including

Blankets, Rubber Goods, Mackinaw Clothing, Shoes, Tents, Fur Caps, Groceries & Provisions, of all kinds at LOWEST PRICES. We pack and deliver everything free of charge at the wharves either at Portland, Tacoma or Seattle.

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

Third and Oak Streets.

BEN SELLING, Manager

Send for Klondike Catalogue—Free

H. F. Gibson, of Eagle Creek, was in the city Wednesday evening and states that George J. Curran, of Currinville, met with almost a serious accident while marking cattle in the ears at the Burnett place. The knife slipped and cut a gash one-half inch deep in Mr. Curran's throat. He bled profusely for awhile and a physician was summoned. The wound, however, is not believed to be serious. Mr. Gibson and J. E. Burnett, have been purchasing and gathering up cattle for J. S. Ferguson, of Eugene, which will be shipped today from Clackamas station to North Dakota. They are stock cattle, and reasonable prices were paid for the same.

For some time past the water commission and other citizens have been laboring diligently to get the exorbitant insurance rates reduced, and at last their cherished hopes are to be realized. The water pumps and entire system has been overhauled, and an automatic sprinkling attachment placed on the building enclosing the pumping station, which will give it absolute protection from fire. P. de S. Olney, manager district D, board of fire underwriters of the Pacific, with headquarters at Portland, and A. W. Gunnison, surveyor for the board, were in the city Wednesday, and will survey and re-rate the city.

The following applicants for teachers' certificates successfully passed the ordeal of an examination last week. County Superintendent Starkweather and the other members of the board finished grading the papers Wednesday evening: First grade—O. D. Ely, of Molalla, and Aura Thompson, of Oswego. Second grade—William Hayhurst, Carus; M. S. Shrock, Barton; Mittie Bird-all, Antelope; A. F. Knight, Canby; Joella Johnson, Corbet; Jessie Curran, Currinville; Grace McKerron, Orient; Emma Her, Middleton. Third grade—Frank Mitts, Needy; H. F. C. M. Cramer, Eva Moehne, Lizzie McDonald, Millie Wilson, C. H. Bateman, Oregon City; Pearl Ream, Willamette; Cecil Cusper, Clarkes; Earl Elliott, Powell's Valley; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Zimmerman, Gladys Tufts, Oswego; Maud Cochran, Needy; Marie Bruce, Portland; Rose Bowerman, Sunnyside; Lizzie Blakney, Pavn; Edith Karr, Julia Spooner, Lentz; Alice Gattridge, Springwater; Mabel Finn, Molalla. H. T. Evans, of Oswego, was examined and recommended for a state life diploma, and Shirley Buck, of Hubbard, for a state certificate.

Special Notice!

During my absence I have placed in charge of my dental office, Dr. W. T. Lyon, whom I can recommend to my friends and the public in general, as a skillful and reliable dentist.

L. L. PICKENS.

SPECIAL SALE

$10.00

Men's Suits

LOOK LIKE MADE TO ORDER

SUITS THAT COST $25.00

ALL NEW STYLES

Plain Black, Brown Checks, mixtures
—Black worsted—all of them strictly wool.....
Boys Suits - - - - - $2.50
Youths Suits - - - - - $4.50

"FAMOUS" Portland's Largest Clothing House