Not Civilized Warfare.

New York, May 29.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

"Information received here in private letters from officers serving in the Philippines state the Filipinos show no respect to the American dead. In one instance an officer who was on the firing line says he was shocked to see three bodies of American soldiers who had been killed in an advance and were brought within the American lines badly mutilated. The ears of each of the corpses had been removed, the noses cut off and the hearts torn out.

"Such mutilation disproves Aguinaldo's claim that the insurgents are conducting a civilized warfare. The American troops give the Philippine dead a decent burial and provide every comfort and medical treatment possible for the wounded."

Will Call on King George.

HONG KONG, May 30.—Since his arrival here Admiral Dewey has improved in health, though he still refuses all invitations of a social nature. The admiral has also relinquished his official duty on board the Olympia. The date of his departure for home is still uncertain, his intention being to remain here until he has thoroughly recuperated. The programme for the Olympia's voyage to the United States is not definitely decided upon. It has been determined, however, to make a stop at the Piraeus, from which port Dewey will go to Athens, there to pay his respects to King George of Greece. The Olympia is being painted white instead of the dark slate color which was applied to it before the war.

Call for Troops.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—The question of calling out additional volunteers for continuing the war in the Philippines is expected to come up again at tomorrow's session of the cabinet.

Those opposed to organizing a provisional army favor sending more regulars to the Philippines, and also enlisting some of the peaceful Filipinos. But another element in the war department is opposed to half way measures in dealing with the situation. They are urging the president to issue at once a call for at least 20,000 men of the provisional army.

It is expected that the president will discuss all the phases of the situation with the cabinet tomorrow, and reach an early decision.

May Have All He Wants.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—"General Otis will be given all the men necessary successfully to carry out the plan adopted in the Philippines," said Secretary of War Alger tonight. General Otis needs at least 40,000 men, and 50,000 would better meet the exigencies of the situation in the Philippines. Mr. McKinley wants to avoid a call for more volunteers, and yet he can see no way of escaping it. General Otis needs at least 20,000 more men, and the other 15,000 of the force of 35,000 volunteers which the president may call for without further action of congress, are needed in the United States.

"It is not now a question of whether 35,000 volunteers are to be enlisted," said an authority tonight. "It is only a question of how soon the call shall be issued. Whether the president shall issue the call now, so that the men may be enlisted and put in shape for service by the close of the rainy season, or whether it shall be delayed two or three months and the campaign in the Philippines dragged into the next century, are points the president must decide."

MEMORIAL OBSERVANCES

The Patriotic People of Oregon City and Vicinity Appropriately Commemorate.

On Sunday union memorial services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church, and the building was more than crowded, many being unable to secure admission.

Meade Post, G. A. R., Relief Corps, Union Veterans Union and Woodmen of the World attended the services in a body. The church was tastily decorated with patriotic colors, evergreens, etc. Rev. Harold Oberg gave an eloquent, patriotic sermon.

Tuesday morning pupils from the various city and suburban public schools, and St. John's school, accompanied by their teachers, marched to Willamette hall and deposited their flowers. Here interesting and appropriate exercises were held and addresses made by Professor McAdam and Father Hillebrand and others. After the exercises, the children were dismissed and T. W. Sullivan, grand marshal, with chief of staff, Lieutenant W. A. Huntley, and aides, Dr. E. A. Sommer, J. P. Keating, E. L. Johnson, M. E. Willoughby, A. C. Sabin, H. E. Straight, Leighton Kelly, Emory Noble and W. E. Roake, with Frank Confer as bugler, formed the procession in the following order:

Portland Band.
Fife and drum corps.
Meade Post, G. A. R.
Meade Relief Corps.
Union Veterans Union.
Separate Company F, Captain Metzner.

Boys' Brigade, in charge of Alfred Weed.

Falls City Lodge No. 59, A. O. U. W., under the direction of W. M. Sheehan and W. B. Wiggins.

St. John's Branch, 649, Catholic Knights of America.

The line of march was from the front of Willamette hall up Main street to flouring mills; countermarch on Main to 14th; thence back to 10th, and up Singer hill to 7th; thence to Shively's opera house.

Here the grand marshal read his orders, and there was excellent singing by the Young Ladies' Chorus, under the direction of Miss Imo Harding. Rev. A. J. Montgomery offered the prayer "For the Boys in Blue," and an eloquent patriotic oration was given by Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

After these services the procession moved on to the cemetery, where Commander Harding gave an address and conducted the very impressive ritualistic services of the Grand Army. Adjutant Williams read the orders and address of Lincoln at Gettysburg; prayer was offered by Chaplain J. Doremus, and the monument was crowned by C. H. Dauchy, officer of the day. Colonel Robert A. Miller made his best effort in his response to "Our Unknown Dead." His address appealed to the patriotic feeling of his hearers, and was appreciatively received. After this came other ceremonies followed by the decoration of the graves.

E. W. Midlam, was chairman of the Grand Army general committee, and the Relief Corps committee was Mrs. Rosina Fouts, president; Mrs. Jennie B. Harding, Mrs. Millie Shadle, Mrs. Jennie Sullivan, Mrs. Mary Stafford, Mrs. Olive Albright, Mrs. Mary Charman, Mrs. Mary L. Bradley, secretary.

The parade and services was one of the best patriotic demonstrations ever given in this city. Mr. Sullivan made an excellent grand marshal, but the line of march was entirely too long, some of the older men growing faint, before they reached the top of the Singer hill. The program of the parade, which was set up in this office was used by another paper before it was printed here, but the foreman of that paper did not bring all the type back distributing three or four inches of it. This is why a portion of the program was left out of last week's paper.

Not Soldiers Enough.

CHICAGO, May 30.—The Times-Herald says:

Captain Charles D. Clay, of the seven tenth infantry, a grandson of Henry Clay, and a fighter at Santiago, has returned from Manila on sick leave. He was wounded near Malolos the 25th of March, 15 days after the landing of the transports. The bullet entered his neck, and has not been extracted. He went last night to his home in Lexington, Ky., but expects to go on to New York immediately for treatment. Concerning the war in the Philippines, he said:

Volunteers vie with the regulars for gallantry. The heroism of both is superb. The First Nebraska and Twentieth Kansas regiments are equal to any on earth. And the war now going on is as difficult and difficult a passage of arms as any in our annals. A handful of men are waging a war there against incomparable odds. With 75,000 or 100,000 men we could sweep the island in 30 days and avert the tremendous mortality that is now as certain as fate.

"General Lawton had the eye of the soldier when he said 100,000 men were needed. We have not troops enough to occupy what we conquer. The place at which I was wounded had been taken three times before, and as many times abandoned because we had not the force to hold it. That is the case everywhere. Manila is a great city, full of thousands of men ready to rise at a moment's notice. It requires 15,000 men to hold down Manila. Some 5,000 are in hospitals or useless, and that leaves barely 10,000 men to beat the Filipinos in the field and hold what is gained."

Paint Talks (No. 4)

People have been humbugged so much with worthless guarantees that it is hard to make them believe that I am really anxious to know when anything they buy of me is not entirely satisfactory. Only last week I found out by chance that six years ago a good customer of mine used Masury's Paint, and it went back on him some way or other—peeled off and was unsatisfactory.

I immediately wrote the Masury Co. regarding this and even at this late date they propose to make this job right—they would gladly have done so five years ago had they been given an opportunity.

Masury's manager writes me that they guarantee their Paint to wear longer and go farther gallon, for gallon, than any other paint made. One can easily believe this when they stand back of it as they have in the case cited above. I am trying to conduct my whole store on these lines—everything must be exactly as represented and when it is not, you ought to let me know it—your co-operation is necessary.
