PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

OREGON CITY, JUNE 24, 1898.

BINDER twine going up and wheat going down. But we'll have prosperity by and bye.

This Oregonian points out that, but for the immense republican vote in Multnomah, Kincaid and Lyman would have been elected. And the Multnomah vote is what moves the republican party to oppose registration.

The gold standard newspapers of the world announced that the Oregon election knelled the death of silver coinage, and at once the wheat market of the world collapsed. Verily, wheat and silver go together.—Roseburg Review.

ARTHUR SEWELL, the late silver candidate for vice president, is too old to be accepted as a soldier, but he has made the United States a present of a fine ship to use in the war against Spain. The silver men cannot be excused in patriotic devotion to their country.—Roseburg Review.

During the campaign the Oregonian offered $10,000 reward to any one that would prove that free coinage would not cheapen labor, etc. Sidney Dell made the proof and demanded the reward, but the Oregonian refused to pay and now Mr. Dell has brought suit to collect the same, and the question will be decided in the courts of Multnomah county.

They are feeding raisins to horses in Fresno and the change from barley is both successful as to the horses and profitable to the man. Twelve pounds of raisins is equal to twenty pounds of barley and raisins are only worth $20 a ton against $10 more for barley. So far as heard the animals have made no protest against the change of diet. That is nearly as bad as burning corn for coal in Kansas.—Sacramento News.

The vote cast of the late election was quite short, and did not exceed that thrown for supreme judge in June, 1896—$6,000. This is a falling off of over 10,000 as compared with the vote of McKinley and Bryan. That there was much apathy on the 6th inst., is evidenced by the very large number of stay-at-homes. The republicans turned out en masse and cast almost a solid vote for their nominees. Had the war with Spain not completely overwhelmed the financial and other economic questions, there would have been a decidedly different result.

In Massachusetts the saving bank deposits average $200 per head of the whole population. This is largely due to the facilities for depositing small savings. These are absent in other states, and it is estimated by Edward Atkinson that if postal savings banks were established, in twenty years the average deposits in the United States might be $100 per capita, an aggregate sum of $7,500,000,000. Mr. Atkinson does not say so, but this immense sum would have to be invested and would be sufficient to accomplish the nationalization of railroads, telegraphs and other public services.

Is his annual report General Agent Henry Peterson of the Industrial Aid Society of Boston said: "Since 1893, or the date of the depression in business, the ranks of the unemployed are kept full, and apparently little progress is made in diminishing their numbers. In former years it was customary for manufacturers to retain during the entire year a very large proportion of their help, but lately it is becoming more and more the custom to employ a large force for certain months in the year and then entirely close their factories, throwing out of employment for two or three months a proportion of their operatives."

The law passed by the legislature of Washington declaring that a contract to pay in gold coin should not be specifically enforced by the courts, but the debt might be "paid in and fully satisfied with any kind of lawful money or currency of the United States" has been declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of that state. The court decided that it was an attempt to legislate on a subject belonging exclusively to the federal government and that "a stipulation in a note or mortgage that the debt shall be paid only in gold coin of the present standard value, and that the decree and judgment thereon shall so provide is valid."

We can assure all who invest $40 in a Victor, 1898, Model 35 bicycle, that they are getting their money's worth, and that a greater amount of service and satisfaction cannot be found in any other bicycle on the market at an equal price. Burmeister & Andresen.

Sheriff Grace Resigns.

On Wednesday a special term of the county court was held, and G. W. Grace's resignation as sheriff was accepted, and J. J. Cooke, sheriff elect, was appointed to fill the unexpired term. Sheriff Cooke at once assumed the duties of the office, and has appointed J. E. Jack, of Marquam, his chief deputy. J. W. Grout will remain in the office for a few days, in order to give the new officers an insight into the details. Mr. Grace, who was complimented for his efficiency by the court, left Portland Wednesday night on the steamship Exceller, bound for Dawson City, by way of St. Michaela. He took along about a ton of provision, and will look after his interests, already established in the Yukon. His brothers-in-law, the Faircloughs, took in lot of merchandise, a few months ago, and Mr. Grace may conclude to engage in business there.

The other new county officials will not assume their official duties until July 5th, as the Fourth occurs on the first Monday. The term of office of the present assessor does not expire until January 1st, 1899.

Matters Matrimonial.

HEINZ-ADAIR.—G. A. Heinz, of the Harding grocery and bakery in this city, was married to Miss Eva Adair, at the residence of the bride's parents, at Noble, Marion county, Wednesday, June 22. Rev. W. C. Kautner, of the First Congregational church, of Salem, officiating. The bride is a sister of Miss E. A. Adair, of this city, member of the firm of Heinz & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Heinz will reside in Oregon City.

SPENCER-LOVELL.—Miss Maud Lovell, of Redding, Calif., formerly of this city, was married Sunday, June 19, to Charles C. Spencer, of this city, at the residence of Charles Drew, Rev. Gilman Parker officiating. The ceremony took place in the presence of a few invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer are living in one of the H. L. Kelly houses.

Miss Rue C. Mendenhall and Charles A. Wintermute were married at Justice Schubel's office Monday, July 20th, the latter officiating. Mr. Wintermute is paper maker in the Willamette mill, and the bride is a popular Clackamas county young lady.

Miss Dottie M. Bill and A. C. Brown, of Parkplace, were married Wednesday.

The marriage of Miss Edith Conn, of Astoria, and V. Harris, of this city, is announced to take place at the former's home next Tuesday.

In the Mills.

Since the bottom has dropped out of the wheat market, but small quantities are being stored at the flouring mills in this city. However, the mills are running day and night to fill orders, and there is already flour enough in the warehouse, to load a steamship that is expected to arrive in Portland from China about July 3rd. A reporter accepted the invitation of W. B. Wiggins, the book-keeper, to take a look through a portion of the immense establishment. In the ware room were great piles of sacks of flour made by these mills corded up. Seattle and Tacoma parties get flour ground and sacked in Oregon City with their own brand printed thereon, and Portland gets the advertising benefit of all the flour made in Oregon City. Piled up in the warehouse are a half dozen or so of the company's own brands, among them the famous "Patent," "Dayton Mills," etc., and in another place are huge tiers of sacks bearing Chinese hieroglyphics, and made expressly for the China trade.

Many car loads of Eastern Oregon wheat are made into flour here, 100 cars having arrived at one shipment early in the spring.

It's a caution to watch Dick Long sew sacks filled with flour, as it comes from the chute in a steady stream. In an instant he has the filled sack unfastened from the chute, another one in its place, and with two or three deft motions with sail-needle and twine, the sack is on the truck ready for market.

School Matters.

The closing exercises of the Clackamas school were held Friday afternoon. A very interesting program was presented, and diplomas were given to the following graduating class: George Cramer, Harry Paddock, Ethel Mather, Agnes Mather, Grace Robinson, Bertha Talbert, Herleit Clark, Cora Thomson. After the exercises Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Clark entertained the members of the graduating class at their home, where an excellent supper was served. Mr. M. S. Sturclher was principal of the Clackamas school, and Miss Clara Denner, teacher of the primary department. Both will probably be re-engaged for another year.

W. Young, who has been teaching the Brown school near New Era for several months past, closed the term last Friday. A very interesting program was presented, and a new flag was raised on the 80 foot flag staff. Many visitors and patrons of the school were present on this occasion, and Mr. Young is to be congratulated on the success that has attended his efforts.

The Canemah school closed Friday afternoon. The two very bright graduates from this school were Misses Anna and Edith Smith. Millard Hiatt has been principal, and Miss Hattie Bray teacher of the primary department for the past year, and has given satisfaction.

On Saturday Superintendent Starkweather issued diplomas to Eva Scott, May Oliver and William Lehman, graduates of the Milwaukie school.

Willard Austin closed a nine months' school in Logan district No. 4 last Friday, and will have a vacation until the last of October.

An Old Soldier

His Story of What Hood's Sarsaparilla Has Done

Whole Family Greatly Helped by This Medicine.

"I am an old run down soldier, my whole system being out of order and my right side partially paralyzed. I have tried various remedies and realized only temporary relief. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills, and have derived more real benefit from them than anything I have tried. My wife has been greatly helped by Hood's Sarsaparilla. She was all run down and her system much out of order. My two little boys recovered quickly from the effects of diphtheria by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which rid them of troublesome sores and symptoms of the croup. They are now well and hearty." W. F. BURNETT, Starkey, Oregon.
