"Durability is Better Than Show."
The wealth of the multi-millionaires is not equal to good health. Riches without health are a curse, and yet the rich, the middle classes and the poor alike have, in Hood's Sarsaparilla, a valuable assistant in getting and maintaining perfect health. It never disappoints.

Scrofula - "Three years ago our son, now eleven, had a serious case of scrofula and erysipelas with dreadful sores, discharging and itching constantly. He could not walk. Several physicians did not help for sixteen months. Three months' treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla made him perfectly well. We are glad to tell others of it." Mrs. DAVID LARD, Ottawa, Kansas.
Nausea - "Vomiting spells, dizziness and prostration troubled me for years. Had neuralgia, grew weak and could not sleep. My age was against me, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me thoroughly. My weight increased from 125 to 145 pounds. I am the mother of nine children. Never felt so well and strong since I was married as I do now." Mrs. M. A. WATERS, 1529 33d St., Washington, D. C.
Eczema - "We had to tie the hands of our two year old son on account of eczema on face and limbs. No medicine even helped until we used Hood's Sarsaparilla, which soon cured." Mrs. A. VAN WYCK, 123 Montgomery Street, Paterson, N. J.

Hood's Pills cure liver ill; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Sewer Question.

OREGON CITY, April 3.
Editor Courier-Herald—Dear Sir: The writer on the sewer question who signs himself "W. C." has got it bad. He talks about sickening, nauseating filth, reeking, revolting, demoralizing, vandalizing, etc., ad libitum.

Where is Street Commissioner Bradley? or he would have been out with his hose to flush this W. C.
But, seriously speaking, sir, the writer should visit the drug store at once for a draught, and nothing short of croton oil would be sufficient.

No wonder at the following maudling sentiments: "Health and wealth are independent of each other...Sickness and poverty are also largely dependent on each other...Oh, it makes me sick to think of it; and all this in our beautiful Oregon City; IN OUR BEAUTIFUL OREGON CITY!"

In the words of the immortal Bumble, we would say "Don't think of it then."
But there is more:
"Financially, the engineer and committee whose duty it was to make accurate surveys and estimates have performed that duty carefully, and it can be done for $43 per lot."

What gush! The committee vouching for the estimates! Why, the chairman disclaimed the least knowledge of sewerage, and the engineer (God save the mark) simply made a guess at it. An expert in stone work claims that $12 to $15 would only be a fair estimate for Center street alone, without the pipe.

In the bottom, with small pipes, through short range and all the excavations in sand, where every lot is occupied, the cost has been heavy, but it is to approach to what it would be on the hill, where large pipes would be laid, largely in the rocks, and the population is not thick enough to bear the expense without proving, in some cases, pure confiscation.

Any one with a nose to hold may soon know that the hill is sweetest itself compared to the bottom, where they already have sewage pipes and where infectious disease is always most prevalent.

A moderate expenditure on street improvement and surface drainage is needed on the hill far more than sewage pipes.
AROMA.

Copy of Letter to Canby Paper.

Oregon City, April 3rd.
Mr. J. D. Stevens, Editor Independent.

Dear Sir: I cannot think that you have a deliberate intention of misrepresenting either Mr. Stout or myself, but in your last issue a statement is repeated which is an absolute and unqualified falsehood, as follows:

"Mr. Hargreaves says that anything at the Falls were not assessed at other than their proportionate value," and "if, as Mr. Hargreaves says, 'the other factories were favored, &c.'"—and in another article: "The people whom Mr. Stout favored and Hargreaves is apologizing for, are gold standard."

I defy any one to show any statement of election or announcement that I have made which will support you in charging me with the above. If, with my open letter before you, you can gather absolutely false charges, to force an argument against Mr. Stout, there is no question of your ability to assume a superior knowledge of the assessor's business to his discredit. My sentiments are two well known to be charged with favoring either gold standard or silver standard men of wealth in paying taxes. It is reckless misrepresentation to say I apologized for the P. G. E. Co., or anyone else, on their taxation. I would have every cent legally due, and would Mr. Stout. It is only the question of who knows the business of assessing best.
Respectfully yours,
G. E. Hargreaves.

D. Via Zeyman, farmer, New Era.
J. Q. Elliott, merchant, Damascus.
Ben F. Linn, millman, Beaver Creek.

Press Clippings.

Woodburn Independent: The Odd Fellows are pardonably proud of the beautiful altar made by E. H. Wright and the handsome pedestals made by O. A. Nendel for their fine lodgeroom.

Roseburg Review: Horticultural Commissioner J. R. Casey visited Medford yesterday and starts out this week for an inspection trip through Josephine, Douglas and other counties in his district.

Milton Eagle: Mr. C. J. McKinzie has been awarded the contract by the postal department for carrying the mail between the O. R. & N. depot and the Milton postoffice, he being the lowest bidder.

Moro Observer: The Moro Commercial Club has been reorganized. F. E. Brown, president; E. E. Lytle, vice-president; A. C. Stanford, treasurer; I. J. Kaffer, secretary. Rooms are being fitted up in the basement of the opera-house.

Albany Democrat: The Astoria Building & Loan Association has sold its business to the Equitable Building & Loan Association, of Portland, which is the same as the Butte company which owns the business of the Albany company.

Port Orford Tribune: Bagley brothers shipped several tons of Burbank potatoes to San Francisco by the Arcata, recently, and were well pleased with returns. It is something unusual for potatoes to be shipped from this vicinity to California.

Duffer Dispatch: The present outlook for the future harvest is indeed promising. The nights, although somewhat chilly, do not seem to interfere with the growing grain to any extent, and what looked so discouraging at the first has turned out, as it were, to be a blessing in disguise.

Union Scout: Mr. Martin, of the Park, reports feed scarce in that locality and says the settlers have generally turned their stock out to do the best they can. He thinks that horses will generally "pull through," but a large percentage of cattle will be unable to survive the struggle for existence.

Dallas Observer: Messrs. Suitor & Thurston are filling an order for 200,000 feet of lumber this week. The bill consists of heavy timbers and finished lumber. One hundred and sixty thousand feet goes to the California market. The mill is running at its full capacity, with plenty of orders ahead.

Hepner Gazette: On Monday evening at their regular meeting the Elks' election of officers took place as follows: Exalted ruler, S. W. Spencer; esteemed leading knight, R. F. Hynd; esteemed loyal knight, Henry Blackman; esteemed lecturing knight, Frank Roberts; secretary, James Hart; treasurer, Frank Gilliam, and trustee, M. B. Metzler.

Albany Herald: About 50 workmen on the Upper Willamette are cutting and rafting logs to Oregon City for the Spaulding Logging Company, of Newberg. Camps of loggers are at work at Harrisburg the head of the Little Willamette and mouth of the Santiam, and the steamers Gray Eagle and Valley Queen are towing the rafts down the river. The timber is for the paper mills, and balm and white fir are the only kinds used.

Word From G. T. Watts.

A letter has just been received from G. T. Watts, who is in Alaska, dated Jan. 30. He was then at Fort Selkirk and had just recovered from an attack of the scurvy, having cured himself by using tomatoes and lime juice.

He says: "I walked 140 miles to Fort Selkirk and drew my sled as I went. I am going to return to my claim on the Pelly river in the morning. My provisions will last me until July."

He had received none of the letters that had been written to him. If prospects are not brighter soon, we may look for him home again next fall.
ENMA WATTS.

Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Meyer celebrated their silver jubilee or 25th wedding anniversary at St. John's Catholic church Wednesday morning. Solemn high mass was observed, conducted by Father Hillebrand assisted as follows: Celebrant, Rev. James Raaw; deacon, Rev. A. Bolla; sub deacon, Rev. L. A. LeMiller; master of ceremonies, Rev. James Raaw, who preached an eloquent sermon. There was a program of music rendered and delicious refreshments served at the banquet at their residence at 9 p. m. The following were guests at the banquet: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Meyer, Rev. A. Hillebrand, Rev. James Raaw, Portland; Rev. L. A. Le Miller, New Era; Mr. and Mrs. R. Give the Newspaper Men of the East Something to Write and Think About.

The official editorial souvenir to be published for the visiting editors promises to be the finest description of the Northwest ever published, and Oregon City will be well represented by a full-page illustration of the factories and falls, a page of five or six views grouped and three pages of descriptive reading matter. Among the principal subscribers to this fund are:

- The Oregon City Bank, Commercial Bank, Crown Paper Mills, N. B. Lang (Willamette Paper and Pulp Mills), Oregon City Enterprise, Courier-Herald, Oregon City Press, and others.

When waited upon by the committee don't fail to help the newspaper boys along. Oregon City is one of the chief attractions we have to offer our thousand guests who are representatives of our ten thousand newspapers throughout the United States.

Township Road System.

Editor Courier-Herald: If you will give us space in your columns, I think we should express our ideas on the road question, no matter how feeble the ideas may be.

I have been asked what the New England township system is. I cannot quote the law as it is written in the statute; I can only say that I once lived in northern Wisconsin and saw the road system in operation. Each township was a road district and a voting precinct, in which they had three road supervisors, a town clerk, assessor and treasurer, the treasurer collecting the taxes. They held what they called a town meeting every spring, and there decided by vote how much money they needed for road purposes. The work was let in small or large contracts to the lowest bidder. I can say that I know from actual observation that under that system they had good roads in ten years from the time the first settler blazed a trail through the swamp to get in to a good body of land.

We here pay 4 or 5 mills road tax and some people work twice as much more. Would it not be better to double our road tax and give us the privilege of working half of it out on the road? The man that donates work would not object I think.

I am not in favor of going into debt to build roads. In our private affairs, every shrewd business man will advise us to keep out of debt. If we cannot afford to go into debt to make needed private improvements, in my judgment, neither can we afford to go into debt to make public improvements. At present everything we raise on the farm brings a fair price excepting wheat. If prices will remain as good for ten years as they are at present, it might be safe for us to go into debt to build roads, but what guarantee have we that it will not take twice as much produce to pay the debt when it is due as when it is contracted? The Populists have declared, and stick to it, that the purchasing power of the dollar is too great. It has lost its purchasing power to some extent under this republican administration. To the extent that it has lost its purchasing power the farmers are benefited. Is there any one so foolish as to believe that any action of the present administration raised prices, or that prices will stay up under a continuance of the gold standard? STEPHEN HUTCHINSON. Highland, April 4.

Will often cause a horrible burn, scald, cut or bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures old sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, felons, corns, all skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Geo. A. Harding, druggist.

Blue River Mines Road.

From F. Sparks, of Blue River, who was in town today, we learn that five miles of the road from the McKenzie wagon road to the Blue River mining district is finished.

Easy grades and a fair width of road-bed have been made, and it will be no trouble hereafter to reach the quartz district with loaded wagons. The road has been completed to the snow line, leaving but one-half mile unfinished. The work on that portion is not of a heavy character, and can soon be attended to whenever the summer sun melts the snow.—Eugene Guard.

To Cure Constipation Force.

Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic 10c or 25c. If C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

Notice to Farmers

I have erected on south side of Main St., near Woolen Mills, Oregon City, a feed yard for the benefit of the public with first-class toilet and waiting room for the ladies.
My prices are as follows: Stall room for team 10c, single rig 10c, saddle horse 5c. Also horses kept by the day, week or month. Barn room to rest by the month, also corral for loose stock. Feed always on hand.
