

A. W. CHENEY, Publisher

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Entered in Oregon City postoffice as 2nd-class matter

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
If paid in advance, per year, $1.50
Six months, .75
Three months, .37

The date opposite your address on the paper denotes the time to which you have paid.

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

OREGON CITY, JAN. 13, 1899.

CITY EXPANSION.

The mayor's message relating to the annexation of Canemah and the West Side has provoked very general discussion.

There are many arguments in favor of the proposition. If Oregon City is to maintain her prestige and grow to any considerable size, she should have a broad foundation. The limits should include that territory, which is to include the residence, business and manufacturing districts. The West Side now has advantages in police and fire protection water and lights, use of bridge partly maintained by city money, besides many other benefits afforded by the city without paying a single dollar of city taxes.

Annexation of the West Side means the acquisition of nearly as much more taxable property, with an increase of several hundred population. It is quite natural that the mill owners object, on account of taxes, but the question is not one of individual consent but of general benefit. The flour mills and woolen mills pay city tax and it is no more than right that the paper mills should do likewise. The people of Oregon City are nearly a unit in favor of expansion. The taking in of additional territory will reduce the city tax levy.

HARVEY SCOTT, POPULIST.

One world, from reading the leading editorial in Monday's Oregonian, think that Mr. Scott had turned reformer and was about to take up the cause of the common people. What is the matter? Are some of the republicans becoming alarmed at the extravagant way the public money raised by taxation is being squandered by their office-holding horde? He lays the blame on the voters, who, by the way, are not altogether responsible for the condition of things, even if they do vote for men who get in office and then turn traitor to the people. The voters don't seem to be ready for reform for a while yet. Just look at the way they turned down the populist officials in this county who saved them $10,000 in two years in salaries alone, besides doing much better work than their republican predecessors. If the office holders will kindly "rub it in" for a few years longer the people may come to their senses and turn the republican protectionists out as they gradually see, as the Oregonian said a few days ago, that "protection breeds trusts," and trusts are not the making of the poor man. This is what the Oregonian said Monday:

Nothing is so lamented as the tendency of the times to create a small class of very rich and a large class of very poor—gradually eliminating or reducing the middle class, or persons of moderate means. It is undeniable that this tendency exists. But the fact is, also, that they who complain most about it are the persons who chiefly cause it. They constitute a very large proportion of the voters, and they cause it by the excessive burdens they impose on society. A further effect is that it gives great capital its opportunity to make investments without entering into the course of creating public debts and issuing bonds, the money decreasing, withholding their money from productive enterprises will wait for the "sure-thing" opportunities. * * * What then? Stop the inordinate growth of these expensive distilleries in every direction, and do everything possible to reduce them to reasonable limits and to hold them down. It is the lesson for state, city and county; for school district and road district and for every division and subdivision of public administration. They who complain most of the grasping bondholder are, for the most part, the very men who create his opportunities and put the power over the whole property of the state, city, county or district into his hands. It is the general voter who does the business. Will he not see that he is bringing his own nose to the grindstone, putting a mortgage on the energies of his posterity, and forcing, indeed, the growth of a system of virtual serfdom?

While Senator L. L. Porter is attending the regular session of the legislature his paper—the Enterprise—will be edited by Chas. A. Fitch, late editor of the Herald. We suppose that while Porter is practicing republicanism in the legislature that Fitch will be thundering populism through the elastic columns of the Enterprise.—Salem Independent.

To show that the voters did right in electing J. J. Cooke sheriff of Clackamas county, we refer to the reports of the experts mentioned in another column. During the first six months of his term of office Mr. Cooke handled over $58,000 with an error of but one cent.

"Tennessee's Partner" will be presented at Shively's opera house, Monday evening, Jan. 16th. It will be given by Arthur C. Alston's company, which scored an immense success in Portland last week. It will be here one night only.

Young Hardup (triumphantly)—Yes, sir, but I think I could learn to love you, too, sir, in a trice, sir—Yankee Fair.

Ward Off Jealousy.
Old Cotcocks (sarcastically)—What's that! You want to tell me that you really love my daughter for herself alone?
Young Hardup (triumphantly)—Yes, sir, but I think I could learn to love you, too, sir, in a trice, sir—Yankee Fair.

COMMENTARIES.

Matters Concerning Local Every-day Affairs Noticed by the Courier-Herald Reporter.

It is so dark of nights now on the Seventh street steps, that when the night is not too cold young people use the resting bench as a resting place, as the darkness prevents their identification. A married man attempted to make a mash on a woman while perambulating down the dark Seventh street stairway the other night, but was shocked, after a little investigation, to discover that the said woman was his wife.

The Enterprise must have it in hard for ex-Assessor Lucienne Stout, when it used a "Lost Manhood Restored" cut as a representation of his picture. Mr. Stout made a splendid record as assessor, and did not deserve such treatment. Besides Mr. Stout is a fine specimen of manhood physically.

New subscribers are coming in to the COURIER-HERALD daily. It does not print lodge elections and stories of curio collections a month after they are printed in another city paper. The readers of this paper recognize this fact—hence its rapidly increasing subscription list.

LOCAL SUMMARY

A few cheap reliable watches at Younger's.

Highest cash price paid for second hand household goods at Bellomy & Busch.

Money to loan at 8 percent interest on mortgages. Apply to C. D. & D. C. Latourette.

The Club tontorial parlors. P. G. Shark, proprietor, shaves for 10 cents. A full line of cigars and tobacco is kept.

Dan Williams has added to his stock of groceries and provisions a full line of feed and hay. Goods delivered to all parts of the city free. Corner Seventh and Center streets.

Money to loan at 8 percent interest on mortgages. Apply to C. D. & D. C. Latourette.

I have abundance of money to loan at 8% and choice loans will be made at 7%. C. H. Dye.

Feathers, ornaments, ribbons and veils, at a great reduction. Miss Goldsmith.

Special inducements to ladies—Call and buy a pair of $2.50 shoes and get a pair of rubbers free. Krausse Bros.

When in Portland be sure and call at the Royal restaurant where you can get the best 15c meal in the city. 253 First street, corner of Malison. Wm. Bohlander, proprietor.

Younger, who has had a life-long experience, will clean your watch for a dollar.

The greatest trimmed hat proposition ever offered here or anywhere at Miss Goldsmith's.

A fine Steilaway piano for sale, long time given, at Oregon City Auction House.

For the next thirty days we will sell all trimmed and untrimmed hats at a great reduction. Miss Goldsmith.

FOR RENT—A house, barn and eight lots in P. rkplace for $4 per month. Inquire at John Everhart's merchandise store at Ely, Oregon.

Wanted—100 watches to repair at $1 each, at C. A. Nash's, Postoffice building.

The largest assortment of millinery and lower prices than any house in Oregon. Miss Goldsmith.

A new line of Walker's sailor caps and veils just in. Miss Goldsmith.

This item will appear for one month to continuously remind that the United Modern Vigilantes recently organized here, is as its name indicates, vigilant for the best interest of its members. It has the most equitable plan known.

For first-class handmade or machine made harness go to F. H. Gross on Seventh street, opposite A O U hall. Prices reasonable and work guaranteed.

A fine Beatty organ at Oregon City Auction House.

If you have anything to sell advertise in the COURIER-HERALD.

St. W repairing of all kinds at F. H. Gross' harness shop, opposite A O U W building on the hill.

Weekly Oregonian and COURIER-HERALD for $2 per year.

Team for Sale—On Molalla road, 2 1/2 miles from Oregon City. Inquire of S. G. Bailey.

While Senator L. L. Porter is attending the regular session of the legislature his paper—the Enterprise—will be edited by Chas. A. Fitch, late editor of the Herald. We suppose that while Porter is practicing republicanism in the legislature that Fitch will be thundering populism through the elastic columns of the Enterprise.—Salem Independent.

To show that the voters did right in electing J. J. Cooke sheriff of Clackamas county, we refer to the reports of the experts mentioned in another column. During the first six months of his term of office Mr. Cooke handled over $58,000 with an error of but one cent.

"Tennessee's Partner" will be presented at Shively's opera house, Monday evening, Jan. 16th. It will be given by Arthur C. Alston's company, which scored an immense success in Portland last week. It will be here one night only.

Young Hardup (triumphantly)—Yes, sir, but I think I could learn to love you, too, sir, in a trice, sir—Yankee Fair.

Ward Off Jealousy.
Old Cotcocks (sarcastically)—What's that! You want to tell me that you really love my daughter for herself alone?
Young Hardup (triumphantly)—Yes, sir, but I think I could learn to love you, too, sir, in a trice, sir—Yankee Fair.

Waiters and Waitresses.

Talking of waitresses, a New York hotel keeper says that although they may possess some superior qualities for such service there are, on the other hand, such drawbacks as make it certain that they would never be acceptable to the majority of men who would have to be served by them. He says: "I think the objection to them would be based chiefly on the fact that they never show especial attention to any person. I never knew a woman who waited on a man to trouble herself in the least about the manner in which she served him. It makes absolutely no difference whether they receive liberal tips or not. They may be quiet, neat and quick, but they would never pick out one piece of beef because it was better than another or make any effort to get the best of what was to be had in the kitchen. That sort of attention makes a man worth his fee to the men who tip him.

"It is this special service that makes a waiter superior to the best of his associates. Women never detect any difference between the quality of one dish and another. They are all the same, and good service requires merely that they shall be set down noiselessly and brought quickly. There the service of the waitress ends. She can beat any man at those features of the business. But she cannot select for him anything better than the rest of the customers get. Usually she does not notice any difference in them. That deficiency is the safeguard of the waiter and will keep his place secure for him."

Trained Pigeons.

Pigeons are carefully trained. The young homer is taken half a mile the first day, a mile the second, two miles the third, and so on, doubling the distance each time. It must be liberated each time only in the same direction as to its loft, for a bird can be trained along only one route at a time. When 40 miles have been reached, a week's rest comes between, a hundred miles are enough for a young bird's first year. So essential is the training that old birds are taken only two miles out for the first lesson of a season, though they may have flown their 250 miles the year preceding. The end of the next season, however, will, if the birds are willing and the trainer patient, be crowned by the accomplishment of a 400 mile flight. As you get higher in the scale of distance, longer and longer rests are needed.

Male birds are generally used for long distances. Family matters are apt to engross the attention of the hen, though she is still capable of good work when she has a mind for it.—Good Words.

As to the Links.

There is no more ardent evolutionist in the city and no more persistent advocate of Darwin's theory than Dr. d'Ancona. His friend, Dr. de Marville, on the other hand, is a great bird fancier and devotes all his spare time to an enthusiastic study of ornithology. "I have a splendid specimen of a monkey in my office," remarked Dr. d'Ancona proudly. "Come in and see him," he continued, being a firm believer in the object method of demonstration. "You will admit that I have the missing link in a cage."

"That's all right," replied Dr. de Marville, absorbed in his own pet hobby. "I have a cage at home myself, and something in it too. You're not in it, and neither is your monkey. I can show you something much better than your missing link. I have got a bobolink." —San Francisco News Letter.

Prison and Calhoun.

The Pendletonians were justly proud of Mr. Calhoun and sensitive as to the impression which he made upon strangers. When Judge Pringle became a resident, they were anxious to know his impressions of their Ajax. When they first met, as soon as Calhoun left the table, the question was eagerly asked, "How do you like him?"

"Not at all," was the newcomer's reply. "I desire never to meet him again." This was a sad rebuff, and an explanation was demanded. "I hate a man who makes me think so much," the judge replied. "For the last three hours I have been on the stretch trying to follow him through heaven and earth. I feel wearied with the effort, and I hate a man who makes me feel my own inferiority." Pendleton was appeased.—Exchange.

Good, but Not Intended.

Now and then a man gets off a good thing and does not know it. An instance is noted by Sir M. Grant Duff in his "Diary."

We began to talk about the fog. "It was so bad," I said, "a week or two ago that I hear Farrar preached against it at St. Margaret's."

"It was at that church," my friend answered, "that a clergyman, denouncing Mr. Tooth, the ritualist, said, 'I will not name him, but his name is in everybody's mouth.' Then, seeing the smiles on the faces of his congregation, he turned scarlet."

The Earth's Shadow.

The earth has a shadow, but very few ever see it, except in eclipses of the moon, or else few recognize it when they see it. Nevertheless, many of us have noticed on fine, cloudless evenings in summer shortly before sunset a rosy or pink arc on the horizon opposite the sun, with a bluish gray segment under it. As the sun sinks the arcs rise until it attains the zenith and even passes it. This is the shadow of the earth.

A Sure Thing for You.

A transaction in which you cannot lose is a sure thing. Rheumatism, sick headache, neuralgia, toothache, fever, and all other ailments are relieved by the combination and strength of Dr. Cassatt's Candy Cathartic, the wonderful purifier, stimulant and intestinal tonic, now by all druggists guaranteed to cure or money refunded. C. C. C. is a sure thing. Try a box to-day! 10c, 25c, 50c. Sample and booklet free. All druggists.

Fraternal Matters.

John C. Bradley, district deputy grand master, installed the following new officers of Oregon Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., Thursday night: W. L. Milliam, noble grand; P. J. Lutz, vice-grand; Thomas F. Ryan, secretary; Judson Howell, financial secretary; Sol S. Walker, treasurer; E. D. Olds, warden; J. J. Cooke, conductor; Tom P. Randall, right supporter noble grand; O. E. Millam, left supporter noble grand; G. W. Grace, right supporter vice-grand; Dr. M. O. S. Rickland, left supporter vice-grand; W. A. Hedges, right scene supporter; H. E. Straight left scene supporter; Harry Trembath, chaplain; C. Greenwood, inside guard.

Past Master M. Bollack installed the following new officers of Oregon City Assembly, Artisans, Thursday evening: E. H. Cooper, master artisan; John Eyehart, superintendent; Grant C. Bacon, instructor; Mrs. J. T. Searle, instructor; Mrs. Mattie Ringo, senior conductor; J. T. Searle, secretary; Mrs. B. F. Linn, master of ceremonies; Mrs. Flora Cooper, junior conductor; R. Koerner, treasurer; Robert Goodfellow, warden; A. Armstrong and Mrs. G. C. Bacon, field commanders. The list of the officers of this lodge was printed about a month ago, but as there has been some changes, they are given again. After the close of the assembly business, the newly installed officers provided an excellent supper, one feature of which was a roast pig. This was furnished by a delegation that started to visit University Park Assembly, but did not succeed in reaching there. The Oregon City Assembly has a membership of 95, having initiated 42 members during the year. M. Bollack having served two years as master artisan, now takes the past master's chair with honors.

The new officers of the Degree of Honor, No. 24, will be installed tonight by Past Chief of Honor Mrs. A. R. Sprague. Following are the new officers: Mrs. N. Bruner, past chief of honor; chief of honor, Mrs. Grace Rogers; Miss Luella Bruner, chief of ceremonies; Mrs. S. A. Gillett, recorder; Mrs. Anna Schulpius, financier; Mrs. M. A. Warner, treasurer; Mrs. Maggie Woods, lady usher; R. Goodfellow, inside watchman; Joe Fromong, outside watchman.

The following new officers of Falls City Lodge No. 59, A. O. U. W., were installed Saturday night by Past Master Workman C. H. Dye: Herbert Hanfin, master workman; Samuel Roake, past master workman; John McGeehan, foreman; Gordo E. Hayes, overseer; H. J. Harding, receiver; N. O. McLoughlin, financier; W. B. Wiggins, receiver; O. C. Bul-an, inside watchman; W. M. Sheehan, outside watchman. The list of elective officers were printed several weeks ago, but as some changes were made, the corrected list is given. The lodge is prospering, and new members are being received almost every night.

The new officers of Willamette Rebekah Degree lodge will be installed tonight.

The Humane Society's Work.

A large number of complaints have lately been made to the Clackamas County Humane Society. Last week attention was called to a most brutal and malicious crime inflicted on a dog. The case was investigated, but this small difficulty was met in the matter of securing the necessary evidence or the guilty parties would have been made to pay the full penalty of the law. To torture a dumb animal is the crime of a coward, and he who is capable of it, would commit almost any crime, not requiring courage. The object of the humane society is for the prevention of cruelty to every living creature, by all proper means, including humane education. However, there are some persons you cannot touch, such as we regret it, except by punishment because their cruelty comes from wickedness. We owe to ourselves a duty not to be brutal, and we owe to God the duty of treating all of creatures according to his own perceptions of love and mercy.

NEITA MCCORVER.

To Have Pure Water.

The city council charter revision committee and Mayor Latourette held a meeting Tuesday night, and among other things considered a communication from Charles H. Campbell, Harry C. Stevens and T. Leonard Chapman, water commissioners, in reference to further bonding the city in order to secure pure mountain water from the Clackamas river. The commission have ascertained that water can be brought by gravity from the Clackamas river to the city pump station, and from there distributed through the mains by the present plant. The cost making this improvement will be from $30,000 to $35,000. In order to make this improvement the commission should have authority to issue $50,000 of bonds, $10,000 to be used in the retirement of the present issue leaving the balance for improvements. The commission feels sure that five per cent bonds can be floated at par, and the income is sufficient to take care of the interest, and enough for needed improvements, provided that clause of the charter compelling the commission to pay over to the city 30 per cent of its gross receipts be stricken out. The matter was favorably considered by the committee, which adjourned until next Saturday night, when other matters will receive their attention.

For Rent—The large 8 room, modern constructed house, lately occupied by Rev. M. L. Rugg, for rent.

H. F. CROSS, Agent.

45 cents round trip from Oregon City to Portland and return via Southern Pacific trains. One way rate 25 cents. Tickets now on sale at railroad depot. Trains leave Oregon City at 8:40 a. m., and 3:35 p. m., and arrives from Portland at 9:23 a. m. and 6:52 p. m. Save time by using the quicker route.

A Sure Thing for You.
A transaction in which you cannot lose is a sure thing. Rheumatism, sick headache, neuralgia, toothache, fever, and all other ailments are relieved by the combination and strength of Dr. Cassatt's Candy Cathartic, the wonderful purifier, stimulant and intestinal tonic, now by all druggists guaranteed to cure or money refunded. C. C. C. is a sure thing. Try a box to-day! 10c, 25c, 50c. Sample and booklet free. All druggists.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Try COURIER-HERALD six months for 75 cents.

Theo Messinger, of Stafford, was in town Wednesday.

John Borth, of Macksburg, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

A. Stormer, of Viola, was a visitor in Oregon City Wednesday.

J. C. Elliott, of Damascus, was a visitor in the city Wednesday.

L. P. Williams, of Clarkes, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday.

W. Heinz, of San Diego, Calif., visited A. R. Doolittle last week.

N. O. McLoughlin returned yesterday evening from a visit to Selem.

J. E. Marks is down from Mark's Prairie attending circuit court.

T. L. Turner, a pioneer resident of Stafford, was in Oregon City yesterday.

Wilburn Howell, of Salem, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. R. L. McClure.

J. A. Ballard, of Portland, has filed a divorce suit against Mary H. Ballard.

J. V. Harless, of Molalla, was a prominent visitor in Oregon City Wednesday.

Rev. Butler will conduct services in the Ely chapel next Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

S. A. D. Hungate, the Molalla surveyor, was in Oregon City during the week.

Robert Schuebel, of Canby, is making preparations to remove his family to this city.

Rev. Drake, of Salem, occupied the pulp of the Congregational church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Shank, of Milwaukee, were visiting relatives at Canby during the week.

D. W. Kinnaird and party returned yesterday from an inspection of surveys in Southeastern Oregon.

H. Breithaupt, one of the prominent citizens of Damascus, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday.

G. B. Dimick was elected secretary of the Willamette Savings & Loan Association at a meeting held Tuesday night.

The husband of Mrs. Mary Ogle, the pioneer who died at Molalla last week, is J. L. Ogle, instead of George Ogle, as mentioned last week.

County Clerk Dixon issued marriage licenses to Grace Elizabeth and salathiel Borchert on the 9th, Margaret Smith and John Blake on the 11th.

There will be a joint installation of the newly elected members of the Woolmen lodge and Solar Circle of Woolcraft. The ceremonies will be public.

The adjourned term of the county court on Wednesday the following tax levy was made: State, 5.7-10 mills; school, 6.31 1/2 mills; road, 5 mills; county, 11 mills; total, 28 mills.

Noah Heiple, of Eagle Creek, accompanied by his wife and mother, was in the city Wednesday on their way home from Salem, where the remains of the late Samuel Heiple were interred.

Miss M. E. Snyder and C. L. Blackburn, two popular young people of Springfield, were married last week. The wedding was quite an eventful affair, about 40 guests being in attendance.

The announcement was made in last week's paper that the eight-year old daughter of J. J. Thompson on the West Side, was ill with diphtheria. The little sufferer died Tuesday, and was buried Wednesday.

The Clackamas county legislative delegation returned home yesterday evening the legislature having adjourned until Monday. A. S. Dresser, J. L. Swafford, Miss McCown and F. M. Darling, committee clerks, also came home.

The United Vigilantes will hold an open meeting at Willamette hall on next Thursday evening. F. J. McHenry, state organizer, will make an address. Good instrumental music will be a part of the program. All are invited.

Bert Roake, the expert machinist, has established himself in the general blacksmithing business in the building formerly occupied by the East Side Railway Company opposite Major Charman's store. He makes a specialty of tools.

On Wednesday T. W. Cathbert and George Wild, each had quartz mining claims recorded in the county clerk's office. These locations are in the Shee-creek mining district, situated in the Cascade range above Salmon river. The ledges contain gold, silver and lead.

The late snowstorm did not extend to the South and Eastern parts of Clackamas county. There was only a slight fall of snow at the points designated, which quickly melted away. At Oregon City and vicinity the fall was several inches, and the snow lay on for several days. At Portland the fall was still heavier.

There will be a match game of basketball Saturday evening between the Y. M. C. A. business men's team and the Deweys of Portland. In addition to this there will be a gramophone entertainment; all for the benefit of the new association building. The boys' team worsted the Deweys last Saturday night at Pope's hall by a score of 17 to 12. This entertainment will be at the same place, and the admission will be 10 cents.

Ready made dress skirts from $1.50 to $3.00 at the Racket Store.

Ribbons, embroideries, lace, and all kinds of notions at the Racket Store.

For Over Fifty Years
AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup—has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

We have a Large Assortment of Ladies' and Gents' Umbrellas. Which we offer at a very low price. They are all the Latest Designs and Very Best Quality. BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN. The Oregon City Jewelers.

A move is now foot to make a first-class thoroughfare from the end of the plank road to Howard's mill. It is probable that the route selected will be on the old survey made several years ago. A meeting was held at Molalla a few days ago, and the following committee was appointed to view the proposed route with the county court and the Oregon City Board of Trade: J. R. Shaver, John Cole, Oliver Robbins, Sam Engle and H. S. Ramsby.

On last Thursday Will L. Miller and D. H. Glass, experts appointed to examine the taxroll of 1897, filed their report with the county clerk. The report shows that from March 2nd, to June 21st, 1898, inclusive, Sheriff G. W. Grace turned over to the county treasurer 88 cents more than was due the county from him. From June 22nd, to Dec. 31st, 1898, inclusive, the experts find an error of one cent in favor of Clackamas county, and against Sheriff J. J. Cooke.

Two million more salmon eggs were received from Anderson, Calif., by the Southern Pacific overland Fryer, for the Clackamas hatchery. This makes seven and a half million eggs received at the Clackamas hatchery this season; five million from the Little White Salmon river in Washington, and the remainder from California. The parties having charge of the upper Clackamas hatchery have completed their work and came out. During the season the operators turned loose two million young salmon in the river.

Mrs. Peter Scamel, of Molalla, is very ill at the residence of W. H. H. Samson on Main street. One week ago last Tuesday night the Scamel residence on the William Leverage farm was burned to the ground. Mrs. Scamel, who was very ill at the time, was removed to the barn with three small children, but was brought here for medical treatment, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Moody. All that was saved from the burned dwelling was a few bedclothes a sewing machine and a trunk. This accident leaves Mr. Scamel and family in destitute circumstances.

David Morris, a pioneer of 1852, was found dead in his cabin back of Willhoit Springs. He had apparently been dead for several days, when discovered by some neighbors, who lived a quarter of a mile away. They had missed him from his usual haunts, and went over expecting to find Mr. Morris ill. He had apparently died without a struggle, as he was lying in the bed, and the covers were not in the least disturbed. The deceased was about 60 years of age, and leaves a brother at Tekoa, Wash. The deceased, also leaves relatives in this county.

An effort is being made in Kansas to secure the pardon of Rev. W. A. Willison, a former Oregon City minister now serving a sentence in the Oregon penitentiary at Salem. Willison was up for 12 years in 1894 for a series of forgeries committed in Portland. He had at different times served as minister in the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches, but was in the real-estate business in Portland at the time the offense was committed. He went East in company with a woman, whom he is said to have married. He was traced to Joplin, Mo., where he was in charge of a car wash under the assumed name of Williams. For a time Willison was pastor of an Oregon City church.

Mrs. Darthula H. Sconce, died at Neely on the 8th day of January, 1899, aged 77 years, 10 months and 6 days. Her funeral occurred at the Rock Creek cemetery on January 9th. Rev. J. M. Shultz, conducting the services at the M. E. church and the cemetery. The deceased was a sister of C. W. Noblitt, of this city. She was born in G. aen county, Virginia, March 2nd, 1821, and was married to Robert H. Sconce on the 4th day of June, 1848, in Ray county, Mo. In 1853, they emigrated to Oregon, and settled at Neely in this county, being among the early pioneers. Mr. Sconce died a number of years ago. She leaves three children, William and Thomas Sconce