A Patriotic Service.

A very impressive and interesting patriotic service was held at the M. E. church Sunday evening, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Harold Oberg. After some excellent selections by the choir, Gen. Beebe made an interesting talk on the Oregon National Guards, having been connected with them for the past ten years. Old army officers, who had viewed the army troops at the presidio in San Francisco, stated the Oregon regiment was the only one that came up to the standard in morale, bearing and equipment. In reference to the call for more volunteers from Oregon, he said that our equipment was about exhausted—and that the new volunteers would have to go to the state poorly outfitted.

Mrs. C. H. Dye read an original poem on "The Men Behind the Guns," which was heartily applauded. This poem was printed in last Sunday's Oregonian. Mrs. Dye said that she had read a newspaper article on "The Men Behind the Guns" and the sentence kept ringing through her ears while attending to her household duties and the result was she composed the verses. She stated that the next son she wrote would be about the Oregon soldier boys. V. Harris sang "A Flag Without a Stain," which was well received. The program ended with a selection by a quartet, consisting of Mr. Titus, J. O. Peterson, John Hickman and J. L. Swafford.

School Report.

The following is the report of school district No. 21, for the month beginning May 2d and ending May 27th: number of pupils enrolled, 12. Those neither absent nor tardy were: Hester Linn, Julius and Joseph Stoen. Visitors were: Fred Wilcox, Mrs. H. A. Wilcox, Olive Mosher, Hazel Commons.
HATTIE F. WILCOX, Teacher.

School Board Meeting.

The Oregon City school board held a meeting Saturday evening and elected teachers for the ensuing year as follows: City superintendent, L. W. McAdam; Barclay school—Principal, J. C. Zinser; grade teachers, Misses Gertrude Finley, Addie Clark, Laura Beattie, Hattie Cochran, and May Kelly, Eastham school—Principal, Mrs. L. W. McAdam; grade teachers, Misses Ora Spangler, Erma Lawrence, Mollie Hankins, Helena Barck and Mrs. D. H. Glass. All the old teachers were re-elected, except Miss Gertrude Neizer, one of the teachers in the Barclay school, she having sent a communication to the board that she did not desire the place, as it was her intention to further pursue her course of studies in some school. The board directed the school clerk to express their regrets to Miss Neizer, and her successor will be elected at another meeting.

Some matters pertaining to the finances of the school district were adjusted, and the clerk was directed to advertise for bids for 125 cords of wood. All the members of the board were present, including, Dr. W. E. Carl, O. H. Caulfield, E. E. Charman, and Mrs. S. M. McCown, district clerk. When the motion was made that the city superintendent be re-elected at the same salary of $1244, for the year, E. E. Charman asked to amend the motion by inserting $1000. The original motion carried.

When it came to the elections of teachers, Mr. Charman made a motion the principals of the Barclay and Eastham schools be heads of families. This motion did not carry, and all the old teachers were re-elected.
