THE SIXTH MASSACHUSETTS. Famous Regiment's Second March Through Baltimore.

Times change and men change with them. This truth is recalled by the reception accorded the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment in Baltimore while on its way to the encampment in Falls Church, Va., to aid in crushing Spain. destruction of the city. This greeting was splendid in conception and carrying out and reflects great credit upon the Baltimoreans who left by Northern regiments going around nothing undone that could contribute by way of Annapolis and avoiding Balto the glorification of the Bay State soldiery while within the contines of Britimore cooled down sufficiently to Maryland's great city. In marked contrast to this was the reception given to the same regiment in the same city on April 19, 1861, while on its way to Washington. Then the command was set upon by a mob numbering thousands, and before the regiment cut its Sixth Regiment, equipped for service way through the infuriated multitude five soldiers were killed and twentyfour wounded. The number of dead and wounded in the assaulting column ago. The invitation was promptly acwas never correctly ascertained, but from the most authentic sources at least thirty were killed and more than with a magnificent welcome. For four 100 wounded. The fight was desperate for more than a mile and the volleys of | Mount Royal station awaiting the soithe soldlers were given with the muzzles of their guns within a few feet of those who disputed their passage. This assault made the regiment famous, as It was the first blood shed in the civil

At Philadelphia the frowning attitude of the Monumental City was communicated to the soldiers en route, whose good time was suddenly interrupted by the order to load their guns with ball cartridge. This meant an ugly recep-

The troops arrived in the hostile city in a crowded station filled with angry men who hurled execrations at the arriving soldiery. Finding this did not provokea quarrel, as the Sixth emerged into the street a fusilade was begun, and soon the air was filled with flying missiles huried at the invaders. Several were struck and then the regiment turned and faced its assaflants. This did not deter the unorganized foe and the command was given to fire. When the smoke lifted several of the dead and dying rioters were stretched on the ground and a panic-stricken mob was hunting a place of safety. A running fight was kept up until the regiment reached the depot on the other side of the city, when it was found that five of the members had been shot to death and many wounded. The ride to Washington was without interruption. The bodies of the dead soldlers were conveyed to their homes and a great funeral procession took place in Boston. A noble monument to their memory is erected on one of the main streets in Worcester, where most of the killed were from

Derivation of the Word Klondike, "The River Trip to the Klondike" is the title of an article by John Sidney

Webb in the Century. Mr. Webb says: "From Dawson the trail to the mines leads over a steep hill to the creek made so famous by its tributaries; for there is not a single mine on the prin- life. cipal stream, which in the miners' slang is called Klondike. And yet this stream does in reality bear a characteristic name given it by the Indians, which is utterly murdered by this pronunciation, now so common.

"The Indians name the creeks throughout the country from some characteristic in connection with the stream itself; and as this one is so swift that in order to set their salmontraps or nets they were obliged to use a hammer to drive the stakes to anchor them, the creek was named by them Hammer Creek, or, in their language, phonetically, Troan Dik. The spelling Klondlke means absolutely nothing, but has been accepted, so I learn, by the Board of Geographical Names of the United States."

The General's Wife Is an Ideal Consort for a Soldier.

Mrs. Nelson A. the army." Mrs. Miles has not lost much of that charm that made her the goddess of every young fellow from West Point in her young days in Calimoreans and led to a general arming of the men and boys, who threatened to massacre any Northern troops that should attempt the march through their city. The public mind became so inflamed that the Mayor pleaded with President Lincoln to withhold his assent to having any more regiments pass through on the series of the series of the series of the wife of a brigadier general, and that is why she wous, and hot, and get tired easily.
