PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

OREGON CITY, SEPT. 16, 1898.

A CONTEMPORARY says the bankers en route to Denver to attend the bankers' convention "are all gold standard men." This is the most important piece of information since old Bill Jones announced that his white cow was white.—Ex.

STRANGE to say, right here in this county of the gold standard and protection to home industries an ounce of silver is worth more than a bushel of wheat. It begins to look like some of the arguments heard in 1896 about the parity of silver and wheat was more truthful than poetical.

SOMEbody has said that the war with Spain was a republican war. Who helped to win Santiago? Joe Wheeler, a democrat. Who has planted a flag in the Orient with victory? Dewey, another democrat. Who annihilated Cervera? Schley, the good old Jeffersonian. Who sank the Merrimac? Hobson. The next best man was Roosevelt, and is said he is sorry that he is not a democrat. They have won the glory, stained our flag a deeper crimson, while Hanna, Elkins and Fairbanks have won the golden eagle.—Ontario News.

THE Woodburn Independent gives a very pertinent illustration as to who pays the war tax, and something besides to the corporation that cinches its patrons it says:

"The war revenue tax on a telephone message is two cents. Not wishing to lose this enormous sum, the telephone company has raised the price of one-minute use of the line from here to Portland from 25 to 50 cents, thereby making an additional profit of 25 cents. Our business men are highly and justly incensed at this monopoly rate and talk of not only boycotting the line, but combining with merchants of other towns and having a line of their own. The telephone company is not in the position to make excessive charges and thrive."

It may be a surprise to many to know that the war was an absolute injury instead of a benefit in a financial way to the newspapers. Strange as this may seem, it is true. Every newspaper of the first class has run far behind since the outbreak of the war. On very good authority it is stated that it cost the New York Journal an extra expense of $3000 daily, and the World almost if not quite as much. The Journal issued as high as forty extras in a single day, and its correspondents at the front were the best money could buy. The Journal had in commission ten sea-going crafts. The charter of these boats alone amounted to over $1500 per day. This tremendous expense was not offset by corresponding gains and had the war lasted two years, writes Arthur Brisbane, it would have busted every great newspaper in America

COMMENTARIES.

Matters Concerning Local Everyday Affairs Noticed by the Courier Reporter.

City pastors, who have had a summer vacation, ring in an extra 15 minutes on the change of the time of evening service from 7:30 to 8.

The hop picking season is a short one this year, and the pickers are already returning from the yards by twos, fives, tens, twenties and thirties. Many of the owners of hop fields suffered a great loss last year by reason of the early rains. As a result the picking is being completed at the earliest possible date, to guard against loss. The pickers' expectation of a long siege of lucrative employment was cut short, but the weather has been everything that could be desired, and those that went to the hop fields enjoyed a brief, but pleasant and profitable outing. The hops are of excellent quality, free from mold and lice, and have been cured free from the devastating effects of early rains.

The next important improvement on roads within the city limits, will probably be the proposed new road connecting South Main street with Center on the bluff. This projected road would of great advantage to farmers living South of Oregon City, enabling them to reach market in a more direct way for their wheat and wood. There cannot be too many convenient driveways and walks up the bluff.

According to the rulings of the war department, it begins to look as if the Oregon Volunteers at Cavite were destined to stay there for awhile. The dispatches state that orders have been made that no more Volunteers be mustered out of service. It is hinted that a large proportion of them will be needed at the Philippines, consequently it is possible that the Oregon City contingent may do garrison duty for some time to come.

Two or three weeks ago the Courier printed extracts from letters written at Camp Merritt, that did not accord with some of the stories circulated by certain members of the Women's Emergency Corps. Later developments have confirmed the truth of the reports printed in this paper.

President McKinley's message to the peace commission evidently means the retention of all the Philippine islands for commercial purposes. With the acquisition of the Philippines, there would be a place for young men to go west.

GRAVEROBBERS SENTENCED.

Magone and Montgomery Each Get Two Years.

The Magone grave robbery case has been dragging along in the Multnomah county courts for months, and the case is of special interest to people here, inasmuch as the parties concerned, are Clackamas county people.

Daniel Magone was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary Monday by Judge George, which is the full penalty provided by statute for graverobbery. His counsel took until October 1st in which to prepare a bill of exceptions for an appeal to the supreme court.

Magone, when asked if he had anything to say why the sentence of the court should not be pronounced, mumbled a few unintelligible sentences.

His attorney, J. O. Moreland, called attention to the fact that Magone had been in the county jail 16 months, and said he hoped the court would take that fact into consideration in passing sentence; but the court did not do so.

Judge George stated that he was of the opinion that Magone required treatment for mental disease, and would be willing at any time to write to the prison authorities that Magone was broken down mentally and ought to be treated.

Charles Montgomery, who refused to testify at the trial just closed, as a witness for the state, was ordered committed to the penitentiary to serve the sentence of two years imposed upon him by Judge Stephens.

Montgomery, on account of his services in behalf of the prosecution, was not to have been made to serve this sentence, and is now being punished because of his declination to give his evidence. He has served 16 months in the county jail, being detained there to insure his appearance when wanted.

He will probably not be allowed this time, but will have to serve the full time from date, as punishment for contempt of court.

When the two years from the date of passing of his sentence has expired, Montgomery can, if he desires to demand credit for the 16 months he spent in the county jail, petition for a writ of habeas corpus, and have the courts pass upon the question.

CARUS.

School is quite well attended for this season of the year, and this promises to be a very successful term.

Mrs. Abel, an old lady largely dependent on her children.

Forest fires, while not doing any material damage, have caused much uneasiness among the farmers of this locality.

Mrs. Dora Jones has gone for a long visit with her parents in Eastern Oregon. Miss Chatty Layner, of Vancouver, Wash., who has been on an extended trip east, spent several very pleasant days last week with friends near Carus. Miss Layne went from here to Monterey, Cal., where she will remain until November, at which time she will return home.

Miss Holden, a gifted young teacher from Oregon City, visited the Carus school in a professional way last Monday and was highly gratified with the manner in which the school was conducted.

GARFIELD.

George Lockerby and wife have gone to Portland on a visit, while there they will buy a horse and buggy.

Gid Krigbaum has his new dryer completed and is doing fine work.

Conrad Krigbaum is running his large dryer night and day, and there will be lots of fruit around here go to waste that cannot be taken care of.

J. J. Davis and family are going across the mountains for a two weeks' visit to his sister, Mrs. Dan Palmateer.

John Palmateer is quite sick yet. Cliff Sarver has a nephew out from Virginia, his name is B. Lony.

Mrs. Keith left our burg this week for her home near Vancouver.

Miss Hattie Boyer has gone to Portland to visit her cousin, Mrs. F. McCowen, till time to go to school.

Miss Sadie Barnette has concluded to spend the winter with Mrs. Lockerby. We are glad to have her with us. She is a great help in our Sunday school and Epworth League.

Wilber Wade and wife from Carrinville, and also Miss Jessie Carrin, visited our Sunday school last Sunday. Come again, we were glad to see you.

Extremely Weak

Deficient Blood Causes Loss of Appetite and Final Break Down—Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

"I lost my appetite and about all I lived on was leed lemonade. My strength was all gone. I was so weak I could hardly cross the floor. At last I was taken very sick. One physician told me my blood was all gone and he gave me medicine but it did not help me. I had pretty much lost all faith in medicines, but thought I would get one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and try it. After taking that bottle I was much better, and so I got two more bottles and after taking them I was well, but to be sure of it, I kept on taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until I had used in all five bottles. It has done unspeakable good to me and I wish all my suffering sisters would try it." Mrs. A. EVERSEN, Wedderburn, Oregon. Remember
