Building Notes.

No building boom has yet started here, but several new structures are under way, and more new buildings will be erected.

M. L. Bussard, who recently arrived from Eugene, is completing a new feed shed 67x104 feet on the property opposite Major Charman's store building on Main street. It will be provided with offices, ladies' toilets, etc., all fitted up with modern conveniences. This will be great a convenience to farmers, who desire to feed their own teams.

County Judge Ryan is building a barn on his premises to cost about $300. It will be substantially constructed, and can be changed into dwelling, if desired.

George H. Wishart is building a new cottage on Adams street near Seventh, to be occupied by himself.

H. T. Sladen is making preparations to build a new cottage at Gladstone between his residence and the electric line.

Robert Schuibel has completed a new cottage on Madison street between Seventh and Eighth.

W. H. Savage is completing a dwelling at Ely.

Lumber is on the ground to construct a stage in the upper story of the Mount Pleasant school house. It is to be fitted up as a hall for public gatherings, etc., the lower room affording sufficient room for school purposes.

Fraternal Notes.

The Artisans initiated 14 new members at the last regular meeting.

Ten new members have been added to Lawton Command No. 1, Union Veteran's Union.

The Willamette Rebekah degree lodge, I. O. O. F., gave a social at their hall last Friday evening.

The Woodmen of the World gave a grand open meeting and entertainment at Weinhard's hall Saturday night. There was at least 500 people in the hall, and many went away unable to gain admission. The orchestra played several selections; Mrs. W. B. Wiggins sang a solo, Eugene Kennedy gave a comic recitation; Mrs. I. D. Taylor and Prof. T. J. Gary recited "Old Chums," and W. S. U'Ren made a short address.

Head Organizer George K. Rogers, of California, who was to have been the orator of the evening, was unable to leave Portland on account of illness, and his place was filled by City Attorney Long of Portland. He delivered an excellent address on Woodcraft, and was frequently applauded. Seven ladies entered the nail-driving contest, and for a brief space of time the sound of hammers filled the hall. Mrs. W. O. Green won the first prize, a set of chinaware, and Mrs. M. Lutz carried off the booby prize.

At the afternoon session the pupils of the Milwaukee school gave a short program. After a song by the school, Sadie James gave a recitation, "Guilty, or Not Guilty?" and Sarah Rogers sang a solo. S. T. Adams, Mrs. L. M. Hodge and H. T. Evans were elected members of the association.

The association had invitations to hold its next regular monthly meeting on the fourth Saturday in April from Oswego, Parkplace and Harmony. Harmony was withdrawn and Parkplace was selected as the place for the next gathering.

Resolutions in respect to the memory of the late county superintendent, H. S. Strange, were passed.

County Superintendent A. P. Armstrong, of Portland, gave practical demonstrations of how to solve problems in mathematics and explained the intricacies of bank discounts.

Professor Burnham gave some practical ideas on teaching grammar.

Milwaukee has an excellent two-story school building with modern appointments and well-selected library. At present only two teachers are employed,
