

Weighing Things

The value of our groceries depends on three things: How much you get for your money; how good it is when you get it; and the price you pay for what you get.

FROM MANILA.

Letters from Fred Hargreaves and J. B. Finley, Some Matters Not Heretofore Mentioned.

(Continued from last week.) The boys have bought lots of curios here in Manila, and will take back to America lots of curios articles.

An article clipped from the Sun, New York, is most of the bulletin board. It tells of the Oregon & California regiments, starting at Cavite. There was nothing at Cavite to steal, the town of Cavite was and is still in the hands of the insurgents.

The coins in use here are the Mexican dollar and the Philippine peso. They pass at the same value. The peso is minted here, and the mint is one of the Oregon outposts. The other outposts are four churches, two forts and two schools, the cavalry and artillery stables.

I started to tell you of the money. Large transactions are by silver, small ones are by copper coins. The copper coins are, by cincuenta piece, and the diez centimo piece. A centimo is a Spanish mill, and is the "worst" for five, and the worst for ten.

The following extracts are taken from a letter written from Manila under date of October 12th, to Rev. M. L. Rugg: The Second Oregon Regiment has been probably as fortunate as any in the campaign.

TWO CONVENTIONS.

Two Tickets in the Field for the City Election to be Held Next Monday.

The Independent convention was held at Weinhard's Hall Saturday night, November 26th, and the non-partisan convention was held at the same place Monday night, November 28th.

Pursuant to call, the independent city convention was called to order by J. C. Bradley, chairman of the central committee. Bruce Curry placed in nomination A. S. Dresser for chairman, which carried unanimously. D. W. Kinnaird named Bruce Curry for secretary, who was unanimously elected.

Hiram Straight placed in nomination C. D. Latourette for mayor, which was seconded by H. H. Johnson, and on motion of D. W. Kinnaird the nomination was made unanimous. On motion five tellers were appointed as follows: G. B. Dimick, W. S. U'Ren, C. Schuebel, C. Hartman and D. W. Kinnaird.

Mr. Latourette in response to the call for a speech said that he had not been a candidate for mayor, nor did he hardly know who was responsible for beginning the boom for his candidacy. He spoke of the future greatness of Oregon City, and while he believed in a conservative policy, did not favor being niggardly. He believed in maintaining a high standard of morals, but that harmless amusements should be encouraged. However, our youth should be guarded from evil influences. Again, he thanked the convention for the honor conferred on him.

For treasurer, H. E. Straith was placed in nomination by M. Rosenbaum, and George Hiatt was nominated by E. C. Maddock. The ballot resulted in 57 votes for Straith and 66 for Hiatt. Hiatt was therefore declared the choice of the convention for treasurer.

On motion the convention divided into wards to make nominations for councilmen. In the first ward J. C. Bradley was elected chairman, and N. M. Moody was elected secretary, and Max Schuchman and C. W. Fredrich appointed tellers. Frank Busch, J. W. Powell and C. Schuebel were placed in nomination for councilmen. Busch and Powell receiving the highest votes were declared the nominees. Fredrich was nominated and declined, but received 17 votes.

In the second ward sub-convention G. B. Dimick was elected chairman, D. W. Kinnaird secretary, and G. W. Grace and C. E. Burns appointed tellers. H. E. Harris, E. E. Charman, C. G. Huntley, Ed L. Story and A. W. Cheney were placed in nomination for councilmen. Harris and Huntley, the two receiving the highest number of votes cast, were declared the nominees.

After the nominations were ratified, the chairman appointed five committees as follows: J. C. Bradley, C. Schuebel, D. W. Kinnaird, Bruce Curry and G. B. Dimick.

NON PARTISAN CONVENTION. The convention was called to order by George A. Harding, chairman of the central committee. Mr. Harding declined to act as chairman of the convention, and C. H. Dye was elected presiding officer. F. T. Griffith was nominated for secretary, but declined. T. P. Randall, M. E. Gain and M. Rosenbaum were nominated in succession for the same place, but each declined. Finally, Max Block was prevailed upon to act as secretary of the meeting.

G. H. Wishart nominated Rudolph Koerner for mayor, which was seconded by John Bittner. On motion the nomination was made by acclamation.

Mr. Koerner said he appreciated the honor conferred upon him by this token of confidence. He stated that he would pattern after the same lines followed by his successor, and that his administration would be free from extravagance and all heartlessness.

John Bittner presented the name of H. E. Straith for treasurer, and on motion he was nominated by acclamation.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted, introduced by G. W. Churn: "Be it Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be extended to Mayor Caulfield for his earnest and successful efforts to give Oregon City an administration of honesty, economy and morality, and be it resolved that the nominees of the convention be requested to use their best efforts to continue the administration of city affairs in the line of economy, honesty and morality, as best serving the interests of taxpayers."

Following is the substance of a resolution introduced by J. A. Thayer, and unanimously passed: In consideration of the act that Ely and Falls View have long been without representation in the city council; that we pledge ourselves to use our best efforts to have the charter amended at the coming session of the legislature so as to give them the third ward.

On motion the voters of each ward proceeded to organize and make nominations for councilmen. G. W. Church was made chairman in the first ward, and M. E. B. in secretary. C. Schuebel and Bruce Zimwald receiving the highest number of votes, were declared the nominees for councilmen in the first ward.

In the second ward Dr. W. E. Carl was elected chairman and J. W. Gray secretary. James Roake and E. E. Charman were nominated for councilmen.

The nominations were ratified, and on motion the chairman was authorized to appoint two members of a campaign committee, to act as chairman. The committee now consists of G. H. Dye, Chapman, Dr. W. E. Carl and F. A. Tupperman.

All the nominees filed their acceptances with the certificates of nomination in the city recorder's office Wednesday except H. Schuebel, who was nominated for chairman of the non-partisan convention and refused to accept. Frank Busch, who was nominated for councilman on the citizens independent ticket was endorsed by the non-partisan central committee in place of Mr. Schuebel.

Both candidates for mayor, Mr. Latourette and Dr. Koerner, are both well and favorably known in this city, and the race will be made, mainly on their personal popularity.

Lieutenant Huntley Home.

Lieutenant W. A. Huntley arrived from San Francisco on the overland Wednesday, having reached there last Saturday from Manila. Mrs. Huntley went to San Francisco to meet her husband and returned with him. Lieutenant Huntley says that he made an effort to see every member of Company I personally, before taking his departure. They were all well, those that had been ill, having recovered and left the hospital. He further said there was but little danger of sickness now, as the healthful season of the year was just beginning, and besides the men were learning how to take care of themselves properly. It is a notable fact, however, that none of the cases of sickness among the Oregon City boys have proved fatal.

Much of the sickness at first was caused by not knowing how to properly handle the food, etc., as many of the army cooks were inexperienced. Conditions, however, have improved, the cooking is better and the hospitals are provided with all needed supplies. Staple rations in plentiful quantity are issued to the soldiers, and they are permitted to sell the surplus for cash, or exchange the same for luxuries.

In soldierly qualities, the members of Company I excel any other body of soldiers in the Second Regiment, and are always ready for every duty, and perform everything required of them cheerfully. The boys are all anxious to return home, says Lieutenant Huntley, now that they are not needed for active service.

Clyde Huntley is now the happy possessor of one of the famous Mauser rifles brought over by his brother. Lieutenant Huntley has been kept busy since his arrival home answering numerous inquiries about the boys and matters at Manila.
