

Attractive Designs in FALL DRESS GOODS

Opening week of our Fall Novelties.
Hundreds of new patterns to select from.

HIGH-GRADE NOVELTIES

In black crepons, peroles, espangelines, whip cords, diagonals, almas and velours moire.

COLORED

FRENCH NOVELTIES

In 46, 48 and 52 inches, fancy cords, in cloth and silk effects, at 75c, 90c and $1.25 yd
Exceptional values.

AMERICAN

MANUFACTURE

Several cases of new novelties, 38, 40 and 42 inches, late and new and very attractive material for street wear. Price
33c, 38c and 43c yd
Extraordinary values.

McAllen & McDonnell

IMPORTERS OF FINE DRY GOODS

COR. THIRD AND MORRISON STS., PORTLAND, ORE.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Miss Cora Sellers left Wednesday for the East.

J. S. Yoder and wife, of Needy, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

J. M. Tracy, the big farmer of Logan, was in the city Monday.

E. F. Guenther, a prominent farmer, living near Shubel, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Born, in Oregon City last Friday night, September 16th, to the wife of William Vanover, a son.

Miss Zeida Goldsmith, of Eugene, arrived Monday and will visit her sisters for a couple of months.

Hon. George Knight, representative-elect, and S. J. Garrison, of Canby, were callers at this office Wednesday.

Stonewall Jackson Vaughan, of Molalla, who went to Idaho with Oliver's surveying party last April, returned this week.

Mrs. Duane Ely was visiting her father at Tualatin, Washington county. He was severely kicked by a horse a few days ago.

Mrs. C. B. Ramsby desires to express her kindest thanks to the many friends for their kindly offices during her husband's last illness.

Two sons were born last Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Graves, near Ely. The twins are grandsons of E. Dodge, the shingle mill man.

Miss Ida Shockley and Theodore H. Eckerson were married at the Presbyterian parsonage Tuesday afternoon, Rev. A. J. Montgomery, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wishart gave a number of their friends a reception at their home the other evening. It is said to have been a very pleasant affair.

R. R. Staub, of Beaver Creek, who is a member of Battery A, Washington Volunteers, stationed at Vancouver, has a 30 day furlough, and is visiting relatives and friends in this county.

The member of Abernethy Chautauqua Circle are requested to meet at the residence of William Galloway Wednesday evening, September 29th, to organize the reading circle for the coming year.

The ladies of Carus school district No. 29, will give an entertainment Friday evening, Sep. 30th. Supper will be served at a reasonable price. The proceeds to be used for the benefit of the school.

Rev. Harold Oberg will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church next Sunday, both morning and evening. A cordial invitation to attend these first services of the new conference year is extended to all.

William Barlow, who was in the city Tuesday, states that hay is the most profitable crop produced in Clackamas county. He has disposed of 100 tons in Portland for which he receives $12 delivered on board the cars.

Grant Critser's fruit drier burned near Canemah Sunday night. A large walnut tree prevented the flames from communicating with the residence. The trays were full of fruit, and the loss will probably aggregate about $200.

Mrs. Sarah A. Howlett and daughters, who were visiting relatives here for several weeks past, returned to their home at Eagle Point, Jackson county, Sunday. Mrs. Howlett was accompanied home by her niece, Miss Nettie Cooke, of Damascus, who will remain there during the winter.

Great preparations are being made by the management of the Butte Creek fair, to have a most successful farmer's exposition. It will be held at the fair grounds at Marquam, and a very liberal premium list has been prepared. The fairs given by this association have reached a high standard of success during past seasons, but it promises to surpass any previous fair this year.

An important contest was occupying the attention of the land office officials Tuesday. Simon Hendrickson was contesting the right of the state of Oregon to issue title to the Marquams for certain lands designated as swamp lands in township 8 north, range 4 west. Hendrickson wants to establish a claim to a homestead on the premises. W. W. Marquam is the transferee in this case. William La Force is the attorney for the plaintiff and Judge Ward and Col. R. A. Miller for the defendants.

E. L. Johnson left Tuesday for a few days' visit at Silverton.

Mrs. Leslie Barrack and child, of Woodburn, was visiting Mrs. J. E. Day over Sunday.

Mrs. L. W. McAdam returned to Oregon City today, after a visit with the Misses Skiff at their home on Liberty street. Mrs. McAdam is a teacher in the Oregon City schools, and was formerly similarly employed in Salem.—Salem Capital Journal of the 17th.

The 13th annual convention of the Oregon State Sunday School Association will be held in the First Baptist church in Portland, Oct. 4-6. Special rates on the railroads have been secured, and delegates can get board at reduced rates.

William Rector, who was sent to the penitentiary about a year and a half ago for complicity in the Magone grave robbery, was pardoned out a few days ago. He was attending the Magone trial in Portland as a witness, and was confined in the Multnomah county jail, when the pardon was brought to him.

At Monday's session of the M. E. conference at McMinnville, the following ministers were appointed for Clackamas county: Rev. H. Oberg was re-appointed to the Oregon City charge; Oswego, D. M. Harmon; Canby, W. H. Myers; Viola to be supplied. Rev. D. A. Watters, of Salem, succeeds Rev. John Parsons, as presiding elder, who is appointed pastor of the First church at Salem.

A number of weeks ago Phoebe Thurber, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Thurber, was turned over to the Boys and Girls Aid Society of Portland. The mother concluded that she wanted her girl back home and brought suit in the county court asking that the cause on which she is kept in custody, be dismissed, but a motion to that effect was denied. The matter came up for final hearing Saturday, and Judge Ryan decided, according to the testimony of witnesses, that the girl should remain in the custody of the Boys and Girls Aid Society.

In speaking of the Blue River mining district, the Eugene Guard says: The Blue River Mining Company, of Oregon City, which has been prospecting its claims in the vicinity of the Lucky Boy for several years, has just struck its main ledge and found it to be very satisfactory. The ledge was thought to have been struck several times before, and the mine was deemed very promising, and this main ledge strike materially increases the value of the property. John Green, who has been working there all summer, reports the new phase in the affair.

Save Money

.....BY VISITING THE.....

PORTLAND EXPOSITION

Bring this Coupon with you and we will Allow you a Rebate of

10 PER CENT

On all your Purchases of Men's and Boys'

CLOTHING

We Carry the Largest Stock of

Overcoats and Mackintoshes

in the City and our Prices are Always the Lowest

MOYER CLOTHING CO.,

The Popular-Price Clothiers

BEN SELLING, Manager

Corner Third and Oak Streets.

David Olds has returned from a visit to Nebraska.

Dr. E. A. Dedman, of Canby, was doing the city Tuesday.

O. E. Young, the Marquam road supervisor, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Echo Samson is home from a visit to relatives at Silverton and vicinity.

Misses Louise Cochrane, May and Amy Kelly are expected home from Seaview today.

Miss Mertie Cross, of Molalla, has accepted a position as salesman in Belmont & Busch's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Seward Rasmussen are home from a two week's visit to the latter's parents at St. Helens.

Mrs. W. B. Stafford and two children left yesterday for Philadelphia and New Jersey, combining business with pleasure.

Lawrence L. Driggs, who was taking a three years course at Ann Arbor, Mich., has returned home for a year's vacation.

Mrs. George Broughton and children, who spent the summer at their country home on the Clackamas, have returned to the city.

Miss Blanche Holden, W. H. Beach and Harry Barrett left the first of the week to begin studies in the state agricultural college. Miss Daisy Lawrence went up to Corvallis last week.

George T. Howard received a letter a few days ago from his mother written in London and dated September 2nd. The letter was received here on the morning of the 15th, a notable instance of rapid mail transit.

Mrs. G. W. Grace has received another letter from her brothers, the Faircloughs, now in Alaska. They report that they are doing exceedingly well, having made as high as $75 per day with their outfit.

Miss Lillie Mchargue, of Albany, is visiting Mrs. E. E. Howell.

Register C. B. Moores returned Saturday from a visit to Eugene.

John Kalbdeisch, a successful farmer of Carus, was in the city Tuesday.

John Gaffney, a well known Clackamas farmer, was in town Monday.

M. F. Boyles is home from Sherman county for a short visit to his family.

County Clerk and Mrs. Elmer Dixon were visiting at The Dalles during the week.

W. B. Zumwalt and family returned Friday from a visit to Polk county and Newport.

G. W. Harrington, of Heppner, ex-sheriff of Morrow county, is visiting relatives in this county.

Henry and Andrew Kocher, two well known Mark's Prairie farmers, were in Oregon City Saturday.

Howard Brownell and Guy Clark left Tuesday for Forest Grove, to resume their studies at Pacific university.

Messrs. Griessen & Hallwylor gave a select dance to a party of friends and close acquaintances last Saturday night.

Mrs. I. D. Taylor and children left Friday for South Dakota, where she will visit relatives for a month or six weeks.

John C. Bradley, as trustee, sold 160 acres of land near Damascus Saturday, to J. E. Siefert for the consideration of $400.

G. E. Kellogg was down from Wasco, Sherman county, Monday, and removed his family from Canemah to the former place.

P. F. Morey and Dr. W. E. Carl returned Sunday from a three week's visit to Paso Robles and other California points.

L. Ferguson, the New Era vegetable man, states that he threshed 88 bushel of oats from less than two acres of ground.

J. O. Bradley and family, who have been spending the summer on their Powell's Valley ranch, returned to the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Harrington have returned from Bandon, where they were visiting their son, who is employed in the woolen mills there.

The seven-year old son of Chris. Bittner was operated upon for appendicitis last Sunday by Dr. Sommer, and is progressing on the road to recovery.

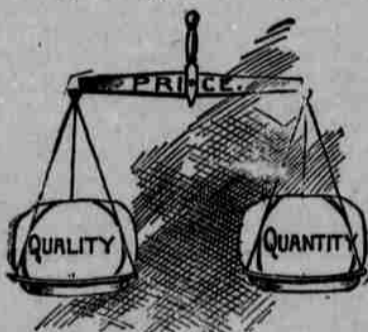

Miss May Oase, prominent in musical circles, left Sunday for Portland, where she will take lessons in vocal and instrumental music for a year from some of the best instructors.

Owing to holiday, the store of J. Selling will be closed on Monday, September 26th, until 6:30 o'clock.

LADIES,

on Friday and Saturday, September 23d and 24th, we will exhibit the grandest and finest line of pattern hats. You are cordially invited to attend. Do not miss the opening. CELIA GOLDSMITH.

Weighing Things

The value of our groceries depends on three things: How much you get for your money; how good it is when you get it, and the price you pay for what you get. We have sugars that are cheap and sugars that are good. We have coffees that will satisfy the appetite and the pocketbook. Staple goods at less than staple prices. We give you money-saving health-saving chances.

A. Robertson,
The 7th Street Grocer

Great Bargains!

AT THE Farmers and Mechaines Store

SCHRAM BUILDING

MAIN STREET, OREGON CITY, OR.

We have Special Bargains to offer you in CLOTHING, Ladies', Men and Children FURNISHINGS

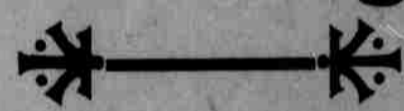

A large assortment of BOOTS AND SHOES for Men, Ladies' and Children. A fine line of Wool Blankets. Quilts of every description. Rubber Boots and Shoes to fit any body with Prices that will Astonish You.

Make it a point to see us before buying elsewhere. Remember the place. Even if it is small we have the assortment and can afford to sell cheaper, as those that have big stocks with big expenses.

Main St., Bet. Fifth and Sixth.

Some Good Things....

Waltham and Elgin Watches

In Gold, Gold-filled, Silver and Nickel Cases, in all sizes.

The Latest Designs

In Rings, Ladies' and Gents' Chains, Breastpins, Studs, Cuff Buttons, Stick Pins and Silver Novelties

A Brand New Lot of Umbrellas

Just received from the East. Come in and get our prices. The best line ever shown in the city.

Silver Plate that wears

1847 Rogers Bros. is standard for quality. We have always on hand a large assortment of Knives, Forks, Spoons, Tea Sets, Cake Baskets, Fruit Dishes, Etc.

Our Line of Clocks

Is complete. We have the best makes only and guarantee every one of them.

Spectacles and Eye-Glasses

We have them in Steel, Nickel, Gold-filled and Solid Gold. We test the Eyes free of charge with the Johnston Eyemeter.

In the Music Line

We have Violins, Guitars, Mandolins, Autoharps, Accordions, and all small Instruments. Also parts and strings.

Come in and Hear Our.... Eagle Graphophone

No talking machine was ever before offered at so low a price. We sell it complete with Horn, Hearing Tube, Reproducer and Carrying Case for $12. Records 50c each, or $5 per dozen.

We Do Fine Watch Repairing

Prices Reasonable. All Work Guaranteed.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS