

Tailor-made Suits And Separate Skirts

We have placed on sale an elegant collection of tailor-made suits and tailor-made separate skirts in an endless variety of colors, and every garment guaranteed a perfect fit.

We Sell the Suits Close

We don't ask you an enormous profit on our goods. Examine closely and compare our prices with prices asked by our competitors for similar goods, and you'll be convinced we give better values and better goods than any dry goods house in the city.

See Our New Lines

of 45, 50, 55, 75, 85c and $1 yard colored dress goods—the best lines of spring dress goods ever placed on sale for the money on the American continent. See our celebrated lines of black silk crepons, which are superior to any black lines ever shown in the city.

McAllen & McDonnell

Leading Dress Goods House of the Northwest
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Joel Jarl, postmaster at Garfield, was a visitor in town Saturday.

J. O. Richardson, of Redland, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Captain T. F. Cowing returned Tuesday from a visit to Astoria.

Mrs. S. S. Mohler and children are home from a visit to Vancouver.

John McGinnis made a visit to the Bridal Veil paper mills Monday.

J. W. Brown, postmaster at Logan, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. G. B. Dimick returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives at Needy.

T. M. Baker, a well known citizen of Wilsonville, was in town Tuesday.

August Kreuger, a prominent farmer of Eagle creek, was in town Monday.

Road Supervisor E. L. Baker, of Wilsonville, was a visitor in town Saturday.

Charles U. Wilson succeeds Harry T. Sladen as clerk in Latourette's law office.

Miss Ora Spangler returned Sunday from a short visit to her parents at Corvallis.

William Buchmann, constable of Darnus precinct, was a visitor here during the week.

Miss Ana Baird, of Portland, was visiting her sister, Mrs. A. S. Dresser, during the week.

Walter Holcomb and family, who live up the Clackamas, were visitors here Saturday.

Miss Effie Croeno and Miss Comer, of Portland, were visiting Mrs. B. F. Swope, Sunday.

C. C. Robbins, of McMinnville, was visiting relatives here during the early part of the week.

R. W. Fletcher and bride, or Pendleton, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson, Saturday.

Captain J. T. Apperson was in town today, and went to Corvallis.—Capital Journal of Saturday.

Rev. E. S. Rollinger has been attending the Congregational Association at Portland during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Weismantel, of Macksburg, were visiting relatives here during the early part of the week.

W. H. Johnson, brother of E. L. Johnson, left Tuesday for Aberdeen, Wash., where he will accept a position.

Ed Howell left Friday for Portland, where he has accepted a position with the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

Miss Edith Lang, of Oakland, Calif., who was visiting her brother, Norman R. Lang, for several weeks, has returned home.

J. Tong, a prominent citizen and school director, living near Damascus, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday.

Mrs. Susan McKee left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif., anticipating that a change of climate will prove beneficial to her health.

Major T. C. Bell, of Portland, who was formerly principal of the public schools here, was visiting old friends in Oregon City Sunday.

R. W. Zimmerman, the Aurora harness maker, accompanied by his uncle, C. Zimmerman, were visitors in Oregon City Tuesday.

Professor O. Gardner, principal of the normal school at Cove, Union county, was visiting Clackamas county, during the past week.

Fish Commissioner F. C. Reed went to the upper Clackamas hatchery Tuesday, to inspect the site of the proposed new hatchery.

Sam L. Hayden, of Viola, who has been working for the Southern Pacific in Portland for several months past, was in town Monday.

Miss Minnie Warren, a nurse at the Sunnyside hospital until that institution closed down, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Stevens.

David Lewis and J. R. Jones returned Friday from California, where they have been mining for several months past, and are now at Carus.

A. J. Sawtell, the well known pioneer tassel maker of Molalla, was in town Monday and Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Sawtell.

Colonel J. B. Eddy moved his family in his country place up the Willamette Monday, and is now occupying Mrs. McKee's house on Jackson street.

George H. Himes, of Portland, was here during the week in the interest of Oregon Historical Society, securing new members and collecting historical relics. He has in possession some written documents pertaining to the formation of the territorial government in Oregon City.

Mrs. Noble Heath, of Bridal Veil, who was visiting Mrs. J. M. Mark, during the week, accompanied by Mrs. Heath, will leave in a few days for France. Mr. Heath's mission there is to erect some paper-making machinery for eastern manufacturers, to be placed on exhibition at the Paris exposition.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Come and see "Old Maids Made Over" at Shively's May 12th.

Lot and house on Westside, Oregon City, to trade for horses, at C. H. office.

A cottage prayer meeting was held at the home of Professor J. C. Zinner, Tuesday evening.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Strong, died Sunday morning after a protracted illness.

Miss Josephine Peabody has removed her kindergarten school to more roomy quarters in the Shively building on the Madison street side.

The Caneah and West Side baseball players met last Sunday and had an exciting game. The West Side were victors by a score of 27 to 16.

W. H. Burghardt has filed a petition for bankruptcy in the United States court, and asks to be relieved of debts amounting to $2625 95, with no assets.

Last Friday County Treasurer Jacob Shade forwarded to the state treasurer at Salem, $10,000 of the $23,000 taxes due the state from Clackamas county.

T. L. Turner, of Stafford, who was attending circuit court as a jurymen, received word last Thursday, of the death of his brother, John Turner, at Dayton, Wash.

Master Joseph Sheehan gave a party Tuesday afternoon to a number of his young friends in honor of fifth birthday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sheehan.

The entertainment given by the Chicago Ladies Quartette at the Congregational church Saturday night, was the best of the season, and deserved a much larger house than was present.

Rev. Trumble, of Astoria, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Sunday at 4 p. m., to young men. He will also conduct the devotional services at the Baptist church, morning and evening.

John Trombini, of Stafford, aged 25, was examined before the county judge Wednesday, and was committed to the asylum. He is subject to epileptic fits, having a hard one while in the court room.

The Foresters are making arrangements to present a drama, "Daniel in the Lions' Den," at Shively's May 9th, the day on which the grand court convenes. Portland Foresters, principally, will take the parts in the drama.

The run of salmon has been very light since the season begun, although chinook are becoming more numerous during the past few days. The catch of steelheads has been very light at Superintendent Hubbard's sub-station at the falls.

Employees of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company have purchased the bowling alley plant owned by J. W. Cole, and will install it in a new building now being erected on the westside. The boys will use the bowling for their own amusement.

The continued late rains have interfered considerably with spring gardening as well as delaying the sowing of spring wheat. Hops are making a fine growth, and there is promise of a good crop of fruit, notwithstanding the shortage caused by the heavy freeze in February.

Harry T. Sladen was examined before County Judge Ryan and Dr. Carl Monday, and was pronounced insane. It is presumed that overwork, causing insomnia, caused his mind to become temporarily unbalanced. It is believed that a brief course of treatment and rest will effect a permanent cure.

Harry Clark did a good job cleaning up Seventh street between Main and the railroad track. He received $2 per day for the work and board. However he was only working out "old horse," to square a fine of $16 imposed by the police court for fighting and riotous conduct on the streets last Sunday.

David Goodrich, a well known citizen of Clackamas, fell dead Sunday morning. Coroner Strickland was summoned, but upon examination found that his death was due to natural causes. The deceased was 83 years old, a native of Massachusetts, and a resident in this county for 23 years. He left two sons and two daughters.

Several good sales in farm property have been made in Clackamas county of late. Alfred Clarke, of Harmony, has sold his 90 acre farm to a party from Los Angeles for $85 per acre. The Los Angeles man wanted a climate where there is more rain. Jacob Powell, of Clackamas, recently sold 15 acres in Clackamas Riverside to Boyd L. Knoll, of Portland, for $1200.

Louis Himler secured possession of his boat and net last Saturday, recently seized by Deputy Fish Commissioner Morgan. He filed a replevin suit in Justice Schuebel's court, and put up a bond to recover possession of the seized articles. Deputy Fish Commissioner, M. G. Morgan, who was fined $25 by Justice Schuebel for the larceny of Himler's boat, has appealed the case to the circuit court.

Benefits to the People who Purchase their Clothing of Us

YOU GET THE BENEFIT

Of our advanced ideas in styles. We are ever wide awake to the requirements of the trade. We keep our finger on the public pulse, and with our experience and present facilities are enabled to supply the right thing at the right time.

YOU GET THE BENEFIT

Of our reputation for using only dependable materials. Our garments are made of honest goods. This has been and always will be our strongest claim for your patronage.

YOU GET THE BENEFIT

Of our extensive lines, which are made up of clothing in such variety as to supply all demands and carried in such quantities as to insure you a perfect fit in any style you may select.

YOU GET THE BENEFIT

Of making your selections in the lightest and brightest clothing store in the city.

YOU GET THE BENEFIT

Of MODERATE PRICES for high-class clothing for men and boys.

WE INVITE YOUR INSPECTION OF OUR SPRING STYLES

Our salesmen will accord you every consideration, and no obligation to purchase is incurred by paying us a visit.

Moyer Clothing Company

...The Popular-Price Clothiers...

BEN SELLING, Manager.

THIRD and OAK STREETS

SCHOOL GOSSIP.

Matters of an Educational Nature.

Active preparations are being made for the regular monthly meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association to be held at Parkplace next Saturday. In addition to the excellent literary program—Mrs. Dye's lecture on Oregon history and other numbers, several musical selections will be presented.

On Saturday County Superintendent N. W. Bowland appointed Professor O. H. Byland, of Carus, a member of the county board of school examiners.

Miss Bessie Wells, a teacher in the Portland schools, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. H. Wells, teacher of the New Era school.

Clyde Marquam, will teach in the Quinn district, near Molalla.

Last week Miss Mattie Telferson completed a term of school in district No. 51.

Ex-County Superintendent Alex. Thomson begins another term of school in the Leland district next Monday.

There are now complete lists of the district clerks and boards of directors which can be secured at the county superintendent's office.

G. Vanderhoof, of Sandy, was at the county superintendent's office Monday, and filed a petition with Deputy Mrs. Strange, asking that a fourth district be formed out of districts 66, 16 and 42 in the Sandy country. Mr. Vanderhoof's petition contains 31 names of legal voters residing in the three districts, and the change is desired on account of the fact that many of the children have a long distance to walk to school on account of the present boundaries of the districts named, No. 66 being 20 miles in length. If the petition is granted, it is probable that the new school house will be built on the Phillip Moore homestead.

The Lower Logan school will give a public entertainment and basket social at Harding grange hall, Saturday evening, May 6th. The exercises will consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, dialogues and tableaux. The object of the entertainment is to raise funds for the purchase of a bell for the school building. Everybody is cordially invited to come, and the ladies are requested to bring baskets. The exercises will begin at 8 p. m.

The following class of nine will graduate from the Canby public school, the diplomas having already been issued by the county superintendent: Ralph Knight, Esther Knight, Cordelia Stevens, Yeva Knight, Ivan Dimick, Grace Hampton, Mabel Knight, Vesta Knight and Vera Mack.

AMONG THE LODGES.

Interesting Events in Fraternal Circles.

An open meeting of Clackamas Lodge No. 57, was held in the Congregational church at Clackamas Saturday night. A large number of Workmen and others were present. Grandmaster Herrin, of Salem, and Grand Secretary Newton Clark, of Portland, were present and made stirring addresses. The A. O. U. W. lodge at Aurora, also held an open meeting in Pioneer hall Saturday night. Fully 250 people were present, and an eloquent address was made on Workmanship by ex-County Judge Gordon E. Hayes. Next Monday night Falls City Lodge will pay a fraternal visit to Industry Lodge in Portland. Other Workman lodges in Clackamas county are invited to join the excursion. A round trip rate of 25 cents has been secured over the electric line, and the public are invited to join the excursion.

Meade Post No. 18, G. A. R., has changed its meeting night from Wednesday evenings to the first Monday night in each month at Willamette hall.

Fifty-six plates were set for the Odd Fellows banquet at the Brunswick restaurant last week on account of the Portland visitors to Falls View Encampment.

F. T. Rogers, John Lewellen, of Springwater, and J. A. Ridings, of Marquam, were among the Clackamas county delegates, who attended the grand camp of Maccabees in Portland.

There was a very interesting meeting of McLoughlin Cabin No. 4. Native Sons of Oregon, Monday night. Grand President J. C. Leasure, Grand Secretary Eugene D. White, Grand Trustees Sol Blumauer and T. C. Belcher and William Wolfe, of Abernethy Cabin, all of Portland, were in attendance. G. B. Dimick and Charles Meldrum were initiated as new members. President Leasure named a dozen new cabins that would be instituted during the next two weeks. The members of McLoughlin Cabin were invited to attend a reception of the native daughters, to be given by Abernethy cabin in Portland next Tuesday evening. It is expected to have 1,000 Native Sons in the procession on pioneer day, June 15th. The native daughters will also have a prominent place in the procession.

Head Organizer Rogers, of California, of the Pacific jurisdiction, Woodmen of the World, will give a free lecture one week from Saturday night at Weinhard's hall. The local lodge of Woodmen are making great preparations for the event, and will provide an excellent literary and musical program.

Largest Stock of BICYCLES In Clackamas County

WE SELL
The Victor, Stearns, Rambler, Ideal, Golden Eagle
ON EASY PAYMENTS
Prices for 1899 - Chain Wheels, $25 to $50
Chainless - $60 to $75
BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN
THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

Teachers' Notice.

Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county school superintendent thereof will hold a public examination at the court house, Oregon City, Oregon, Wednesday, May 10th, commencing at 1 o'clock P. M. Applications for state papers will be received Thursday, May 11, 1899, at 9 o'clock A. M.

The following program will be followed during the May examination of applicants for county and state papers: Wednesday—penmanship, history, spelling. Thursday—written arithmetic, theory of teaching, grammar. Friday—geography, mental arithmetic, reading, physiology, composition, English literature, physical geography, Oregon school law, general history, algebra, book-keeping. Dated this 17th day of April 1899.

N. W. BOWLAND,
County School Superintendent, Clackamas County, Oregon.

Sealed Bids.

Sealed bids will be received by the board of county commissioners of Clackamas county for the construction of a queen truss bridge on Upper Eagle Creek, about ten miles above Eagle Creek postoffice, said bridge to be a 72-foot span, with a bent 10 feet high on the south end and one 8 feet high on the north end. Said bridge to be built of good, sound material and in a workmanlike manner.

Bids to be opened May 31, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the board of commissioners.

ELMER DIXON, Clerk.

By E. H. COOPER, Deputy.

Sealed Bids.

Sealed bids will be received by the board of county commissioners of Clackamas county for a physician who will furnish all medicines, medical attendance, appliances, and perform all surgical operations for the county poor and inmates of the county jail from May 6th, 1899, until July 21, 1900. Bids to be opened May 4th, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the board of commissioners.

ELMER DIXON, Clerk.

By E. H. COOPER, Deputy.

COUNTY TREASURER'S NOTICE.

I have now in my hands funds applicable to the payment of road warrants endorsed prior to April 13th, 1899. Interest will cease on same from the date of this notice.

JACOB SHADE,
County Treasurer
Clackamas County, Or.

N. Y. World and Courier-Herald $1.75

Bicycle Bells, 10.
Bicycle Pumps, 20.
Cyclometers, 45.
Grips, 5.
Pedals, per pair, $1.25.
Locks, 25.

All other bicycle sundries at equally low prices at Huntley's book store, Oregon City.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY WARRANTS.

We pay a premium for warrants. It will be to your interest to get our price before selling.

The Bank of Oregon City.

For Sale—Cheap for cash; good farm, 48½ acres, 20 in cultivation, balance mostly slashed, good pasture, good buildings, 1½ miles from both Liberal and Molalla. Inquire of John Lotz, Liberal, Oregon, or at COURIER-HERALD office.

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md."