OUR NEW TERRITORY.

Its Wonderful Resources and Productions.

These are a few of the things about the Philippines that our Oregon City boys, who arrived on July 1st, will learn regarding the country:

- No brooms.
- No hats worn.
- Girls marry at 15.
- No knives nor forks.
- They sleep at midday.
- Horses are a curiosity.
- More women than men.
- Rice is the chief product.
- Cattle as small as goats.
- Manilla enjoys electricity.
- Natives bathe three daily.
- Dewey had a rabbit's foot.
- The grasshopper is a delicacy.
- We buy half Manilla's hemp.
- Laborer's earn 10 cents a day.
- Coconut oil is an illuminant.
- Manilla was founded in 1571.
- Buffaloes are used for plowing.
- Orchids command $1000 apiece.
- Manilla has 200,000 inhabitants.
- Annual cigar output, 140,000,000.
- Belles smoke cigars and chew betels.
- Cigar factories employ 20,000 women.
- Cigar makers earn $6 to $10 per month.

A yard of cloth is the robe of the poor.
Macademized streets; tin-roofed houses.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA.

- Girls smoke.
- Inhabitants, 40,000.
- Forests of mahogany.
- No wild animals except dogs.
- Everybody takes a nap at noon.
- Here is the highest land in Cuba.
- Lottery tickets on sale everywhere.
- Most of the houses are one-story buildings.
- Santiago is the Spanish form for St.
James.
- The belles plaster their faces with powdered egg shells.
- Copper mines have been worked since the 17th century.
- Tobago island was so called from its fancied resemblance to the tobacco or inhaling tube of the aborigines. Our word tobacco is thence derived.

PORTO RICO.

- Width, 37 miles.
- Immensely wealthy.
- Poverty is unknown.
- Area, 3520 square miles.
- Trees are always green.
- Every man owns a horse.
- Older than the United States.
- Principal sport is cock-fighting.
- San Juan, the capital, has 300,000 inhabitants.
- San Juan has the finest harbor in the West Indies.
- People sleep in the day, and shop and visit all night.
- Water supply is one of the principal sources of revenue.

well received.

The San Francisco Chronicle this week has a dress of General Otis and some war scenes, made by Balfo Johnson, formerly of this city. It is really artistic work, and indicates that the Oregon City boys are coming to the front away from home.

Edward Fleck, teacher of the piano in the college of music at Salem, and Miss Jessie E. Settlemyer, of Woodburn, will be married at the latter place on August 28th. Both parties are attending the Chautauqua assembly at Gladstone park, where they are prominent in the musical department. Immediately after the ceremony they leave for Utica, N. Y., where they will make their future home.

A copy of the Roseburg Review came to the Courier office this week, which is nothing unusual; but between the sheets apparently snugly resting in comfort was a fully developed, live Southern Oregon bedbug. The editor, who is now at the Seaside, assisted by the office devil, tried to kill the animal with some high-proof prune juice whiskey, but it still lived. The bug did not surrender until he was immersed in benzine.

A. E. Cumins, a prominent farmer of Clarkes, was in Oregon City Monday, and states that many fields of wheat in his neighborhood are prematurely turning yellow from the ravages of a small pin borer. It was noticed a few days ago that the wheat was suffering from some cause, but the presence of the pinborer was not discovered until recently.
The little green bug gets into the joint,
and extracts the juices from the stalk.
It is causing considerable damage to the wheat in that neighborhood.

The Grand Cabin of Native Sons of Oregon, is now a legal entity, and the foundation is laid for a permanent organization that is certain to become prominent in the future history of Oregon, grand outside sentinel, Claude Strahan; grand marshal, John W. Minto. A woman's auxiliary will be organized soon.

500 SUIT BARGAINS

We have disposed of one-half of the men's suits which we purchased at a sacrifice, during the past ten days, and expect to close out the balance in a very short time. This is the grandest opportunity ever offered to the citizens of Oregon City, and every one should take advantage of it.

Miss Mary Lee died at Gladstone hospital last Sunday morning aged 60 of rheumatism and other complications.
The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Albee on Center street.

Joseph Kuerten, who returned from Pendleton this week, having gone to Eastern Oregon on a business trip, states that the report published that help was wanted at the Pendleton woolen mills at good prices is false. Ordinary help are only receiving about $1.50 per day, and there is not much demand for that kind of labor.

Gilbert L. Hedges returned from Yale college Friday, after winning the Townsend medal and will locate in Oregon City for the practice of law. It has been nine years since Mr. Hedges left Oregon City to begin a course of studies in the best schools of Massachusetts, and three years since he has visited his home in Canemah. He has returned to his native home with well earned honors.

The grand lodge United Workmen is in session at Portland this week, and among the Clackamas county representatives in attendance are the following: Wilsonville, E. L. Baker; Clackamas, J.
B. Cramer; Oregon City, William Shehan, C. H. Dye; Oswego, Henry Gans. J. W. Roots, of Clackamas, was granted inside watchman last year.

The Degree of Honor is represented as follows: Oswego, Emma Smith; Oregon City, Mrs. Anna Schulpus.

Mrs. G. A. Hamilton received a letter Wednesday from her husband, dated at Dawson City, June 20th. The letter states that the following members of the Oregon City contingent are now safe and sound at Dawson City: Allen Fairclough, Otis Shelley, Gene Hayward, Noble and D. J. Collins. Collins and one of the other boys are going up Stewart river prospecting; the Oregon City boys are building a large community cabin near Dawson City on a high ridge near a spring of good water; Hamilton and O. S. Ohlson have gone into the house building business. Mr. Hamilton says that the country is vastly overrated, and that Schwauber intends to return soon. The entire party are in good health.

Formerly Lived Here.

Wednesday evening a fellow giving his name as Harry Mason went to Barker & Co.'s livery stable and hired a team, saying he wanted to go to Cleveland and would be back Thursday. He was accompanied by Miss Sadie Pilkington, and after their departure it was suspected that they did not intend to return.
Thursday evening a warrant was issued for Mason's arrest charging him with larceny, and on inquiry it was found that he had gone to Riddle where he had given his name as Ellis. He left the team there, and in company with the girl started south on the railroad about 10 o'clock. Deputy Sheriff Dewey went out there Friday and arrived with the couple that afternoon. The girl was delivered to her parents and Mason was given a hearing before Judge Miller Saturday.
—Roseburg Review.

Mason lived in Oregon City last winter, and pretended to be a prize fighter. A match was arranged to take place in a barn on the hill between he and young Austin, but about the time the mill was ready to begin Chief of Police Burns appeared on the scene and stopped further proceedings. Mason afterwards waited on the table in a restaurant.

The future is uncertain, but if you keep your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla you may be sure of good health.
