Catching Things....

In chenille and tapestry, stand and table covers-250, 400, 500, 750, $1.00. BLANKETS-

Better values were never offered in standard. Perfect Oregon-made goods DOWNALINE QUILTS-

The fluffy, warm ones, at $1.50, $2, $2.50. They are good.

TABLE LINENS-It is a well-known fact that we protect you in price and quality.

CURTAINS-

All we ask is an inspection-after you look elsewhere. You will buy of us and save money.

McAllen & McDonnell

IMPORTERS OF FINE DRY GOODS

COR. THIRD AND MORRISON STS., PORTLAND, ORE.

Cosmop olitan

Patterns Reduced to 5c, 10c and 15c

Mrs. T. S. Mann gives lessons in embroidery work. Samples on display in Mrs. Sladen's millinery window.

The city council held a red-hot special meeting Tuesday evening to consider the matter of locating certain electric lights. It was finally decided on the mayor's vote to let the arc light remain at the corner of Ninth and Main streets. It was also voted to put in a 32-candle incandescent light at or near the foot of Singer Hill an arc light in Kansas City addition, and two arc lights at Elyville. Councilman Busch introduced an amendment to put in wo arc lights at Falls View, but was lost. He called up the matter again and it was voted down. A petition is now being circulated, and numerously signed. Mr. Busch said that when they voted lights for other outside districts, he thought Falls View should have one.

O. D. Ehr, the Modelle institute of the street of the street, opposite Catholic church, Oregon City.

Business chances and bargains in city property. Call on or address William Cantwell, Portland House, City.

Ben Munson and wife disposed of their home at Parkplace, and on yester-terday removed to Scott's Mills, where they will make their future home.

I have abundance of money to loan at

O. D. Eby, the Molalla justice of the peace, and principal of the Marquam school, was married to Miss Jennie E. Moore at Molalla Sunday. The cere-mony took place at the residence of the mony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Moore, at high noon. Rev. J. M. Shulse, pastor of the Marquam Methodist Episcopal church, was the officiating clergyman. Congratulations were extended by numerous friends, and a splendid wedding luncheon was served. Professor and Mrs. Eby left at once for Marquam, where they will occupy a neat cottage already fitted up for their reception. Mr. Eby is one of Clackamas county's leading educators, and was for some time principal of the Molalla school. The bride is a most estimable young lady, highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

Deputy Sheriff J. E. Jack went to Salem Wednesday, and brought August Wilbroad down from the reform school to testify as witness in the Wyland case. The pastor of the Baptist church. Rev. M. L. Rugg, will preach next Sunday morning on the "Bible as the Word of God," and will show what the work of higher criticism is in proving its historical accuracy. In the evening the subject will be "Has Man a Spiritual Nature that Lives after Death."

Archbishop W. H. Gross, who went to Salem Wednesday, and brought August Wilbroad down from the reform school to testify as witness in the Wyland case.

The pastor of the Baptist church. Rev. M. L. Rugg, will preach next Sunday morning on the "Bible as the Word of God," and will show what the work of higher criticism is in proving its historical accuracy. In the evening the subject will be "Has Man a Spiritual Nature that Lives after Death."

Archbishop W. H. Gross, who went to Baltimore last September, died there were proving the subject will be "Has Man a Spiritual Nature that Lives after Death."

reception. Mr. Eby is one of Clackamas county's leading educators, and was for some time principal of the Molalla school. The bride is a most estimable young lady, highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

Thomas Hague, a large cotton spinner and member of the board of alderman, of Oldham, England, was in the city Friday visiting relatives. He is a cousin of Mrs. E. E. Charman, Mrs. N. O. Walden and Mrs. G. H. Wishart. whom he had not met for a period of 30 years. Mr. Hague is making a tour of the United States and was nhis way to California, He is a close observer, especially of matters pertaining to municipal government, and notes the difference in the way those matters are conducted in the two countries. In England the wealthy property owners devo te their time without compensation to the promotion of economical and effect tive government. In this country, how ever, Mr. Hague notices that very often it is the professional politician and non-taxpaying element that dominates municipal affairs.

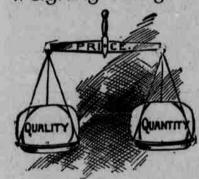

Nature that Lives after Death."

Archbishop W. H. Gross, who went to Baltimore last September, died there and Saltimore last September, died there was celebrated in Portland inst April. Archbishop of this diecese, and ais silver publice was celebrated in Portland the establishment of the Parkplace, and was licad in the highest esteem by the Catholics of Oregon City, and by many who were not of that faith.

The young ladies of Mrs. George Herrin's class gave her a surprise party last Thursday evening. The time was delightfully spent in games, etc. The young ladies served refreshments, consisting of sandwiches in variety, cakes, pickles, olives, candy, fruit, lemonade and tea. Those present were: Misses Laura Beatie, Laura Pope, Hazel Pilsbury, Ream, Nora Ream, May Mark, Elma Albright, Knight, Marjorie Oaufield, Ethel Caufield, Jean White and Clara Warngr.

Joseph Curry and James Conley were fined & each by Recorder Curry in the police court Saturday. The latter is

The value of our groceries depends on three things: How much you get for your money; how good it is when you get it, and the price you pay for what you get. We have sugars that are cheap and sugars that are good. We have coffees that will satisfy the appetite and the pocketbook. Staple goods at less than staple prices. We give you money-saving health-saving chances.

A. Robertson,

Mrs. R. Prior is recovering from the effects of a recent successful surgical operation.

The Misses Dolan have rented out their home here, and moved to Portland Wednesday.

I have abundance of money to loan at 8% and choice loans will be made at 7%. Give me a call if wanting money.

Deputy Sheriff J. E. Jack went to Salem Wednesday, and brought August Wilbroad down from the reform school to testify as witness in the Wyland case.

Joseph Curry and James Conley were fined $6 each by Recorder Curry in the police court Saturday. The latter is known as "California Teddy," and is a professional bum, who has the business down to a scientific nicety. Teddy was here over a year ago, but a $20 sentence was suspended, provided that he would leave town and remain away for a year. When his term of banishment expired, he again made his appearance and greeted old acquaintances in the usual familiar way. He soon fell into his old habits, and Officer Shaw marched him off to the city jail, together with his partner.

The funeral of Edward Boyles, whose sad death was announced last week, was held Sunday at the residence of his parents near Main street. The services, conducted by Rev. M. L. Rugg, were short but appropriate, while the choir of the Baptist church rendered several beautiful hymns suitable to the occasion. The large company of friends and neighbors which gathered to the services and the floral tributes which were numerous and beautiful testified most eloquently to the deep sympathy felt in the community for the friends of the deceased in this hour of their great and unexpected sorrow. The deceased was one whose genial nature gained him one whose genial nature gained him many friends who share with the par-ents and brother and sisters in their The 7th Street Grocer common grief.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

A. M. Kirchem, of Logan, was in the Joshua Gorbett, the Colton mer-chant, was in the city Monday.

F. M. Osburn, a prominent citizen of Damascus, was in town Monday.

Born, in Oregon City, Nov. 14th, to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Seol, a daughter. J. F. Bowman and Joe Johnson, both of Molalla, were in Oregon City Friday.

Mrs. T. J. Cleeton, of St. Helens, has been visiting friends here for several Don't let that cough get chronic. Red Seal Cough Cure will CURE—40 cents, cut rates, at Huntley's.

G. E. Hargreaves will shortly make a tour through the south of Clackamas as agent of the Oregon Fire Relief Associa-tion.

Miss Estella B. Parker, a Needy school teacher, who was visiting her cousin, Miss Echo Samson, returned home Sunday.

Ralph Young returned Friday from a several months sojourn in the Palouse country and Eastern Oregon. He left here last April.

Mrs. Ludgate, mother of Wallace Ludgate, has arrived from Canada, and will be the guest of her son during the coming winter.

Joseph Francis, of Tualatin, Washington county, was visiting his son, Samuel V. Francis, of Ely, for several days during the past week.

The Courier-Herald gives more news than any other paper in the county and at the same price as inferior papers. It also has the largest ulation.

Mrs. Mary E. McCarver, who was re-cently crippled by accidentally slipping and falling on a sidewalk in Portland, has recovered and returned to her nome

W. D. Hankins, a former well known school teacher of Clackamas county, is home on a visit from Eastern Oregon, where he is engaged in a successful stock surveying contract in Idaho, returned home Friday. During his absence he was elected county surveyor by an over-The regular meeting of Meade Corps Volunteer Auxiliary will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Armory. All members are requested to be present. Important business. Ten cayote scalps were brought in from the Sandy Tuesday, and bounty scalp warrants were issued amounting to $20, apportioned as follows: J. O'Dell, 7; F. R. French, 1; Willie Kuhohansen. 2.

At the ball given in Portland Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mc Cracken to introduce their daughter, M'liss, the Sunday Oregonian says that Miss Pratt was sweetly attired in white mousseline de sole.

John Confer and son, Frank, returned early in the week from a visit to the Josephine county mines. Mr. Confer reports much activity in quartz, and states that there are some very rich properties being worked.

Henry Meldrum, special examiner of surveys, returned Friday from a trip to Idaho. Mr. Meldrum has been busy inspecting surveys in various sections of the country for several months past, and will probably take a rest during the

Dr. C. Goucher and E. J. Hammond, of Mulino, were visitors in the city Monday. Mr. Hammond has completed the cleaning up of the Pleasant View cemetery in the Molalla district, and now it presents a much improved appearance. appearance

Rev. Joseph Schwiertlich, of Clarkes, organized a German Methodist Episcopal congregation at the M. E. church edifice Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The new organization starts out with flattering prospects, and services will be held every Sunday at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Schwiertlich.

E. Sadie White sang "The Holy. City" in a very charming manner at the Presbyterian church last Funday evening. She excels in this selection, and holds the undivided and interested attention of her audience from begin-ning to end. This is a selection which Miss Bloch, of Portland, often sings.

Molalla Grange No. 40 celebrated its 25th anniversary last Saturday with appropriate exercises, and it proved an eventful occasion in the history of Clackamas county's most prosperous grange of the Patrons of Husbandry. Only three of the charter members were present, who aided in the first organization. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. Knotts and C. T. Howard.

J. Schwartz, the clothing dealer, who was attached last week by San Francisco parties, in order to give all his creditors an equal show filed a petition in the United States court of voluntary bankruptcy. His assets are about $5,000, and his liabilities $9,000. Miss Florence Olsen, the referee in bankruptcy for Clackamas county, will have charge of the estate.

The following applicants for teachers' certificates, successfully passed the examination, held last week: First grade—Miss Sade H. Chase, Oregon City. Second grade—Miss Mattie Telleison, Logan; Miss Estelle B. Parker, Needy. Third grade, Miss Emma Wrigley, Logan; Knox Cooper, Carus; C. Smith, Lents; George Fields, Sherwood; Oscar McBride, Middleton. The following were recommended for state certificates: Mrs. H. B. Rinearson, Oregon City; Miss Aletha Phelps, New Era, and N. W. Bowland, of Milwaukie.

Mrs. Ellen Walsh, of Milwaukie, has just returned from a visit to San Fran-cisco, where she was called by the serious illness of her son, Frank, who was among the first Oregon voluntaries to go. He first caught the measles, and while recovering caught cold which caused Bright's disease and heart trouble. He returned with her on a trouble. He returned with her on a 30-day furlough and is getting along finely. While in San Francisco Mrs. Walsh visited the Presidio hospital daily, and says the boys do not want for anything and have the best of care. Each ward in which 25 patients are confined, have four day and four night nurses.

Rev. Butler will preach at Ely next Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

L. A. Nobel started Tuesday on his return trip to Alaska.

E. D. Hartman, of Scott's Mills, was in the city Wednesday.

C. C. Berland, a well known resident of Oswego, was in Oregon City Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. Kocher, of Mark's Prairie, were in Oregon City Wednes-

Mrs. K. L. Newton returned Tuesday from a weeks visit with relatives in Portland.

Rev. F. C. Butler, of Clackamas, will preach in the chapel at Parkplace next Sunday at 4 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grace visited Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Martin at their Maple Lane ranch Sunday.

Daniel Greenwalt, who is extensively interested in mining in Idaho, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. R. Doolittle. Mrs. M. S. Lewis and H. A. Kaylor, Molalla, were married on November 8th, at the residence of Rev. T. P. Haynes, he being the officiating minister.

Mrs. S. Goldsmith, of Eugene, is visiting her daughters, the Missess Goldsmith and Mrs. M. Boilack. She will be joined by Mr. Goldsmith the latter part of the week.

R. B. Walker, of this city, has invented, perfected and patented a plum and prune pitter that is quite a success. He has had the machine on exhibition during the week.

W. F. Hubbard, superintendent of the Clackamas hatchery, now has 5,000, 000 salmon eggs from the Little White Salmon river in Washington, a part of which are already hatched.

It is imperative that social items for the Sunday Oregonian should be handed to the reporter before Friday afternoon. Names of guests at parties are not wanted, but are desirable for the local

The following will be the subjects of sermons at the Congregational church next Sunday. At 10:30 p. m., "The Kingdom and Will of God;" at 7:30 p. m., "The Greatness of God." Young Peoples meeting at 6:30 p. m. The public is invited to all services.

Since the last issue of this paper the the head officers of the Oregon National Guard have changed the name of Oregon City's new military company from Company D, Third Reg., to Separate Company F, the name of the old company. The new uniforms ordered by Captain Metzner will be along in a few days, having been delayed by a mistake in the order.

HEADQUARTERS for Mackintoshes and Overcoats

٠	The second secon
ŧ	Men's Twilled Cape Mackintoshes	2.50	Men's Light-Weight coats, all wool
ŧ	Men's Cotton Covert Cape Mackintoshes	3.00	Men's All-Wool Ke other stores' $10; o
ŧ	Men's Tricot Box Mackintoshes, all-wool, guaranteed water- proof	5.00	Men's All-Wool Ker other stores' $13.85,
ŧ	Men's Brown All-Wool Covert Box Mackintoshes, strapped	7	Overcoats
ŧ	and cemented seams, velvet collars, other stores $10, our price	7.00	An elegant line of Alfred Benjamin made Overcosts, ŧ	Boys' Twilled Cape Mackintoshes	1.75	A CRITICAL ENAMI THE
ŧ	Boys' Fine Drill Navy Blue Mackintoshes	3.00	Boys' Navy Blue Re
Ŧ	Boys' All-Wool Covert Cloth Box Mackintoshes, strapped and cemented seams, velvet collars.	5.00	Heavier grade Boy Reefer Coats, ages
1	Men's Extra-Heavy Covert-Cloth Box Mackintoshes, strapped and cemented seams, veivet collars, buffalo-hora buttons other storce '#15, our price	10.00	Boys' Cape Coats, Ages 4 to 8 years . A GREA'
ŧ	Extra Choice Mackintoshes $18
ŧ	Every Mackintosh in our stock has been made especially for us, and we guar-		Boys' Topcoa

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

THE POPULAR PRICE CLOTHIERS.

THIRD and OAK STREETS BEN SELLING, Manager.

The remains of Edward Boyes, who was accidentally drowned by going over the falls in a row boat on Wedne, day of last week, was recovered by a diver from Portland at Saturday noen. The fungeral occurred at the residence of the deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Boyles, at 2:30 p. m., Sunday. The services were conducted by Rev. M. L. Rngg, of the Baptist church, which were largely attended. The pall-bearers were Ed L. Johnson, Ed Reckner, Ernest Hickman, Carl Grider, Frank and George Brown. The interment services at the cemetery, too, were well attended. Edward Boyles the deceased, was 25 years old the 19th day of last April.

It was about 7 o'clock last Sunday

Money cheerfully refunded if goods are

A new line of Walker's sailor caps and veilings just in. Miss Goldsmith.

Covert Over-$ 8.50

ey Overcoats, 8.50

our price..... 10.00

Covert Cloth 10.00

he celebrated Co.'s Tailor-25.00

NATION OF ABOVE IS INVITED.

ofer Coats, ages 2.00

ya' Navy Blue 3.00

ts, Reefers, etc

T LINE OF

$2 to $10

FOR RENT—A house, barn and eight lots in Parkplace for $4 per month. In-quire at John Everhart's merchandise store at Ely, Oregon.

A few more sacks of potatoes will be taken on subscription at the Courier-Herald office. All kinds of produce taken on accounts and highest market price allowed.

An illustrated health talk will be given to ladies in Shively's hall Friday, Nov. 18th, at 2:30 p. m., by Mrs. Lucy Hitchcock, of Portland. Subject: "Are inherited tendencies incurable?"

day of last April.

It was about 7 o'clock last Sunday morning, and but very few early risers were on the streets. The night revelers had gone home; the night policeman had remained later than usual to see that all was well, but he home of his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Baidorff, Sunday. November 13th. He was buried from the Methodist Episcopal church Monday at 11 o'clock, a. m., Rev. Harold Oberg delivering the sermon. The deceased came here from Kansas about nine years ago, but was born in Massachusetts. Among his other children are Kate Thomas, of Kansas. Mr. Rhoades had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for 70 years, he having been a communicant since he was 13 years old.

The Housefurnishers

OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE

OREGON CITY, ORE

A Few Words to Prospective Buyers Of Upholstered Furniture

The first question dear lady you should ask after entering a shop is, who made this couch or lounge, what is it made of and can you guarantee the work?

Now, let us tell you, no dealer can do that unless the work is done under his own eyes; lounges and couches are made by contract in factories, and no manufacturer can guarantee piece work-Quite different with, us dear lady, we will show you the lounge cover first, so you examine the quality, then we will show you the springs, wool, hair, or excelsior, as the case may be, and guarantee that either material is used for a certain piece of furniture you may select.....

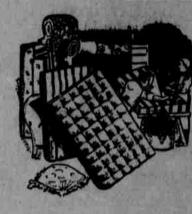

Patronize Home Industry Buy from a Responsible House like ours

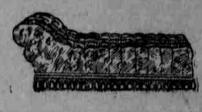

And you are buying from the manufacturer

No middle man-between you and us

We sell Bed Lounges, our own make

From $6.00 and upward

Protect your Eyes

and buy one of our fine table lamps, it stands 19-inches high, has a large porcelain shade and only 60 cents.

Other brands are claimed to be "just as good" but like all imitations, they lack the value of the genuine.

Burmeister & Andr se n The Oregon City Jewelers

Have always on hand a full assortment of Knives, Forks and Spoons of this make.