PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

OREGON CITY, DEC. 16, 1898.

It is claimed on good authority that the state land board still loans its money at eight per cent when the legal rate of interest in Oregon is six per cent. Is this right?

THE COURIER HERALD is of the opinion that it would be a good idea for both Clackamas county and Oregon City, to fund their outstanding eight per cent warrants by the issue of new warrants that would only draw six per cent.

SILVER will be the basis of the currency in the Philippines. This necessary until she natives become educated.—Woodburn Independent.

Or to other words—until the moneyed men get control, then they'll have the gold standard.

JUDGE A. E. WAIT DEAD.

Drew the Deed That Sold Portland for $5,000 Worth of Leather—Died at Canby.

Judge Aaron E. Wait died at his home at Canby, at 3 a. m. Monday. His general health had been excellent until within the past week, when he suffered an attack of pneumonia, and owing to his advanced age, 85 years was unable to contract its effects. The funeral took place at Canby at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Judge Wait settled in Oregon City in 1847, and was editor of the Spectator in 1848 and 1849. He removed to Portland in 1862, and to his farm at Canby in 1875. In 1883 he returned to Portland and remained until October, 1897, when he went back to the farm at Canby.

Judge Wait drew the deed in 1848 which conveyed from Frank W. Pettygrove to Daniel H. Lowndale the half-section of land on which is now built the central part of Portland. The consideration was $5,000 to be paid in leather. Mr. Lowndale was then proprietor of a tannery on Tanner Creek.

In 1832 Mr. Wait represented Clackamas county in the territorial legislature as a member of the house, and in 1857-1858 served as a member of the council for Clackamas and Wasco counties.

Aaron E. Wait was born in Whately, Mass., December 26, 1813. He went to Michigan, where he was admitted to the bar in 1841. He was admitted to the bar in Oregon at the December term of the supreme court, in 1851. In 1858 he was elected to the supreme court of Oregon, and by virtue of his office was circuit judge of the fourth judicial district, comprising the counties of Washington, Clackamas, Multnomah, Clatsop and Columbia. He was chief justice from 1859 to 1863, when he resigned.

April 9, to accept a nomination for congress by the anti-administration party in the Cayuse war position. He was a very amiable and honest, and while not a very great lawyer, was fairly well equipped for his profession. He was careful and pains taking, and was a fair and upright judge, and in private life and family relations he was very exemplary man.

Judge Wait was twice married, his first wife being Mary N. Springer, and his second Catherine Kulvey. His only son, Charles N. Wait, an attorney by profession, resides on the home place, at Canby.

And the prices are quoted so ridiculously low that it will pay you to call. Celia Goldsmith.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
The basket ball game Saturday eve, 10th inst., between the first and second teams turned out to be a very hot game, both teams having determined before hand on capturing the game. The score stood 17 to 9 in favor of the first team. The second team immediately challenged the winner for another game Saturday eve, December 17th, which was accepted. The second team promise to show the boys something next time they meet on the grounds. At this game members will be admitted free, others will be charged the sum of 10c to defray expenses.

A membership contest to run about 30 days will be inaugurated in the next few days. It is expected that this will be the most hotly contested event of its kind that has ever been attempted in Oregon City.

All men are welcome to our 4 p. m. Sunday meeting.

A banquet will be given by the ladies auxiliary to the members of the Y. M. C. A. in the near future.

NOTICE.
To the taxpayers of Clackamas county. It is requested by the county court that the taxpayers in each road district of the county select and recommend to the court for appointment some competent man in each road district for the position of road supervisor and it is further ordered that the man endorsed for said position as road supervisor in any road district by the majority of the resident taxpayers of his said district shall be appointed by this court to fill said position, provided, however, that if said appointee should prove either incompetent or unwilling to perform the duties required of the supervisor in a proper and diligent manner, he shall be removed by this court and some other person appointed in his place.

By order of county court, Dec. term, 1898.
ELMER DIXON, Clerk.
By E. H. COOPER, Deputy.

SUMMONS.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Clackamas county.
Knoch Hale, Plaintiff, vs.
Glady A. Hale, Defendant.

To the said Glady A. Hale, the above named defendant:
IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, which order provided that the first publication be made on Friday, the 16th day of December, 1898, and the last publication six weeks thereafter, to-wit: On Friday, the 7th day of January, 1899; the first publication being on Friday, the 16th day of December, 1898, you will therefore appear and answer on or before January 7th, 1899. If you fail so to appear and answer, this plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief prayed for in the complaint; for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the court shall seem meet.

This summons is published by order of the Hon. Thomas A. McBride, judge of the above entitled court, made on the 12th day of December, 1898.

Shoes for Christmas Stockings...

Unfortunately too much attention is given to the stockings at Christmas time and the shoes are likely to be neglected. There is more common sense in a pair of shoes for a Christmas gift than in any other present you can make. Santa Claus would be vastly wiser if he selected his Christmas gifts from a stock such as ours.
