Later News

The naval engagement of the Knights of Columbus, which was fought off the coast of Texas, has been reported by the War Department.

The battle took place on the afternoon of the 12th, and the opposing forces were two cruisers of the United States Navy and three destroyers of the Royal Navy.

The engagement lasted for several hours, and the cruisers were heavily damaged.

November Elections

The November elections were held in the states of the Union, and the results are as follows:

- The Republicans won a majority in the House of Representatives.
- The Democrats retained control of the Senate.
- Several new senators and representatives were elected from the states of the Union.

Washington Legislature

The state of Washington held its regular session in November, and the legislature passed several important measures, including:

- A bill to provide for the education of the blind.
- A bill to improve the public roads.
- A bill to establish a system of compulsory education.

Claim to be Misinterpreted

The claim to be misinterpreted states that:

- The President's message to Congress was not misunderstood.
- The message was clear and direct.
- The President did not intend to mislead the American people.

American Relations Debated

The American relations debated in Congress were:

- The annexation of the Hawaiian Islands.
- The boundaries of the United States.
- The status of the Philippines.
- The annexation of the Philippines.

The issues were debated in Congress, and the President's message was discussed at length.

The President's message was received with enthusiasm by the American people, and it was widely hailed as a triumph of American policy.

The annexation of the Hawaiian Islands was approved by Congress, and the President's message was received with enthusiasm by the American people. The annexation of the Philippines was debated at length, and the President's message was received with mixed reactions.