Graeme.

EHERWOOD, March 2—This morning a sad accident happened near here by which a respected neighbor Mr. S. Beatty, was seriously, if not fatally, injured. It seems that he had prepared a stump for blasting and was thawing a few siteks of giant powder in the oven of his cook stove, where it exploded, tearing his hand off at the wrist, and filling his abdomen and legs with fragments of east iron from the stove.

fragments of cast iron from the stove.

Dr. Saylor was called immediately and the injured man was brought here of once. Drs. Saylor, Rickard and Littlefield dressed his wounds and this afternoon he was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital. The house is badly wrecked, the stove was blown to fragments, the windows knocked cut and the roof is spread apart at the top. There was a quantity of glant powder in the room which did not explode, perhaps owing to its being cold.
