

GREAT SPECIAL SALE

Black Mohair Skirts, seven gores, velvet bound and taffeta lined

Special at $1.25

A new line of Crepons Skirts, in fancy colorings, tailor-made. Correct article for the seaside and mountains. Sizes from 37 to 45 inches

Special at $2.50

A new and attractive line of fine tailor-made Skirts, in plain and fancy weaves, $5.00 and $7.00 values,

Special at $4.45

A special line of new Capes and Jackets at $2.50 to $4.50 Great values.

McAllen & McDonnell

COR. THIRD AND MORRISON STS., PORTLAND, ORE.

TRADING STAMPS? YES!

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Mrs. Mollie Hankins is visiting friends at Viola.

T. N. Harmon was down from Marquam Friday.

J. E. Marks returned Monday from a visit to Salem.

Hugh Ginthens was a Molalla visitor in the city Saturday.

Mrs. F. L. Cochran visited friends in Vancouver Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Clark, of Logan, were in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. T. B. Hankins is visiting her brother, D. R. Hughes, at Portland.

Mrs. A. Nelson went to Silverton Tuesday to visit relatives for a few days.

J. D. Jordan was one of the residents of Molalla, who was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Laura Fuller, of Portland, spent Sunday with her brother, Chief of Police Burns.

Miss Hannah Peters, a school teacher of Molalla, was visiting Mrs. Dan Lyons during the week.

Mrs. J. M. Tracy, of Logan, returned Saturday from a visit to relatives at Yoncalla, Douglas county.

There will be a school picnic at firwood this Friday, and A. C. Strange will be one of the speakers.

Where are you going to celebrate the 4th of July? Why don't you go on the excursion to Latourette Falls.

Mrs. C. B. Moores, who has been visiting relatives in Salem, returned on the Roseburg local Monday afternoon.

Special examiner Henry Meldrum left Thursday for North Dakota, where he will inspect some government surveys.

Mrs. W. T. Whitlock and her daughter Mrs. Grace Holt, of Portland, returned Friday from a visit to Forest Grove.

D. A. Forbes, John Erickson and the Bell Brothers left for Eastern Oregon Monday, where they will remain during the summer.

Hugh Smyth, of Boston, a brother of Sidney Smyth arrived this week and will spend the summer with a surveying party in Eastern Oregon.

Fred W. Smith, of Parkplace, who has been a student at the state agricultural college at Corvallis for the past school year, is home again.

H. S. Gibson returned from a trip to The Dalles and other points in Eastern Oregon. He reports a scarcity of grain in that section to assure good crops.

Charles Galloway, of the state university, at Eugene, is home for the vacation. He was the manager of the successful athletic team of that institution.

Harry Eastham, of Parkplace, is back from the Alaskan lakes on the road to the Yukon. He lost a part of his supplies on account of the upsetting of a boat.

Mrs. H. Pecht, of Austin, Texas, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Miss C. Pecht, is visiting the Freytag brothers.

Mrs. Pecht is a sister to the Freytag boys, and this is her visit to Oregon City.

A. McAdam, a prominent business man of Texas, accompanied by his wife and two children, is visiting his brother, Prof. L. W. McAdam and family. They arrived Tuesday morning.

J. M. Tracy hauled in 1000 bushels of wheat from his place at Logan last week, and delivered the same at the mills.

This week he began the undertaking of delivering 1000 bushels of oats in Portland.

Mrs. Ed Fortune and Mrs. Aldrich came up from Portland Tuesday, and went out to Carus to visit the former's sister, Mrs. Moreland. They expect to again move back to this city from Portland.

H. H. Johnson and Steven Hungeate leave this week for Malheur county, where each have government surveying contracts. Among those who will accompany them are Hugh Smyth and John Vaughan.

Miss Grace Marshall, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. F. Ryan. Her brother, John Marshall, passed through the city Wednesday night, with the Portland volunteer recruits, bound for the Philippine Islands.

The Foresters held memorial services Sunday. C. A. Fitch, of Oregon City, late candidate for state printer was the principal speaker on the occasion and he did make a fine talk. It was a well attended affair.—Portland Dispatch.

Ernest Lund, of Oswego, who attempted suicide the other day by cutting his throat in two places with a razor, died from the effects of his wounds Friday. He leaves a family. Lund had a temporary attack of insanity when the deed was committed.

Walter Wyland is again a boarder at the county jail, having been arrested in the Molalla county Friday by Deputy Sheriff Ison. He was indicted for larceny by the grand jury at the April term of court, but jumped his bail bond, and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

Andrew Willis, who was reared in Clackamas county, and at one time conducted a livery stable in Oregon City, was here this week from his ranch at Sheer's bridge, in Grant county. He brought down a drove of fine horses and disposed of them in Portland, and will shortly bring down a band of cattle.

And still mining claims continue to be taken up and recorded in the mineral sections of Clackamas county. During the week C. O. Miller, Ed Miller, A. R. Hawkins, Robert Miller and Jakal Burghew, filed a location on the quartz ledge known as the Boulder Creek mine, two miles south of Salmon postoffice; Ephraim Gill filed a location on a quartz claim near Sadle Rock mountain, near a tributary of Eagle Creek.

Charles Owens, a venerable pioneer of 1850, and a resident of Elliott Prairie, was in the city Monday. Mr. Owens is 75 years of age, and has lived in Clackamas county for 48 years. This was his first visit to Oregon City for seven years, having come in to pay his taxes. Mr. Owens is growing feeble, and says that he does not get away from home very often. He expressed the opinion that this would be his last visit to Oregon City.

A party consisting of F. Durham and son, John Dawson, Joe Martin, Jay Van Meer, Frank Robinson and Miss Stella Dawson left by team Wednesday for Eastern Oregon, with the intention of working during harvest. A family from Bolton, with another team, accompanied them. They go over the Barlow route. Chet Van Meer starts on his bicycle next Sunday for Walla Walla.

Mrs. H. G. Starkweather, of Concord, has been ill during the week.

Born, at Marquam, May 14th to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young, a son.

Attorney J. W. Loder spent Sunday with relatives at McMinville.

E. M. Hartman, of Marquam, was a visitor to Oregon City Wednesday.

George R. Bagley, a Hillsboro attorney, was in Oregon City Friday.

W. R. U'Ren, of Monmouth, is visiting his son, W. S. U'Ren, of Milwaukie.

Mrs. Thomas Mann and son, of Parkplace, are visiting relatives at Roseburg.

Mrs. Noble Heath, of LaOamas, was visiting Oregon City friends during the week.

Miss Marjorie Caulfield has been visiting the Misses Myers on the Eastside in Portland.

Charles Warnock, of Springwater, was looking after business matter in the city Tuesday.

J. H. Turney, of Oregon City, was registered at the Omaha trans-Mississippi convention, a few days ago.

Patriotism will run high among the large number of people going on the excursion on the 4th of July.

You can't afford to beat yourself out of the pleasure of the excursion to Latourette Falls on the 4th of July.

Chief of Police Burns is having the alleys and side streets cleaned up in readiness for the Fourth of July.

Good looking people and odd looking people, in fact people like you are getting ready for the 4th of July excursion.

There is no better place of rest for hard working people than on the Methodist excursion boat on the 4th of July.

In the county court Saturday Joseph Bichner was given judgment against John Kekel and wife by default for $35.

Mrs. William Thomas has gone to Walla Walla to join Mr. Thomas, who has a position in a blacksmith shop there.

Walter Bradley, Don Meldrum and John Dickey have gone to Idaho with H. D. Gralon, who has a surveying contract.

William Kreuger, of Logan, and Angus Kreuger, of Eagle creek, were in the city Saturday. Both report excellent crop prospects.

Miss E. C. Adair, who has been very ill for the past week, accompanied her sister, Miss Ada, to Noble, Tuesday, where their parents reside.

W. E. Grace, a Baker City druggist, was visiting his brother, Sheriff Grace Saturday. Mr. Grace is one of the representatives elected from Baker county.

Mrs. L. E. Wright, of Liberal, a pioneer of 1840, recently joined the Pioneer association in Portland, and has been visiting Mrs. W. M. Rampach.

Miss May Kelly went to Albany Tuesday and brought her brother, Leighton home who is ill. The physician at first thought he had an attack of the fever.

Dr. J. W. Powell and G. W. Hannegan, left Monday for a business trip to DuRoi, Wasco county. They went over the Barlow road by team, and will return in a few days.

Levi Johnson, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has returned from a visit down the Columbia, where he was assisting Rev. Holdridge to hold evangelistic services.

Captain Shannon, was down from Springwater, Wednesday. He expects to start out soon to find some guns that he and his party cached near Mount Hood in 1850.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Austin, are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. G. W. Jones. Mr. Austin expects to spend the summer in Eastern Oregon, but Mrs. Austin will remain here.

On Saturday Mrs. T. E. Gault, superintendent of the Baptist Junior Endeavor society, gave an excursion and picnic to City View Park, Portland, to about 25 members of the class.

Fred Hedges, who has been filling the position of assistant surgeon at the Multnomah county hospital for several months past, returned home Monday. He intends to take a course in some medical college next year.

T. L. Turner was in from Stafford Tuesday, and reports that the oat crop looks fairly well, and the prospects for wheat are good. Farmers, however, are anxious for the rains to let up so that they can make hay.

People who can accommodate lodgers or boarders during the Chautauqua assembly, are requested to hand in the number they can entertain to T. J. Gary, Mrs. M. M. Charman, Oregon City, Mrs. J. E. Sievers, of Parkplace, of the entertainment committee, or to J. W. Gray, secretary, Oregon City.

Notwithstanding there is an ordinance against riding bicycles on the sidewalk on the upper Seventh street, on Monday afternoon an overgrown boy awkwardly rode up and down the walk to the discomfort of footmen. The police claim that unless this practice is stopped, some one will have to suffer the consequences.

Misses Dorothy and Sade Chase returned Sunday night from Stanford university, where they have been taking a course of studies for the past year. They came home by way of Bandon, where they stopped off to see their father, who is connected with the woolen mills. From there they came by steamer to Portland.

Rev. E. Mack has returned from Tacoma where he attended the meeting of the Washington District of the Ohio Synod. He will teach German school in his church corner 8th and J. Q. Adams through the summer months, five days in the week from 9 to 12 a. m. beginning Monday June 27. All are invited to use this opportunity.

Mrs. Jones, wife of Rev. T. L. Jones, a former pastor of the Methodist church in this city is visiting friends in the city on her way from Portland, where she went to meet her mother, Mrs. W. H. Ross, whom she had not seen for 16 years. Also a brother whom she had not seen for 37 years. She attended a family reunion in Portland last Friday.

Thomas McGrath, who was sent to the insane asylum a couple of weeks ago from this county, died at that place Saturday morning. He was in almost a helpless condition when taken away, having received treatment at the hospital for some time past. The deceased was about 60 years of age, and leaves a wife, who holds the title to the property left by him. He lived at Clackamas for several years, but more recently made his home at Lin's mill.

500 SUIT BARGAINS

We have disposed of one-half of the men's suits which we purchased at a sacrifice, during the past ten days, and expect to close out the balance in a very short time. This is the grandest opportunity ever offered to the citizens of Oregon City, and every one should take advantage of it.

POSITIVELY $12.50 and $15.00 VALUES for $8.50. This lot consists of BLUE SERGES, GRAY CLOYS WORSTED, and PLAIN and PLAID WORSTEDS. Every one new, and none worth less than $12.50.

This week we have also marked down many of our

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S SUITS

FINE BRASS CANNONS

Which before the reduction were better value than could be obtained elsewhere.

To give away with each Boy's or Child's suit sold

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

The Popular-Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

Corner Third and Oak Streets.

W. F. Knight, of Eagle Creek, on Wednesday filed a suit in the circuit court against Sheriff Grace to recover $500 damages. The complaint alleges that on the 21st day October 1897, that the plaintiff was arrested at his home by Deputy Sheriff W. H. Savage, brought to Oregon City and imprisoned for six hours, before he was given his liberty. He claims that he was imprisoned without just cause, and wants damages for the disgrace suffered.

About 35 Oregon City people went to Astoria and Seaside on the conductor's excursion Sunday. The Oregon City contingent left here on an electric car at six o'clock Sunday morning, and did not get home until the following morning, as the excursion train did not return to Portland until 2:30 Monday morning. It is estimated that there were fully 4,000 people in the excursion and seating room was in demand. Those who went down said the weather was pleasant at the beach.

In Justice Schuebel's court Friday, Mrs. Agatha Kober was given judgment against F. Sweitzer and Philippine Sweitzer for $48.25. The suit was brought to recover $48.25, alleged to be due from the defendants on the purchase price of the Home Restaurant. The defendants did not deny that this amount was due the plaintiff according to the original contract, but demurred to paying the balance, claiming as an offset that the business of the restaurant was misrepresented to them. The jury, however, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

The ladies auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., met at the home of the president, Mrs. Geo. Stafford on Tuesday afternoon, June 21st, and the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term: President, Mrs. B. S. Bellomy; vice-president, Mrs. Jennie White; secretary, Mrs. E. E. Martin, re-elected; Levi Johnson was unanimously chosen as treasurer. The ladies auxiliary, while working quietly has done much to help along the work of the Y. M. C. A. It has a membership of 33 active, energetic workers.

Lieutenant Fred Metzner, of separate company F, has 21 names on the list of recruits for the second call of volunteers, and is busy drilling them every evening at the Armory. Adjutant-General Tuttle will be on hand Friday morning to select the 12 men out of the list of 21, for active service, and they will take their departure for San Francisco Saturday, en route for the Philippine Islands. Lieutenant Metzner is proud of the 21 recruits, and thinks that any of them would pass muster in a physical examination. He will yet have 45 members in company F, after the 12 recruits are selected for active service.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of the Howlett miner heir, the petition of John N. and Lydia D. Howlett was considered, and it was ordered that citation issue at once to W. J. Howlett, guardian of said minors, that he be required to appear before said court on the 13th day of July and do whatever may be enjoined upon him by said court in regard to said petition.

Colinda E. Shipley, executor of the estate of A. R. Shipley, deceased, filed her final account, and August 1st was set as the time for a final hearing.

W. E. Carl, executor of the estate of Sarah McCue, deceased, filed his final report, which was approved.

Rev. Butler will conduct service at Parkplace at 8:30 p. m. next Sabbath.

A. J. Purcell, of Galveston, Texas, is visiting his son, D. H. Purcell, at Parkplace.

Father Hillebrand is attending the commencement exercises at Mount Angel this week.

The Greatest Fourth of July Millinery Sale ever known before today. Miss C. Goldsmith.

It is announced that E. R. Dedman, of Clackamas, will be deputy county recorder under Thomas P. Randall.

Miss M. S. Barlow, of Barlow, one of