CIRCUIT COURT. Tom Scott, Fred Johnson and Will May Sentenced to the Penitentiary--Scott and May Made Statements.

The following proceedings have been disposed of since the last issue of this paper: A motion to dismiss the complaint in the suit of Rebecca Long, et al, vs John W. Doores was disallowed.

Late Friday night a reporter interviewed Scott and May at the city jail, where they have been confined since their arrest.

Scott said there was only 496 pounds of bacon that was taken from Fellows, and that it was of very poor quality.

"I was arrested on Saturday, the 14th of May. The warrant was handed me by Constable McCown. I read the warrant and found it was for stealing bacon.

"I told Scott that I didn't steal anybody's bacon, but that I would go to town with him. On the Wednesday following I was brought before Justice Schuebel, and previous to the hearing they took me into a little room and showed me a box of dry goods, etc., found in Scott's cabin since my arrest.

"I told Scott that I felt I owed a debt and was perfectly willing to pay it, and the sooner I got it paid the better it would suit me.

"Burns and Cleaton also came to me on June 10th, and told me if I would make a full confession they would try to get me a hearing--that they would try to get a special grand jury drawn so that I could have a hearing at once, and in that way it would be a saving to the county. I told them that I did not want to put the county to five cents more expense than I could help--and if I could be favored with a hearing I would have brought before the grand jury tell the truth to all I knew in reference to the stealing affair, and all that I was guilty of.
