SCHOOL GOSSIP. Matters of an Educational Nature.

The name of O. H. Byland should not have appeared at the bottom of the proceedings of the Clackamas County Educational Association printed last week. A typo in this office has a mania for putting signatures at the end of every article that he sets up, and seeing Mr. Byland's name attached to the article, Mr. Byland is not so egotistical as to be the author of article advertising himself.

County Superintendent N. W. Bowland announces that there will be an apportionment of school funds under the new law on the first Monday in July. Under the new school law the county superintendent will make apportionments four times during the year on the first Mondays in January, April, July and October.

Superintendent Bowland announces that the annual Clackamas county teachers' institute will begin Monday, August 21st, and continue in session five days. The instructors will be Prof. J. C. Zinser, of the Barclay school, and Prof. E. A. Milner, of the Portland High school, while Miss Mary Hargreaves, of Silver Lake, Wash., will conduct the primary department.

The county superintendent attended the closing exercises of the Stafford and Frog Pond schools last Friday. The teachers, Mrs. H. B. Rinearson and Miss Jennie Noble, held their closing exercises. A splendid program was presented and an excellent dinner was served by the people of that neighborhood.

Miss Maud Salisbury, of Gladstone, will close a very satisfactory term of school at Mulino next week.

Ten bright boys and girls received their graduation diplomas at the graduating exercises of the West Oregon City schools held Saturday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated, and the class motto, "We Have Reached The Hills, The Mountains Lie Beyond," conspicuously displayed was impressive in its meaning.

The members of the class of '99, were: Helen Ruth Shipley, Lorena M. Gallegly, Edith C. Gallegly, Sarah Josephine Hughes, Margaret A. Goodfellow, Howard Strickler, Maymie E. Ward, Steve Chambers, Effie Belle Kiser, Ernest Cramer.

The class members acquitted themselves very creditably in the following program: Composition—"Rowing, Not Drifting," Lorena Gallegly. Recitation—"John Burns of Gettysburg," Ernest Cramer.

An unusually promising class of nine graduated from the Parkplace high school last evening.

The decorations were elaborate. The class flowers were pink and white carnation, and the class colors were white and red. The class motto was "Act that each tomorrow Finds us farther than today."

Edna A. Jewell, Wreath of Quotations. Elizabeth Evans, Valedictory. An excellent musical program was given by the best local talent and the Dewey orchestra.

The Glad Tidings M. E. camp meeting will commence June 23 and continue until July 2, holding over the fourth Sunday in June and first Sunday in July. There is a nice camp ground, plenty of wood, water and shelter. There will be plenty of ministerial help. Come and stay through the entire meeting. Glad Tidings is three miles south of Marquam. J. M. SHULSE, Pastor.

At the residence of her son, David Robeson, near Meadowbrook, on the 6th inst., Mrs. Abigail Robeson aged 87 years, three months and twelve days, passed from life across the mystic river from whose silent shore comes no solution of man's futurity. Grandma Robeson was born in Lancaster, Pa., of German parentage, Feb. 25, 1812. Her maiden name was Sherry. She grew to womanhood in her native state and was united in marriage to Geo. Robeson in 1831. Thirteen children were born to them; 5 sons and 8 daughters. Only 3 sons and 3 daughters survive their mother. Only two of her children live in Oregon; Mrs. J. Clark Taylor, of Oregon City, and her oldest son, David Robeson, a pioneer of 1843, who in 1878 brought his parents here from Iowa. His father was totally blind for several years previous to his death in August 1887, at the age of 84 years.

For ten years Grandma Robeson has been a helpless invalid from paralysis at David Robeson's home, where his daughter, Jessie, has devoted the most loving care to her aged grandmother, when her girlhood companions were enjoying the recreations dear to youthful hearts, Miss Jessie was devoting her hours to her tender consolation of her grand parent. The remains of the deceased were interred at the Bonney cemetery at 4 p. m. the 6th inst. Rev. John Park, of Elwood, delivered the funeral sermon at the grave, where scores of friends gathered to pay their last respects to a true wife, a devoted mother and a faithful friend. Meadowbrook, June 7. E. A. W.

Miss Jennie White and Harold Eccles went to Portland Sunday on a visit. The exercises at the Christian church Sunday morning were well attended and the singing and speaking was excellent. Children's Day exercises will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday. Mrs. Welden Shank was in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kocher were in Oregon City Monday. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lee were visiting relatives in Canby Sunday.

Messrs Gregory, Miller and Allie Rogers, of Portland, were visitors of L. Rogers Sunday.

Canby was nearly visited by a tragedy Saturday as Frank was on the war path and wanted to break a few bones of one of the "electric show."

F. Zollner has the measles. Our town is getting very lively now days. Sunday afternoon as many as two men were to be seen on the street at one time.

Prof. H. S. Gibson was a visitor in our city Thursday. Mrs. T. Stalmsaker is quite sick with typhoid fever.

We have a fine wheel path west of town as far as Sleight's Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for B. C. Tuesday morning, after a visit of several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. S. Terry. L. Rogers and Mr. Miers are building a barn for Mr. Randall, of New Era. Strawberries are ripe on the prairie so we can soon be looking for strawberry socials.

There was a fine guess of 2127 on the quilt, between Mr. Armstrong and Wm. Bissel, Jr. There will be another social in Eyan's hall Friday night.

B. White and E. Smith run their wheels together Tuesday and broke them up in good shape. June 7.

Well, what is going to happen, it isn't raining to day? Miss New was called home last Friday. Her mother is very sick. The consequences are there is no school this week.

Quite a number of the people in this vicinity gathered at the cemetery Decoration Day and decorated the graves. There was speaking by Mr. Embree, of Salmon.

C. W. Harris and S. C. Osborn have gone to the logging camp. Katie Cook is staying with Mrs. Richardson.

A young gentleman of Cherryville went up the river last Sunday and failed to return in time for Sunday school. He says he got lost, but that story is too thin, George, bring her with you next time, but don't fail to attend Sunday school.
