The Silverton Appeal has the following: One day last week Harris Ridings, of Marquam, went to see a party, whose name we did not learn, about a gun trade. While examining the good points of the gun a China pheasant came along and Ridings shot it. He bought the gun and went away. The other party immediately went to Marquam and had Ridings arrested for violating the game law. Ridings pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. Ridings then had the other party arrested for an accomplice in shooting the bird and he was arrested and also fined $5 and costs. He is not so anxious now about seeing the law enforced.
