

Ladies' House Wrappers

Now on sale the balance of French
Percalé Wrappers
At 50 Cents
Balance of Flannelette Wrappers
At 75 Cents

Swell Jackets
and Capes
at Cost

McAllen & McDonnell

POPULAR DRY GOODS HOUSE
161-163 THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OR

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

The COURIER-HERALD leads.

J. W. Doores, of Marquam, was in town Monday.

A. L. Jones, a well known citizen of Mulino, was in town Saturday.

Rev. Drake, of Salem, filled the pulpit of the Congregational church last Sunday.

Miss Minnie Dunlavy, of Marquam, who was visiting Mrs. Mary Van Way, returned home Saturday.

Miss Anna Samuels, of Portland, attended the ball at Weinhard's hall Friday night. She was the guest of Miss Ora Spangler.

Miss Pauline Campbell, of Portland, was the guest of Miss Erma Lawrence, and attended the "Jolly Fellows" ball at Weinhard's hall last Friday night.

Miss Josephine Fullerton, who recently completed a term of school at Columbus, Wash., across the river from The Dalles, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. H. Glass.

D. M. Klemson, who has been employed for some time past at the Portland flouring mills here, left Monday night for Weiser, in Western Idaho, where he will take charge of a flouring mill.

Ex-Assessor Luciene Stout and wife returned Monday from a visit to Newport, and will now pack up their household goods and remove to that place, where they will make their permanent home on Mr. Stout's Lincoln county farm.

Steps are being taken to organize a Workmen lodge at Carus.

Louis T. Barin, of Portland, was a visitor in the city during the week.

J. M. Tracy and Dr. D. A. Covert, of Logan, were visitors in Oregon City Saturday.

Clarence Porter will return to Alaska in a few days, after having spent a couple of months with his family here.

Harry Schwartz, a graduate of the California College of Pharmacy, arrived Monday and accepted a position in Harding's drug store.

County Clerk Elmer Dixon returned Sunday from a visit to the poultry exhibition at Albany, and reports a very creditable display of fine birds and fowls.

C. E. Loomis, special agent of the general land office, has been transferred from Seattle to the Oregon City land office, and his headquarters will be here. His family, however, will continue to reside in Eugene.

Rheannon Hughes Renner the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Renner, died Thursday, January 12th. The funeral services were held at the family residence on the corner of Twelfth and Jackson streets and were conducted by Rev. Gilman Parker.

Carl Hute left on his return trip to Alaska Wednesday, after a visit home of several weeks. While Mr. Hute did not become wealthy while in the Yukon country, he prospered, and now owns a valuable claim on Smeed creek. He goes back to dig out a competency.

Jacob Gerber was down from Viola Saturday.

Mrs. E. Meresse, of Forest Grove, is visiting friends here.

John Wise, of Milwaukie, was a caller at this office Monday.

Joshua Gorbett, the Colton merchant, was in Oregon City Monday.

S. A. D. Hungate returned to Molalla Monday, after visiting in the city for a week.

John P. Jones, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, was in Oregon City Monday.

Ex-Councilman L. C. Caples arrived from Roseburg Tuesday morning to visit his family, Mrs. Caples having been ill.

Robert Schuebel and family, of Carus, have moved to town, and are now occupying a cottage on Jefferson street, opposite James Roake's residence.

Miss E. C. Adair went to Salem Wednesday morning to take a course of treatment in a hospital there. She has been in very poor health for some time.

An illustrated lecture on health and hygiene will be given by Mrs. Sara Read, of Portland in Willamette hall on January 26th, at 2:30 p. m. Subject: "A Modern Demand"

There is said to be some deep ruts in the roadway on upper Seventh street, that is leaving the roadway in a bad shape and in a condition to grow worse. It is said that a judicious expenditure of a few dollars will save much expense in the future.

Emma, the 12-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Werner, on the West Side, died Saturday from the effects of injuries to the spine received a week previous caused by falling from a sled while coasting. The funeral was conducted from the Baptist church Sunday.

J. W. Doores, of Marquam, who was in the city for a couple of days during the week, claims that the oldest living man in Oregon resides with him. His name is Jesse Allen, a brother of the late Robert Allen, prominent pioneer of Marquam. Mr. Allen was a soldier in the Mexican war, and a native of Tennessee.

O. S. Ohlson writes his wife from Eldorado creek, near Dawson, where he and F. F. White and J. A. Fairclough are working a mining claim. He states that provisions are plentiful except butter, sugar, condensed milk and oatmeal. Butter is $2.50 per pound. A rich strike has been made on Thistle creek. Mr. Ohlson was not a resident of Portland as mentioned in Friday's Oregonian, but lived in Oregon City.

N. P. Hanson, a member of the saw-mill firm of Mortensen & Hanson, of Marquam, was accidentally drowned while floating logs down Butte creek about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. He slipped and fell into the stream, and his remains had not been recovered at the latest reports. Mr. Hanson last year tried the experiment of hauling log with horses and dumping them into the creek up in the mountains, and lost a fine pair of horses as a result. The deceased leaves a wife and three children.

Mayor C. D. Latourette visited Salem Wednesday.

A. J. Johnston, of Logan, was a visitor in the city Friday.

John Lensenberger, of Stone, was a pleasant caller at this office Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bestow returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit to Canby.

Joseph Sevicik, the proprietor of the New Era flouring mills, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Register Charles B. Moore and family have removed to the Purdom house, recently vacated by Julius Schwartz.

C. E. Loomis, special agent of the land office, went to Corvallis Tuesday morning on official business to remain a week.

There will be an entertainment at the Mount Pleasant school house Saturday night for the benefit of the organ fund. The admission will be 10 cents.

The Portland flouring mills in this city, purchased about 40,000 bushel of wheat during the past week. The price paid, was on a basis of 62 cents per bushel, sacked.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Fields, of Junction City, are visiting relatives at Canemah. They arrived Saturday, and will remain here for a week. Mr. Fields is highly pleased with his new position as night operator in the railroad office there.

Justice Schuebel's court was occupied all day Friday with the trial of Milton Hodge, aged 12, charged with shooting Lester Hucker, a playmate, in the breast with the contents of a toy air gun. The gun was loaded with a No. 22 bullet, which inflicted a slight but painful wound. Justice Schuebel fined Hodge $10, but reduced it to $5 upon the recommendation of the jury.

George Birchett, of Marquam, who lives near Mortensen & Hanson's saw-mill on Butte creek, was in town Wednesday. He states that N. P. Hanson came to his death by trying to loosen a jam of logs at the falls in the mountains about six miles above the mill. The jam loosened and he was carried away by the swift water and running logs. His remains had not been recovered. Mr. Hanson had lived in that section for the past 10 or 12 years, and was universally respected.

There will be a meeting of the Oregon City Board of Trade next Monday night to consider the matter of appointing a committee to look over the road from Molalla to Oregon City; also to examine the proposed new route from Howard's mill to end of new plank road beyond Carus postoffice, and to decide, if possible, something definite as to which route will be the most practical for the public, in general. Committees have been appointed by the citizens of Molalla and Mulino to confer with the members of the board in this important matter. The meeting will be held at the county room next Monday night. It is the intention to have committees from the various neighborhood interested, board of trade committee and the county court go over the ground together and personally inspect the proposed routes.

Headquarters...

Overcoats
Suits
Ne cwear
Smoking Jackets
Bath Robes
Shirts

FOR

Moyer Clothing Company

...The Popular-Price Clothiers...

BEN SELLING, Manager.

THIRD and OAK STREETS

N. O. McLoughlin went to Salem Tuesday morning.

Miss Inez Adair, of Noble, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. A. Heinz.

Mrs. Edward P. Rands is very ill at her home on Jefferson and Ninth streets.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger, of Astoria, will fill the pulpit of the Congregational church next Sunday.

Norman Lang, superintendent of the Willamette Pulp & Paper mills, returned Tuesday morning from a visit of four weeks to California. His wife and child are still there.

George A. Harding received a letter from his son, Lee, at Manila, Monday morning, giving the welcome news that he would probably get his discharge soon, and return home. Captain Pickers' letter, however, was not so favorable, but said that the boy ought to be sent home, as he was not well.

Peter Nohren received several copies of Manila papers from Jacob Mader, a Volupteer in the service, formerly of Oregon City. Among them is The American, a daily paper, and Freedom, a large weekly journal, both printed by Americans. Freedom gives notice of a meeting of the Philippine A. O. U. W. Association, and publishes a list of the officers.

J. R. Marks, of Marks' Prairie, was in town Saturday.

If you want the news subscribe for the COURIER-HERALD. Only a $1.50 a year.

Charles B. Frost went to Canby Tuesday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Elam Frost.

Justice Chris Schuebel went to Salem Wednesday to attend the legislature for a brief period.

W. L. Beckner has returned from a visit to the Blue river mines, and succeeded in making a location on a desirable quartz claim. Mr. Beckner is one of the stockholders in the Blue River Mining Company, of this city. He reports that the heavy snow is materially interfering with the work on the new wagon road, and that he had a hard time in reaching his destination.

Tuesday's Oregonian says that Judge Cleland yesterday denied Grace Holt, a minor, a decree of divorce, because of insufficiency of evidence. The plaintiff accused her husband of infidelity and charged Bertie Berry as co-respondent, but the evidence of Mrs. Holt upon this point was weak and unreasonable, and did not convince the court. The parties were married at Vancouver, Wash., and it is said to have been a runaway match.

BANKRUPT STOCK

To Be Sold at 47 Cents on the Dollar.

The Bankrupt Stock of J. Schwartz must be disposed of at a Great Sacrifice, having been purchased at less than half its value.

$11000 of General Merchandise

Consisting in part of Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Etc.

To show the Substantial Reduction a Few Prices are Quoted:

Men's Best Overalls..... 30c
Men's Undershirts, former price 35c, sale price 15c
Men's Drawers, former price 35c, sale price... 15c
Glass Cotton Toweling, sale price..... 3c
Ladies' Storm Rubbers, best quality, sale price 30c
Men's Storm Rubbers, best quality, sale price 40c
Ladies' Common Rubbers, sale price..... 18c
Men's Long Rubber Boots, sale price..... 3 00
Men's Rubber Coats, former price $1.50, sale price..... 75c
Ladies' Button Shoes, cloth top, former price $1.50, sale price..... 75c
Ladies' Dongola Button Shoes, former price $1.50, sale price..... 75c
Ladies' Shoes, former price $2.50, sale price 1 20

Misses' Pebble Goat Shoes, sale price..... 70c
Misses' Hose, former price 12 1/2c, sale price... 5c
Infants' Button Shoes, sale price..... 15c
Men's Dress Shoes, sale price..... 95c
Men's Dress Shoes, for. price $2.50, sale price 1 20
Men's Working Shoes, sale price..... 90c
Men's Wool Hose, former price 16 2/3c, sale price..... 10c
Men's Carpet Slippers, sale price..... 25c
Men's White Dress Shirts, sale price..... 40c
Men's Colored-bosom Shirts, sale price..... 35c
Men's 50c Negligee Shirts, sale price..... 25c
Men's Heavy Blue Shirts or Jumpers, former price 75c, sale price..... 35c
Men's 25c Caps, sale price..... 15c

Men's 50c Caps, sale price..... 25c
Child's Caps, former price 25c, sale price.... 10c
Indigo Blue Prints, sale price..... 4c
Fast Black Sateen, sale price..... 6c
Yard-wide Percalés, form. price 10c, sale price 7c
Men's Suits, former price $5.00, sale price... 2 25
Men's Suits, former price $6.50, sale price... 4 00
Men's Suits, former price $10 to $12.50, now 7 00
Men's Suits, former price $10, sale price... 5 00
" " " " $15, sale price... 7 50
Boys' Suits, size 14 to 19 years, former price $5, sale price..... 2 25
Boys' Suits, size 14 to 19 years, former price $7.50, sale price..... 3 75
Men's Pants, former price $2.00, sale price... 95c

An opportunity never before offered to purchase goods at less than manufacturer's cost.

Remember the Place: Masonic Building, Sixth and Main Sts. Oregon City, Oregon