

Attractive Designs in FALL DRESS GOODS

Opening week of our Fall Novelties.
Hundreds of new patterns to select from.

HIGH-GRADE NOVELTIES

In black crepons, peroles, espanglines, whip cords, diagonals, atlas and velours noirs.

COLORED

FRENCH NOVELTIES

In 46, 48 and 52 inches, fancy cords, in cloth and silk effects, at

75c, 90c and $1.25 yd

Exceptional values.

AMERICAN

MANUFACTURE

Several cases of new novelties, 38, 40 and 42 inches, late and new and very attractive material for street wear. Price

33c, 38c and 43c yd

Extraordinary values.

McAllen & McDonnell

IMPORTERS OF FINE DRY GOODS

COR. THIRD AND MORRISON STS., PORTLAND, ORE.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Miss Mand Noble is visiting relatives at Woolburn.

W. Cary Johnson spent Sunday at Seaview with his family.

Bert Strickland has returned from Pendleton, and will remain here.

A. Mather, the capable postmaster at Clackamas, was in the city Tuesday.

Andy Kocher, one of the big farmers of Marks' Prairie, was in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Andrew returned Friday from a brief sojourn at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Huntley were visiting friends at Albany during the week.

Professor T. J. Gary was attending the teachers' institute in Portland this week.

Sam Engle, one of the prominent citizens of Molalla, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Miss Metta Finley has accepted a place in the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company's office, as stenographer and typewriter.

Charles H. Cauffield returned from Seaview Monday, accompanied by his family, who have been there for the past month.

County Recorder T. P. Randall returned Monday morning from a couple of days of successful pheasant shooting in Marion county.

Miss Mina Kelly returned from her outing at Seaview Saturday. Her sisters, Misses May and Amy, will remain for a few weeks longer.

A skylight is being put in the post-office building that will prove a great convenience to occupants in handling the mails on dark wintry days.

S. E. Card, a prominent citizen of Borings precinct, was in the city Monday, and states that the crops were about 75 to 80 per cent. short in his vicinity.

Miss Louise Cochran, the capable and popular delivery clerk at the post-office, leaves Saturday for Seaview, where she will spend her vacation with the Misses Kelly.

Howard S. Tobey and Frankie S. Schott, of Condon, Gilliam county, were married at the Electric hotel, Saturday, September 3rd, Rev. A. J. Montgomery, officiating.

Eleven Clackamas county schools began their fall terms Monday. The Canemah and Willamette Falls schools began Monday, but the West Oregon City school was postponed until September 19th.

Mrs. E. J. Marshall, Misses Dora Neizer, Gladie Hart, Lou Scott, Grace Marshall, and Messrs. Willie and Ralph Marshall and John Dickleman returned from a two weeks outing at Ocean park, Tillamook county, Friday.

Miss Gertrude Neizer will attend the state normal school at Monmouth during the coming school year. She declined to again accept a place as teacher in the Oregon City schools, so that she could continue her studies.

Charles Young a brakesman on the north bound freight train, cut two fingers off his left hand while coupling cars at the S. P. depot at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. The wounds were dressed by Drs. Sommer and Parker, and Young was sent to Portland on the overland.

Miss Clara Demmer, who was recently elected principal of the Clackamas school, has resigned and accepted the position in the Parkplace school, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Harrietta Dotson, of Eugene. The Parkplace school will begin September 26th.

President H. L. Boardman, of McMinnville college, well known in this city, was married in Eugene on Wednesday of last week, to Miss Alice Dorris. President Boardman was prominently identified with the Chautauqua Assembly at Gladstone park during the past summer.

A. M. Shibley, of Springwater, was in town Saturday, and stated that all the prune driers in that vicinity were starting up to run on full time. The prune crop is abundant this season, and two large driers and a number of small ones will be crowded to their full capacity to handle the immense crop.

OREGONIAN FREE by subscribing now for the Oregon City Courier until 1900 at $2 you will be sent the Weekly Oregonian free for 1 year. This offer is limited. Three-a-week N. Y. World at same price.

James Mulvey, of Molalla, died of consumption last Sunday at his home, and the remains were buried in the Catholic cemetery here Monday, and the services were conducted by Father Hillebrand. The deceased was a young man of excellent parts, and was 23 years old at the time of his demise.

W. A. White has drawn plans for an eight-room cottage to be erected for Robert Cauffield on Madison street, between Sixth and Seventh. The building will be one and a half stories high, and a 6 1/2 foot basement. Mr. White, also has the contract for building the house, and will begin operations soon.

The Barclay school building is undergoing a complete overhauling, and the contractors, J. H. Ralston and Mr. Ream have had several men employed for a number days. The hot air system is being improved, new flues are being put in, the walls alabastined, the blackboards repainted and a partition placed between two rooms. When the work is done the interior of the building will present a much improved appearance.

Miss Clara Parks, of Portland, was visiting Mrs. Lippett Monday.

The little daughter of J. B. Taylor has recovered from her recent illness.

Rev. Dr. Butler will conduct service in the Ely chapter next Sabbath at 2:30 p. m.

W. B. Shively, who is traveling for a Philadelphia firm, is at home for a few days.

City Recorder Bruce Curry and wife leave Saturday for a short outing on the Sand.

Mrs. A. S. Dresser, and her sisters, the Misses Baird, have returned from Newport.

Mrs. W. A. Huntley and daughter returned Wednesday from an extended stay at Newport.

J. W. Loder and James McIntyre left Monday for a week's hunting at High bridge on the Clackamas.

Miss Celia Goldsmith left San Francisco on the steamer Tuesday for Portland, and is expected to arrive home today.

Rev. J. H. Nicolai, of Astoria, and Rev. Schewberg, of Macksburg, were visiting friends in Oregon City this week.

Miss Nellie Younger, who was visiting Andrew Kocher's family at Mark's Prairie for a week, returned home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. A. H. Maegly and daughters, of Portland, and Miss Pauline Karewski, of Jacksonville, were visitors in the city during the week.

City Attorney Franklin T. Griffith and wife have joined the Pops family at the seaside. The entire party is expected home Saturday.

President McClelland, of the Pacific university at Forest Grove, and Dr. W. N. Ferrin, of the same place, were visitors in Oregon City Friday.

Sheriff J. J. Cooke left Tuesday night for a visit to the Blue River mines in Lane county, in which he is interested. He expects to return Saturday.

Wednesday evening's Telegram says that Platt T. Randall now holds a position in Oregon City, and visits his old home in Portland every Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robinson have returned from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hall, at Cascade Locks. Mrs. Robinson has about recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. E. J. Tauber, whose daughter was turned over to the Boys and Girls Aid Society some time ago, again wants the custody of her child. The matter will be heard in the county court Saturday.

There will be communion service at the Congregational church next Sabbath morning. Services as usual in the evening, of interest to young people at 7:30, endeavor meeting at 6:30. The public is invited to all services.

Next Sunday the Methodist church closes a very prosperous conference year. Rev. H. Oberg will preach his last sermons before conference. A very cordial invitation is extended to all the friends of this aggressive church to attend the services.

J. S. Smith, who has charge of the Jacobs farm on the West side of the river, started up the prune drier Wednesday. It has a capacity of 700 trays 7-12 tons of green prunes daily. Hop picking will be completed on the Jacobs place next Sunday.

Miss Azalie Cochran, who was the capable stenographer and typewriter in the office of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, for some time past, left Monday for Sacramento, to accept a similar place in the Southern Pacific office. She will reside with her sister, Mrs. Robinson, Mr. Robinson, being prominently connected with the railroad company.

Last January B. A. Bengsten, of Logan, secured a marriage license at the county clerk's office to wed Tillie Jensen, and asked the deputy county clerk not to permit the same to be published. A few days ago the officiating minister the certificate of marriage to be recorded, showing that they had waited nearly seven months before using the license.

Mrs. Mary A. Lemar, wife of J. Lemar, of Parkplace, died last Monday, aged 64 years, 8 months and 5 days. The funeral occurred at the family residence Wednesday morning at 10, and the services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery. The interment took place at Mountain View cemetery. The deceased was born in Ohio, and after living in Indiana and Illinois, came to Oregon about ten years ago. She leaves a husband and three children.

Among the hop contracts filed in the county recorder's office during the past week are L. Woodcock, Ed Schmidt, Wa. Stanton, Graham J. N. and N. R. Joe, and John Viech, all to the Bank of Woodburn; picking and drying expenses to be advanced, and the hops to be delivered to the bank for disposal.

Don Sing, Ting John, Hom Sing, Tim Lee and Lee Tong have contracted their hops to the Hop Pickers Security Company, picking money to be advanced.

W. D. Mathews and W. H. Price, and William and Helen Murray have each contracted 5000 pounds of hops to the A. J. Luce Hop Company for 8 cents per pound; William Ohler to same, 3000 pounds at eight cents. The latter parties reside near Wilsonville.

Headquarters for Boys Clothing

Largest Stock
Best Assortment
Latest Styles
Lowest Prices

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

The Popular-Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

Corner Third and Oak Streets.

Miss Lorene Ackerman, one of the teachers in the Portland schools, was visiting the Misses Pratt, during the week.

Mrs. Sweeting, of Arigoni, Iowa, and Mrs. Carse, of Pasadena, Calif., were visiting the family of John McGetchie this week.

Freitag Brothers, since adding gentry-lens glasses to their store, are now enlarging the room and making other improvements.

J. V. Tamsie, of Portland, who is interested in sawmilling, was visiting his brother, A. E. Tamsie, of Huntley's drug store, Sunday.

Fred J. Meyer, cashier in the Commercial Bank, went out Monday afternoon on his bicycle to join J. W. Loder and James McIntyre at High bridge for a few days.

E. Maresa and family will remove to Forest Grove next week, where they will reside during the coming school year, in order to afford their sons better facilities for attending school.

A Robertson, the Seventh street grocer, has moved into the Morey residence on the bluff. The Moreys, who have leased the Knapp residence in Portland for a period of three years, will take possession of the same September 15th.

West Oregon City and the wood yards on the Tualatin, had a narrow escape from forest fires during the past two days. Detachments of men from the mills and other citizens worked hard until late Wednesday night and prevented serious damage.

Fifty-two cents per bushel is being paid at the Portland flouring mills in this city for wagon or unsacked wheat. The majority of the farmers are storing their wheat, and but little is being sold. The underground conveyor that has not been used for four or five years, was started up Wednesday. It is used to convey wheat to the brick warehouse at the rear of Charman's store.

The county court convened Wednesday, and among other matters, granted W. H. Burghardt, agent, a franchise over the county road from Oregon City to Highland for a motor line. The matter of examining tax roll and making levy was postponed until the November term of court. The county judge was also authorized to bid in property sold at delinquent tax sale.

Wishart-Russell.

Ira Wishart, the popular young pharmacist at Charman's drug store, was married Wednesday at Oakland, Oregon to Miss Mand Russell. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Hon. and Mrs. George T. Russell. Mr. and Mrs. Wishart left on the overland, and reached here yesterday morning. Upon their arrival here, they were escorted to a neat little cottage on the hill already prepared for their reception, where breakfast was served. Both the bride and groom were students of the state agricultural college last winter. The bride is a most estimable young lady, and the daughter of a well known attorney and former Douglas county educator.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends who kindly assisted during our recent bereavement.

Sincerely,
PAUL and ANNA HEMMELGARN.

Miss Erma Lawrence returned yesterday from an extended visit to Corvallis and Newport.

Mrs. Theo. Clark and sons returned yesterday morning from an extended visit to Bandon.

Miss Hattie Cochran leaves Saturday for Seaside, where she will visit relatives for a week or two.

Mrs. W. P. Connaway, wife of the receiver of the First National Bank of Moscow, Idaho, was visiting friends in this city during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Connaway were residents of Oregon City a number of years ago.

W. L. Beckner has returned from a trip to the Blue River mines in Lane county, in which he is interested. He reports that everything looks encouraging, and it is probable that some sales of mining property will be made soon.

Captain D. D. Chappell and wife of Galesville, Wis., are visiting his cousin, J. M. Taylor, and family, for several weeks. This is Mr. Chappell's first visit to the coast, and he is well pleased with the country. He is a veteran of the late war, having served as captain of Company E, 30th Regiment Wis. Infantry Volunteers.

Monday, Labor Day, was not generally observed as a legal holiday in Oregon City. The county, justice and police courts and postoffice were the only establishments that had any particular veneration for Labor Day. The sheriff's office continued to take in tax money, but no legal papers were issued.

John Collins writes to his wife from Dawson, that he now owns and is working a promising bench claim on the Klondike river. This mine is different from many others in that section, as it can be worked in the summer. He, also, was recently up Stewart river, and located a claim there which he believes is good property.

Owing to holiday, the store of I. Selling will be closed on Saturday, September 17th, until 6 o'clock.

The funeral of Clara May Hemmelgarn, was conducted from St. John's Catholic church Friday, Father Hillebrand, officiating. Many friends of the deceased girl attended the funeral, and the floral offerings were numerous, and of tasty design. The funeral services were very impressive. The interment took place in the Catholic cemetery.

The Ladies Meade Corps Volunteer Auxiliary desires to thank all those who so kindly assisted in making their social, for the benefit of the soldiers a success, and especially to Rev. Father Hillebrand for the use of his lawn, the Oregon City band for donating their services, J. P. Lovett for a generous donation of ice, and Bellomy & Busch for the use of dishes.

M. Schwabauer, of Parkplace, has returned from the Klondike country, and does not bring back any very encouraging reports concerning that country. He says that there is gold everywhere, but there are only comparatively few that pay for working. Plenty of ground can be found that will pay from $6 to $8 per day, but this is not profitable for mining purposes in that country. The climate is not conducive to the health of people that go from here, and many of them write home that they are well, when the condition is the opposite.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

Pure fruit flavored ice cream soda at Prier's.

Get your fruit jars and jelly tumblers at Harris' grocery.

For best groceries at cheapest price go to Marr & Muir.

Highest cash price paid for second hand household goods at Bellomy & Busch.

Last year's patterns of wall paper at reduced price. Five and ten notion counters. At Bellomy & Busch.

F. L. Andrews, the market gardener, has always on hand a large amount of first-class apples, vegetables, peas, ciders and other vinegars. Give him a trial.

The most reliable goods at lowest living cash prices are kept by the grocery store of Marr & Muir.

Nottingham lace curtains, balance of lot just received. Will close out at a same old price. Oregon City Auction House.

Just received, 100 rolls of fine matting. Call at once and get choice of patterns. Oregon City Auction House.

All our bicycles have the new department brakes, just the thing for riding in this county. Charman & Co., agents for Columbia bicycles.

Money to loan at 8 per cent interest on mortgages. Apply to C. D. & D. O. Latourette.

The Club Imperial parlors, P. G. Shark, proprietor, across the street. A full line of cigars and tobacco is kept.

Our $10 wheels have the automatic brakes; you can go down any hill. Charman & Co., agents for Columbia Bicycles.

We can arrange all who invest $40 in a Victor, 1893, Model 35 bicycle, that they are getting their money's worth, and that a greater amount of service and satisfaction cannot be found in any other bicycle on the market at an equal price. Burmeister & Andresen.

Dan Williams has added to his stock of groceries and provisions a full line of feed and hay. Goods delivered to all parts of the city free. Corner Seventh and Center streets.

TILL 1900 FOR $150 Oregon City Courier now until 1900 for $1.50 which gives you the paper free for 4 months. Now is the time to subscribe.

Fire and hard work in an accident by the Oregon City Courier.

G. H. Young's second hand store can furnish you with furniture, stoves, hardware, etc., at less than one-fourth what same would cost new and they are just as good and will last as long. Give him a trial.

Money to loan at 8 per cent interest on mortgages. Apply to C. D. & D. O. Latourette.

Hail the wagon of Mr. Andrews if you want anything in the fresh vegetable trial.

Try Prier's ice cream and ice cream with pure fruit flavors. Fruits, nuts and confectionery of all kinds.

A high grade warranted sewing machine sold for $35 on easy payments at Bellomy & Busch.

When in Portland be sure and call at the Royal restaurant where you can get the best 15c meal in the city. 233 First street, corner of Malison, Wm. Bolander, proprietor.

XXX Castor Machine oil cheaper than any other place at A. Oberston's, 7th Seventh street grocer.

Fine Mason & Hamlin organ with extra set of reeds for sale at a bargain at Oregon City Auction House, W. L. Block, Prop.

The Oregon City Auction House has just received the agency for the finest range made which will be sold at very low prices.

Look out for Miss Goldsmith's announcement of new millinery goods.

WAR AND BREAD

Two loaves of bread for 5 cents at the Seventh street bakery. All kinds of first-class groceries kept. C. F. Hennings, Prop.

We Carry in Stock a Large line of SOLID GOLD, GOLD FILLED, SILVER and NICKEL WATCHES

With Waltham and Elgin Movements

HIGHEST GRADE AT LOWEST PRICES

Burmeister & Andresen,

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS