Dr. O. Pflyffer pleaded not guilty to two indictments for practicing medicine without a license, and his trial was set for next Tuesday.

Walter Wyland is on trial. The grand jury was discharged Wednesday evening, and submitted the following report:

"First—We have inquired into all matters of crime brought before us, and have returned into court 11 true bills and five not true bills. We have also examined into a number of cases, which we do not deem necessary to set forth in this report.

"Second—We have visited the county jail and found the same in a neat and clean condition; we have also examined the city jail of Oregon City, and find the same in a satisfactory condition, and upon request we have visited the Magdalen Home, and as far as we were permitted to examine, we found the same in a neat and clean condition; we have called upon the various county officers and find them diligent in their work and obliging in manner, and we also find that there is considerable inconvenience in matters pertaining to the recorder's office, and we would recommend that those desks which are used for abstract purposes be removed from the clerk's office, and that the west end of the county clerk's office be partitioned in a suitable manner and given to the recorder. We do not deem it advisable at this time to employ an expert accountant to examine into the books of the various county officers for the reason that a complete report at this time could not be had.

"And now having completed our labors we most respectfully ask to be discharged.

charged.

COUNTY COURT.

Proceedings of the Regular November Session.

Thos. P. Ryan, Judge; S. F. Marks, Richard Morton Commissioners.

Be it resolved that at a regular term of the county court for the county of Clackamas for the state of Oregon, begun in Oregon City, in said county and state Monday, the 7th day of November, 1898, the same being the first Monday in said month and the time fixed by law for holding a regular term of said court. Present, Hon Thomas F. Ryan, judge; Elmer Dixon, clerk; J. J. Cooke, sheriff. Whereupon a term of said court is begun and held on Wednesday, the 9th day of November, 1898, the same being the first Monday in said month and the time fixed by law for the first day of said term of court for the transaction of county business: Present, Thomas F. Ryan, judge; S. F. Marks and J. E. Morton, commissioners; Elmer Dixon, clerk; and J. J. Cooke, sheriff.

The court convened according to law and now on this day the following business was had to-wit:

In the matter of the petition of Phebe Sharp for a road of public easement. The same was withdrawn by the petitioners, they to pay the expense of viewers.

In the matter of the report of viewers on the petition of F. P. Larsen et al for a change in the Oswego and Dayton road. The petition granted and new road to be opened by work of petitioners and volunteer work, and old road to be vacated as soon as new road is in condition fit for public travel.

In the matter of the Hood View road. Supervisor Heitz allowed $40 to use in opening up the Hood View road.

In the matter of Supervisor Swafford repairing the road work on Molalla road, the supervisor to take in crushed rock to fill up ruts on Molalla road.

In the matter of the report of the county judge on acceptance of Parrott Creek bridge, the same was approved.

In the matter of the county judge's report in regard to repairing the Clackamas bridge, the report was approved on letting contract to J. E. McCoy for $360.

In the matter of the road work in district No. 7, Supervisor Aschoff was permitted to use $25 more of his apportionment in repairing roads in his district.

In the matter of the petition of A. Mather, for return of illegal assessment, the same was denied.

In the matter of the transfer of tax certificates on lands purchased by county for delinquent taxes; it is ordered that upon the payment by any person of the amount bid for any piece or parcel of real estate by the county judge in the name of the county at tax sale held on Oct. 22, 1898, with an addition of 10 per cent, the said county judge shall make an assignment of certificate of sale given by sheriff to said person or persons. This order shall be good for one year from October 22, 1898.

In the matter of the reduction of allowance made to Mr. and Mrs. Able, to be reduced to $10 per month from Nov. 1, 1898.

In the matter of the further assistance of Mrs. Rumyan, the same was laid over until next term and present allowance discontinued to date from Nov. 1, 1898.

In the matter of Mrs. Randall's assessment in county addition on block 44, Oregon City, the same was raised to $800.

In the matter of trestle on Hubbard and Needy road, the same was laid over.

In the matter of repairing Shipley road. Supervisor Baker ordered to fix chuck holes.

In the matter of the report of Supervisor Buckner on construction of bridge in his district the same was accepted.

In the matter of the bill of J. E. McCoy for repairing Eagle creek bridge, it was ordered that he be paid $100 until bridge is inspected by Commissioner Morton.

In the matter of the petition of Judge Moreland for rebate of taxes on the McGuire property at Milwaukie, the same was denied.

In the matter of opening the Forsyth road, Supervisor Holstrom was ordered to open the same.

In the matter of the appearance of J. P. Cole and R. J. Moore to show cause why their assessment should not be increased, their affidavits in response to order to appear and show cause why their assessment on property should not be increased, read, and it appearing from their affidavits that their property is properly assessed; it is ordered that the same remain as at present on the tax roll.

In the matter of compromise of taxes in case of Thos. W. Kellogg's property, the same was referred to district attorney with instructions to make no compromise in said matter, as all matters pertaining to said taxes seem regular.

In the matter of the taxes on the Clavson estate, C. W. Risley, chairman board of directors school district No. 28, appeared to represent school district No. 28, in the matter of setting aside the order whereby a compromise was made by county court in settlement of J. E. McCoy vs Charles Clavson estate, he contending in behalf of his district that such action should be taken as district No. 28 never agreed, nor would they agree to any such compromise on that part of said taxes belonging to said school district.

In the matter of the assessment of the Bull Run pipe line, the same was referred to the county judge.

In the matter of the bond of Eli Williams, assessor-elect, the same was approved.

In the matter of the Dickey and Molalla bridges on Molalla river, the county judge reported how he found matters in connection with Molalla river at points above Dickey bridge and Wright's Springs. It is ordered that the county surveyor be instructed to make a profile of said Molalla river above Wright's Springs as recommended by the county judge.

In the matter of bill of Oregon City hospital for treating Mr. Marlin and Clara Chambers, it was ordered that the same be sent to Salem for collection out of fund for non-resident poor.

In the matter of increasing the allowance of J. H. Jones and wife, county charges, the same was increased to $10 per month, to date from November 1, 1898, to be drawn in favor of Charles Livesey.

In the matter of making an allowance for L. Freeman and wife, it was ordered that Mrs. Freeman have $4 per month to date from Nov. 1, 1898, for three months, warrants to be drawn in favor of Mrs. C. J. Parker.

In the matter of accepting the tax roll the same was approved.

In the matter of the sheriff's report for the collection of taxes for the year 1897, the same was read, and the matter of examination of said roll left with judge to employ such help as he may deem necessary to get a full and complete report of same.

In the matter of replacing Mr. Irving's fence, the same was left with Commissioner Marks, with power to act.

In the matter of repairing the Clackamas river road, Byers' Hill and Rock Creek roads, the same was left to the county judge and Commissioner Morton with power to act.

In the matter of the contingent fund, it was ordered that $100 be transferred to said fund.

In the matter of improving the road in district No. 11 with corduroy, the petition was granted and it was ordered that 200 yards be placed on the Cushing mill road, Thomas Mann agreeing to haul the same.

In the matter of expenses in justice of the peace courts, it was ordered that the deputy district attorney be requested to look into the matter of expense in bringing cases in justice of the peace courts, and bring them in those courts where the least expense will be incurred in the conducting of said cases, and that they be requested to see that in all cases brought where there is any doubt of conviction or where in their opinion the prosecution witness is being actuated by any other feeling than strict justice, that they insist that said prosecuting witness give a good and sufficient bond to reimburse the county for all expenses in connection with such cases if conviction is not secured. And it is further ordered that no bills for expenses in justice courts be allowed unless the complaint under which said case was brought was submitted to an approval of by the district attorney or his deputy before the bringing of said cases. And it is further ordered that no bill of expense incurred in conducting any case in the justice courts shall be audited and allowed unless accompanied with such statement of the case as well as the facts attending the place of arrest and the distance traveled by witnesses, constable and district attorney or his deputies for which mileage is claimed.

In the matter of ex-Commissioner Jaggers' copy of Hill's code, it was ordered that the clerk ascertain if said code is Mr. Jaggers' personal property or not, and if so, to make a requisition on secretary of state for one for Commissioner Morton.

In the matter of the repairs of Clackamas county bridge, it was ordered that Judge Egan, warrant to be drawn in favor of McCoy for the amount due.

In the matter of Hill's codes, it was ordered that the county judge ascertain what a set of Hill's code can be purchased for.
