LOCAL AND PERSONAL

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery's topic at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, will be "The Sin of Pride."

Numerous Oregon City people went to Portland Monday to see the circus, and pronounced it a success.

There was a good representation of Oregon City people on the conductor's excursion to Salem last Sunday.

The Canemah and Company F teams played baseball at Willamette Falls last Sunday. The score was 33 to 26 in favor of the latter.

A party of well known citizens went to Clackamas Heights last Sunday to hold an old-time picnic. And they had it. A friend had a stock of compressed hard cider, and they got all they wanted. In fact, they forgot to open the keg of beer they took along.

Fish Commissioner F. C. Reed and Secretary of State Dunbar left Sunday morning for the upper Clackamas to determine the location of the proposed hatchery building. Men have been busy for some weeks getting out timbers for the proposed structure.

Mrs. Cora B. Tawney and Walter Cotty, both of Sunnyside, were married in the county clerk's office at the court house Tuesday afternoon. Justice Schuebel officiated. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Wise, and the groom is a young man, also favorably known in that section.

Miss Ada Albee was lighting a match Friday night, which flew over one shoulder setting her clothing on fire and severely burning the flesh on her back. She was rolled on the floor until the flames were extinguished. A physician was called and she is now on the road to recovery.

The committees in Portland, who are arranging for the reception of National Editorial Association visitors, say that Oregon City will not be overlooked. The editors will be shown all through the electrical company's plant, the paper and other Oregon City industries. Not a single item of interest will be overlooked.

It is now claimed that there is a probability of the Oswego iron works starting up again. A temporary run was made last week to fill an order for the O. R. & N. Co. For about two years the costly plant and machinery has lain idle, and it would prove a veritable boom for Oswego, if the works should start up again.

There is reported to be a very good attendance at the M. E. church, south, camp meeting now being held at Teasel creek, and numerous campers in evidence. Rev. T. P. Haynes is assisted in the meetings by Revs. D. C. McFarland, of Junction City, and C. U. Cross, of Grant's Pass. The meetings will continue over next Sunday.

Superintendent W. F. Hubbard and J. N. Weissner, of the Clackamas hatchery, returned a few days ago from Baker's Lake, Wash., where they went to inspect the state hatchery, which will probably be turned over to the United States fish commission. Mr. Hubbard is getting racks ready to put in the river at the hatchery to secure salmon eggs when the water goes down. No eggs were caught at the hatchery last year.

Charles E. Runyon, the circuit court reporter for this district, left last Friday for San Francisco. He returned on the overland Tuesday morning, accompanied by Miss Florence A. Bishop, of Santa Rosa, and her mother. During the forenoon, Miss Bishop and Mr. Runyon were married at the home of Judge T. A. McBride, who also officiated. During the afternoon Mr. Runyon attended to his court duties, and later in the evening the bridal party left for Portland.

Jacob Schildhauer, formerly of the Crown paper mills, who is home for a furlough, after serving a three-years' enlistment on the battleship Oregon, has a silver pitcher on exhibition, that he secured in an officer's room on board the Cristobal Colon, when that vessel was sinking. It was evidently used for a water pitcher, and is engraved with a Spanish crown and the initial letters of the battleship. Mr. Schildhauer was offered $50 for the souvenir in New York City, but declined to part with it.
