THIRD and OAK STREETS

The work of blasting on the site of the new Y. M. C. A. Association building will be completed this week, and construction work will soon begin in earnest. At the regular 4 o'clock men's meeting Sunday afternoon, the plans of the association will be presented by Secretary Mead. All members, who are present at this meeting, will be benefited.

During the week just passed hoboes were very numerous, but they did some very good work on the streets under the direction of Street Superintendent Bradley. One of the men who was working on the streets claimed to be an ex-lawyer, and carried a $20 piece in his pocket. On Friday night Constable McCown arrested 10, who were making their rendezvous just outside of the city limits in a vacant house near Broderick's park Saturday morning they were arraigned before Justice Schuebel and were fined $10 each for trespass. The sentence, however, was suspended on condition that they leave town forthwith. Four more were arrested in the city limits on the same night, and when Saturday morning came there were 20 all told, in custody. It is very probable that some of these gentry are the same individuals that were committing burglaries and making attempted hold-ups.

Mark Bussard, recently of Eugene, has leased the vacant property on Main street opposite Major Charman's store, and will fit up the same for a farmer's feed yard. He has been carrying on the same line of business at Eugene for the past two years, and is confident that there is an excellent opening here for an establishment of the same kind. Mr. Bussard's family will arrive later.
