Molalla.

Our unusually quiet little burg was thrown into a fever of excitement about 1 o'clock this morning by someone calling for help. Your correspondent happening to be the only one that heard the calling and upon responding I found some one had tried to burglarize the residence of our postmistress, Mrs. Anna Clifford, Mr. Clifford being away at Oregon City attending court. Only Mrs. Clifford and Mrs. Nelson being at the house, at the hour first above mentioned. Mrs. Nelson heard some one trying to force one of the windows; falling in that he came to the front door and attempted to open the door. When Mrs. Nelson threatened to fire at him, he then retreated from the front door towards the road by the way of the store building. It was evidently some one that Mr. Clifford's dog knew for the dog met him as he left the front porch and seemed to make up with him at once. Unless such visits cease some one is very likely to get a bullet plugged into their worthless carcass.

Robert and John Bagby caught a large cinnamon bear recently. They found where a cougar had killed a deer and the bear was using what the cougar had left. They set a trap and caught him the first night.

Doctor Leavitt was called to Mackay today to set a broken arm for the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klinger. The little fellow fell from a tree with the above results.

Geo. M. Duggan and Mr. Cook, of Jefferson, Oregon, who are visiting here a few days, are on the road to the mountains to have a general hunt. From the white appearance of the mountains there must be plenty of snow which will drive the deer from their summer range.

Two couples from the vicinity of Molalla were seen to be driving swiftly toward Oregon City this morning and the supposition is that there will be at least two marriage licenses issued by Clerk Dixon today, which calls for a visit to Justice Schebel, some minister or Judge Ryan, and so the good work goes on.

Miss Ellen Kayler is having the inside of her dwelling painted in an artistic manner by R. J. Devine who is capable of doing just such work.

Uncle Jake Harless has been having a severe attack of erysipelas in his face which made him quite sick for a few days, but he is now improving.

Mr. Gregory, of York state, brother of Sam E. Gregory our tassel man, is visiting here and inspecting and receiving last year's tassel crop and preparing the same for market as fast as possible.

George Cutting, who was killed by the Indians recently in Grant county is a nephew of Orin Cutting, who lives near here.

Levi Robbins, our merchant, is receiving lots of dried apples now. He is paying 6 cents cash for a No. 1 article, but owing to the sorry condition of apples there is but comparatively a small amount of No. 1 apples in this vicinity.

One of W. P. Herman's little girls is on the sick list this week.

A petition to the county court for the appointment of J. R. Shaver as road supervisor for this district is receiving a large number of names.

A protracted meeting is being held here at the school house hall this week. There is a good attendance.

Nov. 9th. X. Y. Z.

Frog Pond.

Mrs. Annaretta Priester, of Oregon City, has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sharp.

At Thomas Turner's they have a new floor to their front porch.

Miss Lorena Kruse spent Sunday with her cousins, the Ellisons.

"Curly" Mays is supplying this Pond with rabbits. They are up his garden, so, neighbors, beware.

"Stub" Baker is on the sick index. It does not pay to work out in all the rain.

The Misses Melinda and Katie Sharp, report her being up and around and the baby enjoying the best of health. While there Mr. Seeding came in and one could not but think of the old song, "It looks just like it's papa, so sweet I do declare, it looks just like it's papa, it's eyes, it's nose and it's hair."

Mrs. Edvard Sharp and son have been spending some time with her parents at Feherville. They returned home the fore part of the past week.

Miss Dena Peters celebrated her 20th birthday on the 30th ult., and all who participated in her days enjoyment can look back to that day as upon a beautiful picture with pleasure.

School once more is going it full tilt. "Share not the rod and spoil the child." Frog Pond's feed not read this as it will be stale news to them. I'll come again, 'till then, adieu.
November 7. A. Z. Z.

Garfield Items.

The roads out in this part of the county are getting almost impassible. There has been so much heavy hauling this fall.

Mr. T. Yocum is running his sawmill steady. He has several hands employed, sells lumber very reasonable and deserves the patronage of the people.

Miss Rena Palmateer has gone to Wasco county on a visit.

Miss Ida Surface has come home. She has been working at Montavilla for some time.

Miss Amy Dobson, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. J. P. Irvin.

The young and old gathered in at William Davis' last Friday evening and tripped the light fantastic 'till 4 o'clock in the morning. They had a good supper, a good crowd, good music and all went home happy.

Mrs. William Outfield has gone to Portland to stay awhile with her mother-in-law, Mrs. M. Outfield.

Mrs. Ida Huxley has been to Mt. Taber visiting relatives and friends the past week.

Miss Ethel Jones is visiting friends at Springfield.

There has been a good many around complaining of colds and sore throats; nothing serious though.

The Garfield school is progressing finely with Mr. D. Miller as teacher.

Conrad Krigbaum has gone to Salem to work in the foundry for his brother.

Well, when it stops raining long enough for us to think we will tell you more news.

November 8th. ROXIE.

Liberal News.

Gilbert White was visiting relatives and friends at Woodburn a few days of the past week.

The Misses Bidings, of Marquam, were visiting Mrs. Wright and Mrs. White Sunday.

J. H. Daly, of Mackeburg, was in Liberal Saturday.

Miss Blanche Dyer was the guest of Miss Belle Hibbard at Marquam last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mallatt spent Sunday with friends at Molalla.

N. H. Darnell, who has been in East Oregon for a few weeks this fall, is again in this part of the world. He expects to go back again in the spring.

The Germans of the neighborhood are now holding their Sunday school in the schoolhouse of district No. 3b.

Mr. Stehman has his house about completed and has moved from the old to the new.

Mrs. M. Nelson is staying with Mrs. Stehman at present.

Mrs. Austin and son, Will, have returned from California, where they have spent the last two or three years. Laboralites are glad to see them again.

The social given by the ladies' aid society last Saturday was the most successful of the season socially, and the financial part was very satisfactory, the proceeds being nearly $15. The bachelor who drew the quilt built by the society, seemed to be very much pleased with his prize.

Stafford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gage celebrated their 43d wedding anniversary on the 6th inst.

H. E. Hayes has rented about 20 acres to John Kekel to plant potatoes next season. Mr. Kekel is busy fall-plowing the ground.

G. H. Page and wife, of Neskowin, Tillamook county, passed through here last week on their way to see one of their daughters who lives on the Columbia. They spent a day with their daughter and son-in-law here.

A surprise was given to Miss Anna Frohase Saturday evening, a goodly number of her friends calling in to help enliven her happy hours. Another surprise awaited her father in the morning. On going to his last box of cigars, naught but box remained. The youths had performed their Halloween tricks on the good man to the extent of their smoking capacity.

There are still to be seen some potato fields as green as can be, but the main crop in most cases has been gathered and some sold.

Sam Mayer has moved to Portland. He rented his farm to Mr. Jester, who has taken possession. Sam wants to get employment daytimes and attend school evenings.

Phil Baker is putting some finishing touches on the road, repairing culverts and opening ditches.

John Schieve ran his choppmill one day last week and was well patronized.

Henry Baker is on the sick list, having caught cold which settled on his lungs. He is confined to the house.
November 7. X. X.

Highland.

Highland is still on foot, although at present somewhat muddy. The most of the fall wheat is sown, average about as usual, some are contemplating a long winter's rest also. Frost sets off potatoes as a green, fresh and vigorous crop, which may make a fair yield; early planted are a failure this season. Stock for feed is all picked up by the butchers and beefsmen, as are also sheep. Hogs are somewhat scarce, as a good many quit raising them on account of low prices.

One thing we rejoice over and that is the consolidation of the two silver papers in the county, namely the Courier and the Herald. As it is now it makes an awkward and a foreign paper.

The next thing on the docket in this vicinity is the erection of a grand mill and a store combined on H. H. Kline's place, near Clark's mill. Stone and mill will be provided and owned by an enterprising friend, Durst, recently from Union Mills, Or.

Highland grange is also considering the erection of a grange hall near Clark's postoffice, on the Rogers place. Highland grange meets the first Saturday in each month. C. N. Larkins, master; G. R. Miller, secretary.

The Highland Sunday school meets every Sunday in the Baptist church and is running along nicely with our young friend, Cnas. Rutherford, as superintendent.

Nov. 7. CORRESPONDENT.

Shubel.

Rev. H. E. Hornshuh and family, of Salem, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. Hornshuh.

Miss Emma Hornshuh is going to Canby to stay about two weeks.

E. F. Guenther found his pony in his pasture with its neck broken.

Ed Schmidt goes to Portland once a week to take music lessons and lessons in voice culture.

A great many birds are being killed this fall. Ed Schmidt and Albert Studeman seem to be in the lead.

Considerable volunteer work and cash is being donated to fix the bad places in the road here. Some say the only way to get good roads is pay your taxes and then work on the road for fun.

Ed. Hettman returned from Eastern Oregon with several horses which he is trying to sell or trade. He will stay for the winter.

R. Schabel, of Carus was visiting here Sunday.

The congregation of the Evangelical church were treated with two sermons last Sunday. Rev. H. E. Hornshuh, of Salem, being present, Rev. Englehart asked him to preach, not feeling well he wished to be excused. It was finally decided to divide the time which made it longer but very interesting.
November 7th. Max.

Meadowbrook.

The farmers are improving the time in plowing and sowing their fall crop. Potatoes are nearly all dug and are a poor crop.

Fred Howard and wife went to Oregon City last week on business.

Johnny Foreg is improving.

Frank Lane and wife have gone to the coast to spend the winter.

A. L. Larkins deboned seven head of cattle for Jasper Trullinger one day last week. All who want that kind of work done he will do it cheap and give you the horns.

Wm. Baker has bought a fine set of harness.

Mr. Look has had a bad thumb, but it is getting better.

Mr. Look and J. T. Kay are working for C. Holman, one of the best farmers in Clackamas county. O. T. Kay is at home laid up with a lame back.

Mr. Briggs and wife was in town last week.

Inez Kay has been quite sick for the last few days.

D. H. Looney has a smile on his face, it's a girl!

HOUSE HEARD FROM.

He Didn't Talk Much, but Told a Telegram Reporter That He Was "Jobbed" at Oregon City.

The Evening Telegram of last Saturday, has the following:

J. A. House, of Oregon City, is a little "queer." He is held at the city jail to await an examination by Dr. Wheeler. It is said that he escaped from the Salem asylum last July, but he says he was dismissed. Anyway the authorities will hold him until the matter can be looked into.

He claims he was "jobbed" at Oregon City because he had a good education and used his influence too much in a political way. He will talk about sound money and free silver by the hour, and he will tell you why he is a gold standard man.

Otherwise, with the exception of a certain wild look that gleams in his eyes at times he talks sensibly enough. Any person might converse with him without suspecting that he was an unfortunate. He has been a hard-working man. His hands and weather-beaten countenance gives plain evidence of that fact. Since leaving the asylum he has been cutting wood and working hard. His present incarceration is due to a spree. In fact, whiskey has been his undoing. He says that he gets "a little wild" after drinking too much.

To Jailor Johnson and a Telegram reporter the unfortunate man graphically described a fight with a Chinaman which led to his first commitment from Oregon City. He was feeling pretty well, he said, and started to shake hands with a Chinaman. He had been shaking hands with about everybody he met, black, white or yellow. The Chinaman did not consider it an honor.

The Celestial, House says, drew back and slapped his hands to his pocket. Fearing for his life House biffed the man on the nose. The clearest began to flow and the Chinaman went away swearing vengeance. An hour afterwards while in an alley House says the Chinaman came at him with a long knife. He had to augin beat the vengeance Mongolian and had his tender feeling further lacerated by a paper describing it as "an unwarranted attack upon a peaceful Chinaman."
