

THE FIRST VOTE.

H. W. Corbett Received 36 Votes and Judge Bennett 24-Forty-six Required to Elect.

Both branches of the legislature balloted separately for United States senator Tuesday. The result follows:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Senate, House, Total. Lists candidates like Corbett, Williams, Bennett, etc.

The Oregon senatorial situation was unchanged on first joint ballot taken Wednesday. Corbett again received 36 votes and the others are divided among minority candidates much the same as the first day.

Routine in Two Houses. The routine work in both houses Tuesday did not develop anything of great importance. The senate concurred in the house resolution for an investigation of the books and accounts of the secretary of state, penitentiary, Soldiers' Home, state school land commissioners and insane asylum.

By Fordney, fixing the time of holding terms of court in the sixth judicial district. By Myers, providing that a joint committee be appointed to investigate the salmon industry of the state and report at the next session, its expense not to exceed $500. This is a substitute for a resolution on the same subject killed last week.

Moody of Multnomah, introduced two bills, one to repeal the present law authorizing the payment of taxes with county warrants, and the other to provide that county warrants shall be redeemed in the order of the date of the treasurer's indorsement upon them.

The bill authorizing the state to refund to Lincoln county nearly $1,000, paid on account of property assessed in the Siletz Indian reservation, which was recently decided not to be assessable by that county, passed without objection.

Two more investigating committees were set on foot today, one to investigate the school land commission, and the other to examine into the management of the state school for the blind.

The Multnomah senators held a meeting this afternoon and organized as a committee, by electing Haseltine chairman.

Following is the full text of the resolutions introduced in the house by Ross of Multnomah, providing for the celebration of the 40th anniversary of Oregon's admission into the Union: "Whereas, There occurs in 1899 the 40th anniversary of the admission of Oregon as a state and the semi-centennial anniversary of the extension of the laws of the United States over the Oregon country; and

"Whereas, The appropriate observance of such anniversary is conducive to creating and enlightening a true commonwealth spirit, fostering the zealous study of its history and institutions by its people; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the speaker of the house appoint a committee of three, who, with two appointed by the senate, shall constitute a joint committee to arrange for appropriate exercises by the senate and house of representatives of the legislature of Oregon, assembled in joint assembly on the 14th day of February, 1899; and further be it

"Resolved, That the governor be requested to appoint a committee of arrangements for the celebration of the semi-centennial anniversary, to be held at Portland, Or., on June 15, 1899."

Curtis of Clatsop, introduced in the house, by request of ex-representative U'Ren, a joint resolution for an amendment to the constitution providing for the initiative and referendum plan of making laws. By its terms, "the legislative assembly shall have power to refer any bill to the legal voters of the state for approval or rejection. Five thousand legal voters of the state shall have the right and power to propose any bill or constitutional amendment to all the legal voters for approval or rejection." It is made compulsory for the legislature to refer to the voters every increase in any appropriation of public funds, every increase in salary of any public officer and every new appropriation of public funds.

Bids have been opened at the navy department for the construction of four harbor-defense vessels, of the monitor type, authorized by congress at an expenditure of $1,250,000 for each monitor. Four per cent allowance was made in favor of the Pacific coast builders. From the face of the bids, the lowest bidders for the four vessels were Nixon, Newport News, Bath and Union iron works, who each bid for one monitor.

FAST WORK DONE.

Considerable Routine Business Transacted—Astoria Charter Amended. Much routine business was transacted in the two hours the legislature was in session Monday afternoon.

The senate received four new bills, one of which was finally passed under suspension of the rules—an amendment to the Astoria charter to enlarge the powers of the common council. Twenty-eight bills were advanced through the second reading, and half a dozen resolutions were concurred in.

The Astoria charter amendment also went through the house, as did a bill to give Tillamook county two terms of court each year instead of one, and a bill to authorize Coos county to sell certain property that had been purchased for a courthouse site, but had been found unsuitable. A dozen new bills were introduced in the house, eight others passed second reading, and five resolutions were handled.

By the agreement of the senate to the resolution authorizing an investigation of the insane asylum and the concurrence of the house in a resolution to investigate the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg, the fourth investigation of the session was set on foot, the others being of the penitentiary and of the secretary of state's office, which are already in progress.

One of the resolutions introduced by Ross of Multnomah, and passed, is for arranging appropriate exercises for a joint meeting of the two houses February 14, to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the admission of Oregon as a state and the 50th anniversary of extending United States laws over Oregon, the governor being requested to appoint a committee for a semi-centennial celebration in Portland, June 15.

The last member to appear at roll-call this session is Representative Donnelly, of Grant, who had been absent in Tennessee and only arrived Monday.

When the general agents of insurance companies have an opportunity to read the bill introduced by Fordney of Wallowa, in the house, they will, it is understood, take immediate steps to defeat it. The bill provides for the retention and investment of the legal reserve on all policies to be written in the future in the state. A failure to comply with the provisions of the bill will entail a forfeiture of the license of the offending company.

The Senate. Bills were introduced in the senate Monday as follows: By Kelly—To repeal the act regulating the sale of adulterated food and medicines.

By Adams—Providing for the taxation of dogs and kindred subjects. By Mulkey—To incorporate the town of Monmouth.

By Fulton—To amend the statutes relating to the incorporation of the city of Astoria; passed.

The House. In the house Monday afternoon, bills were introduced as follows: By Flagg—To incorporate the city of Salem. It provides for bonding outstanding warrant indebtedness and aims to secure better sanitary conditions.

By Stanley—To reimburse the Omaha fair commissioners in the sum of $15,000. By Curtis—Amending the general laws in relation to the administrative department so that the term of the governor shall commence the second Monday in January after his election.

By Sherwin—Amending the charter of Ashland; passed.

By Maxwell—Amending the miscellaneous laws in regard to the time of holding elections in the fifth judicial district.

By Stillman—Compelling persons or corporations operating sleeping cars to keep upper berths closed when not occupied, and imposing $500 fine for violations.

By Hobkirk—A bill which is intended to remedy certain alleged irregularities in the manner in which the records of Multnomah county are kept, and throwing the same open to the general public.

Wade of Union, introduced in the senate a bill for an act giving preference in appointment and employment to honorably discharged Union soldiers and sailors, in every department of the state, and in counties and cities and on public works. It is provided that age, loss of limb, or other physical impairment, shall not be deemed to disqualify them, provided they possess the business capacity to discharge the duties of the position involved. It is also specified that no such soldier or sailor now holding any such position, unless for a definite term, shall be removed, except for cause shown after due hearing. The measure is not made to apply to confidential positions. Failure on the part of appointing officers to observe the letter and spirit of the law is made a misdemeanor.

The Baker City charter bill was the first measure to pass both houses. Its chief purpose is to relieve the present city officials of office. They were elected more than four years ago, and then the city charter was amended, and by inadvertence it failed to provide for any election. So the mayor and councilmen have had to continue to hold office, greatly to the envy of politicians elsewhere. The new charter remedies the difficulty.

An amendment to the code, introduced in the senate by Reed of Douglas, is to make it unlawful to fish for salmon in the waters of the Nehalem, Tillamook, Nestucca, Salmon, Siletz, Yaquina, Alsea, Siuslaw, Umpqua, Coos bay, Coquille, Sines, Elk, Clifton, Rogue, Windchuck or any of their tributaries, or in any other streams or bays of the state except the Columbia river and tributaries, from November 20 to December 20, and from April 15 to June 1, the emergency clause being attached.

A pedestrian succeeded the other day in setting foot in the course of five hours and 40 minutes, in seven German states.

A HERO'S REWARD.

Lieut. Mills Given a Good Post for Gallant Work at San Juan.

Albert L. Mills, who has been appointed superintendent of the Military Academy at West Point, is the first lieutenant to be so honored. The superintendent of the Military Academy is a very responsible position, as upon him depends the training that the future officers receive. Lieut. Mills' predecessor in command of the Academy was Lieut. Col. Oswald H. Ernst, a brigadier general of volunteers, and an officer of that rank has usually held the post. The responsible appointment comes to Lieut. Mills as a reward for his gallant conduct during the storming of San Juan Heights. He was Gen. Young's chief of staff, with the volunteer rank of captain, during the Santiago campaign, and was severely wounded during the battle of San Juan, having been shot in the head and losing an eye. Lieut. Mills is 44 years of age and well fitted for his new post. For the last four years he has been instructor of tactics and strategy in the Fort Leavenworth Infantry and Cavalry School, and he has been an instructor at the Academy. He entered the Academy in 1874, being appointed from New ALBERT L. MILLS. York, became a second lieutenant in the First Cavalry June 13, 1870, and received his commission as first lieutenant January 23, 1883. Major General Wheeler expressed the opinion of the army when he telegraphed Secretary Alger thanking the Secretary for the promotion.

JUDGE THOMAS M. COOLEY.

He Was an Eminent Jurist and Authority on Constitutional Law. Judge Thomas M. Cooley, who died at his home in Ann Arbor, Mich., recently, was one of the most noted jurists and authorities on constitutional law in this country. Judge Cooley's mind had long been affected and he had been falling physically as well as mentally for some time past.

Judge Cooley was born in Attica, Mich., 74 years ago. He began the study of law in 1842 and was admitted to the bar in Adrian, Mich. He quickly rose to the front rank in his profession. In 1850 he was made professor of law in the University of Michigan and in 1864 was elected a justice of the State Supreme Court to fill a vacancy. In 1869 he was re-elected for the full term of eight years, serving about a year as chief justice. He retired from the bench permanently in 1885.

Judge Cooley is best known as the author of many legal publications of great value. He also contributed numerous articles to cyclopedias and other periodicals. For three years he was lecturer on governmental subjects at Johns Hopkins University. He was receiver of the Wabash Railroad in 1887, but resigned this position at the request of President Cleveland to accept an appointment as one of the members of the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The degree of LL. D. was conferred upon him by Michigan University and Harvard College.

JUDGE THOMAS M. COOLEY.

Attempts to evade the death duties act are causing queer complications in England. An old man transferred all his property by deed of wife to his young wife, not expecting that he would survive her. She made a will leaving it to a former beau of hers, and then was killed on the hunting field. The husband was thus left dependent on the lover's generosity.

The Queen's Indian Servants. When Queen Victoria has meals alone she is entirely waited on by her Indian servants, with whom she is able to talk in their own tongue. One of these, Munski Abdul Kareem, has been in her service ten years, and instructed her in his native language.

Fish Can't Swim. Paradoxical as it may sound, there are several varieties of fish that cannot swim. In every instance they are deep sea dwellers, and crawl about the rocks, using their tails and fins as legs.
