

Spring Dress Goods

COLORED NOVELTIES

In Silk and Wool and Mohair and Silk.

NEW TINTS AND NEW COLORINGS

In plain and fancy weaves. New and elegant in our collection of Spring Novelties at 50c, 75c, 85c and $1.00, and upwards to $2.00, $3.50 and $4.00 per yard.

WE HAVE BEEN WELL

Patronized during the past week on our High Novelty Dress Goods. In fact, our Dress Goods Department and Window display is the talk of the town. We have the stock to select from, both in variety and quality. We ask you no fancy prices when you visit our store and sit at our counter. We protect you in price and give you first-class goods and value received for your money.

McAllen & McDonnell

Leading Dress Goods House of the Northwest

THIRD and MORRISON

PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

The COURIER-HERALD leads.

P. P. Hull, of Meadowbrook, was a visitor here Saturday.

Miss Agusta Bottemiller, of Milwaukee, is visiting at Albany.

Mrs. B. W. Dennis, of Portland, was visiting Mrs. G. M. Strange Friday.

Frank Winslow left Sunday for a short business trip to Chehalis, Wash.

James H. Brown, the Logan postmaster, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Fritz H. Heiser was in from Damascus for a couple of days during the week.

Dressmaker will go out for 75 cents per day; do every kind of work. Call at Charman's drug store.

L. E. Armstrong, one of the pioneer citizens of Mackburg, who was visiting here, returned home Saturday.

Miss Nellie Lambert, of Portland, was visiting the Misses Kelly and Mrs. J. P. Loyet, during the week.

It has been announced that J. H. Comer will deliver his first sermon at the Meadowbrook school house next Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Karten, who completed a term of school at Viola last week, is visiting relatives at Monitor for a couple of weeks.

M. Michaels has moved back to his old stand in the Schram building, the same having been remodelled and refitted throughout.

Miss Edith Lang, of Oakland, Calif., is visiting her brother, Norman R. Lang, superintendent of the Willamette pulp and paper mills.

Fred Armstrong, of Mackburg, who is attending the Portland business college, came up and remained over Sunday at the home of W. H. H. Samson.

J. M. Stormer, a well known citizen of Springwater, was here Saturday, and reported several cases of diphtheria in that neighborhood. They were improving, however.

Willard Wood was in town Monday, and announced that he had moved back to Yamhill. He and his family spent the winter in Oregon City.—McMinnville Telephone Register.

Miss Estella Parker, of Marquam, a cousin of W. H. H. Samson, accompanied by Mrs. Lois Woodcock, were visiting here during the past week. Miss Parker is a well known school teacher of that section.

J. A. Lamar, of Parkplace, near Oregon City, was in St. Helens Tuesday, looking after his taxes. He was once with his family a resident of this county. They now own a section of Oak Ranch creek.—Columbia County News.

Henry Cramer, of Bolton, was the recipient of a delightful surprise party a few evenings since. It was planned by a number of his young friends in honor of his 23rd birthday. The guests were given a splendid reception, and a very enjoyable evening was passed.

Try COURIER-HERALD six months for 75 cents.

L. H. Kirchem was in from Logan Wednesday.

W. H. Evans was down from Canby during the week.

E. Schubert, a prominent farmer of Elwood, was in town Saturday.

Last week of the closing out sale of the Charman stock of general merchandise.

Miss Pauline Campbell, of Portland was visiting friends here during the week.

Mrs. Joe Lee and Mrs. Marion Handler, of Portland, were visiting the Misses France over Sunday.

Guy Stryker, of Milwaukie, a private in the Second Oregon at Manila, has been ordered discharged on account of disability.

Lee Travis, who recently delivered a lecture here on the Philippines, hrs received his discharge from the volunteer service on account of disability.

Willie Morse, in Harding's drug store, is now a registered assistant, having successfully passed an examination before the state board of pharmacy in Portland last week.

Postmaster G. W. Prosser's store at Oswego was entered by burglars Sunday night and a lot of cigars and notions to the value of $40 was taken. The burglars are believed to be residents of that vicinity.

Henry Addis's lecture on sexology at Willamette hall Sunday night was greeted with a cold frost. Only about 15 were present and part of them were deadheads. Not enough money was taken in to pay hall rent.

Mrs. J. H. Hargreaves was the recipient of pleasant surprise party at her home at Gladstone last Friday. The party was planned by a number of Oregon City ladies, who went down and spent the greater part of the day.

W. L. Beckner intended leaving for the Blue river mines the other day, but gave up the undertaking when he learned that there was four feet of snow there, and more falling. He expects, however, to go there about the middle of April.

William Barlow was down from Barlow Saturday, and reports that he is getting along first-rate with his farming operations. He has 40 acres sown to meadow, 40 in wheat and 40 more to sow in oats and barley. Mr. Barlow had all his ground plowed last fall.

Captain Phil Shannon was down from Springwater Sunday. He is a pioneer of 1852, and served as a captain in the Rogue river war with credit. Captain Shannon was also one of the promoters and organizers of the P. T. Co., who operated a line of steamboats on the Willamette.

The three field deputies of the assessor's office began the work of assessing county property Monday. Each is assigned to separate territory. J. F. Nelson, of Mulino, has all that part of Clackamas county in range 1 east and range 1 west; Nixon Blair, of Needy, range 2 east; R. L. Pollock, of Oswego, ranges 3, 4 and 5 east.

Miss J. Utter is visiting friends at Fulton.

Look out for Miss Celia Goldsmith's grand millinery opening.

Miss Lena Barner was visiting friends at Bolton over Sunday.

J. C. O. Hall, a well known resident Meadowbrook, was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. J. C. Smock, of Sherwood, has been visiting Mrs. Henry J. Harding.

M. Mish, recently of Portland, has opened a Racket store in the Kelly building.

The pension of R. W. Porter, of Canemah, has been increased from $6 to $8 per month.

Henry Hornsach, one of the well known farmers of Beaver creek, was in town Saturday.

E. D. McKee, of Portland, has been installed as prescription clerk in Harding's drug store.

Harry Austin, of the Elk restaurant, left yesterday for a few days recreation up the Columbia.

Dr. J. W. Powell, who was rusticated on his farm for the past six weeks, is now at his office again.

Miss Bertha Davis, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. G. M. Strange, returned to Corvallis Friday.

City Engineer H. H. Johnson will leave in about a week for Eastern Oregon to complete an extensive surveying contract.

McLoughlin Cabin No. 4, Native Sons of Oregon, meets the 2nd and 4th Monday evenings at Willamette hall. R. C. Ganong, secretary.

Dr. C. S. Seaman has removed his office to rooms 17 and 17½ in the Charman building. He has also received an ophthalmoscope for testing eyes.

Frank Williams and wife arrived from Oklahoma Tuesday, and will locate here. They left Arkansas City Saturday. Mrs. Williams is a daughter of Charles Gray, of Ely.

Saturday, March 25th, the last auction sale of the Charman stock of general merchandise. Balance of the stock remaining on hand will be removed to our Portland store, Corner of second and Yamhill Sts.

As a result of a school row, Charles Reynolds of Mackburg, was arraigned before Justice Jesse last Friday for assaulting Casper Weismandel. The jury didn't agree and the case was dismissed. The costs amounted to about $50.

The room occupied at the court house by Sheriff Cooke and Deputy Jack is being enlarged by the removal of a closet adjoining the stairway. The improvement will give the sheriff's office some needed space for the transaction of business.

Frank H. Welsh, of Milwaukie, who went to San Francisco with the second detachment of Oregon Volunteers, and was taken ill, has taken the initiative steps toward securing a pension. He was confined for some months in the Presidio hospital, and came home several weeks ago. Later, he received his discharge.

Mrs. Otto Gengelbach, of Clackamas, recently received a letter from her husband, ex-Justice Gengelbach, who is now in the Klondike country. He writes that he is doing well, and owns three promising claims near Dawson City. He has great faith in the country, but says that it is no place for any one who does not want to mine.

Last Saturday evening the Misses Holden gave a delightful cobweb party at their home. The house was a perfect network of gay, colored cords, which the guests unravelled amidst considerable merriment. The prize string had concealed in its end a whisk broom with an appropriate inscription pertaining to cleaning away cobwebs. Refreshments were served.

City Superintendent L. W. McAdam has arranged for a series of lectures before the high school on various topics. Among those who will give addresses are Miss Wilhelmina Joenneke, Judge William Galloway, Eva Emory Dye, President P. L. Campbell, President Hawley and President Chapman. Miss Joenneke will deliver her lecture on Hawaii one week from Saturday night, illustrated by 100 views.

Professors Northrup and Brumback each received a fine cane from Manila last week, the gifts of E. A. Smith, who left his school work at the college to go to the front with his company from Oregon City. Prof. Northrup's stick is one of those fine ebony canes which best becomes a dignified and highly intellectual character. Prof. Brumback's cane is a novelty, being a stick covered with the skin of a snake, and may be prized more highly by a scientist than anyone else.—McMinnville Telephone Register.

The upper Clackamas hatchery, which was operated by the government heretofore, is now under state management, and will be conducted under the direction of State Fish Commissioner McGuire. King Spurgeon, the new superintendent of this hatchery, now has a crew of men cleaning out and improving the old trail. Among the members of the crew are Irvin Wilson, W. B. Webster, W. W. Smith, J. A. Talbert, and J. J. Davis, of Garfield. The hatchery building will be removed to a point across the river, where its capacity will be considerably increased. A half-mile flume from the river will furnish water to the structure for hatching purposes.

In response to many inquiries about the boundary line of the proposed sewer district on the hill, the following is taken from the report of the citizen's sewer committee, H. C. Stevens and T. L. Charman: Beginning at the bluff on 3rd street; thence easterly to Jefferson; thence southerly to Spring; thence easterly on Prospect to Jackson; thence northerly on Jackson to 6th; thence easterly on 6th to a point on prolongation of Polk; thence northerly to intersection of 7th and Polk; thence west on 7th to Jackson; thence north on Jackson to 8th; thence west on 8th to Bluff; thence along Bluff to beginning on 3rd. All blocks abutting held to be in the same block. They also recommend that blocks where there are but one or two houses, that they should not be compelled to connect with the same unless they are along the line or its branches, but they can be left until such time as it may be advisable for them to connect.

Miss Lena Engle, of New Era, is visiting her uncle, Jacob Sagar.

Born in Oregon City, March 22nd, to Mr. and Mrs. V. Harris, a son.

Miss Stella Karten, of Portland, was visiting friends here during the week.

William Husband, a prominent farmer of Liberal, was in town Monday.

Ladies, new lot of wrappers, beautifully trimmed, full measure, at the Racket Store.

Gilbert L. Hejdes has been elected secretary of the Willamette Club by the executive committee.

Pope & Company are putting in a ram for pumping water on Jacob Milley's place in Canby precinct.

Mrs. Stella McReynolds and children returned home to Seattle Tuesday, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Lou Doolittle.

The balance of the grocery and hardware remaining on hand in the Charman stock closed out at half price for the balance of this week.

Lee Harding and Fred Humphreys each wrote home interesting letters, giving accounts of the first battle at Manila with the Filipinos.

Miss A. E. Riding, of Marquam, was in the city Tuesday visiting her cousins, Mrs. Charles Scott and Miss Zoe Shaver.—Woodburn Independent.

Miss Orpha Cosper, who is now employed as a saleslady in Lipman, Wolfe & Co's department store in Portland, was visiting friends here during the week.

The pupils of St. John's school gave an excellent literary and musical entertainment last Thursday night for the benefit of the teachers. The pupils acquitted themselves very creditably. On Friday, St. Patrick's day, special services were held at St. John's church.

Rev. Gilman Parker conducted the dedication services of the new Baptist church at Roseburg Sunday. On Monday he and Rev. W. H. Latourrette gave revival services at Canemah, which are being held every evening. The attendance is very good, and considerable interest is manifested.

A meeting of the bicycle riders of Clackamas county will be held Saturday evening, March 25th at 7:30 p. m. in Justice Schuebel's office, to organize an association of wheelmen to further the interests of all riders in the county, and particularly to choose the most suitable route for the proposed bicycle path. There will be no fees or fines. All riders are invited to attend.

The boys gave an excellent minstrel entertainment at Pope's hall Saturday night for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. building fund. The show was a parody on the Red Men's minstrel performance given at Shively's hall last winter, and the boys acquitted themselves very creditably. They had no printed programs, and the boy who promised to bring around a cast of the characters to this office, has likely gone off with some traveling troupe.

Hoboes do not admire the plan of street work adopted here, and now saunter through the back alleys and streets with extreme caution. In fact, many of them now do not have any stop-over privileges with their through tickets. They don't like work, and there is no other alternative if they loiter in this vicinity. Officer Shaw arrested three hiding in a box car the other night, who were given the usual dose of street work.

Superintendent Hubbard, of the Clackamas hatchery, is having a temporary building constructed below the falls near the old electric station, which will be used for securing steelhead salmon eggs. A reservoir will be made to keep the steelheads until they become ripe, as it is believed that it will be difficult to secure many when the high water comes. He will also receive steelhead eggs from the Salmon river hatchery. Superintendent Hubbard says that this will be his first experiment with steelhead salmon eggs.

The board of school directors of Oregon City school district No. 62, held a meeting Friday night and canvassed the vote polled at the election held on the Monday previous. Charles O. Albright, the newly elected director was sworn in, and Charles H. Caulfield assumed the chairmanship of the board. Miss Olive A. Lovell resigned her position as a teacher in the Barclay school on account of ill health, and Miss Marjorie Cardfield was elected to fill the vacancy. Miss Caulfield has filled the place of supernumerary teacher for several months past.

Miss Ida A. Francis, a well known Clackamas county school teacher, whose home was at Tualatin, Washington county, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. N. Miller, at the head of Seventh street on Friday, March 17th, aged 29 years and 3 months, after an illness of six weeks. She was teaching in the Frog Pond district on the West Side when she was taken ill, and was later taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Miller, where she died with grip attended with other complications. She was buried Sunday in the Ames chapel cemetery near Tigardville, under the auspices of Winona Grange, of which she was a member. The deceased was also a member of Garfield Assembly of Artisans. She was a daughter of Joseph Francis, a well known citizen of Tualatin. Several Oregon City people attended the funeral services.

Mrs. Minerva Hamilton, who died at Salem Tuesday, was a pioneer of 1852, and was aged 74 years, 11 months and 17 days. The funeral took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Isaac Farr, yesterday, and the services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery. The deceased was born in Steuben county, New York, in 1824. In 1842 she was married to Phillip Morris, and in 1852, they crossed the plains and settled here, but later removed to Marion county. Mr. Morris died about 16 years ago. The deceased had been in poor health for some time past, and was taken to Salem for medical treatment. For the past five years she has been residing with her daughter here, Mrs. Farr, the greater portion of the time. She left the following children: Phillip Morris, Beaverton; Mrs. Annis Farr, Oregon City; Albert Morris, Canemah; Mrs. Narcissa Bowers, Canemah; Mrs. Cornelia Hull, Mehama; Edwin Morris, Seattle; also the following step children: Mrs. Elizabeth Arnold, Howell's Prairie, and Douglas Morris, Beaverton.

New Arrivals

Our store is rapidly filling up with all the NOVELTIES for SPRING. This week we are showing the following specialties:

MEN'S COLORED COLLARS

The first that have been shown in Portland and all the rage in New York.

MEN'S FANCY STRIPED HOSE

Our own importation from Germany. Prices range from 25 cents to 75 cents.

MEN'S FANCY FIGURED VESTS

In many new designs. Styles confined to us. Prices $3.00 to $6.00.

Moyer Clothing Company

...The Popular-Price Clothiers...

BEN SELLING, Manager.

THIRD and OAK STREETS

Rev. E. S. Bollinger went to Salem Tuesday for a short visit.

Charles O. Nelson, of Needy, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Miss Sadie White, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. O. Willey.

W. H. H. Wade, one of the prominent citizens of Carrinsville, was in town Monday.

Born at Clackamas Heights, Thursday morning, March 23rd, to the wife of J. L. Clark, a son.

Miss Ruth Cowing, who was visiting Mrs. Noble Heath at La Camas, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie, was visiting her daughter, Miss Mary Conyers, during the week.

Captain L. L. Pickett was sick in the hospital when the last letter was received, but not seriously.

The Mollie Adelia Brown Concert Company gave a very creditable entertainment at the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening.

Miss Inez Adair, of Noble, who had been visiting her sisters, Mrs. G. A. Heinz and Miss E. C. Adair, for several weeks past, returned home Tuesday.

Philip Roos and family, who recently arrived from New York City, have moved into the Wishart house on the corner of Washington and Seventh streets.

Men's and boys' suits and hats and men's and boys' shoes at your own price the balance of this week, to save removal, at the closing out sale of the Charman stock. Positively the last week of the sale.

Mrs. J. Doremus was given a pleasant surprise party Tuesday evening. The guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. McKillican and planned the details. Music, games and refreshments were features.

Several hoboes, who were serving out sentences for vagrancy, did a good job cleaning up the mud on upper Seventh street under the direction of Street Commissioner Bradley. The regular street force have since continued in the good work.

On Thursday evening the Endeavor society of the Congregation church gave a profitable entertainment for the benefit of the new Y. M. C. A. building fund. On Wednesday evening the Presbyterian society gave a successful entertainment for the same purpose.

M. Hosford, of Canby, was in town Wednesday. He is very busy now buying and shipping potatoes to the San Francisco market, and he is securing all that he can find in Clackamas county. The prices paid are from $10 to $14.00 per sack, and Mr. Hosford prophesies that potatoes will be a great scarcity in Clackamas county before the new crop comes in.

The second number of the semi-centennial history of Oregon bulletin, issued by the university of Oregon, has been received at this office. It contains a valuable article by Professor F. G. Young on explorations northward, illustrated with maps. Eva Emory Dye gives a beautifully written dissertation on the "Hudson's Bay Company's Regime in the Bay Country," and pays a splendid tribute to Dr. John McLoughlin. These bulletins will prove to be valuable records of Oregon's history.

Teams from the Bolton Literary Society and the Y. M. C. A. met at the former place last Saturday night to discuss the question, "Resolved that War has Civilized the Human Race." The affirmative was represented by Samuel Stevens, Leighton Kelly, Claude Simpson and Frank West, of the Y. M. C. A., and the negative by Jacob Tompkins, Arthur Gallogly, Henry Cramer and M. A. Magone. The judges, Thomas Gibb, Charles E. Shannon and J. F. Jack decided that the Boltons were the winners in the debate. Professor Gary was chairman of the meeting.

On Monday Mayor Latourrette made the following order countersigned by C. Schuebel, Frank Busch and F. A. Metzner, committee on streets and public property: By virtue of the authority of section 4, of ordinance 1, of Oregon City, I hereby declare all streets, except Main street, impassable for bicycles, and hereby grant permission to cyclists to use all sidewalks within the city, except, exception Main street, but strictly enjoin them from riding thereon at a greater speed than three miles per hour, and that when meeting a pedestrian, they must stop and dismount.

Mrs. W. M. Shank, of Canby, was visiting here yesterday.

H. A. Allen, a well known citizen of Viola, was in town Wednesday.

There was reported to have been three inches of snow at Eagle creek Tuesday morning.

Miss Rose Scott, of Milwaukie, left yesterday for California, where she will spend the summer.

Cass Young left Monday for Dufur, Wasco county, where he will work on a stock ranch. He was accompanied by George Ware, of Canemah.

George Himler, of Parkplace, has returned from a trip to Five Islands up the Willamette, where he was planting cottonwood trees for the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company.

Company F are making some improvements in the interior arrangements of the armory. A partition is being removed and a room fitted up for officer's quarters. There will be an inspection next Monday night and some of the department officers are expected to be present.

The following new divorce cases have been filed in the circuit court since last week: Charles Grieg vs Helen Grieg, L. R. Barber vs M. J. Barber, Mabel Hilliard vs Fred Hilliard, Carrie I. Burley vs W. H. Burley, Hattie Marra vs J. W. Marra, Berta L. Hensel vs James B. Hensel, Nellie Oliver vs Joseph Oliver.

The Molalla Dramatic Company will give a grand spectacular, histrionic entertainment at the new school house on Saturday night, April 3rd. Among the farces and dramas to be presented are "Tarn Him Out," "Under the Laurel," and "Scenes in a Sanctuary." The general admission will be 25 cents, and the proceeds will go to the organ fund.

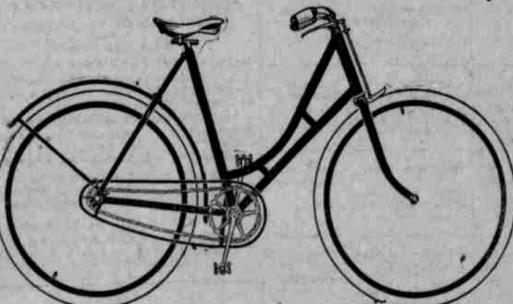

David Haab, a cook who recently arrived from Portland, was arrested by Officer Shaw Monday evening on a charge of assaulting a little daughter of Mrs. Ramsby. He was arraigned before Justice Schuebel, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty of simple assault. Justice Schuebel sentenced Haab to 25 days in the county jail. If the stories told of the assault be true, the jury let Haab down very easy.

The annual meeting of the Willamette Savings & Loan Association was held Monday night. The following board of directors and ex-officio officers were elected: E. G. Caulfield, president; W. A. Huntley, vice-president; R. Koerner, A. W. Franco, L. L. Porter, H. E. Straight, E. E. Olan, and Thomas F. Ryan. G. B. Dimick was elected secretary, and the Bank of Oregon City, treasurer. C. H. Caulfield, Max Bollack and A. W. Cheney were elected auditors.

Ask for Green Trading Stamps with every cash purchase and you will be surprised how soon your book will be full. The Portland Trading Stamp Co. have over a thousand very attractive, valuable and useful articles to select from. Bear in mind the merchants whose names are below will make no advance in the prices of their goods, but, on the contrary, they will sell cheaper. You can procure Green Trading Stamps from Hiram Straight, the grocer; E. J. McKillican, boots and shoes; O. G. Huntley, druggist; W. L. Block, Oregon City Auction House; Misses Goldsmith, millinery; Chesney's Art Gallery, and E. A. Brady, wines and liquors. The Green Trading stamps is collected in over two hundred cities of the United States.

The Humane Society will give prizes to the pupils of the schools in Oregon City, Canemah, Willamette Falls, Mount Pleasant and Parkplace on the following subjects: Compositions should be from four to six pages in length: "The Rights of Animals and the Protection we Should Give." Native Birds of Oregon; Influence of Humane Education; Importance of Early Lessons in Kindness; Ways in which the Tight Check-Rein Affect Horses; The Value of Birds and How the Birds Help the Farmers; Examples of Animal Intelligence. The prizes will be awarded to children between the ages 6 and 10, 10 and 15 and over 15. Each composition must be signed by the pupil's fictitious name, the school and age of the writer; also at the same time in a separate envelope the writer's real and fictitious name. These should all be addressed to Dr. W. E. Carril, chairman of the committee on awards. The other members of the committee are Mrs. R. A. Miller and Rev. A. J. Montgomery. All essays must be in the hands of the chairman at 6 a. m., April 28th.

Largest Stock of BICYCLES in Clackamas County

WE SELL
The Victor, Stearns, Rambler, Ideal, Golden Eagle
ON EASY PAYMENTS
Prices for 1899 Chain Wheels, $25 to $50
Chainless - $60 to $75
BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN
THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS