

Ladies' House Wrappers

Now on sale the balance of French Percale Wrappers

At 50 Cents

Balance of Flannelette Wrappers

At 75 Cents

Swell Jackets and Capes at Cost

McAllen & McDonnell

POPULAR DRY GOODS HOUSE

161-163 THIRD and MORRISON

PORTLAND, OR

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

The COURIER-HERALD leads.

H. I. Durbin, of Logan, was in town Monday.

Six cases of diphtheria are reported in Canemah.

George Epperson, of Kelo, was in town Friday.

Deputy Sheriff Jack spent Christmas at Marquam.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Haines went to Salem Tuesday.

Mrs. L. W. Porter, of Canemah, has been seriously ill.

The West Oregon City closed Friday for a week's vacation.

I. M. Hudin, of Eagle Creek, was a visitor in town Friday.

Miss Grace Marshall, of Canemah, is spending a week at Carus.

Howard Brownell is home from Forest Grove for the holidays.

Jack Knotts, of Mulino, was a visitor in Oregon City Wednesday.

A. R. Cummins, of Beaver Creek, was a visitor in the city Friday.

H. Thiessen, of the Concord settlement, was in the city Tuesday.

W. D. Hill, of Beaver Creek, was a visitor in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. L. C. Driggs, of Portland, was visiting relatives here Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Rhoades spent Christmas at the home of William Barlow.

William Krueger, of Logan, was a visitor at this office Saturday.

Mrs. R. Prior has recovered from the effects of a recent operation.

Hon. John Myers, of Portland, was visiting relatives here Monday.

A. S. Clinefelter, a prominent farmer, of Oswego, was in town Tuesday.

Falls City A. O. U. W. lodge will install its new officers January 7th.

J. W. Loder spent the Christmas holidays with his parents at Carlton.

August Kanne, a prominent citizen of Clackamas, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. D. H. Glass and son are visiting relatives at Seattle during the holidays.

Miss Ruth Cowing left Monday to visit friends at Astoria for a few days.

If you want the news subscribe for the COURIER-HERALD. Only a $1.50 a year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Miah, of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. M. Michaels, Sunday.

O. B. Moores and family spent a portion of the Christmas holidays at Salem.

Mrs. Mason Warnock, of Spinzwater, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. D. Wilson.

L. L. Moore, principal of the Milwaukie school, spent the holidays at Canby.

E. L. Barber, of Elliott Prairie, spent the Christmas holidays with his family here.

Miss Huliah Hoilen went to Corvallis Saturday to spend her holiday vacation.

There will be a church meeting services at the United Brethren church Saturday night.

Miss Tracy Wilkinson, a student of Pacific university, is spending her vacation here.

Martin Peterson, a well known farmer of Oswego, was a caller at this office Monday.

Nello Johnson, of Astoria, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Johnson, over Sunday.

Miss Ruth Flinn, of Albany, is visiting the family of G. W. Church, during the holidays.

Mrs. E. F. Hodgkin, of Salem, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Berryman Jennings.

Mrs. W. M. Robinson and infant son spent Christmas with her parents at Cascade Locks.

Noble Heath, superintendent of the La Camas paper mills, was in the city during the week.

Charles Luelling and wife, now residents of Eastern Oregon, are visiting his parents here.

T. S. Bake's family on the West side is recovering from a long continued siege of malaria.

George Swafford leaves next week to begin a course of studies in Pacific university Forest Grove.

Louis Jaggard, of Portland, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jaggard.

Wayne Howard and family, of Portland, spent Christmas at the Galloway homestead in Canemah.

Rev. H. L. Boardman will fill the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday, morning and evening.

Dr. C. B. Smith and family, of Eagle Creek, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourrette, Christmas.

John and William Vaughan, of Molalla, were guests of N. M. Moody during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Adolph Willey was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson White, at Portland during the week.

E. Richards, wife and children, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Howell Sunday.

I. B. Donaldson, wife and son, of Portland, were guests of F. E. Donaldson and family over Sunday.

J. L. Green, of Salem, accompanied by his wife, spent Christmas with his sister, Mrs. M. P. Chapman.

Rev. F. C. Butler and wife, of Clackamas, were guests of Dr. T. W. Butler and family during the week.

Theodore Miller, who is one of the Volunteers at Manila, sent home a fine display of shells which were on exhibition for several days.

If you have anything to sell advertise in the COURIER-HERALD. It has the largest circulation and reaches more homes than all the other papers combined.

County Clerk Dixon issued licenses to wed to Sophia Heen and J. E. Peck on Tuesday, Annie B. Munson and John J. Underwood on the 28th.

Mrs. P. H. Hatch and daughter, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kelly, during the week.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery led the services at one of the ministerial meetings in Portland Monday morning.

George Fuchs, of the Southern Pacific car shops, took Christmas dinner with T. W. Fouts and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Graham, of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Glasspool, over Sunday.

E. W. Dixon, of Seattle, special United States land agent, was in the city over Sunday, visiting old friends.

H. Choate, a prominent farmer living in Clackamas county, near Hubbard, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Edward N. Deady, Matthew E. Deady and Honora Deady, of Portland, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Charles Galloway, of the state university at Eugene, is spending a pleasant week with his parents at Parkplace.

Mrs. Max Ramsby and family, Mrs. Linn and Mrs. Blair were visiting relatives at Silverton during the week.

Dr. Fred R. Hedges, of the Multnomah County hospital, spent his Christmas vacation at his Canemah home.

Mrs. Harry Moody and son, of McMinnville, were guests of George Warner and family, during the holidays.

H. P. Bestow and family entertained Prof. J. W. Gray and family and Mr. Smith and family on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clark spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs at Mount Tabor.

Guido Clark, a student of Pacific university, is home for the holidays. Frank Stewart, a fellow student is his guest.

Misses Fannie and Kate Porter, teachers in the Portland schools, are spending their vacation at their home here.

A. R. Dimick, the popular teacher of the Scotts Mills school, visited his brother, G. B. Dimick, the first of the week.

Rev. Bruce Wolverton, an evangelist of the Christian church, was here a few days ago in the interest of that denomination.

The majority of the Clackamas county schools closed during holiday week, including those of Oregon City and vicinity.

Miss Ada Ball and Aaron McConnell, both of this county, were married at the Methodist church on the 18th. Rev. Oberoff officiated.

George Wilschert, who is now conducting a barber shop at Wasco, arrived Sunday, and will visit relatives here for a few days.

W. S. Maple, who is carrying on the blacksmithing business near Helena, Mont., arrived home Saturday for a couple of week's visit.

Miss Lillie Surfus and H. W. Sanders, both of this city, were married at the United Brethren church Saturday night. Rev. A. J. Ware officiated.

The New Year's services at the Methodist church next Sunday will be of special interest. A hearty welcome will be accorded to all who attend.

C. L. Carr, formerly special land inspector here, but now interested in Southern Oregon mines, was the guest of H. L. Kelly and family Sunday.

Fred Meindl and Miss Myrtle Taylor, both students at the Monmouth Normal school, are spending their vacations at their respective homes here.

Miss Jane Kirkley and William Taylor, both of this county, were married at the Methodist Parsonage, Thursday, Dec 22nd. Rev. H. Oberoff officiated.

Headquarters...

Overcoats
Suits
Neckwear
Smoking Jackets
Bath Robes
Shirts

FOR

Moyer Clothing Company

...The Popular-Price Clothiers...

BEN SELLING, Manager.

THIRD and OAK STREETS

Try COURIER-HERALD six months for 75 cents.

James F. Fullam was in from Viola yesterday.

Miss Echo Samson is spending her holiday vacation at Molalla Corners.

M. E. Kandle, a prominent citizen of Highland, was in the city yesterday.

Col. and Mrs. R. A. Miller spent their Christmas holidays in Marion county.

Born, in this city December 28th, to the wife of John H. Walker, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grace entertained Assessor Stout and family on Christmas day.

Miss Jacobs, of Mount Tabor, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Clark, during the week.

Charles Galloway, of the state university is spending his vacation quietly his Parkplace home.

Mrs. A. M. Ellsworth, of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pillsbury, during the week.

Miss May Kelly, now one of the teachers in the Portland public schools, is spending her holiday vacation at home.

Mrs. F. P. McDavit and child returned to Salem Tuesday, after visiting her mother, Mrs. E. F. Martin, for several days.

W. B. Stafford's family, who have been visiting in New Jersey for the past three or four months, arrived home yesterday.

J. B. Jackson and family spent Christmas with Charles Spangler and family at Carus. It was a most home Christmas celebration.

A number of letters were received from the Philippines yesterday. Lee Harding writes that they are all well, and tells of the arrival of the new recruits.

Miss Maule Freese, one of the teachers in the Washington state school of defective youth at Vancouver, was a guest of Miss Maud Butler during the Christmas holidays.

Governor Lord has formally appointed Sergeant J. U. Campbell, second lieutenant of Company I to succeed W. A. Huntley, resigned. This will give the other sergeants a chance to crawl up.

Will Beach, who is attending the state agricultural college, is spending his vacation here, accompanied by Fred Kruse. Miss Nettie Owenby, of Canemah, is also home during the vacation.

County Superintendent H. S. Strange was brought home from St. Vincent's hospital yesterday, and is now at his home on Madison street. He is still very weak, however, but he will be able to see his constituents.

The following New Year's themes will be presented at the First Congregational church next Sunday: At 10:30 a. m., "Balancing the Books;" at 7:30 p. m., "Thoughts of the Future." At 2 p. m., Dr. Butler will conduct services in the E. Y. chapel.

The Woodmen have removed from Retiro hall to the Wilamette hall, and will hereafter meet on the first and third Friday evenings. P. G. Shars has resigned his office as banker, and G. W. Grace was elected to succeed him.

John Schiewe, a wood-chopper residing near Stafford, died suddenly on Monday. Coronor Strickland and Deputy District Attorney G. B. Dimick were summoned, but did not believe an inquest necessary, as he had evidently died from natural causes. The deceased was 31 years old and leaves a wife and four children.

William Barlow went to Portland Friday to investigate the process of manufacturing desiccated onions on an extensive scale, with a view of establishing a factory at Barlow. He ascertained, however, that the desiccated onion business was almost monopolized by the department stores, and consequently gave up the idea.

Mrs. Jane Baker, a pioneer of 1844, died near the Clackamas hatchery Monday. She was the widow of the late Horace Baker, who established the ferry by that name on the Clackamas. Mr. Baker died about 15 years ago. The deceased leaves three daughters, all married. She was 79 years old.

The Masonic lodge and Eastern Star chapter held a joint installation Tuesday night. The following appointive officers of the chapter not heretofore printed are given. The list of elective officers were printed last week. Erma Lawrence, Ada B. Franco, Ruth: Mrs. Eugenie Meldrum, Esther; Mrs. D. B. Martin, Electa; Mrs. T. S. Lawrence, chaplain; Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, warden; Mrs. G. M. Strange, organist; A. W. France, sentinel.

P. A. Marquam, of Oregon City, is writing books. He has discovered, he avers in his latest production, how a man may live 900 years, if he live right. Now, if he will discover the man who will live right, he will have made a greater discovery than the scientific truth he claims to have unearthed—Sunday claims.

Assessor Luciene Stout will complete his term of office this week, and with his estimable lady, will soon after leave for Lincoln county. The best wishes of many friends will accompany them to their new home. Eli Williams, the new assessor will follow the plan of work adopted by his predecessor, and will no doubt make an equally accommodating official.

F. J. McHenry, chief leader, instituted Oregon City Ranch No. 20, United Modern Vigilantes, Wednesday night with 19 members. Following are the principal officers elected: Joe Lynch, leader; J. C. Keller, past leader; Angus Matheson, aide; W. H. Young, treasurer; H. L. Kelly, jr., scribe; M. C. Strickland, medical examiner. It is expected to complete the organization of the ranch next Monday night.

A re-union of the Cowing family was held at the home of Captain T. F. Cowing on Christmas day. The following members of the family were present: Captain Cowing and wife; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cowing, of Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. F. DeCaro, of Portland; Miss Ruth Cowing, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cowing, Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Cowing, of Oregon City; Mrs. A. A. Cowing, of Portland, was also present.

On Christmas day there was a very pleasant family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Pope. Among those present from Portland and Mount Tabor were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Warner, parents of Mrs. Pope; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lee, Mrs. H. E. Pope, Mrs. M. Hemenway, Mrs. John Pickett and two children; G. H. Warner and Miss Helen Warner; also Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pope.

Mrs. William Galloway entertained the members of Abernethy Chautauqua circle at her home at Parkplace Wednesday evening, the occasion being her birthday. A short literary program was presented, and among the numbers were solos by Mrs. Ohlson, and Miss Lessie Linn, of Portland. There was also an impersonation by Charles Galloway and a recitation by Miss Zilpha Galloway. A very pleasant evening was passed and refreshments were served. Mrs. Galloway is president of Abernethy Chautauqua circle and its members were out in full force.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Will Green last Tuesday evening in honor of their 10th wedding anniversary. The evening was pleasantly passed with a variation of vocal and instrumental music and sociability. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Muir, Mr. and Mrs. George Boylan, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Green, Mr. and Mrs. John Green of Salem, Mrs. Steve Hamilton, Mrs. Will Allredge; Misses Lou and Ada Allbee, Jessie, May and Maggie Young, Nora Calliff, Addie Hughes; Mrs. George and James Young, Frank Allredge, Frank Whiteman, Chester Muir, Geo. Calliff, Mr. Hanneford and L. Horns chuch.

This item will appear for one month to continuously remind that the United Modern Vigilantes, recently organized here, is as its name indicates, vigilant for the best in interest of its members. It has the most equitable plan known.

For first-class handmade or machine made harness go to F. H. Cross on Seventh street, opposite A. O. U. W. Prices reasonable and work guaranteed.

Benefit for Company I.

A party will be given at the Armory on December 30, by M. A. Corps Auxiliary. Tickets to dance including refreshments, $1 per couple, spectators, 25 c. each. Zilm's orchestra will furnish music. All earnings of the M. C. V. A. are used for the benefit of our boys at Manila.

Shoe repairing of all kinds at F. H. Cross' harness shop, opposite A. O. U. W. building on the hill.

Fresh Cow for Sale—Parker, the Barber at O. K. Shaving Parlors.

A fine Beatty organ at Oregon City Auction House.

Educate Your Bowls With Concoctions Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c. 25c. If C. C. C. fail, drug store refund money.

A Mason & Hamilton chapel organ at the Oregon City Auction House.

SWEEPING SALE OF Holiday Goods

These sales turn the attention to the times when gifts will be in order—birthdays, etc.

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Our Stationery Boxes
from 4c up. | Our Calendars FREE |
| Our Toilet Sets
from $1.00 up. | Our Books
from 5c up. |
| Our Perfumes
in fancy pkgs, 20c and 25c
$1.90 bottles now 75c.
75c bottles now 50c.
50c bottles now 35c.
25c bottles now 20c. | Our New Year Cards and Booklets
from 5c up and special prices |
| Our Knives
Grand assortment, worth from 50c to $1, for... 25c | Celluloid Novelties
from 5c to $5.00 |
| | Special Sale of Games & Toys |

CHARMAN & CO.,

The Cut-Price Druggists.

USE Red Line Sarsaparilla. It makes rich, ripe, red blood. Only 60 cents for a large $1.00 bottle.