HORROR AT SEA.

The French Liner La Bourgogne Sinks With 562 Souls.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 6.-In one of the thick fogs which at this time of the year hangs like a pall over the grand banks and Sable Island in the North Atlantic, occurred in the early morning of July 4 one of the most appalling ocean disasters in the annals of trans-Atlantic commerce, and in fact in the history of steam sailing of the world. Almost without a moment's warning the French liner La Bourgogne, with 725 souls on board, was run down by the iron sailing ship Cromartyshire, and sunk within half an hour, carrying with her to the ocean's bottom 562 of her passengers and crew, while the rest who were not drowned by the fearful suction, struggled and fought for life until 163 were at length rescued by the crew of the Cromartyshire, which ship survived the collision.

HAWAII IS OURS.

Quite unexpectedly the resolutions providing for the annexation of the Islands were brought to a vote in the senate late this afternoon, and they were passed by the decisive vote of 42 to 21.

President Geo. Lazelle informs us that he was unable to secure the launch to make trips between Oregon City and the grounds.
