

Ladies' House Wrappers

Now on sale the balance of French
Percale Wrappers

At 50 Cents

Balance of Flannelette Wrappers

At 75 Cents

Swell Jackets
and Capes
at Cost

McAllen & McDonnell

POPULAR DRY GOODS HOUSE
161-163 THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OR

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

The COURIER-HERALD leads.

Robert Schuebel, of Carus, was in the city Saturday.

George A. Steel was a passenger to Salem Tuesday morning.

Henry Will, the Aurora hotel man, was in town Tuesday.

E. B. Ramsby, of Barlow, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Holmes went to Salem Tuesday to visit friends.

A large majority of the residents of Bolton are afflicted with the grip.

J. C. Paddock, a well known citizen of Clackamas, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

If you want the news subscribe for the COURIER-HERALD. Only a $1.50 a year.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lewthwaite, a son, on the morning of January 8th.

Joseph Paquet, the well known contractor of Portland, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

J. D. Myers, of Highland, has been spending the past ten days with his family here.

Register C. B. Moores went to Salem Tuesday morning to see Governor Geer inaugurated.

J. W. Smith, the Macksburg merchant, visited Oregon City and Portland Tuesday.

H. M. Franklin, of McMinnville, was visiting Judge William Galloway during the week.

George H. Webster and John Robinson, of Clackamas, were visitors in the city Saturday.

G. E. Braden, a well known farmer of New Era precinct, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. R. A. Miller returned Saturday from a visit to relatives at Salem and in Marion county.

James W. Roots and August Kanne, two prominent Clackamas citizens, were in town Tuesday.

Miss Almira Bradley, of Woodburn, who was visiting Mrs. L. Guerin, returned home Monday.

O. H. McGeorge and his son, L. H. McGeorge, brought in a load of hogs from Clarkes Monday.

Lester M. Leland, of New Era, is now railway mail clerk on the run between Roseburg and Portland.

Walter Noblitt has disposed of his butcher shop at Canby to Jacob Schmitt and Philip Weismandel.

Miss Sarah Steeper, a teacher in the Portland, Sunnyside school, was visiting friends here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blair and Mrs. J. R. Linn have returned home from visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ramsby at Silverton.

J. W. Boatman has on exhibition some samples of oranges and pomegranates raised on his fruit farm near Red Bluff.

Rev. M. L. Rugg writes to friends here, that he and family are highly pleased with their new location at Urbana, Illinois.

Mrs. J. P. Sumner and daughter, and daughter, Miss Bertha, of Woodburn, were visiting Oregon City friends during the past week.

Clara, the little daughter of R. Barber, living at the head of Seventh street is very low, and her recovery is considered doubtful.

A. C. Tower, who has been working at the Pendleton woolen mills for some time past, has returned. His family did not remove to Pendleton.

Miss Madge Hill, of Parkplace, who is teaching the Rainier school, returned to that place Saturday, after spending the holiday vacation at home.

A. Goldsmith, of Eugene, celebrated his 79th birthday at that place last Sunday. He is the father of Mrs. M. Bolack and the Misses Goldsmith, of this city.

According to the Canby Independent triplets were born to Mr. and Mrs. August Kellmer, of Frog Pond, on January 4th. Two were girls and the third a boy.

Miss Florence Brownell, of Portland, a sister of Senator Brownell, says the Capital Journal, is in Salem for the legislative session, the guest of Mrs. E. J. Swafford.

Ex-Railroad Commissioner J. B. Eddy was down from Trejenna, his country home, Tuesday. Trejenna is situated across the river from Canby, in this county.

Austin Craig, editor of the Washington Hatchet, published at Forest Grove, passed through Tuesday on his way to Salem, where he expects to spend a portion of the session.

William Vaughan, the well known pioneer of Molalla, was in town Monday. He stated that only three inches of snow had fallen in that section, which, however, had melted away.

Eighty acres of the Henry Samson donation land claim was sold at sheriff's sale Saturday. It was bid in by the plaintiff in the foreclosure proceedings, Mrs. Martha Ringo, for $569 10.

A. S. Dresser, Bruce Curry, Miss McCown, J. L. Swafford and F. M. Darling all went to Salem the first of the week, with the expectation of securing their former places at the legislature.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence and daughter are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Williams. Mr. Lawrence went to Salem Sunday night to report the legislative proceedings for the Oregonian.

The city of Canby at the last meeting of the common council established a complete police department. The mayor appointed John Graham, chief of police, and D. R. Dimick and H. C. Gilmore, regular policemen.

The steamer Elnora was disabled last Friday morning by being thrown on the rocks near Risley's landing. She was bound for up-river points when the accident occurred. The boat was taken back to Portland for repairs.

Carl Hut, who returned from the Yukon a few weeks ago, will start again for Alaska in two or three days. He owns a claim on Smeed creek, and has great faith in the future of the country and its wealth producing resources.

The Quaker Medicine Company are giving delightful entertainments every evening at Shively's opera house, which are greeted with crowded houses. They are giving away genuine diamonds to those who attend.

Colonel and Mrs. R. A. Miller, of Oregon City, were in the city last Thursday. They were returning home after participating in a family reunion at the home of the latter's father, L. C. Griffith, in the Waldo hills.—Woodburn Independent.

Hon. J. T. Apperson, president of the board of regents and one of the most devoted friends and enthusiastic workers for the agricultural college, has been in town since Monday preparing for the meeting of the board which occurs this afternoon.—Corvallis Times.

John H. Walker received a letter a few days ago from Major Charman at Paso Kobles, Calif. The Major and his estimable wife are enjoying good health, and are receiving great benefit from their sojourn at that place.

Rev. John Glenn, a Free Methodist minister of Dayton, accompanied by his wife and son, were visiting Rev. C. A. Willey and family, Friday and Saturday. Rev. Glenn had charge of the work in Brooklyn, New York, when the Free Methodists seceded from the regular organization.

Joseph H. Pasold, the mining expert, is now turning his attention to the quartz ledges in the South Molalla mining district. During the past week he and Henry Russell located the "Last Chance" and "Golden Wonder" lodes in this district. These ledges contain gold, silver and copper.

Albert Tozier, of Portland, was in the city over Sunday, and at the Methodist church Saturday night, rang out the old year for the 25th consecutive time. Bert is a universal favorite with the Hillsborers and is always accorded a hearty welcome. While in town he was the guest of T. S. Wethered and family.—Hillsboro Argus.

The Methodist Episcopal Aid Society, of Canby, have elected the following new officers: Mrs. M. E. Kirk, president; Mrs. M. E. Stogsdill, first vice-president; Mrs. John Graham, second vice-president; Mrs. William Mendelville, secretary; Mrs. Luva Myers, treasurer; Mrs. Henry Smith, Mrs. Vineyard and Mrs. Stogsdill, work committee.

Ex-Councilman H. E. Harris during the past week, received a letter from a wealthy native business man in Japan, asking for a detailed description of the ice-plant, manufactured by him. The Japanese business man was here last spring, and made a critical examination of the ice-plants made by Mr. Harris, and it is now probable that he will order one.

On Monday Charles Lescor, of Clackamas, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary by the Multnomah county criminal court for stabbing his wife, who was inhabiting a joint in the North End, so it is alleged. Lescor claims that he was trying to get his wife out of the den of iniquity to induce her to lead a better life. Not succeeding, he became so angry, that he slashed at her with a knife.

Headquarters...

Overcoats
Suits
Neckwear
Smoking Jackets
Bath Robes
Shirts

FOR

Moyer Clothing Company

...The Popular-Price Clothiers...

BEN SELLING, Manager.

THIRD and OAK STREETS

Professor L. W. McAdam entertained his Sunday school class last Friday evening. It was a very pleasant gathering. The following were present: Misses Ream, Nora Ream, May Mark, Miss Canfield, Ethel Canfield, Miss Hale, Jean White. Prof. McAdam has recently added much to the interest of the class by taking up the normal method of Bible study.

Samuel Heiple, a well known pioneer resident of Clackamas county, died at his home at Eagle Creek, Jan. 4th. He was 71 years of age, a pioneer of 1852, and a highly respected and prosperous citizen of Clackamas county. The funeral occurred at East Portland Sunday, and the services were conducted by Rev. Andrew Woods. The funeral was largely attended by pioneers. The immediate cause of his death was heart disease.

William Frakes, age 175, a resident of Oregon since 1874, died at his home at Logan, Saturday evening, January 7th. The funeral occurred Tuesday. He came from Indiana. The deceased leaves three children, his wife having died about six years ago: Philip Frakes, of Columbia county; Mrs. Laura Flory, Yamhill county, and Marsh Frakes, of Logan. Mr. Frakes was the republican central committee-man for Harding precinct.

Twenty-five years ago last Sunday the Oregon City locks were opened and completed. The occasion was duly observed by the little steamer Maria passing through to upper river. On board were Hon. B. Gollanith, Colonel Joseph Teal, the owners and builders, and a number of invited guests. The enterprise of these two men has been a great blessing to the producers of the Willamette valley during the past quarter of a century. The late Colonel Isaac W. Smith was the engineer and superintendent of construction.—Portland Dispatch. It would be a still greater blessing, however, if the locks were free.

Luke Comer, aged 67, who has resided in Oregon City since 1869, is now laid up with a fracture of his right thigh bone. Mr. Comer lives all alone in his two story dwelling on Fifth street, near the railroad track, his wife having died three or four years ago. The stairway, connecting the upper and lower stories has no banisters, and when he started down the steps about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon he fell to the lower floor, where he lay until Jacob Schatz, a neighbor, heard him making a noise about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. As Mr. Comer has an excellent constitution he will probably recover, and he is around in good trim in the course of time.

BANKRUPT STOCK

To Be Sold at 47 Cents on the Dollar.

THE BANKRUPT STOCK OF J. SCHWARTZ

Must be disposed of at a Great Sacrifice, having been purchased at Less than One-Half its Actual Value.

$11000 of General Merchandise

Consisting in part of Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Etc.

Sale Begins Monday Morning, January 16, 1899

In Masonic Building

SIXTH AND MAIN STS., OREGON CITY