He became demented early last week, and on Wednesday was put on the train to be sent home. He left the train at Roseburg but was found at Oakland Tuesday. His attack of dementia was a surprise to his friends.

The people of Shubel will have a good, old-fashioned picnic at the farm of Michael Moehne, The programme will consist of speaking and singing in the forenoon, and in the afternoon there will be a series of bicycle races, foot races, three-legged races, sack races and a turn stake horse race. There will be plenty of refreshments and other amusements. In addition to the above there will be a girl's race, orange race, greased pole, besides both singing and instrumental music.

Oregon City had two graduates at the agricultural college at Corvallis last week—Willie Beach and Miss Lawrence. The former has secured a position there, and the latter returned home early in the week. Mr. Beach has secured a position at Corvallis and will remain there. The Corvallis Union-Gazette has the following: "The salutatory 'Thresh-olds,' by Daisy Lyle Lawrence, was dignified in its delivery, broad in its conception, elegant in its style. Her review of the political conditions of the nation as they pause at the threshold of the 20th century was sagacious and statesmanlike."

The Oregon City Southern Railway has filed articles of incorporation in the secretary of state's office with W. H. Burghardt, Elmer Dixon and W. A. Huntley as incorporators. The capital stock is $500,000. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Company held Monday night the following board of directors were elected: W. A. Huntley, Elmer Dixon, Charles Holman, William Vaughan and W. H. Burghardt. The board of directors then elected the following officers: President, W. H. Burghardt; vice-president, Elmer Dixon; secretary, S. M. Moody. This road will be built south in the direction of McLalla, Willott and Silverton. Last fall Mr. Burghardt secured a franchise to build a railway line several miles out on the Higham road from the county court.
