CORRESPONDENCE.

New Era

We see no news from our pretty little village, and we think it should take its place among the many other little villages, so will send you a few items.

The New Era school is progressing very nicely under the management of Mrs. Wells.

Miss Caroline Burgoyne, who is working for Meier & Frank Co. at Portland, was up last Sunday to visit her folks. Miss Mary Wickham is on the sick list.

Mr. Shafchick has discovered a gold mine on his place in New Era.

Wilbur Newbury made a flying trip to Oregon City last week on his wheel.

Isaac Johns is on the sick list with several boils. They say that boils are worth five dollars a piece, but he says he will sell his for two fifty.

The young people of this community have organized a literary society.

Herman Burgoyne is home for a few days' visit.

John Burgoyne had a shooting match at his place last Saturday and all that were present pronounced it a success.

Mr. Wickham has taken a contract for a thousand cords of wood.

John and Sam Crader have a contract for one hundred cords of wood, and are seen daily plying ax and saw and are getting ready to visit their best girls Christmas.

Mr. Hankins was seen passing through our city last week.

We hear rumors of a wedding. Whoop them along, sonny, let's hear from another.

For fresh groceries go to J. C. Newbury.

Sunday school at 3 p. m. Everybody invited. We have excellent music furnished by Miss Newbury.

Wonder what kept Miss Maggie Wickham and Miss Hattie Spusk home from Sunday school last Sunday. Can you guess?

Nov. 22. THE TRIPLET.

Logan

Logan is situated about ten miles east of Oregon City on the south side of the Clackamas river. The Logan neighborhood is six miles in length from east to west and from two to three miles in breadth from north to south. This is one of the best farming communities in this county and is dotted here and there with some of the finest farms in the state.

We have three public schools, with a total enrollment of 173 children of school age on the clerk's book. Mr. Fischer is the proprietor of flouring mills at this place, which do considerable business.

We also have a general merchandise store and a blacksmith shop. Harding grange has a membership of nearly 100 members and is one of the most prosperous granges in this section of the state.

The Ravenswood Baptist church and a German church are excellent structures and religious services are usually well attended.

J. H. Brown is the efficient and accommodating postmaster at this place.

L. V. Hampton, our erst-while neighbor, has married and expects to make his future home among us.

Walter Shepherd made a business trip to Portland yesterday.

The Germans intend to build a parsonage on their church property.

George B. Trotter, of Portland, visited friends here last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. Balder, sr., is slowly improving in health.

Misses Emma Wrigley and Mattie Telfson were successful applicants for certificates at the last examination.

Several cases of whooping cough are reported in this community.

Nov. 22. W

I have abundance of money to loan at 8%, and choice loans will be made at 7%. Give me a call if wanting money.

O. H. Dye.

Marquam

W. W. Irvin, of Barlow, was in our burg last week.

Rev. Shulze was called upon to perform another marriage ceremony last Sunday.

F. J. Riding & Son are doing some repairs on the Hartman building into which they will doubtless move their stock of goods.

Boy Gray, who came from Walsburg, Wash., to be with his father, who is dangerously ill, has been compelled to return to that place on account of his health.

O. B. Eby, our school teacher, returned from Molalla last week, but not alone as has been his custom. We extend our congratulations.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give an entertainment and oyster supper Wednesday evening, November 23rd.

Grandma Thompson will leave for Salem in a few days, where she will visit with her son and numerous friends during the winter.

Nov. 21. PAT.

Redland

Hello, Susan, my best girl! If you want a quiet peaceable neighborhood to live in and white folks that don't stee your hen roosts while you are asleep, for neighbors, come to our burg and we will make you welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. August Funk spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Fullam.

Jack Fullam, who has been to Eastern Oregon the past summer, returned last week and after spending a few weeks with his brother, Jim, returned to college at Portland for the winter to finish his course.

J. Lewis, of Springwater, filled the appointment of Mr. Moorhouse at Redland M. E. church Sunday and gave us some solid facts.

The rain of the past week is just what has been wanted for some time as nearly all the wells on this ridge are down to low water mark.

There will not be more than one-half the wheat sown on this ridge as last year.

A. M. Kirchem has again made his appearance in Redland as regular at the clock work. What, uh, eh?

Guss Fisher is not going to stay behind the times. He is now placing a cockle machine in his mill that will take out cockle and wild peas, which will enable him to place a better grade of flour on the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Rehtmer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Funk.

Our school is going on nicely under Mr. Rutherford's direction. The children are just recovering from a case of sore eyes, and some come a trifle lame, but we hope it is nothing serious.

Nov. 21. SUSAN'S BEST GIRL.

Mountain View

Link Waldron and family have moved into Mrs. Robert's house.

Melvin Smalley, of Gresham, was in the burg again last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones and Miss Burns, of Mulino, spent Saturday evening among friends in this burg.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Waldron are sewing for Mrs. Harrington.

Joe Francis went back to his home at Tualatin last Monday.

Grandma Waldron is visiting with her daughters and son this week.

Frank Kellogg and family have moved into the H. E. Cross house next door to where they have been living.

Christmas is in the near future. The Sunday school have decided to have a Xmas tree, and the soliciting committee are outasking all whom they meet for money.

Louise Haas is sick this week and absent from school.

Hattie Ringo received some raw cotton Tuesday from her aunt, who lives in Texas.

Clara Barbur was not so well last week as she has been.

Miss Emma Tugie is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Will Everhart, a few days this week.

Edgar May is spending this week with his aunt, Mrs. Ida Cooper.

J. Everhart is courting again this week, as he is one of the jurors for November term of court.

Nov. 23. X

Shubel

Rev. H. E. Hornshuh and family returned to their home at Salem last Friday.

Emil Hornshuh, who has been away from home for the last three or four months, is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lindan, of Sea side, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hornshuh.

Miss Clara Beeson was taken to Oregon City and placed in the doctors care. She has been sick for some time.

There is some talk of dividing Beaver Creek precinct in two road districts. It seems everyone on this side is in favor of the same.

Miss Ida Gaenther, who has been staying at Oregon City, is home on a visit.

Miss Emma Hornshuh returned from Canby, where she was visiting the last two weeks.

Mr. Blum bought a new chopper and he will be ready to grind in a few days. Now, all this neighborhood lacks is a national bank to issue bank notes so the people would have it handy when they had to borrow money.

Fred Moehnke has taken the contract to furnish plank for the half mile of road which was graded last summer.

Those starchy republicans must admit that those pop lawyers do know that grass is green. Do you see the point, Jake.

Nov. 22. Max.

Stafford

On Wednesday the 16th, Miss Dora Athey, of this place, and W. M. Borland, of Hazelia, accompanied by the parents of the young man and his brother, Arthur, and wife, went to Oregon City, and at 9:45 a. m. were launched out in their little bark canoe by Julia Ryan. From the court house they went to the gallery and were photographed, then back here to the bride's parents' home, where the wedding feast was in readiness.

After doing justice to the good things set before them the party enjoyed some time in mirthful talk. From there they proceeded to the home of the groom's parents where more friends were awaiting them, and where also a great feast was spread. Here again they feasted on the choice of the land and visited until darkness came on, and with it numerous of their young friends, all proceeded to the hall where the floors were waxed and the fiddles gotten in readiness and dancing reigned supreme the entire night through. There were about 100 present. Music was furnished by O. P. and W. S. Sharp, Dave Long, caller and manager. Many pleasant words were offered the young couple and they were made the recipients of many nice presents.

J. Dickens and H. Gage arrived here Saturday evening, each with a team loaded with salmon from the Nestucca river.

Many people went from here Friday evening, last, to attend the grange social at Oswego.

John Gage and wife spent Sunday in Oregon City.

George Cline is hauling potatoes and pumpkins to Willamette and the wood camps.

So much rain fell Friday that the creeks began to run for the first time this season and work out doors took a complete standstill.

The Baptists will hold a conference here this week.

Fred Gross will give a ball in Tualatin Grange hall on Thursday night.

Some hail fell here on Sunday last.

November 23. Q.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The benefit to be given the Oregon City Y. M. C. A. promises to overshadow anything ever attempted on this line before. The talent is the pick of the Portland Y. M. C. A. and each man a master of his subject. It is hoped that parents, as well as young folks, will turn out and see the benefits of a thorough physical training.

Sunday, Nov. 27th, at 4 p. m., Rev. J. Ware will speak to men only at the Y. M. C. A.

Our rooms have been improved by the addition of a fine, new clock, the gift of Burmeister & Andersen.

Arrangements have been made to secure a temporary gymnasium to be used 'till the new building is secured.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Several Important Cases Disposed Of—Court Will Adjourn This Week.

On the indictment against E. E. Martin for forging county warrants, the jury failed to agree, and were discharged.

William Barlow vs. Wilhelmina Kuehler; sheriff sale confirmed.

Harriet E. K. Denison vs. Paul A. Ozame; sheriff sale confirmed.

Thomas Charman vs. W. E. Mumpower; judgment for $183.

In the suit of Henry Nute against Charles R. and Charles W. Noblitt for $3,080, damages and expenses on account of the Wilhoit stage accident, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. The attorneys for the plaintiff were granted the privilege of filing a motion for new trial within ten days.

Adam T. Achison, of Newberg, was arraigned on an indictment charged with assault with intent to commit rape on the person of Elsie Roberts. The jury returned a verdict of simple assault.

Court adjourned until Friday.

"South Before the War."

Manager Shively has secured a most novel entertainment, Harry Martell's realistic southern production, "South Before the War," and it is a most faithful portrayal of life below the Mason and Dixon line in anti-bellum days.

The cotton fields, the camp meeting on Frog Island and the up-to-date cake walk, interpreted by a company of fifty people. There is also the landing of the old famous steamboat, Robert E. Lee, and dancing of the most novel sort, including buck and wing dancing on the levee, making one of the grandest entertainments to be seen this season. There is also a parade at noon. Shively's opera house, Monday, November 23. Tickets on sale at postoffice store, 50 and 75c.

COMMENTARIES.

Matters Concerning Local Events day Affairs Noticed by the Courier Reporter.

Never before in the history of Clackamas county has there been such economical and effective road work as is being done now. County Judge Ryan makes frequent tours of inspection into the country, to personally inspect needed improvements and repairs to roads, and bridges. He makes a special study of road matters, and is becoming conversant with the actual needs of each district. The commissioners, too, are equally diligent in road matters, and are striving to do justice to each road district in the county. Road contracts and bridges are let to the lowest bidder—not all to one man as formerly.

The joint legislative committee appointed at the special session, was in session at Portland several days during the past week, drafting new school laws to be presented at the regular term. The new bill as drafted will contain a provision that school books be selected by a committee of five appointed by the governor. The age of children who shall be entitled to receive public money shall be raised from 4 to 6 years, and the time for taking the examination, extended to June. It was decided to make county treasurers act as treasurers of school districts, the clerks to draw warrants on district funds. This would obviate the necessity of district clerks filing bonds.

The patrons of school district No. 28 are howling loud and deep because their children are being deprived of the benefit of the school fund, tied up in the unpaid taxes of the Clayton estate.

The jury in the damage suit of Nute against Noblitts, are to be complimented on the verdict brought in. It was a case of malicious prosecution to bleed the defendants out of damage money.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the estate of Henry Wernheim, deceased, George J. Currier, administrator, filed his final account, and the first day of the term in January set as the time for hearing final objections thereto.

The appointment of W. W. Myers as guardian of the estate of Maud Rowley, a minor, in place of Benjamin Rauey, was confirmed.

In the matter of the estate of Clara and Lily Irwin, minors, W. W. Myers, guardian, filed a petition for the sale of said estate. A citation was ordered.

We Talk More

ABOUT OUR

Prescription Department

Than any other Department of OUR Store.

It is because Prescription Business is our hobby. It is the one thing WE have been trying to make more perfect than another for the past eight years. How well we have succeeded is shown in our record of nearly 65,000 Prescriptions.

Confidence in THIS department can not be gained in a few weeks or months, but once gained it lasts as long as honest integrity lasts.

We think

WE have gained the confidence of our customers and friends during these eight years, and now that it is gained, we will try with fair treatment and honest prices to retain it.

We have never put in any Prescription "just as good," as is sometimes done. If we do not have in stock just what your Prescription calls for we tell you so frankly.

We Believe

This is one of the important factors of your confidence in our Prescription Department.

C. G. Huntley, Prescription Druggist

Mr. Paul Roethe was the lucky holder of ticket No. 2291 and therefore is owner of the Graphophone.
