OREGON CITY, OREGON

A BIG CELEBRATION.

Oregon City Will have a Grand, Glorious Celebration on the Fourth.

The general arrangements committee for the Fourth of July celebration in Oregon City are getting in readiness for a great display of patriotism on that day. This committee is now arranging details with the Portland General Electric Company, with a view of illuminating the falls on the night of the Fourth with colored electric lights.

The sub-committees are not letting the grass grow under their feet, and are improving each passing day, rain or shine. The sports committee expect to have their elaborate program completed by Saturday, and the committees on parade and decoration, have invited the business men and manufacturers to have floats representing their different lines in the procession.

Councilman James Roake will have his steel cannon ready by the Fourth, and will aid in making patriotic noise.

The parade in the forenoon and the sports in the afternoon will be features worth seeing. And the falls lit up with colored electric lights at night in all their grandeur, with sky rockets illuminating the sky, will be a scene never to be forgotten.

The patriotic exercises will be held in a grove on the bluff overlooking the falls, where the gentle ocean breezes whisper through the trees. There is abundant room here for small picnic parties to locate themselves in delightful spots where the shaded rocks are covered with moss, and eat their lunches.

It will be the grandest, biggest patriotic celebration ever held in Clackamas county. People from far and near will gather here for a day's recreation, and old friendships will be renewed and new ones formed.

LATER—Col. W. H. Effinger, of Portland, will be orator of the day.

Give your order for fresh strawberries, raspberries and blackberries to F. I. Andrews, who will furnish freshly picked berries in quantities to suit. When getting vegetables remember he has all kinds of berries.

Bids Wanted.

Bids will be received by the undersigned at the office of the Recorder of Oregon City up to 3 p. m. July 1st, 1898, for the construction of an elevated walk on Eighth street to top of bluff in accordance with plans and specifications now in the office of recorder. Each bid to be accompanied by a certified check or $25 payable to the recorder as a guarantee that bid, if accepted, will be fulfilled.

The committee reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

chard. Next came the program of the heroic pictures of Methodism, with an introductory by T. L. Swafford, the Sunday school superintendent, and the others were presented in the following order: "Epworth Rectory," Edgar Blake; "The Holy Club," Miss Williams; "Eventful Card Party," dialogue, L. C. Blake, Nellie Swafford and Nettie Kruse; "Heroes of Saddle-bags," Mammie Aldridge; "Oakesbury College," dialogue, Ida Akin and Josie Edleman. After remarks by Rev. Headquarters and Other Matters About Chautauqua.

From the numerous letters received arranging details to secure headquarters for various institutions at the coming Chautauqua Assembly at Gladstone park, and inquiring as to the necessary expenses for individuals and families who attend. It appears that there is a more interest in the Assembly this year than in the past, and several organizations which have never before applied for headquarters privileges, are already assigned places.

Among the organizations which have already secured headquarters privileges, may be mentioned eight colleges, nearly all the religious denominations, the Clackamas County Teachers' Association, Woodmen of the World, American Artisans, Equal Suffrage Association, Native Sons, Women's Christian Union, Grand Army of the Republic, Ladies' Relief Corps, and the Oregon Pioneer Association. At the pioneer headquarters, Secretary George H. Himes will have a large number of portraits of pioneers, and the talks concerning them, with the part they took in the settlement of Oregon will be one of the most features of the Assembly to all who hear them.

Although the first day of the Assembly (July 12), is three weeks in the future, more camping privileges have already been assigned than ever before.

The Assembly grounds at Gladstone park, are 10 minutes ride from Oregon City, and 40 minutes ride from Portland.

Passenger rates—By electric railway from and to Oregon City, 10 rides for 25 cents. Portland (round trip) 25 cents. By Southern Pacific Railway, all divisions and branches, one and one-third fare. When purchasing a ticket, take a certificate from agent. This signed by J. W. Gray, secretary, at Gladstone park, secures 1-3 fare on return.

O. R. & N. Co., steamboat or rail, one and one-fifth fare.

For special rates on other lines see agents.

Living expenses—25 cents per bed and 25 cents per meal at 25 cents per meal at private homes in Oregon City, Gladstone and Parkplace. At hotels $1 per day and upward. At restaurants on the grounds, 25 cents per meal. Meals can be had at any price. The entertainment committee at the park will direct all who desire, to hotels, restaurants and private homes. No charges for classes except the private classes in music, art and elocution.

The season tickets, costing $1.50, include camping privileges. Single tickets, 25 cents, and children free.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

Children's Day Exercises.

A splendid children's day program was presented by the M. E. church Sunday school Sunday evening. The church was prettily decorated with flowers and pictorial representations of heroic Methodistism in its early days, was an interesting feature, the pictures having been secured from the East especially for this entertainment.

The introductory address was made by Arthur Sitton. Arthur Hickman recited "Don't Laugh at Me," Etta Bruner recited "If I," Archie Young recited the "Boysen Town," and a motion-song by the infant class was an interesting feature. Gertrude Johnson recited "Katie's Luncheon," Marcie Brown "Just you and I," and a dialogue "God Wants the Boys and Girls," was presented by Ouida Oberg and Roy Blain.
