The Wilhoit stage began making regular trips from Oregon City to the Springs Wednesday, and will continue to run during the entire season. This is one of the most delightful trips that can be made, and Wilhoit Springs are growing more in favor with Portland and Salem people as a summer resort every year. It is a delightful ride to the mountains through the prettiest portion of Clackamas county in Noblitt's big, comfortable coach. J. M. Ware is the new driver.

Fred Nelson, who is now in the equipment department of the battleship Oregon, writes the concussion and shock on board the vessel was something terrible during the bombardment at Santiago. Heavy glass window panes 1 1/2 were broken and a steel rod two inches in diameter was broken from the jar and concussion of the battleship's own guns. Shells from the enemies' batteries flew over the decks, and the noise was deafening. Fred says that he did not feel afraid while the battle was raging, but felt like firing shot and shell into the Spanish.

The city council held a special meeting Saturday night, and an ordinance was introduced authorizing the committee on streets and public property to advertise for bids and let contracts for the repair and improvement of the Singer hill and Abernethy county roads within the city limits. The Singer hill road is to be made wider, so that teams can pass each other safely, and the road-bed will be placed on a uniform, easy grade. The road in front of Bestow's place, on the north bank of the Abernethy, will also be widened and otherwise improved.

There will be a few changes in the personnel of the court house officials next week. Thomas F. Ryan will take Gordon E. Hayes' place in the county judge's office; H. S. Strange will hold down the school superintendent's office in place of H. G. Starkweather, and Sheriff J. J. Cooke and Deputy J. E. Jack have already succeeded Sheriff Grace and Deputy Grout in the sheriff's office, although the latter is still there initiating the new incumbents. There will be no change in the clerk's and treasurer's office. In the recorder's office Tom P. Randall and his deputy, E. P. Dedman, will succeed Recorder A. Luelling and Deputy S. C. Priestly. Ernest Rands, who received the largest majority of any county candidate, is in Idaho, which may prevent him qualifying for the office of county surveyor.

Tom Brown was down from the steelhead salmon hatchery on Salmon river Sunday, and reports everything prospering. On Thursday, he turned loose four or five hundred thousand young steelhead salmon, and on Saturday 400,000 more were hatched. Mr. Brown states that although steelheads are hard to catch, the work of hatching is much easier, and attended with less risk. Work is being pushed on the new hatchery building, but the greatest drawback has been the difficulty of getting lumber hauled in over the rough roads.

H. H. Johnson, of this city, and Steven Hungate, of Molalla, who have surveying contracts in Malheur county, left Wednesday for the scene of operations. The members of their crew are John Vaughan, Graham Hungate, John Howland and Hugh Smyth. Henry Cooke accompanies them with his team and wagon, and totes the commissary department. They also took along some pack animals to be used in the mountains. They go by boat to The Dalles and from there most of the party will travel with the wagon. They expect to be away several months.
