County Judge Hayes received official notice Friday from Superintendent Paine of the state insane asylum, stating that Mrs. Elizabeth Boese, committed from Clackamas county March 16, was released May 17 on a six months' leave of absence. Mrs. Boese is an elderly German lady living near Damascus, and attempted suicide about March 14, by jumping into a neighbor's well, and a day or two later was sent to the insane asylum.

John Green, Max Schulpins and T. M. Miller are being pushed by their respective friends for the position of night policeman in the upper Seventh street district. Mr. Green is evidently several blocks ahead of his competitors in the race, and the mayor and the city council will evidently look upon his candidacy with favor. Many residents on the bill have long agitated the appointment of a night watchman in that portion of the city, and it is now believed that the mayor will appoint one.

The patriotic citizens of Eagle Creek will celebrate the Fourth of July in grand style, and the exercises will be held in the school house park. C. H. Dye and G. B. Dimock will be the orators, and the program will include vocal and instrumental music, horse and bicycle racing. A prize will be given to the most graceful horse back riders, lady and gentleman. Other features of the day will be a sack race, egg race, three-legged race and a fat man's race, and there will be dancing in the afternoon and evening. The committee having the celebration in charge are A. D. Burnett and H. F. Gibson, which insures its success.

James Ward has returned from Dyes, where he has been for several months, and brings some news of what the Oregon City colony are doing. Fairclough, Heckart, Collins, Batdori, Cox, Tucker and Eastman are all at the lakes, waiting for the ice to break up. Harry Allen has purchased Lou Doolittle's bunkhouse at Dyes, and the latter is now at Seattle. Letters received from O. A. Muir and C. P. Scroggins at Lake Bennett state that the ice is breaking, and they expect to continue on their journey soon. They saw two men, two horses and two mules break through the ice, and all were drowned except the mules. F. F. White, who left Oregon City a few weeks ago, is now on his way over Chil-koot pass.

George E. Howell, formerly of this city, has been awarded $1000 by Judge Shattuck, of Portland, on account of injuries received in an accident last April, while riding on a car of the City & Suburban Railway Company. He received an injury to his foot, a scalp wound and injury to his lumbar region. The company offered to compromise matters but he concluded to carry the matter to the courts. He sued for $8,000 and was awarded $1,000.

The Clackamas County Teachers Association will hold their regular monthly meeting at Harmony Saturday. Prof. J. H. Ackerman is expected to be present, and the following numbers have been arranged for the program: A vocal duet by Misses Hattie Monroe and Nellie Younger; "Methods of Teaching Physiology" by Miss Jennie Rowen; "Public School Graduates" by E. M. Ward; selection by the Milwaukie quartet, Mrs. Ida Starkweather Derry, Miss Rose Scott, S. E. Hunter and Fred Rogers. "Responsibility of Teachers" by A. W. McLaughlin; guitar solo, Miss Aura D. Thompson; "Measurements," Miss Gertrude Finley, followed by a general text book discussion.

The members of the McLoughlin Chautauque circle held the last meeting of the reading course for the year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Charman, Monday evening. As a supplement to the study of Medieval Europe, just completed, the Italian renaissance was discussed with the achievements and revival and growth of architecture, sculpture and painting of that period. Misses Laura Beattie and Addie Clark gave some interesting sketches of the great artists, Michael Angelo, Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael. Professor J. C. Zinser, the leader gave a brief resume of some historical data and conditions of government during the middle ages and the beginning of the reformation. A vote of thanks was unanimously expressed to Mrs. C. H. Caulfield and Mrs. E. E. Charman for entertaining the circle at their homes during the past year, and to Professor J. C. Zinser for his painstaking work as leader. Mrs. C. H. Dye, the former leader was present at this meeting, and took an active interest in the discussions.

A lot of the stolen goods found in Tom Scott's mountain cabin, and in the possession of Chief of Police Burns, have been identified by the owners. Some carpenter tools were identified by J. E. Dowd and A. Harper, of Woodburn, last Friday, but there are a few tools left that have not yet been identified by their owners. M. Butala, a Mount Angel merchant was in the city Saturday, and identified the clothing, pants, shoes and jewelry, which were found cached in Scott's cabin, and says there are more articles missing. He brought down the brace and bit used in breaking into the store, which the burglars left behind, and left the same in the hands of the officers. Chief Burns has in his possession some under clothes, pillow slips, towels, etc., that were found in the possession of Fred Johnson when he was arrested at Wright's Springs, that were likely taken from some clothes line in or near Oregon City. Neither Scott, Johnson or May have yet given bonds, and it is probable that complaints will be lodged against them for complicity in other robberies.

Excursion Date Changed.

The date of the excursion of the Congregational church, which has been announced for July 4th, has in deference to the request of the committee for a local celebration, been changed, and it is now planned to have the excursion sometime between June 15th and 25th, the exact date to be announced later.

Will Celebrate the Fourth.

The American eagle will scream, powder will burn, the falls will be illuminated with colored fire, and the pent-up patriotism of Oregon City's people will give vent to itself on the Fourth of July. A celebration is assured beyond a doubt. T. L. Charman and J. G. Pillsbury, who were appointed a sub-committee by the city council committee to solicit funds to defray the expenses of a celebration reported satisfactory encouragement at the committee meeting held at the council chamber Wednesday night. Mayor Caulfield presided, and the following committees were appointed:

Soliciting and Finance—T. L. Charman, J. G. Pillsbury, E. G. Caulfield. Music—A. S. Dresser, Mrs. J. H. Strickler, Geo. F. Horton. Arrangements and Program—E. E. Charman, E. J. McKittrick, F. T. Griffith.

Sports—J. P. Lovett, W. H. Howell, Dr. E. A. Sommer, H. E. Harris.
