Circuit Court.

The following new cases have been filed in the circuit court:
Hiram Straight, executor of the will of Hiram A. Straight, deceased, has filed a foreclosure suit against H. M. Cake, trustee, et al, to recover $10,000 with 10 per cent. interest from July 9th, 1890, less $4,744 interest paid on the principal. The receiver of the East Side Railway is made a party defendant in the suit, for the reason that a right of way was granted to said company since the land was sold.

H. E. Noble has filed a suit to recover $67 50 from school district No. 106, with interest at 10 per cent. from September 28th, 1892. The indebtedness was incurred on account of purchasing the "New Education," and the claim was subsequently assigned to Noble.

J. N. Harrington, executor of the last will and testament of Joseph Walton, deceased, has begun a suit against John B. Jackson, et al, to recover money.

Sarah E. Lynch has begun a suit against Thomas W. Lynch, to dissolve the bonds of matrimony now existing between them. The plaintiff and defendant were married in Coos county in November, 1878, and the complaint alleges that the defendant deserted the plaintiff in August, 1895.

The State Board of School Land Commissioners have brought a foreclosure suit against George Pfeister, et al.

Dan Lyons has filed a foreclosure suit against James Baty and wife to recover $400.

C. D. Latourette has begun a foreclosure suit against James Baty, et al, to recover $778.

Clackamas Letter.

Mr. Richard and family have returned to Clackamas after trying Southern Oregon and many other places for the past two years to find some place that would suit them for a home.

Mrs. M. A. Clark and Mrs. A. Talbert are quite ill. The former is 69, the latter 88 years old; both crossed the plains.

Mr. Parks and family have returned to our town for the winter.

Last week the W. O. T. U. met at Mrs. P. C. Humphreys, whose home was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, ivy and silver; 10 were present and an extra good meeting was held. We expect soon to have more new books to pass around through our country.

Maxie Webster and family are home again for the winter.

Mr. Heath has gone to Wamic to visit his daughter, Mrs. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Orry were glad to get back from Virginia to their little Oregon home.

Shubel.

Mrs. Staben had the misfortune to fall and break one of her arms and badly bruise the other while coming out of the barn.

Burt Cummins cut quite a gash in his hand while cutting cordwood for Mr. Burgbart. It will lay him up for some time.

Mr. Blum is building a barn and moving his hop house to the same, in which he will put a chopper. He is going out of the hop business and he thinks one year with another there is more in raising grain than hops.

After teaching one month the board of directors have engaged Martin Massinger to teach the rest of the term. There was some objection, particularly by some who never see the inside of the school except at school meetings. Give the boy a chance. Martin is all right.

Miss Ella Hershuh went to Albany with her grandma, Mrs. Grimmer, to stay for the winter.

Rev. R. Staub and wife returned from Bethany, where they were visiting a week or more.

Miss Lena Hely is home from Portland on a visit.

Bill Moehneke is building a barn for Mr. Daniels.

Wm. Beeson and J. B. Beeson and family returned Sunday from Southern Oregon; where they were visiting their daughter, Mrs. George Traylor. They went with the team, taking very near a week to make the trip. They were gone about five weeks.

E. F. Guenther returned from Wilhoit, where he was helping to open a coal mine. Have not learned with what success.

October 16. Max.

Side Talk with Prospective Carpet Customers

These introductory notes to a brief list of some of the stock we have gotten ready for the fall and winter time differ noticeably from the ordinary furniture and carpet advertisement—in that every word we say is strictly lived up to when you get inside our doors and have dealings with us.

Our new designs from the manufactures are of a class of their own, and present a striking contrast to the cheap, gaudy goods of the man who claims to sell "cheaper than others."

Our carpets are bought for cash and 'way above the character of stock picked up on auction sales.

We have still a few choice patterns of 50c Brussell Carpet on hand.
