Weighing Things

The value of our groceries depends on three things: How much you get for your money; how good it is when you get it; and the price you pay for what you get. We have sugars that are cheap and sugars that are good. We have coffees that will satisfy the appetite and the pocketbook. Staple goods at less than staple prices. We give you money-saving health-saving chances.

A. Robertson,

The 7th Street Grocer

Nancy A. Boston has been appointed administrator on the estate of John W. Boston deceased, and Henry A. Brown, W. F. Edwards and Alex. Monroe, are named as appraisers.
