

GREAT SPECIAL SALE

of Novelty Silks

In plain and fancy weaves. Every piece and every yard in stock reduced and marked down to the lowest notch. Some lines less than cost to manufacture. Being the only exclusive dry goods and silk house in the city, we are in a position to offer the best values in fine dress goods of any dry goods house west of the Rockies.

WE WILL MAKE IT INTERESTING for the ladies this week in our silk and dress goods department, as this will postively be the last week of our great midsummer sale. Ladies, don't miss it.

McAllen & McDonnell

IMPORTERS OF FINE DRY GOODS

COR. THIRD AND MORRISON STS., PORTLAND, ORE.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Miss Minnie Hale went to Brownsville Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed Calif and children went to Woodburn Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Will, of Aurora, was visiting Mrs. E. C. Hamilton this week.

E. E. Chapman and family are expected home from Long Beach today.

The depot hotel building is receiving a new coat of paint, the first in 20 years.

Harley Wishart is again employed on the fortifications near Port Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Kenworthy went to Salem Monday to visit friends for a few days.

Born, in West Oregon City, Saturday, August 20th, to the wife of Mike Munch, a girl.

Misses Ella Howell and Lucinda Marrs joined a party that went to Mount Hood yesterday.

I. G. Davidson, a prominent farmer of Soja Springs precinct, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mrs. S. A. Paquet, of Portland, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph de la Fontaine, during the week.

J. S. Purdom, who recently resigned his position as S. P. agent at Grant's Pass, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fosburg and son, Rollin, and Miss Dora Stover, returned Wednesday from a two week's stay at Newport.

Miss Echo Samson, who was spending a portion of the summer vacation with her father on the Molalla farm, has returned to the city.

O. H. Byland came down from Woodburn Wednesday, where he was ill for several days. He will again teach the Carus school this fall.

Chief of Police and Mrs. Burns and Misses Alice Stevens, Sarah Blount and Bernice Kelly returned Monday from a two week's outing on Salmon river.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Church, H. S. Gibson and Mrs. T. S. Lawrence left early in the week for the Huckleberry groves on the north fork of the Clackamas.

Will Lewthwaite and E. S. Cheney left Wednesday morning for High bridge, 20 miles up the Clackamas, where they will camp and fish for a week.

Rev. H. Oberg and family, Mrs. Mary Maple, E. J. Maple, Mrs. Blake, and Miss Gallogly, all returned from Ocean beach on the Ilwaco coast this week.

Miss Ida Hess and Calvin A. Parker, both of Union Hall, this county, were married at the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday, August 24th, Rev. Harold Oberg, officiating.

Mike Cain has been very ill for several days, and his recovery was considered doubtful for awhile, but his condition is now much improved. He is at the Gladstone hospital.

G. W. Shank and wife, A. R. Shank, wife and children, Mr. and Mrs. Mandeville and Ralph and Miss Annie Lindeberg, all of Canby, are camping at the Tillamook coast.

The Radical Kolleg, published at Philomath, says that Bishop Barkley is on one of his great missionary tours in the California conference. He is aptly styled Apostle of California, Bishop of Walla Walla, and presiding elder of the Oregon conference.

David C. McAfee, aged 71 years and 12 days, died at the Electric Hotel Wednesday morning. He was a veteran of the late civil war, and formerly lived at East Portland, also at Pleasant Home.

He was buried Thursday under the auspices of Meade Post, G. A. R.

Frank Rue, a new arrival from California, and a native of Germany, called on County Judge Ryan Wednesday, and stated that some parties were trying to poison him. He was examined and pronounced insane, and was taken to the asylum by Sheriff Cooke on the same evening.

Miss Nan Bullock, of Oswego, was married to Harry Baxter, of Oregon City, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Bullock, at the former place on Tuesday, August 23rd, Rev. A. J. Montgomery, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Baxter are occupying their own cottage in the north part of the city.

Considerable wheat is now coming in to the Portland flouring mills in this city. Wagon wheat is only bringing 32 cents per bushel, that is wheat not sacked. Mr. Partlow, jr., the well known Mount Pleasant farmer, says that he considers it a good price, for the reason that one bushel of wheat will buy as much merchandise as two bushels formerly. All Clackamas county farmers, perhaps, will not agree with Mr. Partlow.

Miss Anna Allredge was married last Sunday at 9:30 a. m. to G. J. Howell, of the Coos Bay office, the ceremony taking place at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Allredge, on the Abernethy, near this city. Rev. J. S. McComb was the officiating minister, and only immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. An excellent wedding luncheon was served and in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Howell took possession of the cottage prepared for them on the Abernethy near Swope's.

Miss Cornelia McCown returned Saturday from a visit to Newport.

Mrs. O. B. Moores went to Seattle Friday, to visit relatives for a few days.

The Canby and Butteville baseball clubs will play at Wilsonville next Sunday.

Mrs. H. W. Duff went out to her Highland farm Monday, to remain for a few weeks.

J. C. Fry, a prominent Clackamas county pioneer, who resides near Aurora, was in the city Monday.

A. C. Strange, of Orient, who has spent a part of his vacation at Long Beach, was in the city Saturday.

Rev. A. J. Ware, of Sheridan, accompanied by family, was visiting relatives in Oregon City early in the week.

Nathan Moody, Charles W. Kelly and Will Vaughan expect to leave Saturday on a camping trip to High mountain.

Mrs. W. W. Marrs, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Rosa, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Curry, at Junction City.

William H. Williams, a native of Great Britain, was granted a certificate of citizenship on Thursday by County Judge Ryan.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Dayton have returned from Newport, but their daughter, Mrs. W. A. Huntley, will remain a few weeks longer.

Max Schulpis, who was appointed a forest ranger some weeks ago by Commissioner Hermann, is still waiting for instructions to arrive.

Miss Jean White has returned from Mount St. Helens, where she was camped with her uncle, E. M. Rands, and family, of Vancouver.

Mrs. William Wright, who was visiting her parents and other relatives in Illinois for several months past, returned home a few days ago.

James Church, of the Albany flouring mills, who was spending his vacation at home and at Mount Hood, returned to the former place Sunday night.

Mrs. C. A. Willey and son, Eddie, and Mrs. Adolph Willey and child left by boat Monday morning to attend the Free Methodist camp meeting at Salem.

B. S. Bellomy returned several days ago from a three week's visit to the Tillamook coast. He drove over with his horse and cart, and reports a delightful sojourn.

J. K. Morris and family, Miss Addie Mautz and George Hiatt are camping at Trout creek for a few days. The latter, however, did not remain long, but returned the first of the week.

Prof. J. B. Horner and family, of the state agricultural college, were in the city Sunday on their way home from the East, the former having attended the session of the national teachers' association.

The Southern Pacific have placed on sale special Saturday tickets from Oregon City to Yaquina and return for $4. These tickets, however, are good only to go on Saturday, and return the following Monday.

Mrs. W. M. Robinson, of the Electric Hotel, who has been very ill for the past three weeks, left Sunday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hall, at Cascade Locks. She was accompanied by Mr. Robinson, who returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Bettie Holmes, a sister of Judson Howell, of this city, died at her home at Fort Springs, West Virginia, August 17th, aged 53. The deceased was well known to a number of Oregon City people, having visited her brother here on two different occasions.

On Saturday, August 27th, the citizens of Wilsonville will have a grand peace celebration in honor of the close of the war. Arrangements have been made to entertain the large crowd that will be in attendance. Addresses will be made by W. S. U'Ren and George C. Brownell.

Mrs. F. M. Darling, accompanied by her daughters, Mrs. A. E. Frost and Miss Ella Darling, left Monday afternoon for Colorado Springs, Colo. They go there to try the salubrious climate for Mrs. Frost's health, which has been on the decline for a couple of years past. They may remain all winter.

Among the Clackamas county people who were in attendance during the Grand Army encampment at Pleasant Home, were George C. Brownell, Howard Brownell, E. W. Midlam, Oregon City; P. T. Davis, Clackamas; G. P. Rich, Kelso, and William King, Damaucus. The first named delivered an address Saturday.

Rev. L. M. Idleman is visiting his brother, O. M. Idleman, for a few days. Rev. Idleman is a recent graduate of the Episcopal theological seminary at Gambia, Ohio, and will soon leave for Cincinnati, where he has received a call—Capital Journal. Rev. Idleman has been filling the pulpit of St. Paul's church for several weeks past.

Following are the newly elected officers of Canby Lodge, No. 564, I. O. G. T., are: John Webb, chief templar; Aletha Phelps, vice templar; D. J. Shank, secretary; Mary Stalnaker, assistant secretary; Bertha Sturges, treasurer; F. Kendall, marshal; Lena Stalnaker, deputy marshal; H. Linneberg, guard; J. D. Stalnaker, sentinel; Lena Linneberg, S. J. T.; J. Ehret, F. S.; Bro. Way, P. C. T.; Rev. Blackwell, chaplain.

500 SUIT BARGAINS

We have disposed of one-half of the men's suits which we purchased at a sacrifice, during the past ten days, and expect to close out the balance in a very short time. This is the grandest opportunity ever offered to the citizens of Oregon City, and every one should take advantage of it.

POSITIVELY $12.50 and $15.00 VALUES for $8.50. This lot consists of BLUE SERGES, GRAY CLOTH WORSTED, and PLAIN and PLAID WORSTEDS. Every one new, and none worth less than $12.50.

This week we have also marked down many of our

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S SUITS

Which before the reduction were better value than could be obtained elsewhere.

Another Lot of...

FINE BRASS CANNONS

To give away with each Boy's or Child's suit sold

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

The Popular-Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

Corner Third and Oak Streets.

Miss Olive A. Luelling is visiting friends at Hillsboro.

An ice cream social will be held in the Methodist church on Friday evening of this week.

Dr. W. E. Carrl and P. F. Morey left Wednesday evening for a short stay at Paso Robles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Parker are spending a week with Rev. Gilman Parker and family at Seaside.

Wright, of the old Phoenix hotel, was fined $7 Wednesday by Recorder Curry, for disorderly conduct.

Call and see the fine line of carpets at the Oregon City Auction House at prices that will surprise you.

Mrs. P. E. Stoval, who is conducting a restaurant and bakery on the Sound, was in Oregon City yesterday.

Misses Dorothy and Ednetta Chase will leave Saturday for Calif., to begin studies in Stanford university.

Mrs. William Green and children returned from the seaside early in the week. Mr. Green, who was with them there, returned last week.

R. D. Wilson recently received from Bert Greenman, who has charge of the Clackamas hatchery, a Dolly Varden trout that measured 25 inches in length.

A profession man was considerably surprised the other day to find that he had never been heard of and had lived here eight years. It is needless to add that he never advertises.

Marriage licenses were issued on the 19th to Anna A. Wingfield and W. H. Daugherty, on the 20th Rose K. Penders and A. V. Williams, on 23rd Katie E. Cox and George G. Hess.

Mrs. Dr. Martin, the clairvoyant, medium and spiritual healer, reveals the past, present and future, through the crystal glass. Any in trouble or contemplating a business venture or journey would do well to call on the doctor. She is stopping for a short time at the Cliff house, room 8.

Francis Xavier Paquet, aged 87, died at the residence of his son, Louis Paquet, in East Portland Tuesday, and was buried at Canemah Thursday. Mr. Paquet came to Clackamas county in 1852, and for a time engaged in steamboat building at Canemah. Mrs. Paquet died in Eastern Oregon about three years ago. The deceased was the father of the late Peter Paquet, also Joseph, Louis and Oliver Paquet.

Dee Wright, accompanied by Miss Inez Riggs and Mrs. G. A. Moore, of Oregon City, and B. A. Perry and Mike Clifford, have returned from a trip to the sulphur springs on the head waters of the Clackamas. A description and list of the visitors at these wonderful springs will be given next week. It is not generally known that the greatest hot mineral springs on the Pacific coast are situated in the forest reserve within the boundaries of Clackamas county.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Malaria, Chills and Fever. It is simply iron and quinine in an agreeable form. Children love it. Adults prefer a bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price 50c. For sale by G. G. Huntley, Druggist.

We Carry in Stock a Large Line of

SOLID GOLD, GOLD FILLED, SILVER and NICKEL WATCHES

With Waltham and Elgin Movements

HIGHEST GRADE AT LOWEST PRICES

Burmeister & Andresen,

THE OREGON CITY JEWELRRS

LOCAL SUMMARY.

Miss E. C. Adair is visiting her parents near Silverton.

John Bitner returned the first of the week from a visit to Long Beach.

Mrs. V. Harris returned Tuesday from a visit to her parents at Astoria.

B. C. Altman, principal of the Troutdale school, was in the city during the week.

Sadie E. White and Miss Lute Martin returned from a visit to Astoria Saturday night.

A. E. Tamiess returned Monday from a visit to the seaside and in Washington county.

George Warner and family, and O. D. Austin went out to Wilhoit Saturday, and returned Tuesday.

Coroner M. C. Strickland returned Sunday from Astoria, having attended the regatta sports for a couple of days.

Miss M. Harris, who was visiting in New York and other sections of the East for several weeks, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. William Thomas, who recently went to Walla Walla to join Mr. Thomas, has returned to Oregon City for a visit.

A few days ago Olyde Evans passed second best in a competitive examination for customs inspector before the civil service board.

Rev. William Taavis, traveling Sunday school missionary of the Presbyterian church, visited the Oregon City Presbyterian S. S. Sunday last.

Miss Sade Chase was recently elected principal of the Canemah school. Miss Ella Lavinson, of Portland, will be the teacher of the primary department.

J. F. Clark, who accompanied W. M. Toner of Dallas, on a hunting trip to Mount Jefferson, returned home Monday, and reports having killed a couple of deer on the trip.

Ralph Knapp, formerly foreman in the Enterprise office, but now occupying a similar position on the Daily Astorian, passed through the city Tuesday morning on his way to Brownsville, having received a telegram that his mother was seriously ill there.

Ben Smith, who has the contract of repairing trestles and bridges on the line of the East Side Railway, is pushing the trestle below town toward completion. Sam Berner, one of the men employed on the bridge, fell from the trestle about two weeks ago, and was taken to his home at East Portland to die, but he quickly recovered, and went to work again Tuesday morning.

R. Petzold, the erstwhile Seventh street butcher, returned a few days ago from a visit to his old home in Germany. He states that property has doubled in value since he left there a number of years ago, and there are no idle men. However, it takes capital to get into business there, as a man cannot rent a ground floor for business purposes. He must buy the entire building and the lot on which it stands.

L. D. Hoover, aged about 70, was brought in from Needy precinct last Friday, by Constable McCown charged with assaulting his wife. According to the old man's story the young wife and son doubled team on him, and he got the worst of the fray. His scalp was badly lacerated, from inflictions on the head with a pair of pincers in the hands of son, Thomas. Thomas appeared as a witness against his father, but was held for arraignment until Monday. Hoover sr., was discharged from custody. On Monday Thomas Hoover was arraigned for assaulting his father with a pair of pincers, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Justice Schuebel imposed a fine of $50, and the defendant is now serving out the sentence in the county jail.

Pure fruit flavored ice cream soda at Prier's.

Get your fruit jars and jolly tumblers at Harris' grocery.

For best groceries at cheapest price go to Marr & Muir.

Highest cash price paid for second hand household goods at Bellomy & Busch.

The pioneer meat market of C. Albright continues to serve its customers well and always keeps a large amount of fresh meats on hand.

Last year's patterns of wall paper at reduced prices. Five and 10c notion counters. At Bellomy & Busch.

F. I. Andrews, the market gardener, has always on hand a large amount of first-class asparagus, vegetables, pure cider and cider vinegar. Give him a trial.

The most reliable goods at lowest living cash prices are kept by the grocery store of Marr & Muir.

Nottingham lace curtains, balance of lot just received. Will close out at the same old price. Oregon City Auction House.

Just received, 100 rolls of fine matting. Call at once and get choice of patterns. Oregon City Auction House.

All our bicycles have the new departure brakes, just the thing for riding in this county. Charman & Co., agents for Columbia bicycles.

Money to loan at 8 per cent interest on mortgages. Apply to O. D. & D. O. Latourette.

The Club tontorial parlors, P. G. Shark, proprietor, slaves for 10 cents. A full line of cigars and tobacco is kept.

Our $30 bicycles have the automatic brake; you can go down any hill. Charman & Co., agents for Columbia Bicycles.

We can assure all who invest $40 in a Victor, 1898, Model 35 bicycle, that they are getting their money's worth, and that a greater amount of service and satisfaction cannot be found in any other bicycle on the market at an equal price. Burmeister & Andresen.

The Wilhoit stage will leave Oregon City during season on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Round trip only $2.50. Camping parties who wish to go by private rigs can get bed-rock prices by calling at Noblitt's stable.

Dan Williams has added to his stock of groceries and provisions a full line of feed and hay. Goods delivered to all parts of the city free. Corner Seventh and Center streets.

Fir and hard wood wanted on account by the Oregon City Courier.

C. H. Young's second hand store can furnish you with furniture, stoves, hardware, etc., at less than one-fourth what same would cost new and they are just as good and will last as long. Give him trial.

Money to loan at 8 per cent interest on mortgages. Apply to C. D. & D. O. Latourette.

Hail the wagon of Mr. Andrews if you want anything in the fresh vegetable line.

Try Prier's ice cream and ice cream soda, pure fruit flavors. Fruits, nuts and confectionery of all kinds.

A high grade warranted sewing machine sells for $25 on easy payments at Bellomy & Busch.

When in Portland be sure and call at the Royal restaurant where you can get the best 15c meal in the city. 253 First street, corner of Madison. Wm. Bohlander, proprietor.

Albright is never "just out" of the kind of meat you want as he knows what his customers desire and keeps a full stock on hand and you don't need to take "what's left."

Everything in our millinery store at half price to make room for new stock. Miss C. Goldsmith.

XXX Castor Machine oil cheaper than any other place at A. Robertson's, the Seventh Street grocer.

Lost, on July 27th, between Oregon City and Wilhoit Springs, from stage, a seat from a barber's chair. Liberal reward for return to Noblitt & Co., Oregon City.

Wood, fruit and produce taken on account by the Courier.