FROM CAMP MERRIAM.

Our Twelve Volunteers at the Presidio Well and Happy.

John A. Howland, of Oregon City's 12 volunteers, who were anxious to go to Manila, but are still at Camp Merriam, sends the following interesting letter:

SAN FRANCISCO, Sep. 13.—To THE EDITOR OF THE COURIER: The 12 boys in blue from Oregon City send their kind regards to Oregon friends. We have been highly honored by Governor Lord, who has been in the camp of the Oregon recruits. He found the boys in the best of spirits, and a much finer looking body of soldiers than he expected. The governor talked to the men concerning the treatment we were receiving. We have no complaint to make, except that we want to join the regiment. We are well drilled, as our officers are from the Twenty-Third U. S. Regular Infantry. So you see we have the best of military training, and are ready to go to the front now if called upon.

We have had a pleasant call from P. F. Morey and Dr. W. E. Carl, of Oregon City. They complimented the boys on the drill before Adjutant Tuttle and wife from Portland.

When Dr. Carl and Mr. Morey presented us with a nice lot of fruit before they took their departure, which was very much appreciated.

School Matters.

Miss Marjorie Caulfield has been elected supernumary teacher in the Oregon City schools.

Miss Hattie Bray has returned from Seattle, and will teach the Rock creek school near Damascus.

Miss Mabray McCown will teach in Mulino district No. 84, school to begin October 3rd.

Miss Jennie Rowen will begin the fall term of the Beaver creek school October 3rd.

Miss Wrigley will teach in the Tracy district near Legan.

Charles P. Tallman, of Clarkes, was in town Tuesday, and states that he will begin the fall term of the school there, next Monday, instead of the first Monday in October as heretofore announced.

Hon. Alex Thomson has postponed the commencement of the Leland school until after the special session of the legislature.

Miss Anna Charleson, of Portland, will be principal of the Clackamas school, and Miss Mamie Rogers, of Milwaukie, will be assistant.

Miss Jennie Rowen officiated in the county superintendent's office a portion of the during Mr. Strange's recent illness.

The West Oregon City school began Monday with a fairly good attendance. Professor T. J. Gary is principal and Mrs. Norma Haines and Miss Lizzie MacDonald are grade teachers, and Miss Lizzie Shipley is teacher of the Bolton annex.

The Oregon City school will begin next Monday, and the small boy will be conspicuously absent from the street. The teachers will be as follows: Prof. W. L. McAdam, city superintendent; Barclay school—Principal, Prof. J. C. Zinser; grade teachers, Misses Gertrude Finley, Addie Clark, Laura Beattie, Hattie Cochrane, May Kelly, Olive A. Luelling. Eastham School—Principal, Mrs. L. W. McAdam; grade teachers, Misses Ora Spangler, Erma Lawrence, Helena Barck and Mrs. D. H. Glass.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the guardianship of Laura May, William Nelson, Arthur Franklin, John Theodore, Pearl Winifred, Olive Elizabeth, Oscar and Louis N. Howlett, minor children of John N. and Lydia Howlett, W. J. Howlett, the guardian, was authorized to buy a tract of 10 acres for $300, for the use of said heirs.

Kate Spulak, as administratrix of the estate of Frank Spulak, deceased, filed her bond, which was approved. H. Brown, J. O. Newbury and Edward Briddle were appointed appraisers of the estate.

Memorial Services.

There was a notable ceremony at Mountain View cemetery, Oakland, Cal., Sunday, at the grave of J. C. Ainsworth, of which the Oakland Enquirer of Monday said:

"The 50th anniversary of the organization of the first Masonic lodge on the Pacific coast was commemorated at Mountain View cemetery yesterday at 11 o'clock under the auspices of the Masonic Veterans' Association and Chapter Knights of Rose Croix, No. 18, A. & S. R. The services were conducted at the grave of Brother J. C. Ainsworth, 33rd degree, past master of Multnomah lodge, No. 1, of Oregon City, Oregon, the first lodge chartered on the Pacific coast, and also past grand master of Oregon.

There was a very large attendance of officers and members of the Masonic Veterans Association and of the Scottish Rite and other brethren. Major A. E. Sherman acted as grand master of ceremonies, and Past Grand Master H. N. Rucker, of California, presided. The sacred square was formed about the plat belonging to the Ainsworths, which was covered with a mass of beautiful flowers. From the roses in the button-holes of the brethren a cross of red was made by Past Master Donnell and placed upon the mound, with a Master Mason's apron of white flowers bordered with blue.

Past Master Rucker delivered an eloquent address, in which he paid a glowing tribute to the character of the deceased pioneer brother. Major Sherman read an interesting biographical sketch. The ceremonies of the blue lodge and of the Rose Croix followed.

Like ceremonies were held in Los Angeles at the grave of Past Master Joseph Hull, who opened the first lodge at Oregon City, and later officiated at other lodges over the state.

When in Portland be sure and call at the Royal restaurant where you can get the best 15c meal in the city. 253 First street, corner of Madison. Wm. Bohlander, proprietor.

Y. M. C. A. Matters.

W. J. Kent, of Portland, was visiting the general secretary during the week.

Rev. F. L. Sullivan, of the Pacific Baptist, delivered a very interesting address last Sunday afternoon.

Dr. T. W. Butler will deliver the address next Sunday afternoon. Both ladies and gentlemen invited.

The long-anticipated cake walk and social will be held at the armory next Saturday night. Three prizes will be offered, one cake to the most graceful couple, and two to the most grotesque. Coffee, sandwiches, gingerbread, etc., will be served. Brizes will be offered to victors in the games. Only 10 cents admission.

The Ladies' Auxiliary held a meeting at Mrs. Stafford's Tuesday night.

Mr. Dockstadter and family, of Baker City, have removed to the city, and taken rooms in the association building.

You've Been Wrong

In thinking because we carry an expensive line of Writing Tablets, Box Paper, etc., that we do not have the inexpensive kind. It matters not, be it an expensive or a cheap box of Stationery you are in search of—you can find it here and in far greater variety than anywhere else in town.

We want Your Trade

In school books and school supplies, too. For over seven years we have been the acknowledged headquarters in Clackamas county for everything in this line. We sell every school book at exactly the price the American Book Co. advertises it for, and you can send the children to us and know absolutely they will be asked no more than you would be for the same book. That's worth something.

Huntley's Book Store OREGON CITY, ORE.

Go to Huntley's HUNTLEY'S MOTTO IS: "Treat a Customer so well that he will Feel Like Apologizing to Himself if he Trades Elsewhere."

There's no half-way in the Drug business. When a druggist is half bad, he is bad; when a drug store isn't a good drug store to patronize, it's soon a dead drug store; when drugs are not good, they're bad. Huntley's store is run with the idea that there is nothing so bad as half bad, and there's nothing so good that it is not worth while to keep your eye open for something better. But the biggest thing in the drug business is CONSCIENCE. A druggist who hasn't a big conscience about him every day in the year and every hour in the day is the druggist you want to look out for. He will give you "the next best thing to that," because he can make a few cents on that next best. He will put in a five-cent drug in your prescription when he should put in a twenty-cent, and he'll make you pay the same. He will guarantee every Patent Medicine on his shelves. You never hear him say "I believe it's good," or "I hear it's good," but it's always "Nothing better; cured a friend of mine." You never heard of a prescription being sent back to Huntley's because it isn't right. Conscience has made it right.

Look at Huntley's List of Cut Rates and see if you are paying more than you should for your Patent Medicines:
