Your Danger Now

Is from the overworked condition of the liver and kidneys which are unable to expel impurities from the blood. This causes rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been wonderfully successful in curing this disease. It neutralizes the acid in the blood and permanently cures the aches and pains which other medicines fail to relieve. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best winter medicine because it purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood. It gives help just where help is needed. It tones the stomach, stimulates the liver, and arouses and sustains the kidneys. It wards off pneumonia, fevers, bronchitis, colds, coughs and grip.

The funeral services of the honored pioneer woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Hedges, was largely attended. The services at St. Paul's Episcopal church last Saturday at 1 p. m., was conducted by Rev. P. K. Hammond, the rector. Thus ended the closing tribute to one of Clackamas county's noted pioneers. Born in Indiana in 1829, a relative of the late General Robert E. Lee, and coming to Clackamas county in 1845, she became a part of the history of Oregon. In 1847, she was married to Captain A. F. Hedges, who built the first steamboat that navigated the Willamette, and was subsequently prominent in business and political circles. She leaves a family of eight children to hold in tender remembrance her memory. The deceased was a sister of William Barlow, of Barlow.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

The sixth annual convention of the Clackamas County Endeavor Union, convened at the Congregational church Wednesday, November 30th. Not an officer of the Union was present, and no program had been prepared for the gathering.

An organization was effected by electing Mrs. O. S. Ohlson president, and Miss Mabel Miller, of Milwaukie, secretary.

A program committee was appointed to arrange a program for the next day.

On the following afternoon, Rev. A. Montgomery gave a talk on the "New Crusade," and the following officers were elected: Mrs. O. S. Ohlson, of Gladstone, president; Miss Mabel Miller, first vice-president; William Bissell, of Canby, second vice-president; Chester Muir, Oregon City, third vice-president; Mrs. J. E. White, Oregon City, corresponding secretary; B. M. Fish, Milwaukie, recording secretary; Mrs. K. H. Gabbert, treasurer.

In the evening Miss Margaret Williams read an interesting paper on "A Plea for Our Boys," followed with an address by Rev. Gilman Parker on "The Relation of the Christian Endeavor to the Philippines and other Probable Colonial Possessions."

The officers promise that the next convention will be a house, and a splendid program will be prepared.

It was discovered that a serious mistake was made in changing the time of holding the convention from the latter part of the week to the middle, as many teachers and others interested in the work, are thus prevented from attending.

B. M. Fish, of Milwaukie, and Miss Logan, were among the outside delegates attending the convention.
